Nationally Competitive

The Carnegie Foundation classifies the University of Arkansas among the few U.S. colleges and universities with the highest level of research activity. Each year, our students win national scholarships that support their academic and career goals.

Coleman Warren, an honors industrial engineering and political science student, was named a 2022 Rhodes Scholar and a 2021 Truman Scholar. After studying comparative social policy at Oxford University, he plans a career addressing societal inequities, specifically child hunger.

Student Centered

Study abroad is an important part of the college experience for many students, and the U of A offers support and advice every step of the way. For El Dorado native Breanna Kilgore, coming to the U of A meant expanding her world both literally and figuratively. An honors biomedical engineering student, she received a Benjamin A. Gilman Scholarship to study global health and public policy in Switzerland.

University Housing

University Housing strives to create a community. More than just a place to sleep, residence halls at the University of Arkansas provide space to live, learn and develop lifelong friendships. Consider being part of a Living Learning Community (LLC), a small group of students who live together, share an interest and have access to special programs designed for the LLC.

For more information about living on campus, visit housing.uark.edu.

Campus Dining

The U of A offers a variety of meal plans from Campus Dining with a mix of dietary options prepared by skilled chefs and dedicated staff. Stop by the "all-you-care-to-eat" dining halls or the food court in the Arkansas Union. Visit one of the many restaurants on campus, or grab a quick snack at one of the several campus convenience stores or coffee shops.

For more information about dining on campus, visit housing.uark.edu/dining.

Student Success

Student Success at the U of A provides outreach, programs and resources to help students with academic success, such as tutoring, writing studio, supplemental instruction and peer academic coaching. The Offices of Career Connections helps U of A students discover their interests, values and skills, and prepares them to start a career after graduation.

For more information visit success.uark.edu.

University Recreation

The four-story Health, Physical Education and Recreation building, a part of University Recreation (UREC), offers students access to an Olympic-sized swimming pool, an indoor track, workout and weight room, climbing walls, gymnasiums, outdoor rental equipment and much more. UREC facilitates club sport teams that compete against other collegiate club teams. Students can sign up for university-led outdoor trips ranging from day hikes to week-long backpacking trips to the Grand Canyon.

For more information about club sports and recreation on campus, visit urec.uark.edu.

Honors College

The University of Arkansas Honors College brings together top students and professors to share transformative learning experiences. Being part of the Honors College will allow you to:

- Participate in honors courses on interdisciplinary, cutting-edge topics
- Study abroad at sites around the globe
- Conduct hands-on research with a faculty member
- Engage with local and global communities through service learning
- Serve as a leader on campus and beyond
- Make lifelong friends in the honors community

Honors students are encouraged to apply for competitive grants to support research, service learning, internships and study abroad. Each year the Honors College awards more than 90 freshman fellowships that provide up to $80,000 over four years. In addition, the Honors College annually offers more than $1.2 million in research and study abroad grants to current honors students.

Senior Induction

A new tradition that started in 2019, students celebrate their induction into the Honors College Senior Common Room with a new coat of arms.

The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching places the U of A in its highest research category.

New Freshman Honors College Requirements

Students who have at least a 28 ACT Composite on one exam (1310 SAT) AND a 3.75 high school GPA will be invited to apply for automatic admission to the Honors College after they have been admitted to the University of Arkansas.

Students who have at least a 3.90 high school GPA but do not have the necessary ACT/SAT score for automatic admission will be invited to complete an application that includes an essay and academic resume during their senior year. Students who qualify for this application will receive an email invitation with instructions on how to complete the application soon after they are admitted.

If you don't meet the requirements for honors when you enter the U of A, you may be eligible to join as a current student once you establish a strong academic record at the university. You should consult the honors program director in your academic college for specific information on honors eligibility requirements.

For more information visit honorscollege.uark.edu.

Curvahedra

A spherical steel structure 12 feet in diameter brings beauty and some exciting ideas in mathematics and sustainable construction to the quiet courtyard at Gearhart Hall.

Study Abroad

Learning extends beyond the classroom at the University of Arkansas. Students interview Tibetan refugees in India, study art and economics at the University's Rome Center, engage in complex "glocal" issues through the Arkansas Changemakers Program and make lasting connections at partner universities all over the world. For more information, visit studyabroad.uark.edu.

Who is eligible to study abroad?

University of Arkansas students who are in good academic standing and who have completed at least 24 credit hours with the U of A are eligible to look into study abroad. Every study abroad program may have its own requirements beyond these basics, so check the program application for more on the specific expectations for your program.

How do I fund my study abroad?

Most of the scholarships and financial aid that you currently receive at the University of Arkansas may be used to study abroad on an approved study abroad program. In addition, there are multiple funding opportunities for non-Honors and Honors students through colleges, departments, and special funding sources for U of A students.

Northwest Arkansas

Fayetteville is nestled in the Northwest Arkansas metroplex. The area is home to some of the biggest names in business, healthcare and non-profit industries, which provide unparalleled career and internship opportunities for U of A students. The Northwest Arkansas region consistently ranks among the best places to live, according to U.S. News and World Report.

Pinnacle Hills Promenade in Rogers offers the region's newest, open-air shopping experience with many of the nation's most popular shops and eateries. The Razorback Greenway is a 40-mile-long paved bicycle trail through rolling forest and pasture that connects Fayetteville to Bentonville while passing numerous museums, parks and retail facilities. Be sure to explore Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art, a world-class museum featuring collections that include several works considered masterpieces. Crystal Bridges regularly hosts traveling exhibitions, offers miles of wilderness trails and a unique dining experience. And if that's not enough, admission is free.

Home of the RAZORBACKS®

The University of Arkansas is home to one of the most successful intercollegiate athletics programs in the nation. With 19 varsity sports programs, the Razorbacks consistently rank among the best in the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and nationally.

Razorback student-athletes also succeed both on the field and in the classroom. In 2022-23, Arkansas won two NCAA and five SEC championships and for the third-consecutive year ranked in the top-15 of the Learfield Directors' Cup, a competition that tracks the most successful athletics programs in the country. In 2022-23, 98 percent of Razorback student-athletes that completed their athletics eligibility also added their names to Senior Walk as graduates of the University of Arkansas.

The Arkansas Razorbacks don't just represent the University of Arkansas – they are the pride of the entire state. There is nothing like the experience of 'Calling the Hogs' with thousands of your closest friends. The Hog Call is one of the most unique and recognizable chants in all of sports. And it's loud – really loud.

The U of A also hosts a large variety of club and intramural sports, which are some of the most popular student activities. Over 3,000 students each year participate in various organized sports both on campus and against intercollegiate teams.

Financial Assistance

- 1 Complete the scholarship application, no later than November 15 for priority scholarship consideration. ACT or SAT scores are required for scholarship and fellowship consideration.
- 2 Search for private scholarships through local businesses, civic groups, places of worship and your high school counseling office. Also, check websites such as fastweb.com for lists of additional scholarships.
- 3 As the largest provider of student financial aid in the nation, the Department of Education's Federal Student Aid program might be the most worthwhile financial aid program to apply for. Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as soon as possible (expected to open after December 1 for 2024-25 academic year) for the greatest consideration. New students should submit the FAFSA no later than February 1 for consideration for Advance Arkansas and other need-based scholarships. If you are a dependent, you will need your parent or guardian's tax information to complete the FAFSA. Fill out the FAFSA online at fafsa.gov using the University of Arkansas code: 001108.
- 4 Review the Student Aid Report (SAR) that will be sent to you after your FAFSA is processed. It will include a federally calculated Student Aid Index (SAI) and outline any additional required steps you should complete.
- 5 Receive your award notice from the University of Arkansas, which may include grants, loans and work-study, as well as merit-based awards and scholarships. This notice may not include all awards.

For more information about financial aid, visit finaid.uark.edu.

Scholarships

To be considered for academic scholarships, apply for admission and submit all transcripts and test scores by November 1. Then complete the online scholarship application and submit required supplemental materials by November 15 for priority consideration. Students who miss the November 15 deadline may apply until February 1 for consideration as funds allow.

Visit scholarships.uark.edu for more information about scholarships and honors.uark.edu for information about fellowships.

At least one of the three selections should be a work that was not required for you to read for school. Please note books that were required class reading.

2 Essay

Write a well-developed essay (600 words maximum) on ONE of the following:

- Identify an invention or idea that was developed more than 100 years ago that still has a major effect on the way we live today. How has this technology or idea affected your life?
- Identify an artist or innovator in the world today who inspires you. Tell us why.
- What does community service mean to you? How do you envision yourself serving in the future?

Note: You must cite sources if you use published or web-based information in your response.

3 Activities

In order of significance, describe up to eight activities. You may include academic, athletic or talent competitions, school and community leadership roles, research or creative endeavors, summer academic camps, music or theater involvement, and service projects or work-related endeavors. Please indicate your role and the amount of time associated with each activity.

You can use up to 100 words to describe each activity you list.

4 Awards and Honors

In order of importance, describe up to five academic awards or honors you have earned during high school. Be sure to indicate when you earned them.

You can use up to 100 words to describe each award you list.
