Jurors' Report.

WAX AND CHURCH CANDLES—"EXCELLENCE OF QUALITY."

The only Medal awarded for Church Candles.

FRANCIS TUCKER & Co. have the pleasure to acquaint the Right Rev. the Bishops, the Very Rev. and Rev. the Clergy of the Catholic Church, and the heads of RELIGIOUS HOUSES, that a Medal was awarded to them by the Jurors of the International Exhibition for excellence of quality of Wax Candles, and of Candles made of a vegetable material, which is the only instance, they believe, amongst the number of foreign and English exhibitors, of a prize having been obtained for Church Candles.

Supported by the patronage of his Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster, and by the distinction they have won in the International Exhibition, FRANCIS TUCKER & Co. hope to receive a continuance of the preference which has been given to them for so many years.

HIS EMINENCE THE LATE CARDINAL WISEMAN,

in a Letter to

FRANCIS TUCKER & CO.,

on the subject of

WAX CANDLES WITH PLATTED WICKS, says, "I have found them fully equal to the recommendation which you give of them, and can sincerely, in my turn, recommend them to the Clergy for the use of the altar."

Wax Candles are made of any length and diameter, suitable to Altar purposes and to the requirements of the Services of the Church.

Prize-Medal Vegetable Candles

PRIZE MEDAL, INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, 1862.

Caution.—As Candles are sold under the name of Rock Wax, and other similar titles, by which the Clergy may be led to suppose they are made of Bees' Wax, F. T. & Co. beg to say that these names are fictitious, and the Candles so described do not, in most instances, contain even a particle of Wax.

M. F. DENT,
WATCH, CLOCK, AND CHRONOMETER MAKER
BY SPECIAL APPOINTMENT
To Her Majesty the Queen,
33 COCKSPUR STREET, CHARING CROSS, London.

Dent's Chronometers, Watches, and Clocks
Have long held preëminent rank, as may be seen from the Reports of various Scientific Persons.

ADMIRALTY, WHITEHALL, 13th August 1870.

THE ASTRONOMER ROYAL (G. B. AIREY, Esq.), in his Report to the Admiralty of this date (on forty Chronometers by various makers entered for the annual competition), adjudges M. F. DENT'S Chronometer to stand FIRST IN THE ORDER OF MERIT. His opinion of its excellence is thus expressed :

"No. 1. M. F. DENT (33 Cockspur Street), 25,334."

"This is the finest Chronometer that we have ever had on trial."

N.B. The late Astronomer Royal (J. POND, Esq.), reporting in 1829 on the celebrated public trial, by order of the Lords of the Admiralty, which lasted 13 years (during which nearly 500 Chronometers were tested), says :

"Your Chronometer, No. 114, is entitled to the First Premium.
Actual variation in the year 0.54 hundredths of a second. This is superior to any other yet tried."

THE RUSSIAN IMPERIAL ASTRONOMER, M. STRUVE, of St. Petersburg, reporting upon 81 Chronometers tested by the Russian Chronometrical Expedition in 1843, says :

"The Dent Chronometers have held first rank in a brilliant manner.
They contributed, beyond dispute, the most effectually to the exactitude of the results. M. STRUVE."

By command of the Emperor, the Russian Gold Medal of the highest order of merit was presented to Mr. DENT.

In testimony of the excellence of DENT'S TURRET CLOCKS,
G. B. AIREY, Esq., Astronomer Royal, says :

"Royal Observatory, Greenwich, 22d July 1845.

"I believe the Clock which you have constructed for the Royal Exchange to be the best in the world as regards accuracy of going and striking. G. B. AIREY.

"MR. DENT, 33 Cockspur Street, Charing Cross."

SIR WILLIAM ARMSTRONG, Inventor of the Armstrong Gun, says :

"9 Hyde Park Street, W., 14th Nov. 1861.

"The Chronometer Watch you made for me in December 1869 has never been affected by travelling or riding ; its variation at the end of a year was only 45 seconds. It has proved in every respect a most satisfactory Watch. W. G. ARMSTRONG.

PREFACE.

THE 'Catholic Directory, Ecclesiastical Register, and Almanac,' is published yearly in December.

Many copies are prepared especially for the Clergy. But these copies (sometimes called simply the 'Ordo,' or the 'large Ordo') differ from the others, only in the Ecclesiastical Calendar at the beginning of the book; which for the Clergy is the Latin Ordo recitandi Officii Divini, &c., and for the Laity an abridgement of the said Ordo in English. The Latin Ordo is also sold separately.

Neither trouble nor expense is spared in endeavouring to make the Directory as accurate as possible: but much must always depend upon the kindness of those who either may be expected, or may be able, to supply the Editor with correct information.

Communications for the Editor are to be addressed to the Rev. W. A. Johnson, Archbishop's House, Westminster, London, S.W.; and it is requested that information for next year's Directory may be forwarded before October 25th. Changes of names and other slight changes, occurring after that date, will be inserted as far as possible, if communicated to him by Nov. 15th.

Names for the Obituary or Anniversary List, Notices for Part IV., and general Advertisements, are to be sent before Nov. 15th, not to the Editor, but to the Publishers, Messrs. Burns and Oates, 17 Portman-street, London, W.—For conditions of insertion see next page.

In the notices of services many abbreviations of words are used, of which an explanatory table is given on page 97.

Where the same Priest remains in charge of a mission, and no notice has been received of any change of services, the hours of service are printed as in the previous year. Where another Priest has been appointed, it is sometimes thought better, if no instructions have been received, to reprint only a few of the more important services.

For the insertion of names in the Clergy List only, or in the List of Clergy residing abroad, instructions must be sent each year.

Dec. 1st, 1875.

For latest changes and corrections see page viii.

Obituary and Anniversary Notices. For insertions in the Obituary, not exceeding two lines, a charge is made of 2s. 6d.; and of 1s. for inserting name and date in the list of Anniversaries. But the names of Priests who have died upon the Mission in England will be inserted gratis, once in the Obituary, and for five years after their death in the list of Anniversaries.

Information as to charges for Notices in Part IV., and for general Advertisements, is to be obtained of the Publishers.

The Catholic Sheet Almanac (price 2d.), beautifully printed in red and black, and containing a large amount of Catholic and general information, is published now for the third year.

The Directory was preceded early in the last century by the Ordo recitandi Officii Divini, &c. In 1782 were added to the Ordo the conditions for gaining the eight Plenary Indulgences; in 1787 an Obituary of Clergy and Laity; and in 1791 a notice of schools.

In 1793 was issued, by the publishers of the Ordo, the Laity's Directory for Church Service, &c., which, besides directions in English for the Divine Office and the Holy Mass, contained a list of Chapels in and near London. The two publications were continued for nearly fifty years, the Laity's Directory increasing from time to time in the amount of its information.

In 1838 appeared for the first time the Catholic Directory, &c. After a year the Laity's Directory was discontinued; and in 1840 the Catholic Directory, together with the Ordo, was published 'permissu superiorum,' that is, in respect to the Ordo and to the official parts of the Directory, with Episcopal sanction.

DE ORATIONE QUADRAGINTA HORARUM.

1. In Expositione et Repositione SSmi Sacramenti (exceptis diebus privilegiatis ut infra sub numero 3) celebratur Missa Votiva SS Sacr, cum Gloria, Credo et Præf Nat, omissa qualibet Commemoratione vel Collecta. Infra Oct tamen Corporis Christi, Missa erit de Octava cum unic or et sequentia. (Col alb.)

2. Die intermedia (exceptis privilegiatis ut infra sub n° 3) celebratur Missa Votiva pro Pace, vel alia, arbitrio Ordinarii, cum commemoratione SSmi Sacramenti sub unica concl (omissis aliis orationibus) et Præf de Tempore. Si color Missæ conveniens sit violaceus, omittitur Gloria et etiam (exceptis Dominicis) Credo, si tamen color sit albus vel ruber, dicuntur Gloria et Credo.

NB. Hæc M celebrari nequit in Altari, in quo exponitur SS Sacr, nec in illo in quo asservatur pro Communione Fidelium.

3. Dies privilegiati sunt—Dom 1 et 2 cl, Fest 1 et 2 cl, Fer 4 Cinerum, tota hebdom maj, dies infra Octt Pasch, Pentec et Epiph, Vigil Pent, et Vigil Nat. In diebus istis, tum in Expositione et Repositione tum die intermedia, loco Missæ Votivæ canenda est M diei currentis, cum oratione SSmi Sac, vel pro Pace vel alia sub unica conclusione, omissis aliis commemorationibus—Occurrente tamen Fest 1 vel 2 cl die Dom, fit com Dom sub propria concl, et in fine legitur ejus Évangélium. Tempore Expositionis prohibentur M Def, excepto die Commem Omnium Fidelium Def, quando adhibetur color violaceus.

DE SOLEMNITATE S PATRONI

Propria die Celebranda.

A Rubricis Missalis et Breviarii multisque SRC decretis enumerantur Feriæ, Dominicæ et alia quædam festa, quæ excludunt quodcumque Officium licet maxime solemne, e.g. de Patron Princip, de Dedicat pr Eccles et cætera festa etiam quæ ritu gaudent 1 cl et maxima a populo celebrantur festivitate.

OFFICIUM festorum, quæ incidunt in prædictos dies, celebrare non licet, sed transferendum est quo modo a Rubricis præscribitur. FESTUM autem seu solemnitas exterior, quoniam illa die statuta est, celebrari eadem die debet, nisi ex privilegio aliter fiat; siquidem Indulgentia, quæ sæpe conceditur, numquam cum Officio translata censetur.

Quamobrem Missæ privatæ omnes et Officium totum erunt de fer vel die privilegiata. Permittitur tamen una Missa solemnis (cum ornatu et colore convenientibus) de Officio transferendo, exceptis diebus a Rubrica numeratis (scil Dom 1 Adv, fer 4 Cin, Dom 1 Quad, Dom Palm cum tota hebdom maj, tribus festis Resurr et Pent, Nat Dni, Epiph, Ascens et Corp Xti) in quibus etiam M Solemn concordare debet cum Officio.

De eadem Solemnitate in Dominicam sequentem translata.

Vigore Rescripti SSmi dati die 14 Maii 1853, Episcopi Angliæ “concedere possunt ut celebretur Missa S Patroni Loci vel Sancti sub cuius invocatione Ecclesia constituta existit, Dom proxime sequenti festum ipsum, absque ulla immutatione in reliquis Officii currentis, dummodo non agatur de Dom vel festo ex solemnioribus.” Super translatione Indulgentiarum, vid Rescr 9 Aug 1852 (Synod Prov Westmon II, p. 82).

NB. In M unica de S Patrono ad hunc modum celebrata (sive die propria sive Dom seq) dicuntur Gl et Cr et (nisi cantata fuerit alia M de die cur) fit com diei cum aliis in ipso occurrentibus et dicitur Evang Dom in fine. Si tamen cantetur alia M de Off diei, M S Patroni celebratur cum unic or et Evang S Joannis in fine. Præf dicenda est ad normam M Vot juxta Tabulam, p 4, et nunquam de S Trinitate (SRG, 22 Julii 1848 in Tornacens).

DE ORATIONE “A CUNCTIS” ET SUFFRAGIIS SS.

1. Per Litteras Aplicas die 7 Julii 1871, Ssmus Dnus Pius IX decrevit, ut in Oratione “A cunctis” adjiciatur semper post invocationem BMV et ante quoscunque alios SS Patronos, exceptis Angelis et S Joanne Bapt, commemoratio S Josephi per hæc verba “cum Beato Joseph;” item, ut eodem ordine servato, inter Suffr SS apponatur commem in honorem ejusdem S Josephi.

2. Supplicantibus Archiepiscopo et Episcopis Angliæ die 24 Maii 1863, Ssmus Dnus Pius IX benigne concessit, ut “donec S Sedes declaraverit propter Angliæ adjuncta Decreta ordinaria esse observanda, in SS Suffr atque in Or ‘A cunctis’ commemoratio S Georgii tantum fiat [post com SS Apostolorum] omissa commemoratione aliorum SS, præterquam in casu Ordinum Regularium quoad commem sui Fundatoris; et salvis privilegiis a S Sede concessis.”

IN SUFFRAGIIS SANCTORUM,

Commem S Josephi, Sponsi BMV et Patroni Ecclesie Catholice.

Ad Vesp. Ant. Ecce fidelis servus et prudens, quem constituit Dominus super familiam suam.

V. Gloriæ et divitiæ in domo ejus,

R. Et justitia ejus manet in sæculum sæculi.

Ad Laud. Ant. Ipse Jesus erat incipiens quasi annorum triginta, ut putabatur Filius Joseph.

V. Os justi meditabitur sapientiam,

R. Et lingua ejus loquetur judicium.

ORATIO. Deus, qui ineffabili providentia Beatum Joseph Sanctissimæ Genitricis tuæ Sponsum eligere dignatus es, præsta quæsumus, ut quem protectorem veneramus in terris, intercessorem habere mereamur in cælis.

Commem S Georgii, Patroni Regni.

Ad Vesperas et Laudes. Ant. Sancti per fidem vicerunt regna, operati sunt justitiam, adepti sunt repromotiones.

V. Scuto bonæ voluntatis tuæ,

R. Coronasti eum, Domine.

ORATIO. Deus, qui nos beati Georgii Martyris tui meritis et intercessione lætificas: concede propitius, ut qui tua per eum beneficia poscimus, dono tuæ gratiæ consequamur.

Et sic dicitur infra Octavam ejusdem S Martyris.

IN DIOECESI HAGULSTADENSI ET NOVICASTRENSI,
Ex privilegio fit Com de S Cuthberto CP, loco S Georgii.

IN DIOECESI NORTHANTONIENSI,

Ante Com S Georgii fit Com S Thomæ MP, Patroni Diœcesis.

Ad Vesp et Laud. Ant. Ego sum Pastor bonus, et cognosco oves meas, et cognoscunt me meæ, et animam meam pono pro ovibus meis.

V. In patientia vestra,

R. Possidebitis animas vestras.

ORATIO. Deus, pro cuius Ecclesia gloriosus Pontifex Thomas gladiis impiorum occubuit: præsta quæsumus; ut omnes, qui ejus implorant auxilium, petitionis suæ salutarem consequantur effectum.

IN DIOECESI PLYMUTHENSI,

Ante Com S Georgii fit Com S Bonifacii MP, Patroni Diœcesis.

Ad Vesp et Laud. Ant. Multas gentes, multa hominum millia Christo acquisivit Beatus Bonifacius: magnam remunerationem cum sanctis Apostolis vir Apostolicus in cœlis comparavit.

V. Confortamini in Domino, confortamini,

R. Ut cum Deo in æternum vivere possitis.

ORATIO. Deus, qui multitudinem populorum Beati Bonifacii Martyris tui atque Pontificis zelo ad agnitionem tui nominis vocare dignatus es: concede propitius; ut ejus memoriam colimus, etiam patrocina sentiamus.

Et sic dicitur infra Octavam ejusdem S Martyris.

N.B. Ex privilegio nominatur S Bonifacius in or 'A cunctis.'

ORATIONES PRO FIDEI PROPAGATIONE.

In Festis propriis Societatis Propagationis Fidei (die 3 Maii, in Invent S Crucis; et die 3 Dec, in Fest S Francisci Xaverii) ubicumque nunc exstat prædicta Societas, vel in posterum exstabit, cuilibet Sacerdoti addere licet in M Orr de M Vot pro Fidei Prop, sub una concl, quando Festa præfata fiunt sub ritu dup 1 cl, servatis de cæterò Rubricis. SRC 9 Augusti 1841.

MISSA PRO POPULO.

Juxta Decreta S Congregationis de Propaganda Fide, diebus 23 Martii 1863 et 3 Decembris 1866 data, in Anglia quum nondum constitutæ sint Parœciæ proprie dictæ, Reverendissimi Episcopi soli tenentur ad applicandam Missam pro Populo.

Ex charitate tamen decet etiam Rectores Missionarios et alios Sacerdotes, in qualibet Missione solos vel primos, diebus Dominicis et aliis Festis, pro Populo sibi commisso Sacrificium offerre.

Juxta Rescripta diei 18 Jul 1847 et 3 Dec 1866, applicatio fit diebus Dom, fest de præcepto et aliis suis locis in Calendario notatis.

BENEDICTIO SSMI SACRAMENTI.

In Conventu Eporum Angliæ die 2 Maii 1867 habita, statutum fuit, ut Benedictio Ssmi Sacr, quæ die Dom in omnibus Ecclesiis fieri solet, Dominica secunda in singulis mensibus ad Angliæ conversionem impetrandam offerretur. Quod quidem ut diligenter fiat Revmi Archiepiscopus et Episcopi Clerum enixe exhortantur.

NOTIFICATIO

Promulganda in Ecclesiis tum Londin., tum Liverp., et in Diocesis Beverlacensi et Suthwarcensi, Dominica prima cujuslibet trimestris.

Relatives, Sponsors and Friends of Poor Catholic Children, and Catholics generally, are requested to take notice of the following Instructions:

1. When a Poor Catholic Child is under the necessity of going into the Workhouse, the Priest of the District should, if possible, be informed of it beforehand, in order that he may at once procure the Child's Baptismal Certificate, or obtain such other evidence of its Religion, and that of its Parents, as may be required by the authorities to insure the Child's being classed in the Workhouse Register as a Catholic. In defect of such information, it will be entered as a Protestant, and may so remain through life.

2. The Child, when taken to the Workhouse, should be accompanied by some one who can declare to the Master or Superintendent that it is a Catholic, and can demand that it be entered as such in the Creed Register.

3. As the protection of the Religion of the Poor is a great work of charity, it is urgently impressed on all persons who either accompany or know of the removal of any Child to the Workhouse, that they should immediately make the case known to the Clergy, in order that they may prevent the Proselytism of the Poor.

4. The Clergy will feel grateful for every assistance they receive to further this important object; and they will cheerfully procure the necessary Registers without expense to any one.

IN DIOECESI MENEVIEN ET NEWPORTEN.

Pro fructibus terræ, dicendæ a 25 Maii ad finem Septembris,

ORATIO.

Effunde, quæsumus Domine Deus noster, Benedictionem tuam super populum tuum, ut, et dante te benignitatem, terra nostra det fructus suos; et his collectis, ad laudem et honorem sancti tui nominis utamur. Per Dominum nostrum.

SECRETA.

Vota populi tui, Domine, propitius respice: ut per hæc dona quæ tibi ex fructibus terræ offerimus, fructuum nobis ubertatem salubriter largiaris. Per Dominum nostrum.

POSTCOMMUNIO.

Largire Fidelibus tuis, Omnipotens Deus, congruam terræ fructuum ubertatem; quibus temporaliter enutriti, ad æterna bona capessenda spiritualibus incrementis proficiant. Per Dominum nostrum.

Harum loco, à fine Septemb usq ad 25 Maii (exclus) dicantur Orr pro Benefactoribus Diocesis, vivis et defunctis, nempe, Omnipotens, sempiternæ Deus, qui vivorum, &c. (ult loco inter Orr ad diversa).

Hæc Tabella (quoad menses hiemales ad gradus lat. Septent. 51, et quoad menses æstivos ad gradus 54 computata) tuto adhiberi potest ab omnibus Officium Divinum recitantibus per totam Angliam.

Ante Auroram non licet celebrare SS Sacrificium Missæ sine indulto Apostolico, nec SS Eucharistiæ Sacramentum populo ministrare. In Festo tamen Nativitatis Dni post mediam noctem celebrari potest unica Missa solemnis, nisi aliter Ordinario visum fuerit.

Matutinum privatim cum Laudibus pridie anticipare licet illo tempore, quod remotius est a meridie quam ab occasu solis.

Ad Angelicam Salutationem Matutinam, campanæ pulsandæ sunt post Auroram, sed antequam cælum nimis lucidum fiat (Ord. Rom.). Ad Salutationem Vespertinam, ut moris est, post dimidiam horam ab occasu Solis (Gavantus). Post horam a Salutatione, iterum sonandum est, ad recitationem Psalmi De profundis pro Fidelibus Defunctis.

NB. Quavis Feria sexta, secundum Præscriptum Benedicti Papæ XIV, Campana pulsanda est hora tertia ante Salutationem Vespertinam, ad recolendam memoriam Sacratissimæ Passionis DNJC.

NOTA. Si in Missa præscribatur tertia Oratio ad libitum et Papæ vel Ordinarii jussu apponenda sit aliqua specialis Collecta, non debet prætermitti quæ ad lib; sed recitanda est tertio loco aliqua or ad lib, et quarto loco quæ jussu Superioris dici debet. SRC 17 Aug 1709.

Si ex Rubrica præscripta sit oratio pro Ecclesia vel pro Papa, et Superior orationem pro Papa præscripserit, semper dicenda est utraque. SRC 23 Maii 1835.

Ad majorem Dei gloriam.

Lectiones primi Nocturni in duplicibus et semiduplicibus dicuntur de Scriptura occurrente, nisi aliter notetur.

Gloria in excelsis dicitur omnibus Festis, Dominicis, et toto Tempore Paschali, nisi aliter notetur.

Credo dicitur omnibus Dominicis et ubicumque notatur: non tamen dicitur in festis Patronorum minus principalium, nec in festis secundariis Patronorum principalium, nisi alia causa urgeat.

Præfatio de Ssma Trinitate dicitur omnibus Dominicis, nisi propria assignetur.

CATHOLIC DIRECTORY, &c.
 1876.

PART I.
CATHOLIC AND GENERAL ALMANAC.

CHRONOLOGICAL NOTES, 1876.

Golden Number 15	Solar Cycle 9	Roman Indiction 4
Epact 4	Dominical Letter . BA	Julian Period 6589

Golden Number.—The Golden Number indicates the place of the year in the Lunar Cycle; and this cycle is a course of 19 years, in which the phenomena of the moon occur within an hour and about 29 minutes of the time at which they occurred 19 years before. The first year of the Christian era was the second of the Lunar Cycle.

Epact.—The Epact indicates the moon's age on Jan. 1. The common solar year, of 365 days, contains 12 moons and 11 days.

Solar Cycle.—The Solar Cycle is a period of 28 years, during which the week-days occur on the same days of the month as they did during the previous solar cycle; and the number of the Solar Cycle shows the place of the year in that period. The first year of the Christian era was the tenth of the Solar Cycle.

Dominical Letter.—The first seven letters of the alphabet are used in the Calendar to show the days of the week; and the Dominical letter is that which marks the Sundays. The first day of the year is always marked by the letter A. In Leap Year there are two letters; one till the end of Feb., and then the preceding letter.

Roman Indiction.—A period of fifteen years, used by the Romans for taxing their provinces. It dates from the 1st of Jan. 313. The first year of the Christian era is reckoned as the fourth of the cycle of Indiction.

Julian Period.—A period of 7980 years obtained by multiplying together the Lunar Cycle, Solar Cycle, and Roman Indiction: $19 \times 28 \times 15 = 7980$. This period was invented in 1583, and is used in calculations of astronomy and chronology. The first year of the Christian era is reckoned as the 4714th of the Julian Period.

SEASONS, 1876.

Winter begins	Dec. 22, 1875,	at	5.0 A.M.
Spring	March 20, 1876,	„	6.0 A.M.
Summer	June 21,	„	3.0 A.M.
Autumn	Sept. 22,	„	5.0 P.M.
Winter	Dec. 21,	„	11.0 A.M.

Spring begins when the sun is on the equator, going north; Summer begins when the sun reaches its greatest northern declination; Autumn begins when the sun is on the equator, going south; and Winter begins when the sun reaches its greatest southern declination.

ECLIPSES, 1876.

1. March 10, a partial Eclipse of the Moon, partly visible at Greenwich: begins 5.21 A.M.; ends 7.21 A.M.
2. March 25, an annular Eclipse of the Sun, visible in North America and North Pacific Ocean.
3. Sept. 3, a partial Eclipse of the Moon, visible at Greenwich: begins 8.15 P.M.; ends 10.29 P.M.
4. Sept. 17, a total Eclipse of the Sun, visible in Australia and South Pacific Ocean.

* * The Eclipses in a year are never less than two, nor more than seven. There are always at least two Eclipses of the Sun, and not more than three of the Moon.

Bissextile or Leap Year.—To make up the difference between the astronomical and the computed year, every fourth year is Leap Year, or a year of 366 days. But it was arranged by Pope Gregory XIII. that in every 400 years, three Leap Years should be omitted: and that thus 1700, 1800, and 1900 should not be Leap Years, but that 2000 should be Leap Year.

Gregorian Calendar.—Previous to 1582 the year had been reckoned as containing 365 days and 6 hours; which space of time exceeded by some minutes the actual length of the year. The error which had consequently arisen in the Calendar was removed by Gregory XIII., who ordered the day following Oct. 4, of the year 1582, to be called Oct. 15; and by his arrangement for the Leap Years he prevented the recurrence of the error. The old style of reckoning, according to the Julian Calendar, was observed by England till 1752, when the day after Sept. 2 was called Sept. 14. It is still observed by Russia.

Besides the Julian or Old Calendar, and the Gregorian or New Calendar, there are the Jewish and Mahometan Calendars; and a variety of Calendars in the East, of which the most important are the Chinese, the Japanese, the Hindoo, and the Parsee.

FASTING DAYS IN ENGLAND.

On which flesh-meat is forbidden (unless a dispensation be granted), and only one meal, with a collation, is allowed to those who are bound to fast.

The Forty Days of Lent; the Ember Days; the Vigils of Whitsun-Day, SS. Peter and Paul, the Assumption, All Saints, and Christmas; and the Wednesdays and Fridays of Advent.

ABSTINENCE DAYS IN ENGLAND.

On which flesh-meat is forbidden.

The Sundays in Lent, unless leave be given to eat meat on them; and all Fridays, except Christmas Day when on a Friday.

LENTEN DISPENSATIONS.

By the authority of the Holy See, dispensations are published every year by the Bishops, giving leave for meat, &c., on certain days of Lent.

INDULGENCES.

An Indulgence is a remission, granted by the Church, to those who are free from the guilt of all mortal sin, of the whole, or a part, of the temporal punishment due for sins already forgiven.

Explanation:—1. By temporal punishment, as distinguished from eternal punishment, is meant punishment which is due for sin, and which is to be undergone either in this world, or in the next world, in purgatory. The repentance for sin may be so great as to obtain from God the remission both of the guilt and of all punishment; but often, through the imperfection of our repentance, some punishment remains due for sin after the guilt has been removed.—2. Indulgences are granted on the condition of the performance of certain specified good works; and they cannot be gained by any one who is not free from the guilt of all grievous sin.—3. The Church, in granting an Indulgence, offers to God, for the remission of the temporal punishment deserved for our sins, the infinite superabundant merits of Our Lord, and also (but only secondarily) the merits of the Blessed Virgin and the Saints.—4. A plenary Indulgence is a remission of the whole of the punishment due for forgiven sins; a partial Indulgence is a remission of some part of that punishment. An Indulgence, granted as plenary, will, if there be an obstacle to its full effect, be only partially obtained.—In the early ages of the Church, ‘canonical penances,’ as they were called, were inflicted for sin; and an Indulgence of forty days, for example, represents a remission of as much of the temporal punishment as would have been remitted by means of forty days of such canonical penance: but how much that is, or would have been, is not known to us.

Plenary Indulgences granted in England and Wales.

I. From Christmas Day till the Epiphany.—II. From the first till the second Sunday of Lent.—III. From Palm Sunday to Low Sunday.—IV. From Whitsun-Day till the end of the Octave of Corpus Christi.—V. Feast of SS. Peter and Paul, and during the Octave.—VI. From the Sunday preceding the Assumption till the end of the Octave.—VII. From the Sunday preceding the Feast of St. Michael, till the Sunday following.—VIII. From the Sunday preceding All Saints till the end of the Octave.—The days here given for the beginning and end of these Indulgences are inclusive. The conditions of gaining them may be found in ordinary prayer-books. If the Assumption, St. Michael’s, or All Saints (VI., VII., VIII.) falls on a Sunday, the Indulgence begins on the Feast.

Plenary Indulgences may be gained also on the following days, by going to confession and to Holy Communion, and praying on the day of Communion for the intentions of His Holiness:—1. All Feasts of Our Lord and of the Blessed Virgin; 2. St. Gregory the Great, March 12; 3. St. Patrick, March 17; 4. Venerable Bede, Oct. 29. And by benefactors of the Poor-School Committee, on the Feasts and during the Octaves—of St. George, April 23; of the Sacred Heart, 3d Sund. after Pent.; and of St. Edward, Oct. 13.

There are, moreover, Indulgences specially granted to some of the Dioceses.

1. The conditions for most of the Plenary Indulgences include confession. But for those who go to confession once a week, their weekly confession, if they remain in a state of grace, will suffice (Decrees of Sept. 9, 1763, and Nov. 15, 1841); and, by a Decree of June 12, 1822, a Plen. Indulg. granted for a festival may be gained if the confession be made a week before. Moreover, by a Decree of Oct. 6, 1870, it will for any Indulg. suffice that the confession, and also the Holy Communion, be made on the day before that which is appointed for the Indulgence.

2. 'Indulgentia Plenaria Quotidiana' ('Daily Plenary Indulgence'). By this Indulgence, when granted to those visiting a public church or oratory, it is not meant, unless it is expressly stated, that a Plenary Indulgence may be gained daily throughout the year by each one of the Faithful; but that each one may choose any one day of the year for gaining the Indulgence. See Declaration of the Holy Father, March 15, 1852, in Decreta Authentica S. Cong. Indulg., No. DCXXIV., Maceraten. (Brussels edit. 1862, p. 248).

MARRIAGES.

The solemn celebration of marriages is forbidden from Ash-Wednesday till after Low Sunday, and from the 1st Sunday of Advent till the day after the Epiphany.

Mixed Marriages.

A 'mixed marriage' (that is, a marriage between a Catholic and one who, though baptised, does not profess the Catholic Faith) may not take place without a dispensation; and the dispensation cannot lawfully be given unless for a sufficiently grave reason, and subject to the following conditions: 1. That all the children that may be born of the marriage shall be baptised, and brought up, in the Catholic Faith. 2. That the Catholic party shall have full liberty for the practice of the Catholic religion. 3. That no religious marriage ceremony shall take place elsewhere than in the Catholic Church.

The 1st condition is necessary because children who are not brought up in the Catholic Faith are brought up out of the only revealed way of salvation. The justice and necessity of the 2d condition are evident. With regard to the 3d condition, the Church teaches: 1. That when the State recognises no marriage as valid that does not take place before a Protestant minister, and when therefore the Protestant minister may in such respect be regarded as a civil functionary, Catholics may lawfully go through a form of marriage in his presence for the purpose of obtaining civil validity for their union, and of having their future offspring acknowledged as legitimate. 2. That, when no such necessity of the civil law exists (and since 1837 it has not existed in England), the marriage of a Catholic before a Protestant minister is a grave sin,—as being a religious act, a participation in the religious rites of those who are separate from the Catholic Church, and therefore a sacrilege, and (as the Holy See has declared) 'an implicit adhesion to heresy.'

What we have to Know and to Believe.

1. That there is one supreme, eternal, infinite God, the Creator of heaven and earth; and that the good will be for ever rewarded by Him in heaven, and the wicked for ever punished in hell.

2. That in God there are three Persons, co-eternal and co-equal, God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost.

3. That God the Son, the second Person of the Most Holy Trinity, was made Man, and died upon the Cross to save us.

4. We are bound also to know and to believe the Apostles' Creed; and to have a knowledge of the Commandments of God and of the Church, of the Holy Sacraments, and of the Lord's Prayer.

5. We have, moreover, to believe whatever God teaches us by His Holy Church, who in her teaching can neither deceive nor be deceived; and whose teaching is, amongst other ways, infallibly made known to us by the Sovereign Pontiff when he speaks ex cathedrâ, that is, when, discharging the office of Pastor and Teacher of all Christians, he, by virtue of his supreme Apostolic authority, defines a doctrine of faith or morals, to be held by the universal Church.

The Two Precepts of Charity.

1. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart, and with thy whole soul, and with thy whole mind, and with thy whole strength. 2. Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

The Ten Commandments of God.

1. Thou shalt not have strange Gods before Me. Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven thing; nor the likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, nor of those things that are in the waters under the earth. Thou shalt not adore them nor serve them.

2. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.

3. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day.

4. Honour thy Father and thy Mother.

5. Thou shalt not kill.

6. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

7. Thou shalt not steal.

8. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

9. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife.

10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's goods.

The Six chief Commandments of the Church.

1. To keep certain days holy, resting from servile works.

2. To hear Mass on all Sundays and Holidays of Obligation.

3. To keep the days of Fasting and Abstinence.

4. To go to Confession at least once a year.

5. To receive the Blessed Sacrament at least once a year: that is, at Easter or thereabouts.

6. Not to marry within certain degrees of kindred, nor to solemnise marriage at the forbidden times.

The Seven Sacraments.

1. Baptism: by which we are made Christians, children of God, and members of His holy Church.

2. Confirmation: by which we receive the Holy Ghost, to make us strong and perfect Christians, and soldiers of Jesus Christ.

3. The Holy Eucharist: which is really and truly the Body and Blood, the Soul, and the Divinity of Jesus Christ, under the appearances of bread and wine. The Holy Eucharist is not only a Sacrament, in which we receive our Divine Lord for the food and nourishment of our souls, and in which He is really present to be adored upon the altar: it is also a Sacrifice, the Sacrifice of the Holy Mass, in which, at the time of consecration, the bread and wine are changed into the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, and in which He is offered up for us to His Eternal Father.

4. Penance: by which the sins that we commit after Baptism are forgiven.

5. Extreme Unction: which, in dangerous illness, comforts the soul, remits sin, and restores health if God sees it to be expedient.

6. Holy Order: by which Bishops, Priests, and other Ministers of the Church are ordained.

7. Matrimony: which is the sacrament of Christian Marriage.

The Three Theological Virtues: Faith, Hope, and Charity.

The Four Cardinal Virtues: Prudence, Justice, Fortitude, and Temperance.

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Ghost: Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety, the Fear of the Lord.

The Twelve Fruits of the Holy Ghost: Charity, Joy, Peace, Patience, Longanimity, Goodness, Benignity, Mildness, Fidelity, Modesty, Contineny, Chastity.

The Seven Spiritual Works of Mercy: To counsel the doubtful; to instruct the ignorant; to admonish sinners; to comfort the afflicted; to forgive offences; to bear wrongs patiently; to pray for the living and the dead.

The Seven Corporal Works of Mercy: To feed the hungry; to give drink to the thirsty; to clothe the naked; to harbour the harbourless; to visit the sick; to visit the imprisoned; to bury the dead.

The Seven Deadly Sins: Pride, Covetousness, Lust, Anger, Gluttony, Envy, Sloth.—The opposite Virtues: Humility, Liberality, Chastity, Meekness, Temperance, Brotherly Love, Diligence.

Nine ways of sharing another's sin: By counsel; by command; by consent; by provocation; by praise or flattery; by concealment; by partaking; by silence; by defence of the ill done.

Letters to the Colonies and Foreign Countries. To all European countries, except France (until Jan. 1, 1876), to Canada, also the United States, and some other countries, letters may be sent for 2½d. the half ounce. For some countries prepayment is obligatory; and for some countries there is an additional payment on delivery.

Book Post (Inland), for printed matter, manuscript (if not of the nature of a letter), circulars (if wholly or in great part printed or lithographed, and not fastened at any point), and photographs (if not on glass or in frames containing glass or the like substance): when prepaid, and within the United Kingdom, ½d. for every 2oz. Book-packets must be entirely open, or in wrappers entirely open at both ends, and not exceed 5lb. in weight, or 18 inches in length, 9 in width, and 6 in depth. For rates and conditions of book-packets to the colonies and foreign countries, see 'British Postal Guide.'

Newspapers. For a registered newspaper, with or without a supplement, ½d.; and ½d. for each newspaper, or newspaper and supplement, when there are more than one in the same packet, provided that no such packet shall be liable to a higher rate than the rate by book-post. The postage of registered newspapers to places abroad is from 1d. upwards. No packet of newspapers may exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth. Every packet must be open at both ends, so as to admit of easy removal for examination; and with no enclosure, except the supplement or supplements belonging to it.

(Postal Regulations, continued).

Registration. Prepaid letters, newspapers, and book-packets, may be registered, for the United Kingdom and almost all places abroad, for a fee of 4d. An unregistered inland or colonial letter containing coin, or an inland letter containing watches or jewelry, is charged, on delivery, a double fee.

The registration of a packet makes its transmission much more secure; but the Post Office is not responsible by law for its safety.

Money Orders. For inland Money Orders the charge is, for sums under 10s, 1d.; 10s. and under 1l., 2d.; 1l. and under 2l., 3d.; 2l. and under 3l., 4d.; 3l. and under 4l., 5d.; 4l. and under 5l., 6d.; 5l. and under 6l., 7d.; 6l. and under 7l., 8d.; 7l. and under 8l., 9d.; 8l. and under 9l., 10d.; 9l. and under 10l., 11d.; 10l., 1s.—Money Orders, at a higher charge, may be obtained for the colonies and for many foreign countries.—A Money Order paid through a bank may be receipted with any name.

Post Office Savings Banks. 1s. and upwards received at 2½ per cent.

Post Office Insurances and Annuities. Lives of persons from 16 to 60 years of age are insured for sums of not less than 20l. nor more than 100l. Also immediate or deferred annuities are granted of not more than 50l.

LAST WILL OR TESTAMENT.

All who have property to bequeath, or instructions to give for the Catholic education of their children, should make their wills while they are in health. They will thus avert the evil of dying intestate, or will at least be spared the pain of having in their last illness to give much attention to worldly affairs.

Instead of trusting in printed forms and directions, it is always better to obtain the help of an experienced lawyer.—A Will must be written in ink, on paper or parchment. It must be signed at the end by the testator, in the presence of two or more witnesses, and he should, after signing it, take it in his hands and say, 'I acknowledge this to be my last Will and Testament, and request you to witness it.' The witnesses (who must be parties not interested in the Will) will then sign, in the presence of the testator and of each other, writing fully and clearly their name, surname, residence, and trade or profession, &c. The sheets, when more than one, should be fastened together, and the pages numbered; and it will be better for the testator and witnesses to sign each sheet. It is not absolutely necessary for the witnesses to know the contents of a Will. Obliterations and alterations should be avoided, and when they are necessary should be signed by the testator and witnesses.—A Codicil, or addition to a Will, should be made with the same regulations as the Will itself.

(Stamp Duties, contin. d.)

Copy or Extract (certified) of or from any register of births, baptisms, marriages, deaths, or burials, 1d.

Deeds. The common Deed duty is now 10s., instead of 35s.

Lease or Tack. 1. For any definite term less than a year (a) of a dwelling-house or part thereof, at a rent not exceeding 10l. per annum, 1d.; (b) of any furnished dwelling-house or apartments where the rent for such term exceeds 25l., 2s. 6d.; (c) of any land, tenements, or heritable subjects, except as above, the same duty as a lease for a year.

2. For any other definite or an indefinite term, of lands, tenements, &c., where the consideration or part thereof consists of money, stock, or security, the same duty as for a conveyance on sale. But where the consideration or part thereof is rent at a rate or average rate, then (a) for a definite term not exceeding 35 years, or an indefinite term, for a consideration not exceeding 5l. per annum, 6d.; exceeding 5l., but not exceeding 10l., 1s.; exceeding 10l., but not 15l., 1s. 6d.; exceeding 15l., but not 20l., 2s.; exceeding 20l., but not 25l., 2s. 6d.; exceeding 25l., but not 50l., 5s.; exceeding 50l., but not 75l., 7s. 6d.; exceeding 75l., but not 100l., 10s.; for every additional 50l. or part thereof, 5s.: (b) if the term exceeds 35 but not 100 years, the duties will be six times; and (c) if the term exceeds 100 years, they will be twelve times those just mentioned.

For every offence, a penalty not exceeding 5*l.*, with costs.

Merchandise Marks.

For putting a false description upon any article sold, or exposed for sale, a penalty from 5*s.* to 5*l.*

Registration of Births and Deaths.

Births. Parents should personally give notice of birth to the Registrar of their district, within 42 days, when no fee will be charged.

Deaths. Notice should be given of deaths in the same manner as of births. This should be done early, as the undertaker must have a certificate to give to the clergyman who reads the funeral service.

Vaccination.

By the Act of August 12, 1867, vaccination has been made compulsory. On the registration of birth, the registrar will give notice of vaccination, and the child must be vaccinated within three months, under a penalty of 20*s.* Any person who shall attempt to inoculate will be liable to imprisonment.

People's Representation Act, 1877. (See also p. 30.)

By this Act the franchise is given in England: I. in Boroughs, to every man of full age (not subject to legal incapacity) who, for twelve months preceding the last of July, has (1) been an inhabitant occupier (but not joint occupier), as owner or tenant, of any dwelling-house within the Borough, and has been during such occupation rated as an occupier in respect of the premises so occupied by him to all rates made for the relief of the poor in respect of such premises, and has paid (on or before the 20th of July) an equal amount in the pound to that payable by other ordinary occupiers in respect of all such rates payable up to the preceding 5th of January; or has (2) occupied and resided in the borough in the same lodgings of a clear yearly value, unfurnished, of Ten Pounds or upwards, and claimed to be registered as a Voter at the next ensuing Registration of Voters. II. In Counties, to every man who either (1) is seised for life of any lands or tenements of the clear yearly value of 5*l.*; or (2) is entitled to any such lands or tenements as lessee or assignee for the unexpired residue of any term originally created for not less than 60 years; or (3) has occupied lands or tenements within the county of the rateable value of 12*l.* or upwards. In Boroughs, occupiers to be rated, and not owners.

Example.—To find the Interest of 3419*l.*, for 70 days, at 6 per cent per annum.

First, according to the Rule above, multiply 3419
 by 70
 and 239330
 by £ 1435980

figures (80), refer to the Table, and opposite to 1000 will be found £27 7 11·34

 4000 " " 10 19 2·13
 300 " " 0 16 5·26
 50 " " 0 2 8·87
 9 " " 0 0 5·91

Then, after rejecting the two last

The interest is . . £39 6 9·51

The use of decimals in the Table, for the fractions of pence, insures the greatest possible accuracy in every calculation: but where such great accuracy is not required, fractions of a penny, from ·25 to ·50, may be taken as $\frac{1}{4}d.$; ·50 to ·75, as $\frac{1}{2}$; ·75 upwards, as $\frac{3}{4}$.

By using the above Table, together with the Interest Table on the opposite page, calculations for any number of years and of days may be easily made. Thus, for example, to find the Interest of 1471*l.* 10*s.*, for 2 years and 35 days, at $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.—From the Table on the opposite page, the Interest will be found for 1 year, 51*l.* 10*s.* 0·6*d.*; for 2 years, 103*l.* 0*s.* 1·2*d.* From the Table above, by multiplying $1471\frac{1}{2} \times 35 \times 3\frac{1}{2}$, and rejecting the two last figures (58) from the product (180258·75), the Interest for 35 days will be found to be 4*l.* 18*s.* 8·86*d.* Total Interest for 2 years and 35 days, 103*l.* 0*s.* 1·2*d.* + 4*l.* 18*s.* 8·86*d.* = 107*l.* 18*s.* 10*d.*

ELECTIONS AND REGISTRATION.

INFORMATION FOR ELECTORS, AND MEMORANDA, FOR CATHOLIC REGISTRATION.County Franchise.

The following are the instructions for the registration of County Voters, as altered by the Reform Act of 1837. The qualifications are:

1. Occupation of lands or tenements, of the rateable value of 12*l.* per year or upwards, for twelve months previous to the 31st July.
2. Freehold, of inheritance or by purchase, of the clear annual value of 40*s.* or upwards.

Freehold for life must be of the clear annual value of 5*l.*, unless the owner be in actual occupation, or unless the same comes by descent, marriage, devise, or promotion to any benefice or office; in all which cases 40*s.* clear annual value is sufficient.

Freeholders by purchase are required to be six months in possession previous to July 31st: by descent, &c., no length of possession is necessary.

3. Copyhold of the clear annual value of 5*l.* or upwards.

Copyholders are subject to the same terms of possession as freeholders.

4. Leasehold, if created originally for a term of not less than sixty years of the clear annual value of 5*l.* or upwards; if for a term of more than twenty but less than sixty years, the clear annual value must be 50*l.*

Leaseholders by purchase are required to be twelve months in possession previous to July 31st; by descent, &c., no time is required.

Leaseholders in a Borough cannot vote for the County in respect of their leasehold interest in a dwelling-house.

Last day for payment of Rates, July 20th; for making Claims, July 20th; for making Objections, Aug. 20th

Revision Court held between Sept. 15th and Oct. 31st.

Borough Franchise.

The following are the qualifications for a Vote for the Borough:

1. Occupation of a house or houses in immediate succession there for twelve months before the 31st July, being rated during that time, and having paid before 20th July all rates payable before the preceding 5th January.

2. Occupation of a house, shop, counting-house, warehouse, or other building (with rating and payment as above), of 10*l.* annual value, and being a resident within seven miles of the borough six months previous to 31st July.

Firms should take care that all the partners' names are on the Rate Collectors' Books.

3. Freemen resident for six months within seven miles.

4. Lodgers in same rooms for twelve months before 31st July, of 10*l.* annual value unfurnished. A new claim must be made every year.

Last day for payment of Rates, July 20th; for making Claims, Aug. 25th; for making Objections, Aug. 25th.

Overseer's List published Aug. 1st.

Revision Court held between Sept. 15th and Oct. 31st.

N.B. Upon removal to other premises, care should be taken to give notice at the Overseer's Office of the full particulars of such removal before the 20th of July: otherwise the vote may be lost.

Municipal Franchise.

The Municipal Franchise is now assimilated to that of the Borough.

MEMORANDA FOR ELECTORS.

Jan. 31.—Purchasers of freehold or copyhold property must obtain complete possession on or before this day, to entitle them to be registered in July next as county voters.

March 1.—Auditors and assessors of boroughs to be elected. 25 —Overseers to be appointed on this day, or within fourteen days. Those Surveyors of Highways whose year has expired must verify their accounts by oath before one justice within fourteen days, to be delivered to their successors after the appointment of such successors. 29.—Poor Law Guardians to be elected on this day, or within fourteen days thereafter.

April 4.—The returns for making the assessment of direct taxes are delivered very soon after this day.

June 10.—Town Clerks to give notices to Overseers to prepare Lists of persons entitled to vote in boroughs. 20.—Overseers to publish notices that persons will not be inserted on Lists of Borough or County Voters, in respect of occupation, if Poor Rates and Assessed Taxes, due previously to 5th January, be not paid before the 20th July;—and to fix on church doors for two Sundays a copy of the County Register then in force, and notices to persons qualified to vote for counties to make claims.

July 5.—Annual licenses to be taken out by pawnbrokers and appraisers who are not auctioneers. 20.—Assessed taxes and poor rates due on the 5th of January last must be paid on or before this day, by all electors of cities and boroughs, and 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ occupiers in counties, or they will be disqualified from voting. Last day for sending in claims for voting in counties. 31.—Overseers to make out lists of county and borough electors, and of persons entitled to vote in respect of occupation, rated at 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ and upwards. Electoral year commences; occupation of premises must, therefore, commence on or before this day, in order to qualify the occupier to be on the borough or county register for next year. New occupiers of houses in boroughs and counties should see that their names are properly inserted on the first poor rate made after this date.

August 1.—Overseers to fix lists of voters on all church and chapel doors in their parish, to remain there fourteen days. Overseers to keep lists of voters at their residences for sale, and also for inspection, without payment of any fee, between the hours of ten and four, for fourteen days. 20.—Last day for serving notices of objection in counties. 25.—Last day for persons omitted from the list of borough voters and 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ occupiers in counties making their claims to be registered, and for serving notices of objection in boroughs. 31.—All taxes and rates, payable on March 1st, must be paid by burgesses on or before this day.

September 1.—Overseers to deliver lists of county voters to clerk of the peace, and to fix lists of objections to county voters and claims and objections to borough voters on church and chapel doors, to remain fourteen days. Churchwardens and overseers to make out jury lists, and publish first three Sundays. 5.—Overseers of parishes and boroughs to make out burgess lists under Municipal Reform Act, which must be delivered to the Town Clerk on this day. 8.—Town Clerks in boroughs to cause the burgess list to be fixed in public places in boroughs, from this day to the 15th. 15.—Claims of persons omitted in the burgess lists, and objections to persons improperly inserted, to be given to the Town Clerk in writing on or before this day; notice of objection also to be given to the persons objected to. 24.—Lists of claimants, and of persons objected to, to be fixed by the Town Clerk in some public place of each borough, from this day till Oct. 1st.

October 1.—Mayor and assessors to hold an open court to revise the burgess lists under the Municipal Reform Act, some time between the 1st and 15th of October; three clear days' notice of such court being given. The revised list to be kept by the Town Clerk, and persons therein entered to be entitled to vote, according to the Act, from the 1st of November. 15.—Accounts of waywardens or highway surveyors to be produced at a parish meeting, to be held within fifteen days before the special sessions, in the week next after the Michaelmas quarter sessions.

November 1.—Borough councillors to be elected. 9.—Mayor and aldermen of boroughs to be elected. 15.—Day for attorneys, proctors, notaries public, &c., to take out certificates. 30.—Clerks of the peace sign and deliver register of county voters to sheriff; and Town Clerks sign and deliver to returning officers copies of borough lists.

MEMORANDA FOR CATHOLIC REGISTRATION.

1. December. Purchase from the relieving officer the Parliamentary Register which is to be in force for the ensuing year from the 1st January.

2. Make out from the Catholic Register a list of owners who will have to send in their claims for votes in January, and the list of those who will also need to appoint proxies to vote for them.

3. January. Furnish all owners with the necessary forms of claim, and of appointment of proxies, and see that they are duly filled up and sent to the overseers before the end of the month.

4. February. Note the objections to owners' claims, which are published on the 20th of the month, and the day appointed for hearing them, that the claims may be duly defended.

5. Prepare a list of ratepayers whose names ought to be placed on the rate-book (remembering especially those whose rates are paid by the landlord), and send in their claims to the vestry clerk before the rate-books are revised on the 25th of March.

6. March. Before the 15th of the month, provide several ratepayers with proper forms for the nomination of the candidates whom the Catholics have decided to support in the impending election of guardians, and see that they are sent in to the clerk to the guardians as early as possible on the 15th.

7. Immediately after the 15th print and circulate the list of candidates nominated for Catholic support, with instructions for voting correctly, as set forth in the notice issued by the clerk of the guardians.

8. April. On the 6th see that voters who have not received voting papers apply for them, and fill them up at the clerk's office, and that all other voters fill up their papers in readiness for them to be collected on the 7th.

9. On the 8th see that any uncollected voting papers are taken to the clerk's office before 12 o'clock.

10. Print and circulate the names of the candidates for the vestry election whom the Catholics have determined to nominate and support in each ward, and the time and place at which the voters must attend personally in each ward; printing the names of the candidates so that they may be torn off and dropped into the ballot-box on the day following the nomination, if a poll be demanded.

11. May. See that the voters in each ward attend to nominate and vote for the Catholic candidates for the vestry, and go to the poll, if necessary, on the following day.

12. June. Prepare a list of Parliamentary voters for counties, who must claim, if necessary, to be placed on the register between June 20 and July 20.

13. July (early). Put up notice that poor rates due on January 5th must be paid by July 20th. in order that the ratepayer may not be disqualified for the Parliamentary Register.

14. Prepare a list of male lodgers qualified to claim to be on the Parliamentary Register, i.e. those who have been the sole lessees of apartments worth 10*l.* a year, if let unfurnished, from the 31st July of the previous year.

15. August. Procure list of voters for Boroughs, published on the 1st. Correct the Catholic Register by it, and prepare a list of householders omitted from the list, but qualified to claim.

16. As early as possible furnish to each lodger and to each householder who has to claim two copies of the proper forms respectively, and see that both forms are properly filled up, and that one form is sent in to the Overseers by the 25th of the month, and the other form retained. See that rent-books and other proofs of claim are forthcoming.

17. September. Procure the list of claims and objections, which is published on the 1st, and make out from it a list of Catholic voters whose claims will have to be defended before the Revising Barrister. All lodgers who have claimed will have to maintain their claim in person.

18. Give notice to claimants of the times fixed by the Revising Barrister for holding his Courts, which must be between September 15th and October 31st, and of which public notice is given; and for the convenience of lodgers, get the earliest information of the hours at which they will be heard by him.

19. (Or October.) Attend Revising Barrister with the claimants, their witnesses, rent-books, and other proofs of claim.

20. Determine the candidate for School Board whom the Catholics will support. Give notice of the same to the Catholic ratepayers, whose votes might be otherwise preëngaged and lost.

21. October. Prepare a list of ratepayers whose names should be put on the rate-books, with a view to the School Board election in November. See that they are entered by the vestry clerk.

22. November. Canvass for School Board candidate; give notice of day of election and polling places, and see that the voters attend the poll.

N.B. Parliamentary and municipal forms may be procured of Knight and Co., 90 Fleet-street; Shaw and Sons, Fetter-lane, and others.

EXTRACTS FROM ACTS OF PARLIAMENT.

AFFECTING CATHOLIC ADULTS AND CHILDREN IN WORKHOUSES AND PAUPER SCHOOLS.

I. From the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, cap. 43 (July 17, 1862), entitled "An Act to provide for the Education and Maintenance of Pauper Children, in certain Schools and Institutions."

SECTION 1. Power to Guardians to send poor Children to Schools.

The Guardians of any Parish or Union may send any poor child to any School certified as hereinafter mentioned, and supported wholly or partially by voluntary subscriptions, the managers of which shall be willing to receive such child, and may pay out of the funds in their possession the expenses incurred in the maintenance, clothing, and education of such child therein, during the time such child shall remain at such School (not exceeding the total sum which would have been charged for the maintenance of such child if relieved in the Workhouse during the same period), and in the conveyance of such child to and from the same, and in the case of death, the expenses of his or her burial.

II. From the Act 29 and 30 Vict., cap. 113 (August 10, 1866), entitled "An Act to amend . . . and to make other Amendments in the Laws relating to the Relief of the Poor."

SECTION 14. Provision for educating Children in the Religion to which they belong.

If the parent, step-parent, nearest adult relative, or next of kin of any child not belonging to the Established Church, relieved in a Workhouse or in a District School, or, in case there should be no parent, step-parent, nearest adult relative, or next of kin, then the god-parent of such child, make application to the said Board* on such behalf, the Board may, if they think fit, order that such child shall be sent to some school established for the reception, maintenance, and education of children of the religion to which such child shall be proved to belong, and duly certified by the Poor-law Board under the statute of the 25th and 26th Victoria, chapter 43: and the Guardians of the Union or Parish to which such child shall be chargeable shall, according to the terms of such order, cause the child to be conveyed to such school, and pay the cost and charges of the maintenance, lodging, clothing and education of the said child therein, and all the provisions of the said statute shall thenceforth apply to the said child.

* Viz. The Poor-law Board, now called the Local Government Board.

III. From the Act 31 and 32 Vict., cap. 122 (July 31, 1868), entitled "An Act to make further Amendments in the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in England and Wales."

SECTION 16. A separate Creed Register to be kept in every Workhouse and Pauper School.

The officer for the time being acting as the Master of a Workhouse, or as the Master or Superintendent of a District or other Pauper School, shall keep a register of the religious creed of the Pauper inmates of such Workhouse or School separate from all other registers, in such form and with such particulars as shall be prescribed by the Poor-law Board by an order under their seal, and shall, as regards every inmate of such Workhouse or School at the date to be fixed by such order, and subsequently upon the admission of every inmate therein, make due inquiry into the religious creed of such inmate, and enter such religious creed in such register.

SECTION 17. How the Religion of Children is to be entered in the Creed Register.

In regard to any child in the Workhouse or School under the age of twelve years, whether either of its parents be in the Workhouse or not, or whether it be an orphan or deserted child, the Master or Superintendent shall enter in such register, as the religious creed of such child, the religious creed of the father, if the Master or Superintendent know or can ascertain the same by reasonable inquiry; or, if the same cannot be so ascertained, the creed of the mother of such child, if the same be known to the said Master or Superintendent, or can be by him in like manner ascertained; and the creed of an illegitimate child under the said age, shall be deemed to be that of its mother, when that can be ascertained.

SECTION 18. The Poor-law Board to decide questions as to correctness of the Register.

If any question shall arise as to the correctness of any entry in such register, the Poor-law Board may, if they think fit, inquire into the circumstances of the case, and determine such question by directing such entry to remain or to be amended, according to their judgment.

SECTION 19. Creed Register to be open to inspection of Minister.

Every Minister of any denomination officiating in the church, chapel, or other registered place of religious worship of such denomination which shall be nearest to any Workhouse or School, or any ratepayer of any parish in the Union, shall be allowed to inspect the register which contains the entry of the religious creed of the inmates at any time of any day, except Sunday, between the hours of ten before noon and four after noon.

SECTION 20. The Minister may, subject to Regulations, visit and instruct Inmates registered as of his Religious Creed.

Such Minister may, in accordance with such regulations as the said Board shall approve of or by their order prescribe, visit and instruct any inmate of such Workhouse or School entered in such register as belonging to the same religious creed as such Minister belongs to, unless such inmate, being above the age of fourteen, and after having being visited at least once by such Minister, shall object to be instructed by him.

SECTION 21. Where no Religious Service is provided in the Workhouse, the Inmate may, subject to regulations, go to his own proper place of Worship.

Every inmate for whom a religious service according to his own creed shall not be provided in the Workhouse shall be permitted, subject to regulations to be approved of or ordered by the Poor-law Board, to attend, at such times as the said Board shall allow, some place of worship of his own denomination within a convenient distance of the said Workhouse, if there be such in the opinion of the Board: provided that the Guardians may, for abuse of such permission previously granted, or on some other special ground, refuse permission to any particular inmate, and shall in such case cause an entry of such refusal and the grounds thereof to be made in their Minutes.

SECTION 22. No Child in the Workhouse or School visited by a Minister of its own Religion shall be required to attend any other Religious Services, unless, being above Twelve Years of Age, he shall desire to do so, and shall be considered by the Poor-law Board competent to judge in the matter.

No child, being an inmate of a Workhouse or such School as aforesaid, who shall be regularly visited by a Minister of his own religious creed for the purpose of religious instruction, shall, if the parents or surviving parent of such child, or in the case of orphans or deserted children, if such Minister make request in writing to that effect, be instructed in any other religious creed, or be required or permitted to attend the service of any other religious creed, than that entered in such register as aforesaid, except any child above the age of twelve years who shall desire to receive instruction in some other creed, or to attend the service of any other religious creed, and who shall be considered by the Poor-law Board to be competent to exercise a judgment upon the subject.

SECTION 23. Interpretation of 25 and 26 Vict., cap. 43, and 29 and 30 Vict., cap. 113, sect. 14, as to Child and Consent of Parents.

The Act of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth Victoria, chapter forty-three, and section fourteen of the Poor-law Amendment Act of 1866, shall apply to illegitimate as well as legitimate children; and with regard to illegitimate children the consent of the mother, if she has the care, custody, or possession of the child, shall be sufficient for the purposes of those Acts; and in case of a deserted child or an orphan child on behalf of whom no relative, next of kin, step-parent, or god-parent shall make application, the Poor-law Board may exercise the power conferred upon them by section fourteen of the said Act of 1866, upon being satisfied that there is reasonable ground for their doing so.

SECTION 42.

The Guardians of any Union or Parish may, with the approval of the Poor-law Board, send any poor deaf and dumb or blind child to any School fitted for the reception of such child, though such School shall not have been certified under the provisions of the Act of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth years of Victoria, chapter forty-three.

PART II.

§ I.

THE CATHOLIC HIERARCHY.

The governing Hierarchy of the Catholic Church consists : of His Holiness the Sovereign Pontiff, who is assisted by the Sacred College of Cardinals, and by several Sacred Congregations, or permanent ecclesiastical committees (see page 43), of which the Cardinals are the chief members ; of the Patriarchs, Primates, Archbishops and Bishops ; of the Apostolic Delegates, Vicars, and Prefects ; and of certain Abbots and Prelates.

I. GENERAL SUMMARY.

III. THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals are the supreme council or senate of the Church, and the advisers of the Sovereign Pontiff; and at the death of a Pope they elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Bishops, Priests, and Deacons; but these orders are distinct from the orders of the Hierarchy: it often happens that many of the Cardinal Priests are archbishops or bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are generally priests. The Sacred College, when full, consists of 70 members: 6 Cardinal Bishops, whose dioceses are the six 'Suburban Sees'; 50 Cardinal Priests, whose 'titles' are the 'Titular Churches,' of which they are appointed superiors, with jurisdiction and right to a throne, &c., therein; and 14 Cardinal Deacons, who are appointed to the churches called 'Deaconries.' This number, however, is seldom complete.

The first of the Cardinal Bishops is Dean of the Sacred College, and its representative; and he has the right of consecrating the Sovereign Pontiff. The Cardinal Camerlengo represents the temporal authority of the Holy See.

The 'creation' of a Cardinal sometimes precedes, even by several years, the public announcement or proclamation. The Cardinal is then said to be 'reserved in petto;' and, when proclaimed, he takes precedence according to date of 'creation.'

II. VICARS-APOSTOLIC IN SCOTLAND.

The last surviving prelate of the ancient Hierarchy of Scotland was JAMES BETOUN, Abp. of Glasgow, who was consecrated to that See, at Rome, Aug. 28, 1552; in exile from July 1560; and, though restored to the temporalities of his See by King James VI., Feb. 26, 1598, never returned to his land, but died at Paris, April 25, 1603, aged 79, and was interred in the Lateran Basilica at Rome. For some time afterwards the authority of the English Archpriests was extended over the Scottish Mission; and when the first Vicar-Apostolic of England was nominated, in 1623, the Scottish clergy were again subjected to English jurisdiction. But by order of Pope Gregory XV., the Vicar-Apostolic ceased from exercising jurisdiction in Scotland; and Pope Urban VIII., in 1629, granted faculties to F. William Ogilvie, as Prefect of the Mission. He died about 1631; and it was only in 1653 that the secular clergy of Scotland were incorporated into a missionary body, by Decree of Propaganda, and placed under the superintendence of Prefects Apostolic, being finally freed by Pope Innocent X. from the jurisdiction of English superiors.

Prefects of the Mission.

WILLIAM BANNATYNE (or Bellenden): appointed Prefect of the Mission, 1653; died Sept. 2, 1661, at Elgin, and interred in the cathedral.

IX. ASSOCIATION FOR THE CELEBRATION OF MASSES FOR THE DECEASED SECULAR CLERGY.

The Association is divided into two parts. The Northern Division contains five, and the Southern eight, of the Dioceses of England. In each Diocese there is a Registrar, appointed to keep a list of the Members of the Association in his Diocese, and to send out notices of deaths.

Bishops, whether Secular or Regular, and Secular Priests, become Members of the Association by inscribing their names, either personally or by proxy, upon the list kept by the Registrar of their Diocese; and they thereby bind themselves for life to celebrate one Mass for every deceased Member belonging to the Division, Northern or Southern, to which they themselves belong.

Priests who for any reason are permanently transferred from one Division to another, are required to transfer their names to the list of that Division. Those who cease to belong to the jurisdiction of the Bishops of England, lose the benefit of membership. But Military Chaplains retain their right of membership even if they die out of the Division to which they belong; and Priests of the English Colleges abroad, and those who are attached to the Papal Court, may have the benefit of membership by having their names inscribed on the Register of the respective Dioceses.

The Masses of the Association are privileged.

Important Notice.—By a Rescript of April 13, 1869, His Holiness declared that no Priest could become a Member of the Association after the lapse of the first three years from the time of his entrance into his Diocese.

Registrars.

SOUTHERN DIVISION.—Westminster: Rev. James Arthur V. Maude, the Oratory, Brompton, S.W. Birmingham: Very Rev. Provost Bagnall, St. Mary's, Brougham-street, Birmingham. Clifton: Rev. Arthur Russell, Bishop's House, Clifton, Bristol. Newport and Menevia: Rev. Thomas Abbot, Monmouth. Northampton: Very Rev. Canon Oléron, D.D., V.G., Bishop's House, Northampton. Nottingham: Rev. Edward B. Douglass, St. Barnabas' Cathedral, Nottingham. Plymouth: Very Rev. Canon Graham, Bishop's House, Cecil-street, Plymouth. Southwark: Very Rev. Canon Crookall, D.D., V.G., St. George's Cathedral, Southwark, S.E.

NORTHERN DIVISION.—Beverley: Very Rev. Canon Thompson, 43 Blossom-street, York. Hexham and Newcastle: Very Rev. Canon Bewick, V.G., Tynemouth. Liverpool: Very Rev. Canon Wallwork, Great Crosby. Salford: Right Rev. Monsignor Provost Croskell, D.D., V.G., Levenshulme, Manchester. Shrewsbury: Very Rev. Canon Lennon, V.G., St. Mary's, Wrexham.

PART III.

§ I.

Dioceses, Clergy, Churches and Chapels, Religious Houses, &c., OF ENGLAND AND WALES;

WITH HOURS OF SERVICE.

The prefix R. denotes that the Church is a Missionary Rectory.

Churches marked † have been registered for Marriages.

E., E.C., N., N.W., S.E., S.W., W., and W.C., denote the Metropolitan Postal Districts. The letters E., N., S., W., are used also in Liverpool, to denote the Postal Districts.

The figures placed after the Churches and Chapels denote the years of the foundation of the Mission; or of the beginning, opening, enlargement, or consecration of the Church or Chapel.

In the notices of service, some of the minor services and details of service are omitted for the sake of brevity; and for some Churches the Clergy have not found it necessary to insert the hours of service.

The last Mass on Sundays, if not also on Holidays, is so generally a High Mass, or at least a Missa Cantata (sung Mass), that the letters H. M. (signifying High Mass, or Missa Cantata) are not often inserted.

See List of Abbreviations on the following page.

RETREATS.—At some of the religious houses, members of the Clergy and of the Laity are admitted to make retreats: especially at the Jesuit Novitiate, Roehampton; and at the Redemptorist houses, at Clapham, and at Bishop Eton, near Liverpool. As the accommodation is limited, timely notice should be given to the Rectors. Persons are not received for retreats at Roehampton in September or the first half of October.

NOTICE.

The Second Provincial Synod lays down certain rules for deciding when gifts made to priests are intended for their own private use, and when for the benefit of their mission ; but the same rules are not clearly applicable to charitable institutions. In accordance therefore with the principles laid down in the Synod for the ease of conscience, all donations, when made to any one in charge of such establishment, shall be considered to be intended for the support and maintenance of such institution, or for the payment of debt, if there be any, unless the donor distinctly declares his donation to be meant for the personal use of those in charge : and whoever receives donations intended for the establishment must without delay pay over such benefactions to the committee or priest in charge, and, in default of such managers, to the Treasurer of the Diocese, the Very Rev. James Canon Fisher, Burscough Hall, Ormskirk, that they may be applied according to the donor's intent.

The nearest Station is Standon, on the Great Eastern Railway. Carriages can be had at Ware. The Postal Telegraph Office is at Puckeridge.

St. Joseph's College of the Sacred Heart for Foreign Missions, Mill Hill, Hendon, N.W.

Founded under the special blessing of the Sovereign Pontiff, and of the Archbishop and Bishops of the English Hierarchy; and supported by voluntary contributions.

Rector of the College—Very Rev. Peter Benoit.

The SOCIETY OF THE SACRED HEART FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS, which consists both of clergy and of laity, is under the direction of its Superior General, the Right Rev. Herbert Vaughan, Bishop of Salford. Its object is to educate missionaries, for the conversion chiefly of heathen nations. No people in the world have a greater responsibility in this respect than the inhabitants of the United Kingdom. Their immense possessions abroad, their increasing commerce, and their consequent influence, lay upon them spiritual duties which cannot be ignored or neglected.

The mission to the negroes of North America has been intrusted by the Holy See to this Society as its first work. The first departure of missionaries took place Nov. 18, 1871.

Conditions of admission to the College:—eighteen years of age; unexceptionable testimonials as to solid piety and probable vocation; sufficient education to enable the candidate to begin philosophy; a thorough apostolic willingness to devote his whole life to foreign missions, and to accept as from God whatever mission he may be thought fit for and appointed to. He will be provided for in old age or illness.

A few burses have been already founded. For terms, &c., application may be made to the Rector, as above; and, for any information, to him or to the Bishop of Salford.

The following have kindly consented to act as referees and to receive subscriptions: His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop; His Lordship the Bishop of Liverpool; Very Rev. F. Coffin, Clapham ; Very Rev. F. Gallwey, S.J. ; Rev. F. Butler, Bayswater ; Rev. F. Keogh, the Oratory ; Very Rev. Canon Wenham, Mortlake ; Very Rev. Canon Northcote, Oscott ; Very Rev. Canon Vavasour, Ripon ; Very Rev. Dr. Gillow, Ushaw ; Rev. F. Vaughan, Perth, N.B. ; Rev. F. O'Donnell, Limerick. Abroad: Very Rev. F. O'Callaghan, Rome ; Mgr. Donnet, Brussels ; Mgr. Boone, Bruges ; F. Maraschi, S.J., San Francisco ; Sr. J. Diego Andrews, Rio de Janeiro.

St. Charles' College.

Founded in 1863 by His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster ; moved to the new College in 1874.

This College was established by the Cardinal Archbishop to teach thoroughly the usual course of a Public School Education. Those studying for the Priesthood can finish their philosophy, so as to be ready to begin theology.

Directed and taught by the Oblate Fathers of St. Charles, assisted by lay non-resident Professors.

Rector—Very Rev. W. H. Manning.

Prefect of Studies—Rev. H. A. Rawes, D.D., M.A.

Applications to be made to the Rector, St. Charles' College, St. Charles'-square, Ladbroke Grove-road, W.

Kensington Catholic Public School,

Warwick-road, Cromwell-road, S. W.

Opened in February 1873, for the sons of gentlemen between the ages of 9 and 17 (or 18), by the Right Rev. Monsignor Capel, with the sanction of His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster. It stands on six acres of land.

Director—Right Rev. Monsignor Capel, D.D.

Head-Master—J. R. Madan, Esq., M.A., Qu. Coll., Oxford.

Assistant-Masters—H. F. J. Jones, Esq., B.A., S.C.L., Ch. Ch., Oxford ; T. A. Robinson, Esq., C. C. C., Oxford ; W. M. Hunnybun, Esq., M.A., Gon. and Caius Coll., Cambridge ; A. Gaber, Univ. of Heidelberg. And Drawing and Drilling Masters.

Chaplain—Rev. C. H. Moore, M.A.

A special department, called the Modern School, is now formed, preparing boys, 14 years old and upwards, for the Army, &c., Examinations direct.

Apply to the Head-Master, Cedar-villa, Kensington, London, W. Tuition fees, 16*l.* 16*s.* and 21*l.*

BEVERLEY.St. Lawrence's College, Ampleforth, York.

Established A.D. 1802, New College opened 1861.

Prior—Very Rev. T. S. Kearney, O.S.B.

The above College is conducted by the English Benedictine Fathers. It stands in a most healthy situation, and is furnished with every modern improvement for the health and comfort of the students. In addition to the ordinary collegiate course of studies, candidates are prepared for the Oxford Local Examinations, conducted at Leeds, and for Matriculation at London. Drawing and music are taught by professional masters. For terms and further particulars application must be made to the Very Rev. Prior.

N.B.—The nearest Railway Station is Gilling (Malton and Thirsk branch of the North-Eastern).

St. Wilfrid's College,

Cotton, Cheadle, Staffordshire.

President—Rev. J. H. Souter.

Vice-President—Rev. George Williams.

Prefect—Rev. George Smith.

The object of this Establishment is to give a useful English education to those who are intended for mercantile pursuits; and also an elementary knowledge of the classical languages to those who may be preparing for any of the professions, or to complete their course of studies at any of our Catholic colleges.

For all particulars, apply to the Rev. the President, St. Wilfrid's, Cotton, Cheadle, Staffordshire.

Agent for the school in London, Rev. Alfred William Dolman, 49 Clarendon Square, Somers Town, London, N.W.

The Oratory School, Edgbaston, near Birmingham.

Under the care of the Very Rev. J. H. Newman, D.D., and with Prefects and Masters of the Universities.

This School is intended to afford to Catholic youth the advantages of the great public schools of England, apart from the evils which are incidental to the system therein pursued.

It provides a special preparation for the examinations at Woolwich, Sandhurst, and the Naval Service, in which candidates from the Oratory have already been successful.

For particulars, application may be made to Dr Newman, Edgbaston,

BEVERLEY.

ACADEMY OF ST. PAULINUS,

Catterick, Yorkshire.

(On the Richmond Branch of the North-Eastern Railway.)

Under the patronage of His Lordship the Bishop of Beverley.

Principal—Mr. SKELLON.

Assisted by an efficient staff of six resident Masters.

The object of this Establishment is to prepare youth either for a Professional or Commercial life, by a solid and complete education, based on a thorough religious training.

Besides the usual English branches, in which pupils are carefully grounded, the course comprises mathematics, natural philosophy, and the Greek, Latin, French, and German languages. The two latter are taught by native resident professors.

One hundred and eight certificates, fifteen prizes, and nine titles of 'Literate' and 'Associate of Arts,' have been gained by pupils from this Academy since 1865.

Ten pupils passed the Examination held by the University of Durham last June; seven of whom took 'honours,' and two carried off prizes.

The religious training of the pupils is under the guidance of the Rev. W. Arnold. A Chapel, where Mass is celebrated, is attached to the Establishment.

Catterick is famed for its salubrity. The pupils have a spacious and open play-ground of four acres and a half.

Prospectuses and Lists of successful pupils may be had on application to the Principal.

Sir John Lawson, Bart., of Brough Hall, Catterick, a neighbour and patron of the School, will gladly testify to the care and attention bestowed upon the pupils.

References are also kindly permitted to the Very Rev. Prov. Rector, D.D., V.G., St. Wilfrid's, York; Very Rev. John William Canon Bewick, V.G. of Hexham, Tynemouth; Rev. J. SOUTHWARK.

ST. MARY'S LODGE,

Pevensey-road, St. Leonards-on-Sea, Sussex.

CATHOLIC PREPARATORY SCHOOL,

For Young Gentlemen from the age of Six to Twelve, Conducted by Miss STEVENS, with competent assistants.

Under the patronage of

THE RIGHT REVEREND THE LORD BISHOP OF SOUTHWARK,

And the spiritual direction of the Reverend John Foy, Priest of the Mission,

To whom reference is kindly permitted ; as also to

The Very Rev. Monsignor Canon Sing, Grantham.

The Very Rev. Canon Wenham, Mortlake.

The Rev. Father Emidius, Monastery, Peckham.

The Rev. Michael McEnery, Wandsworth.

The Rev. Daniel O'Keeffe, Hammersmith.

The Rev. Stodart Macdonald, King's Lynn.

And the parents of present and former pupils.

The peculiar advantages of this establishment are :

Its Situation. Connected with London by two railways, St. Leonards is of easy access, while, according to the report of the Registrar General, it is one of the healthiest towns in England.

The excellence of its scholastic and domestic arrangements.

The sound education (including French, Latin, mathematics, and drawing), specially intended to prepare the pupils for early entrance into the higher Catholic Schools or Colleges ; and the careful religious training.

It was announced in last year's advertisement that the success which had attended this School had necessitated its removal to larger and more convenient premises. A steady increase has fully justified this step. It would be ungrateful not to notice with warmest thanks the many recommendations given, and the very kind expressions of satisfaction received universally from the parents of the pupils. The number, which is limited, is nearly complete.

In the course of the past year three of the pupils have gone to St. Augustine's College ; and one passed the late Oxford Local Examination. A drill-master attends, and nothing has been omitted to cultivate the mind or strengthen the body. The Rev. Father Foy desires especially to add his testimony as to the sound religious training and good spirit, and he would feel pleasure in answering any inquiries that may be addressed to him.

The year is divided into three terms of about fourteen weeks each.

Terms : 40 guineas per annum, payable one term in advance. Prospectus may be had on application, as above.

Under the patronage of the Right Rev. the Bishop of Northampton.

Miss I. GROVE, having removed her preparatory school to the Old Mill Farm, Crowborough Warren, near Tunbridge Wells, Sussex, continues to receive a limited number of young gentlemen from the age of four to ten.

The house is large and situation healthy, with extensive playgrounds.

Terms : 30*l.* per annum.

References are kindly permitted to the Rev. J. Searle, St. Augustine's, Tunbridge Wells ; Rev. C. J. Joole, Baylis House, Salt Hill, Bucks ; and Rev. T. Barge, 21A Soho Square. Also to parents of pupils.

III. IN SCOTLAND.

ST. JOSEPH'S BOARDING SCHOOL,

Dumfries.

Directed and taught by the Marist Brothers.

Under the patronage of His Lordship the Right Rev. Bishop Strain, and the spiritual direction of the Very Rev. Archibald Macdonald.

This establishment stands immediately outside the town of Dumfries, has spacious grounds sloping down to the bank of the river Nith, a short walk from the shores of the Solway Frith, and fifty minutes by train from Carlisle. The surrounding country is agreeably diversified by hill, dale, wood, and water. The sea-breeze and mountain air render the climate salubrious and invigorating. The scenery and climate are thus described: 'The situation of Dumfries is admired by all tourists; it is surrounded by a chain of hills, many of which are green to the top, and undulate in a very pleasing manner. The chilling east winds are but little felt on the banks of the Nith, and pulmonary complaints are comparatively unfrequent.'—Encyclopædia Britannica.

The apartments are spacious, well ventilated, and supplied with baths, libraries, diagrams, and every appliance that can aid the development of both mind and body.

The ordinary course of studies comprises all that is necessary to a sound religious and thoroughly mercantile and commercial education; but there are special classes for those who wish to confine themselves to any particular study. The discipline and plan of instruction render the lessons practical, pleasant, and easy; train to habits of order and economy, and insure rapid and solid progress.

Besides unremitting attention to the corporal and intellectual wants of their scholars, the Brothers are ever solicitous for the formation of their social and moral character. The children are never left alone, nor committed to the care of employees: the Brothers accompany them in their walks, are present at their recreations, direct their games and amusements, and assist them in their private studies. Thus punishments are obviated by the prevention of faults; defects of character &c. are corrected; gentle and polite manners are gradually and imperceptibly acquired.

Competitive Examinations are held every quarter, and a report of progress, health, and conduct, is forwarded to the parents.

References to parents of present pupils from London and other parts of England, from France, Belgium, and the Colonies.

For prospectus and further details, apply to the Superior, Dumfries, or to any of the following branch houses:—St. John's Seminary, Sligo, Ireland; St. Mungo's Academy, Townhead, Glasgow ; 71 Charlotte-street, Glasgow ; Forebank House, Dundee ; 9 Polygon, Clarendon-square, London ; 8 Albert-place, Spicer-street, Whitechapel, London ; St. Joseph's Academy, Cape Town, South Africa ; St. Patrick's Schools, Harrington-street, Sydney.

NOVITIATE OF THE MARIST BROTHERS,

Dumfries, Scotland.

The religious Congregation of Marist Brothers, founded in 1817 by the late Abbé Champagnat of the diocese of Lyons, was introduced into these countries in 1852.

The Congregation is formally approved by the Holy See. Its twofold object is the sanctification of its own members, and the Christian education of youth. The Brothers conduct poor-schools, middle-class day and evening schools, and boarding-schools.

The Society at present comprises 466 establishments, and upwards of 2900 Brothers, who teach more than 80,000 children.

In Great Britain and Ireland they have charge of 16 establishments, comprising 38 schools, affording instruction to 4000 children. The applications for new schools which, for want of subjects, the Brothers have been reluctantly obliged to refuse, represent more than double that number.

To facilitate the admission and training of young men recommended by the clergy, and desirous of joining the Order and devoting their lives to the Catholic education of children, the Brothers have, at considerable expense, founded a Novitiate at Dumfries.

Their undertaking has been warmly recommended by the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster ; His Grace the Most Rev. Archbishop Eyre, Admin. Apost. of the Western District of Scotland ; and by their Lordships the Right Rev. John Strain, Vic. Ap. of the Eastern District ; the Right Rev. Laurence Gillooly, Bishop of Elphin ; the Right Rev. John Macdonald, Vic. Ap. of the Northern District ; and the Right Rev. James Chadwick, Bishop of Hexham and Newcastle.

For further information, apply to the Superior, St. Joseph's, Dumfries.

THE CONVENT AND REFUGE OF OUR LADY OF CHARITY OF REFUGE, Bartestree, Hereford.

The Convent is of the Order of our Lady of Charity of Refuge, which was founded by the Venerable Father Jean Eudes at Caen in the year 1641, for the religious training and industrial employment of females who have fallen, or may be in danger of falling, into a vicious course of life.

This establishment has been for some time overcrowded with penitents. It is much too small to accommodate the numbers that seek refuge within its walls. It is contemplated, as soon as means can be obtained, to enlarge it very considerably. We appeal earnestly to the charity of the public to provide us with these means. We ask all who pity these poor forlorn outcasts to help us to save them from perdition.

Contributions will be most thankfully received for the above object by the Mother Superior, Emily Watkins; or by the Rev. Peter Lewis, Bartestree, Hereford.

SHREWSBURY.

CONVENT OF THE FAITHFUL COMPANIONS OF JESUS,

Upton Hall, near Birkenhead (formerly Lingdale House).

Under the patronage of His Lordship the Bishop of Shrewsbury.

Upton Hall is situated in one of the most beautiful and salubrious parts of Cheshire, at a distance of about four miles from Birkenhead. Besides the advantage of extensive private grounds, the pupils also enjoy that of being able to resort frequently to the sea-shore, which is only two miles distant.

This Establishment affords to young ladies every facility for acquiring a superior continental education combined with residence in England. French is the language chiefly spoken. The health and deportment of the pupils are objects of constant solicitude.

The course of studies comprises all the branches of an accomplished English education; the French, Italian, German, Spanish, and Latin languages; geometry and map-drawing; every kind of needlework.

Music, dancing, and drawing (including oil-painting and water-colouring) are extras.

For prospectus, apply to the Superioress, Upton Hall, Upton, near Birkenhead.

The spiritual retreat for ladies, which is given annually in this Convent, will begin as usual about July 26th.

The terms for the course are 50*l.* per annum, in addition to which there are the usual extras for washing, and the use of the piano, books, &c.

The terms for music are three guineas per quarter ; but there is no extra charge for children under ten years of age.

The terms for water-colouring and oil-painting are three guineas per quarter.

The uniform for the children's clothing is procured at the Convent, in order to save unnecessary trouble at home.

Each child brings three pairs of sheets, four pillow-cases, six towels, six table-napkins, a knife, fork, silver goblet, and two spoons (soup and dessert).

CONVENT OF THE HOLY CHILD JESUS,

St. Leonards-on-Sea, Sussex.

ST. MICHAEL'S SCHOOLS.

Under the patronage of the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster and His Lordship the Bishop of Southwark.

The Schools of the Holy Child Jesus are beautifully situated, overlooking the towns of Hastings and St. Leonards-on-Sea; and the advantages of pure air, sea-bathing, and extensive private grounds, together with the inviting character of the surrounding country, are peculiarly to be valued as assisting physically the religious, moral, and intellectual training which form the primary object of this Institute.

The course of instruction given in these schools comprises all the usual branches of a sound English education, in which Latin, French, and drawing are included.

English and French are spoken on alternate days.

The pension is 20*l.* per annum. Music, 1*l.* 1*s.* per quarter; Italian, 1*l.* 1*s.* per quarter. Washing, 13*s.* per quarter.

COUVENT DES DAMES-RELIGIEUSES DE LA CROIX.

Under the patronage of the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster and His Lordship the Bishop of Southwark.

Les Dames-Religieuses de la Croix, who have first-rate educational establishments in France, have now for more than two years directed a School for Young Ladies at Bournemouth, Hants.

The convenient and well-situated house in which they have hitherto received their pupils has been very considerably enlarged, and the Convent is at a few minutes' distance from the sea-side and from the Catholic Church. The excellence of the climate, which is at once mild and bracing, offers peculiar advantages for delicate children. The greatest attention will be paid to the health and comfort of the pupils, as well as to their education and religious and moral training. English will be taught by a lady of superior attainments.

Terms: 40*l.* per annum. A reduction of 5*l.* is made on two or more sisters at school together, or for each child under twelve years of age.

Further details can be had on application to the Superioress, Mineham, Bournemouth. Reference can be made to the Rev. Father Clare, S.J., 111 Mount Street, London; Rev. Father Bateman, S.J., Richmond Hill, Bournemouth; or to the Lady Georgiana Fullerton, 27 Chapel Street, Park Lane, London.

For further particulars, apply to the Mother Superior, Convent of Mercy, Bristol Road. References are kindly permitted to the Very Rev. Canon Rymer and the Rev. J. Styles, Chapel House, Upper St. James Street, Brighton; Mrs. Macfarlane, 62 Portland Place, W., and to Miss Mylne, 27 Oxford Square, W.

HOLY TRINITY ORPHANAGE,

Markcross, near Tunbridge Wells.

Under the direction of the Sisters of the Holy Child Jesus, from St. Leonards-on-Sea.

This Orphanage was built by the late Duchess of Leeds, and endowed to a certain extent by Her Grace, for the education and training of girls deprived of both parents, to be received under certain conditions.

Besides those who are admitted on the Foundation Fund, the Sisters of the Holy Child Jesus are now enabled to receive a limited number of pupils at a pension of 12*l.* a year, payable quarterly in advance. The entrance fee is 2*l.*

For further particulars, apply to the Superioress.

CONVENT OF THE FAITHFUL VIRGIN,

Dover-street, Folkestone.

Under the patronage of the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster and His Lordship the Bishop of Southwark.

The Religious of the Community of Norwood have opened a branch house at Folkestone, where they receive young ladies for whom their parents or guardians require a superior education.

The position is one of the best in Folkestone, and the house possesses the advantage of a large flower- and fruit-garden, entirely walled round, and beautifully laid out.

The Religious also receive a few Lady Boarders who desire to enjoy the advantages of a sea-side residence in a quiet and comfortable establishment.

For terms and particulars, apply to Rev. Mother Superior, as above; or to Rev. Mother Superior, Convent, Upper Norwood, Surrey. References required.

(See p. 334.)

Secretary—Charles W. Cavendish, Esq., 2 The Terrace, Ryde, Isle of Wight.

Bankers—The London and Westminster Bank, St. James's Square, S.W.

N.B.—All Post-office Orders to be made payable at Vigo Street Post-office, London. Money may also be transmitted to the Treasurer, care of Messrs. Burns and Oates, 17 Portman Street, London, W.

The object of this association is to assist, by prayers and alms, the Catholic missionaries in foreign nations.

The prayers of the association are, one "Our Father" and one

“Hail Mary” each day. It will suffice to say, with this intention, the Pater and Ave of the morning or evening prayers, and to add the following invocation, “St. Francis Xavier, pray for us.”

The alms is one halfpenny a week. One member is charged to receive the subscriptions of ten, the amount of which he hands over to another member, who receives ten similar contributions, i.e. a hundred subscriptions. Donations made by persons not members, or by members over and above the ordinary subscription, will be gratefully received.

Two committees, one established at Paris and the other at Lyons, distribute the alms to the different missions. A number of “The Annals of the Propagation of the Faith” appears, translated from the French into English, every two months, beginning with January; and a copy is sent gratis to every ten members subscribing one halfpenny a week. The English “Annals” are published for the institution by Messrs. Burns and Oates, 17 Portman Street, W.; and sold by all booksellers, price sixpence per number.

CATHOLIC POOR-SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

This Committee, established by the Bishops in 1847, consists of forty-eight Deputies, three from each of the sixteen Dioceses of Great Britain; two being laymen and one a priest.

Its objects are thus described by the late Cardinal Wiseman: “Under Providence, the Poor-School Committee has been the very right hand of the Bishops in combining and concentrating, in a uniform plan and definite action, the multiplied relations between themselves, the State, and the Catholic public, in the growing cause of Education.”

The present Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster, in the name of the Bishops (May 2, 1867), wrote thus: “The Bishops have a deep sense of the usefulness and value of the Poor-School Committee, and of its office as the head and centre of our whole system of education.”

Beside many hundred grants made towards the building of new schools and in aid of support to needy schools, the great work which this Committee has prosecuted for more than twenty years is the supply of Trained and Certificated teachers. For this purpose it has established three Training Colleges—that of St. Mary, Hammersmith, for males; and those of Notre Dame, Mount Pleasant, Liverpool, and of the Sacred Heart, Wandsworth, for females. Of these, Hammersmith and Notre Dame have already sent out more than a thousand trained Teachers into Catholic Schools. Wandsworth is in the second year of its work; and the three have at present more than 200 Students in training. The fund for this work, so far as it is not met by the earnings of the Colleges from the public grant, is supplied by this Committee.

It has further, at the request of the Bishops, undertaken to supply salaries for Ecclesiastical Inspectors, so as to ensure systematic religious instruction in schools, in connection with rewards for meritorious teachers and for male pupil-teachers also supplied by it.

Its present revenues are very inadequate for the full carrying out of these various objects.

Chairman—The Lord Howard of Glossop.

Secretary and Treasurer—Thomas William Allies, Esq.

Offices of Committee—22 Portman Street, London, W.

Form of Bequest to the Catholic Poor-School Committee.

I give and bequeath to _____, or other the Chairman for the time being of the Catholic Poor-School Committee, whose receipt shall be a good discharge to my executors, the sum of £ _____, to be paid exclusively out of such parts of my personal estate as I can by law charge with the payment thereof; and to be applied under the direction, and to promote the charitable objects of the said Committee, or such of them as are not contrary to the true intent and meaning of the statute 9 George II. c. 36.

WESTMINSTER DIOCESAN EDUCATION FUND.

This Fund was established in June 1866, by the Cardinal Archbishop, to promote the religious and secular education of the Catholic Poor Children in the diocese of Westminster. The Fund is applicable to the erection and maintenance of

1. Certified Reformatory, Industrial, and Poor-Law schools;
2. Non-certified Orphanages;
3. Parochial Day-Schools.
4. To giving assistance in individual cases of Orphans and Destitute Children;
5. To giving Gratuities for the encouragement of Masters and Pupil-teachers.

In order to attain fully the objects of the Fund, a large permanent income is required. The sums already received from the generosity of the faithful have only been sufficient to start the good work; and a large part of them being promised only for three or five years, an effort is necessary to increase the number of contributors, so as to provide against a future diminution of income. It is therefore hoped that all who have at heart the salvation of the thousands of poor Catholic Children in London, and especially of those who, through the neglect or the loss of parents, are exposed to more than ordinary spiritual dangers, will, either by Annual Subscriptions or by Donations, coöperate to the utmost of their power in maintaining and extending the annual income of the Fund.

Contributions, in stamps or otherwise, will be gratefully received and acknowledged by the Serretary, the Rev. Thomas Seddon, Archbishop's House, Westminster, S.W.

Bankers—The London and Westminster Bank, Stratford Place, London, W.

Auditor—Francis Joseph Lescher, Esq., Boyles Court, Brentwood.

Treasurer.

Frank McGedy, Esq.

The Society grants pensions to poor persons, men and women; the former receive four shillings and the latter three shillings per week. A gift of money is also made every Christmas to all pensioners and approved petitioners.

The number of pensioners on the list and in receipt of weekly pensions is ONE HUNDRED AND SIX. One Guinea annually entitles the subscriber, after three years' subscription, to be a Governor, and to recommend one person to the Society, who, if approved, is placed on the list of approved applicants, and in due time becomes a pensioner of the Society for life.

Pensions of 20*l.* a year are likewise granted to Twenty aged Catholics in necessitous circumstances, and reduced from a superior station of society, from a fund intrusted to the institution by the late Miss Molineux. Candidates are elected by the votes of the governors and subscribers.

ALMSHOUSES, dedicated to St. Joseph, and in connection with the Aged Poor Society, have been erected at Brook-green, Hammersmith, separated only by a boundary wall from the Church of the Holy Trinity.

Vacancies are filled up by the votes of the governors and subscribers. Every subscriber of One Guinea to the Aged Poor Society, or Ten Shillings to the Almshouse Fund, is entitled to vote for each candidate, and can vote immediately on payment of the subscription.

Funds are much needed for the endowment of the Almshouses, in order to distribute a weekly allowance to the inmates, many of whom are in great necessity. Present means will only admit of a supply of coals.

The Catholic public are invited to visit this interesting charity, every information regarding which will be furnished on application to the Honorary Secretary.

Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received by the Patrons; Vice-Presidents; Directors; Treasurer; the Hon. Sec., A. C. Ryan, Esq., 58 Lincoln's Inn Fields, W.C.; and by the Assistant-Secretary, 31 Queen Square, W.C.

SECULAR CLERGY NEW FUND.

Administrators—Rev. E. Tayler, Rev. M. O'Halloran, Rev. T. Cahill, Rev. J. Wallace, D.D.

Secretary and Treasurer—Rev. P. O'Callaghan.

This Institution possesses the strongest claims upon the charity of the Catholic public. It provides a certain amount of support for the Clergy of the dioceses of Westminster and Southwark, when they are rendered incapable of performing their sacred duties through old age or infirmity.

The Administrators earnestly hope that many pious Catholics will become benefactors to this excellent Charity, and thus provide that their devoted priests, after they have spent their health in labouring for the flock of Christ, shall not be exposed to poverty and want in time of sickness or old age.

Three hundred and forty Masses are offered each year by the members of this Institution for its living and deceased benefactors.

Form of Bequest to this Charity.

I, A. B., do bequeath to the Rev. Patrick O'Callaghan, of 54 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, or to the Treasurer for the time being of the Institution called the Secular Clergy New Fund, the sum of £ , for the benefit of that Institution, to be paid out of such part of my personal estate as I can lawfully charge with the payment of legacies to charitable uses.

INFIRM CLERGY SOCIETY OF THE DIOCESE OF NEWPORT AND MENEVIA.

The Society is formed for the relief of Missionary Priests of the Diocese, who from infirmity are rendered incapable of fulfilling their clerical duties. But as the Society is recently established, the fund at present at its disposal is inadequate to its requirement; and it is therefore hoped that others besides the Catholics of the diocese may be induced to give it their support. Two Masses are offered by each member annually for all benefactors; and Mass is likewise offered by each for those who have contributed 10*l.* or more on their decease. The affairs of the Society are managed by a committee, consisting of the Lord Bishop of the Diocese and four of his Clergy: the Revv. Peter Lewis, Thomas Abbot, John Dawson, and the Right Rev. Abbot Gregory; to whom, or to the Secretary, Rev. Thomas Croft, Usk, Monmouthshire, donations and bequests can be made.

SHREWSBURY SECULAR CLERGY FUND.

This Fund has been established for the support of the infirm and superannuated Clergy of the diocese of Shrewsbury, and hence it commends itself to the charity of the Catholic public. In return, Mass is said monthly by each of the clergy who are members of the Fund for the benefactors both living and dead. Any person may become a benefactor by a donation of 10*l.*, for which forty Masses will be said; or by a donation of 5*l.*, for which twenty Masses will be said; or by a smaller contribution, which will entitle the donor to share in the monthly Masses for ever.

Other particulars may be had by application to the Treasurer, Very Rev. Canon Hilton, St. Mary's, Hooton, Cheshire; or to the Secretary, Rev. P. F. Baron, Puddington, Chester.

Form of Legacy to the Fund.

I bequeath to the Very Rev. William Hilton, of Hooton, Cheshire, Treasurer of the Society called the "Shrewsbury Secular Clergy Fund," or to the Treasurer of the same for the time being, the sum of £ , for the benefit of that Fund; and I earnestly hope that the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for the repose of my soul: but I do declare that this expression of my hope shall not be construed as a condition or trust attached to the same Legacy; and that the compliance with this my hope shall not be deemed necessary to give effect to the same Legacy.

ST. MARY'S TRAINING COLLEGE,

Hammersmith, London, W.

Principal—Rev. THOMAS GRAHAM.

This College is intended for young men who, after completing their apprenticeship as pupil-teachers in schools connected with the Committee of Council on Education, wish to become masters of elementary schools. Others can also be received, but it is of obligation that all should pass the Admission Examination.

Students desiring to be admitted, and managers of schools requiring masters, are requested to apply to the Principal.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL,

Established in France in 1833, and in England in 1844.

The chief objects of the Society are, visiting the poor, and promoting the education of orphan and destitute boys. In London, a shoe-black brigade is maintained.

Subscriptions, or donations of money or clothing, will be thankfully received by G. Blount, Esq., President of the Society in England, 28 Old Burlington Street, London, W.; or by the Secretary, at the office of the Society, 31 Queen Square, London, W.C.

Copies of the rules (2*d.* each), and every information respecting the Society, may be obtained at either of the above-mentioned addresses.

Donations are earnestly requested in support of these Charities, which have been established upwards of sixty years, and are supplying a good religious education to upwards of two thousand poor Catholic children. The Committee have to regret that, whilst the educational wants of the metropolis are every year increasing, the annual resources of these Charities are diminished. It is difficult to supply the places of those charitable benefactors who are every year called away to receive the reward of their good deeds. Donations will be thankfully received by the Cardinal Archbishop; by the Very Rev. Canon Bamber, Hon. Rev. A. W. Dolman.		Hon. and Very Rev. Canon Tal-
Very Rev. Canon Macmullen.		bot, D.D.

Treasurer-General.

C. Cavendish, Esq., 2 The Terrace, Ryde, Isle of Wight.

Secretary-General.

F. A. Sass, Esq., 83 Gloucester Place, Portman Square.

The Charity is established in the following parishes : St. Mary, Westminster ; SS. Peter and Edward, Westminster ; the Assumption, Warwick Street ; St. Mary, Chelsea ; St. Aloysius, Somers Town ; St. James, Spanish Place ; St. Patrick, Soho ; St. John the Evangelist, Islington ; Our Lady's Church, St. John's Wood ; St. Anselm and St. Cecilia, Lincoln's Inn Fields ; the Oratory, Brompton ; Our Lady of the Rosary, Marylebone Road ; St. Anne, Spicer Street, Spitalfields.

This Charity has for its object to assist the clergy in providing for children whose faith or morals are exposed to imminent danger through the death or helplessness of their parents. Weekly subscriptions from the poor are systematically collected by its active members throughout the parishes in which it is established ; and the proceeds of these collections, with the subscriptions and donations of the more affluent, are applied, under the control of the parochial clergy, in providing for children within their parish. By delegations from each affiliated parish, a central council is constituted : which, without in any way fettering the freedom of action of each parish within its own limits, promotes harmony, secures increased efficiency, develops larger general results, and provides for extraordinary contingencies out of the general fund at its disposal.

Contributions to the Central Fund will be thankfully received by the Directors ; by Charles Cavendish, Esq., Treasurer, 2 The Terrace, Ryde, Isle of Wight ; and by F. A. Sass, Esq., Secretary, 83 Gloucester Place, Portman Square.

Contributions to the Local Funds may be paid to the Chaplains or Secretaries of the districts.

The Rules and other Papers issued by the Charity may be had on application to the Secretary.

BENEVOLENT SOCIETY FOR THE RELIEF OF THE AGED AND INFIRM POOR.

Under the patronage of St. Gregory the Great.

The oldest Catholic charity in London. Founded A.D. 1761.

President—The Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.

Honorary Treasurer—John Young, jun., Esq.

Bankers—London and Westminster Bank, Lothbury.

Honorary Secretary—Arthur Butler, Esq.

One hundred poor persons, of above sixty years of age, receive 3s. per week; and a few are lodged in the almshouses in Hoxton Square, with an allowance of 5s. per week.

Donors of ten pounds, and subscribers of one guinea per annum for three years, can recommend one person as a pensioner; and subscribers of five pounds per annum can recommend two persons.

Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received by the Cardinal Archbishop; the Clergy of St. Mary's, Moorfields; of St. George's, Southwark; and of SS. Mary and Michael's, Commercial Road East; by John Young, Esq., Hon. Treasurer, 35 King Street, Cheapside, E.C.; and Arthur Butler, Esq., Hon. Secretary, 6 Austin Friars, E.C.

Form of Legacy to the Charity.

I give and bequeath unto John Young, jun., Esq., or the Treasurer, for the time being, of the Benevolent Society for the Relief of the Aged and Infirm Poor, established in the year 1761 in London, the sum of £ , to be paid out of such part of my personal estate as I can lawfully charge with the payment of legacies to charitable uses.

CATHOLIC GOVERNESS AGENCY,

AND DOMESTIC SERVANTS' REGISTRY OFFICE.

THE LADY SUPERINTENDENT,

12 Ball-street, King-street, Kensington.

ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC DEAF AND DUMB INSTITUTION FOR ENGLAND AND SCOTLAND,

Established under the invocation of St. John of Beverley, June 9, 1870, at Handsworth Woodhouse, near Sheffield; and committed to the care of the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent of Paul, Oct. 1st, 1871.—Removed to the new Institution, Boston Spa, near Tadcaster, July 17, 1875.

Patrons—His Grace the Duke of Norfolk, E.M.; the most noble the Marquis of Bute.

Presidents—His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster; His Grace the Most Rev. Charles Eyre, Archbishop of Anazarba, Apostolic Delegate for Scotland.

Vice-Presidents—The Right Rev. Robert Cornthwaite, Bishop of Beverley; and the Right Rev. the Bishops of England and Scotland.

Director of the Institution—The Very Rev. Monsignor Canon de Haerne, D.D., Deputy of the Belgian Chambers.

Hon. Secretary and Treasurer—M. E. Hadfield, Esq., Knowle House, Sheffield.

Annual subscriptions and donations now due for the year ending June 30, 1876, will be thankfully received by the Hon. Sec.; and also by Sister Mary Lambert, Superioress, from whom particulars, as for admission, pension, &c., may be obtained.

The very heavy expenses incurred in removing the Institution to Boston Spa, and the necessary alterations there, together with the increasing number of the children (now upwards of fifty), have seriously added to our anxieties; and additional subscriptions are urgently required. The Diocesan collections in aid of the purchase of the new premises are going on, and many kind benefactors have sent contributions to that fund. The object of this notice is for subscriptions to meet the current expenses, which greatly exceed the receipts from all sources.

CONVENT AND ORPHANAGE OF THE FAITHFUL VIRGIN,

Norwood, Surrey, S.E.

Orphans or destitute children are admitted into this Institution.

The Orphanage has been certified by the Poor-law Board for the reception of Catholic girls from workhouses.

Attached to this establishment is a small Orphanage at Dover Street, Folkestone, affording the benefit of sea air to the delicate Orphans.

For terms and particulars, apply to the Rev. Mother Superior, as above.

Donations and subscriptions will be thankfully received, and may be made payable to Madame Marie de St. Théodose, Norwood, Surrey; or to the Joint-Stock Bank, 69 Pall Mall, for the account of the Orphanage.

ST. MARY'S ORPHANAGE,

Park House, Blackheath.

This Institution has been divided into two divisions—1, for respectable fatherless children not of the poorest class ; 2, for children of the middle class from 8 to 12 years of age.

For particulars, apply to Very Rev. Canon Todd, D.D., or Rev. Thomas Foran.

ST. MARY'S ORPHANAGE,

North Hyde, near Southall Station.

This Diocesan Institution is certified by the Local Government Board for the education of boys chargeable to the poor-rates. The number of boys in the School is above 530. Owing to the increasing demand for admission, and the consequent enlargement of the premises, there is a debt of 1000*l.* A suitable Chapel is much needed, and the contributions of the public are earnestly solicited towards its erection and the payment of the debt.

Subscriptions to this good and great work will be thankfully received by the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster, and by the Administrator, Rev. Thomas Seddon, Archbishop's House, Westminster, S.W., to whom application is to be made for the admission of boys, and also for apprenticing them to masters.

CATHOLIC CEMETERIES.

The only public Catholic Cemeteries consecrated for general burials in or near London are, St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery, Kensal Green, W. ; and St. Patrick's Catholic Cemetery, Leyton, near Stratford, E.

There are chaplains in attendance for daily interments from two to four o'clock.

Rev. A. W. Dolman, Administrator, 49 Clarendon Square, N.W.

Single interments, all fees included, for adults, 1*l.* 1*s.* ; children under 10 years, 15*s.*

THE SISTERS OF CHARITY OF ST. VINCENT OF PAUL,

Carlisle-place, Victoria-street, Westminster

(Near the Victoria Station).

Under the patronage of the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster and the Rev. Father Clare, S.J.

The House of Charity contains the following works : an orphanage, work-room, and a day middle-school for girls ; classes of preparation for first Communion and catechetical instruction on Sundays for girls also ; an infant asylum and nursery ; a night-school for men and boys ; and the daily visiting and relieving of the poor and sick of the two parishes of Westminster, one of the most destitute parts of London.

At the same time that the Sisters return grateful thanks for the kindness of many generous benefactors, they are compelled to entreat the continuance and increase of the charitable assistance which is absolutely needed for the carrying out of these various works of mercy. A heavy debt still weighs upon the house: the support of the Sisters, and of many of the poor children under their care, depends on casual subscriptions and donations.

Yearly subscriptions, however small their amount, would be gladly accepted, and can be remitted to the Rev. Father Clare, S.J., 111 Mount Street, W.; the Rev. Father Zanetti, 12 Earl Street, Westminster; the Rev. Father Bown, 25 Palace Street, Westminster; the Lady Georgiana Fullerton, 27 Chapel Street, Park Lane; or the Sister Superioress, Carlisle Place, Victoria Street, Westminster.

Plain and fine needlework executed in the workroom; also embroidery and artificial flowers for churches.

Statues painted or decorated at moderate prices.

A Soup Kitchen will shortly be opened for the benefit of the poor of the two parishes, for which subscriptions in kind or money are most earnestly requested.

PROVIDENCE [ROW] NIGHT REFUGE AND HOME FOR DESTITUTE MEN, WOMEN, & CHILDREN.

Crispin-street, Bishopsgate-street Without, E.

Established A.D. 1860.

Three Hundred and Thirty-five Thousand Nights' Lodgings, with Suppers and Breakfasts, have been given to the Homeless, from every locality, since the commencement of this Institution. A Home has been opened in which women of a better class are housed and provided with work till employment is obtained.

Subscriptions and Donations are earnestly solicited, and will be gratefully acknowledged by the Treasurer, John Young, jun., Esq., C.C., 35 King Street, Cheapside, E.C., and the Very Rev. Daniel Canon Gilbert, D.D., V.G., 22 Finsbury Circus, E.C.

Form of Legacy to the Charity.

I give and bequeath unto Charles John Young, jun., Esq., C.C., or Treasurer for the time being of the Providence [Row] Night Refuge for Homeless Men, Women, and Children, established in the year 1860, in London, the sum of £ , to be paid out of such part of my personal estate as I can lawfully charge with the payment of legacies to charitable uses.

ST. ELIZABETH'S HOME,

Attached to the Franciscan Convent, Portobello-road, Bayswater.

This School, opened on the 4th of October 1868, has for its main object (next to their religious instruction) the training of young girls as domestic servants, each child being kept to the work for which she is naturally best suited.

Pension, 15*l.* a year ; entrance-fee, 2*l.*

Subscriptions earnestly requested for the building, only partially completed.

For further particulars, apply to the Mother Abbess.

ST. JOSEPH'S CONVENT OF OUR LADY OF MERCY,

Cadogan-street, Chelsea.

The charity of the faithful is earnestly solicited in behalf of this Convent and Poor-schools. The Sisters are just now incurring a very heavy debt in the necessary enlargement of their Convent, for which they implore help.

The Sisters, besides the care of the children, are daily engaged in visiting the sick and instructing the adults.

Subscriptions for this purpose may be sent to the Mother Superioress, by whom they will be gratefully received.

INSTITUTION FOR DOMESTIC SERVANTS,

15 Blandford-street, Portman-square, London, W.

ESTABLISHED 1846.

Under the patronage of the Clergy, Nobility, Gentry, &c.

Lists of any description of servants forwarded on receipt of 2*s.* 6*d.*, postage stamps, and for maids-of-all-work, 1*s.*

Families subscribing one guinea will be supplied with any description of servant they may want during the year. Subscriptions for upper-servants, 5*s.* ; under-servants, 2*s.* 6*d.*

THOMAS BOYCE, Secretary.

ST. PATRICK'S SCHOOLS, SOHO, AND FEMALE ORPHANAGE.

Patron—The Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.

This Charity, established in 1805, possesses three schools in Tudor Place, Tottenham Court Road, for the accommodation of nearly 500 children ; and an orphan branch for the shelter, education, and clothing of destitute female children who have lost both parents.

Subscriptions received by the Rev. Fathers, 21A Soho Square ; by the Rev. James Clare, S.J., 111 Mount Street, Grosvenor Square ; and also, if for the maintenance of orphans, by the Lady Georgiana Fullerton, 27 Chapel Street, Park Lane, W.

CONVENT OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD,

Hammersmith, W.

There are now two Convents of the Good Shepherd in Hammersmith. But the lease of the second (Eagle House) will expire shortly ; and the Nuns earnestly desire to build at Finchley, in order to remove there 150 penitents at least.

The Nuns return most grateful thanks for what has already been done for them, and make their usual return of masses and prayers.

The account for the Convent stands in the names of Mesdames Gillett and Weld, London and Westminster Bank, 4 Stratford Place, London.

HAMMERSMITH CATHOLIC SCHOOLS FOR GIRLS AND INFANTS.

Subscriptions for the support of these schools will be thankfully received by the Rev. Daniel O'Keeffe, Hammersmith; or by the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.

J.M.J. ✠

CONVENT OF THE SISTERS OF NAZARETH,

Nazareth-House, Hammersmith, London.

This Institution affords a permanent home to the aged and infirm poor of both sexes, invalid orphans, and deserted infants. It has no funds, and accepts no parish pay; but depends entirely upon the daily gatherings made by the Sisters in food, left-off apparel, and alms. Upwards of 300 can be accommodated.

Affiliated branch houses have been opened in Aberdeen, Scotland; Cardiff, South Wales; Northampton, Oxford, and Southend.

For particulars, apply to the Superioress: for Aberdeen, Nazareth House, Cuparstone; for Cardiff, Nazareth House, North Road; for Northampton, St. George's Place; for Oxford, Nazareth House, Cowley Road, St. Clement's; for Southend, Nazareth House, Milton Hall, Southend, Essex.

The branch house at Southend, situated in the healthiest place, near the sea-side, has been opened especially for the benefit of infirm and delicate children; and, having been greatly enlarged, it will accommodate eighty inmates.

For further particulars, apply to Madame V. Larmenier, the general Superioress, Nazareth House, Hammersmith.

J.M.J.

THE LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR.

ST. JOSEPH'S HOME FOR THE AGED,

Portobello-road, Notting Hill, W.

The Sisters provide a home for destitute old men and women of good character. They have now 220 under their charge, and are entirely depending on charity.

Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received by the Mother Superior; or by Miss Margaret Fallon, one of the Sisters.

THE LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR.

ST. PETER'S HOME FOR THE AGED,

Trigon-road, Fentiman-road, South Lambeth.

The object of the Sisters is the same which is stated in the foregoing notice. They have 70 old men and 85 old women in their house, and are completely depending on charity.

Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received by the Mother Superior; or by Miss Margaret Jacques, one of the Sisters.

J. M. J.

HOME FOR THE AGED POOR,

Under the care of the Little Sisters of the Poor,

70 Hope-street, Liverpool.

The Sisters, who in the work they undertake are entirely dependent upon charity, have now under their care fifty aged poor. The house which they temporarily occupy is quite filled, and day by day they are compelled to refuse applications from others who ask for a shelter. They earnestly desire to increase the accommodation, and beg to be enabled to provide larger premises. Land, and money to build, are urgently asked. Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received by the Bishop of Liverpool, Bishop's House, 31 Rodney-street; by any of the Clergy in the town; by the Mother Superior; or by Miss Theresa Arnold, one of the Sisters.

SISTERS OF MISÉRICORDE

(OF SÉEZ),

St. Vincent's House, 49 Queen-street, Hammersmith, W.

The object of this Community is to nurse, at their own homes, invalids, whether rich or poor, Catholics or others.

For further particulars, apply to the Rev. Mother, as above.

CONVENT OF NOTRE DAME DU BON SECOURS

(Head House in Paris).

Under the patronage of the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.

The Sisters of Bon Secours, having founded a branch house in London, devote themselves to the care of the Sick, in their own houses.

For further particulars, address Madame la Supérieure, 50 Norfolk Terrace, Bayswater, London, W.

SISTERS OF BON SECOURS (OF TROYES),

21 Maitland-park Villas, Haverstock Hill, N.W.

The Sisters of Bon Secours of Troyes have, with the kind permission of the Cardinal Archbishop, been established at the above address.

These Sisters attend to and nurse the Sick of all religions, under what malady soever they are suffering, at their own homes.

All applications for nursing Sisters should be addressed to the Sister Superior.

ST JOSEPH'S CONVALESCENT HOME,

Bournemouth,

For the reception of Female Patients suffering from diseases of the chest.

Under the patronage of His Lordship the Bishop of Southwark, the Rev. Fathers, S.J., Her Grace the Duchess of Norfolk, the Dowager Marchioness of Londonderry, H. E. the Countess de Torre Diaz, the Lady Georgiana Fullerton, Mrs. Arthur Maude.

Hon. Physician.—Dr. Compton.

Hon. Surgeon.—P. W. Nunn, Esq.

Superintendent.—Miss Shea, to whom application for rules and admission can be made at the Home.

Subscriptions and donations are earnestly requested, and can be sent to the Countess de Torre Diaz, 21 Devonshire-place, W.; the Lady Georgiana Fullerton, 27 Chapel-street, Park-lane, W.; Mrs. Arthur Maude, Brachenwood, Bournemouth.

THE ORPHANAGE OF ST. PHILIP NERI,

Oliver-road, Ladywood, Birmingham.

The object of this Institution is to provide a home and education for poor orphan boys, until they are old enough to go to work.

The pension is 12*l.* per annum, with entrance-fee of 10*s.*

For particulars apply to the Rev. H. Austin Mills, the Oratory, Edgbaston, Birmingham, by whom donations and subscriptions will be thankfully received.

MARYVALE ORPHANAGE, FOR GIRLS ONLY,

Perry Barr, near Birmingham.

Terms : for children under 10 years, 10*l.* per annum.

This Orphanage, established by the Bishop of Birmingham in 1851, is under the care of the Sisters of Mercy. Donations and annual subscriptions towards the support of the children, as well as orders for plain altar linen, or plain needlework of any kind, are urgently needed, and will be most thankfully received by the Superioress.

When no outfit is provided for a child, an entrance-fee of 1*l.* is usually charged.

Post-office orders payable to Mrs. Jane Buggins, Perry Barr.

ST. FRANCIS'S ORPHANAGE,

Pantasaph, Holywell.

Under the special patronage of His Lordship the Bishop of Shrewsbury.

The Sisters of Charity of our Lady of Mercy, having the care of two Poor-schools attached to St. David's Church, have also the management of an Orphanage for Girls.

Children are admitted at a yearly pension of ten pounds. A limited number of five orphans are maintained gratis. In proportion to the contributions of subscribers towards this charitable end, this number will be increased.

For information and subscriptions, apply to the Superioress, Madame Smarius, Pantasaph, Holywell.

CONVENT OF ST. ROSE,

Stroud, Gloucestershire.

Boarding School for children of the working classes.

Terms: 10*l.* per annum, to be paid quarterly in advance. No extras.

This School is open for girls, to teach them such work as will enable them to obtain respectable situations, and also to give them a plain religious and secular education.

ST. ANNE'S INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL,

60 Mason-street, Edge Hill, Liverpool.

VESTMENTS.

The Sisters of St. Vincent de Paul in charge of the Institution have very successfully taught the girls the Silk Embroidery for Church work, and any orders can now be executed there.

A varied assortment of patterns of silks and laces is kept, to facilitate the choice of persons ordering.

Church linen of every description also made by the girls at moderate prices.

ST. MARY'S HOSPITAL,

Attached to the Convent of St. Dominic, Stone, Staffordshire;

AND

ST. MARGARET'S HOSPITAL,

Attached to the Convent of Our Lady of Angels, Stoke-upon-Trent, Staffordshire.

Both these Hospitals are intended for the reception of female patients of good character afflicted with incurable diseases, with the view of providing them with a happy home for life, where they can receive all the care their suffering state requires. About thirty patients are accommodated in each hospital.

The annual pension is 20*l.*; entrance fee, 2*l.* A higher pension is charged for patients requiring single rooms.

Annual subscriptions, even of small sums, would materially assist this institution, by enabling the Religious to receive a larger number of patients gratuitously, and donations of clothing, bedding, and old linen would be most welcome.

Contributions will be thankfully received at the Convent of St. Dominic, Stone; at the Convent of our Lady of Angels, Stoke-upon-Trent; and also by the Very Rev. Canon Northcote, D.D., President of St. Mary's College, Oscott, near Birmingham.

THE ONLY CATHOLIC BLIND ASYLUM IN GREAT BRITAIN,

59 Brunswick-road, Liverpool.

Under the charge of the Sisters of Charity.

Established in 1841. Has received the special blessing of His Holiness the Pope; and is under the patronage of the Bishop of Liverpool.

Is supported by the pensions of the pupils (10*l.* 16*s.* per ann.), supplemented by: 1. Sale of work in the shop; 2. Proceeds of annual bazaar of accumulated goods; 3. Subscriptions and donations.

Contributions will be thankfully received by the Rev. Thomas Porter, S.J., President, 8 Salisbury-street, Liverpool; Mr. Joseph M. Browne, Treasurer, Carlton Villa, Derwent-road, Stoneycroft; Mr. John Lomax, jun., Secretary, 17 Cumberland-street; and by Sister Maxwell, Superioress.

BLESSED BENEDICT JOSEPH LABRE'S CRÈCHE, OR DAY-NURSERY,

4 Bulstrode-street, Manchester-square, W.

Under the management of the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent of Paul.

Infants under three years old are taken care of during the day, whilst their mothers are at work, at a charge of 3*d.* each up to six o'clock, and one penny per hour afterwards up to nine o'clock. In the same house there are also the following works of charity under the management of the Sisters:

A Night-Class for women and girls whose education has been neglected, or who are unable to attend school.

A Day-School for a class of children above the very poor, by which many are prevented from attending non-Catholic schools.

A Soup-Kitchen, under the direction of the Rev. Edward Tayler, in which a dinner is given daily to about one hundred of the children attending the parochial schools.

A Home for poor girls, from the age of 11 to about 15, has lately been established, under the patronage of Our Lady of Lourdes of the Immaculate Conception.

The Sisters of Charity, whilst returning sincere thanks to their generous benefactors, earnestly beg for a continuance of their support.

The Night Home for poor girls, in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, will be added to the above works as soon as suitable premises can be secured for the purpose. Further subscriptions for this work are earnestly requested.

Subscriptions and donations, however small, will be gratefully received by the Superioress, Sister Joseph Costello, 4 Bulstrode Street, Manchester Square; by the Rev. Michael Barry, 6 Spanish Place, Manchester Square; or by the Lady Petre, 35 Portland Place.

CONVENT OF OUR LADY OF THE SACRED HEART,

Hassett-road, Homerton, E.

Under the patronage of the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.

The neighbourhood visited by the Servants of the Sacred Heart of Jesus is the poorest in London, and includes South Hackney, Hackney Wick, and Homerton, Spicer Street, White-chapel, Mile End Road, Stratford, and Victoria Docks. They give religious instruction to the poor and ignorant in the neighbourhood of the Convent. They teach a Day and Sunday School at the Guardian Angels, Mile End. They also give their care gratuitously to the sick poor night and day in these poor neighbourhoods; and they have a dispensary for dressing wounds at the Convent.

The Servants of the Sacred Heart, whilst returning sincere thanks to their generous benefactors, earnestly beg for a continuance of their support.

An orphanage for poor children over seven years of age is now opened, under the care of the Sisters, in which the children are boarded, lodged, and clothed for 12*l.* per ann. They are trained for domestic service, and other useful occupations suitable to their class of life.

For further particulars, apply to the Reverend Mother.

CONVENT OF OUR LADY OF PITY,

Princes-row, Newport Market, Soho.

The Poor Servants of the Mother of God visit the poor in the parish of St. Patrick's, Soho, which includes the 'Seven Dials,' and are constantly meeting with cases of great destitution. The Sisters have an evening school for girls, a Sunday evening school, and a mothers' meeting. Contributions of money and clothing, whether old or new, thankfully received.

ST. ANN'S HOME,

Attached to St. Wilfrid's Convent, Cale-street, Chelsea.

Orphans or destitute children are received in this establishment. Pension, 12*l.* a year; entrance-fee, 2*l.*

Donations will be gratefully received by the Superioress.

For further particulars, apply to the Superioress.

ESTABLISHMENT FOR THE TREATMENT OF MENTAL MALADIES,

St. George's Retreat, Burgess Hill, Sussex.

This Institution is under the immediate control of a community of Augustinian nuns, who have had long practical experience in the care of persons mentally afflicted, having been trained to their duties in the Asylums of the Very Rev. Canon Maes, Bruges, and under whose direction this Institution is guided.

Spacious buildings have been erected for the special object of the establishment under the personal superintendence of its founder, and are replete with every comfort and appliance necessary for the welfare of the patients.

The Institution is intended for both sexes, and is situate on an estate of 250 acres, in a picturesque and healthy neighbourhood, within a mile and a half from Burgess Hill Station on the London and Brighton Railway.

A chaplain who assists in the direction of the Institution resides on the grounds, and a highly qualified Physician is also attached to the establishment.

For particulars as to terms, &c., apply to the Rev. Mother Superior, St. George's Retreat, Burgess Hill, Sussex.

ST. MARY'S HOME,

ATTACHED TO THE CONVENT OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE CROSS, West Grinstead, Horsham, Sussex.

ORPHANAGE FOR GIRLS.

Orphans or destitute children are received into this establishment.

The Home has been certified by the Local Government Board for the reception of Catholic girls from workhouses.

Donations and subscriptions will be thankfully received.

For terms and particulars, apply to the Superioress.

POOR SERVANTS OF THE MOTHER OF GOD,

123 Mount-street, Grosvenor-square, W.

The Sisters of this Congregation undertake every kind of washing. The Sisters also undertake blanchissage à neuf (i. e. getting up woollen and silk materials, as well as fine muslins, to look as new); also dentelle à neuf (getting up every kind of lace to look as new). These two branches were learnt in foreign convents.

The object of this Congregation is to send out small communities of Sisters to poor Missions, and to render them as far as can be self-supporting.

ST. JOSEPH'S CATHOLIC LENDING LIBRARY,

50 South-street, Grosvenor-square.

Open daily from half-past ten to five o'clock.

Terms: For a year, 1 vol., 10s. 6d.; 3 vols. (or in the country, 4 vols.), 1l. 1s. Half-year, 1 vol., 6s.; three vols., 10s. 6d. 5 guineas (for families in the country or dépôts in town or country), 25 vols. at a time.

CATHOLIC BOOK CLUBS.

For the convenience of Catholics residing in the country, the Managers of St. Joseph's Library are willing to make arrangements for Catholic Book Clubs, by means of which three or four families can combine their subscriptions, and enjoy the advantage of a greater variety of books at the same time. Terms can be ascertained by communication with the Managers at the above address.

RESTORATION TO CATHOLIC WORSHIP OF THE OLD CHURCH OF ST. ETHELDREDA, Ely-place.

This gem of medieval art having been purchased by the Fathers of Charity with all their available funds, they appeal with confidence to the public to enable them to restore it in a manner worthy of its sacred and historical character.—W. LOCKHART, St. Etheldreda's, 14 Ely-place, London, E.C.

BOARDERS. The Fathers of Charity receive a few Gentlemen to board with them, and reside in a house near their Presbytery. Priests from the country or students from Catholic Colleges, having business in London, can be received. Application a week before is requisite, to Father Lockhart, as above.

DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES in the Convent of the Sisters of the Institute of Charity, next door to St. Etheldreda's Church, 15 Ely-place. Terms, one guinea per quarter. Address the Superioress.

CAMBRIDGE.

Cambridge sadly needs a larger church. A good freehold site has been secured and paid for. The only sum in hand is 50*l.*, the gift of a kind friend at a distance. Without the generous aid of such friends, prudence forbids us to begin the much prayed for, much needed church.

Contributions will be thankfully acknowledged by the Lord Bishop of Northampton, and by Canon (Thomas) Quinlivan, 3 Hills-road, Cambridge.

MISSION OF MARKET HARBOROUGH,

Leicestershire.

Subscriptions and donations are earnestly solicited towards the erection of a church and schools at Harborough.

The undertaking is undoubtedly a work of charity, and deserving of the friendly encouragement of every zealous Catholic.

The present chapel is the upper floor of a small cottage, which cannot afford accommodation even to the already existing Catholics. It is far from being a decent place of worship and a suitable temple for the living God on earth.

As this great work cannot be accomplished without the charitable support of the faithful beyond the district (the Harborough Catholics being but few and mostly poor), we have to apply to the Catholics of England at large, and we appeal with confidence to their charity and generosity, trusting that Almighty God will move their hearts, and that they will give, if not much, at least a little, to the priest of God in order to enable him to do His work.

Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received by His Lordship the Bishop of Nottingham, and by the Rev. R. Vandepitte, Westron-terrace, Market Harborough.

English boarders are received on the same terms as at Beaucamps. The Establishment is at one extremity of Lille; but by tramways it is only ten minutes from the railway-station and the centre of the town, thus combining all the advantages of the town and the country.

Besides the ordinary school course, the pupils have every facility for extending their sphere of knowledge by frequent visits to the public institutions.

Further details may be had on application to the Superior, 9 Polygon, Clarendon Square, London, or 8 Albert Place, Spicer Street, Spitalfields, London.

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR BOYS,

Pensionnat de Beaucamps près Lille, France.

(Eight hours from London, viâ Calais. Fare, 22s. ; if under twelve years, 16s.)

Conducted and taught by the Marist Brothers.

Under the patronage of His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Cambrai.

The sound, commercial, and Continental education acquired by boys taught in this Establishment has, during the last thirty years, elicited the warmest approbation from English parents. The most scrupulous attention is given by the Brothers to the religious training, manners, and habits of pupils confided to their care, while their health, happiness, and progress in studies, are matters of constant solicitude.

This magnificent school, besides being situated in the open country amid the rich scenery of France, possesses the advantage of having an English Department, well organised and taught by Professors from the Society's schools in England. The constant intercourse which exists between the French and English boys during recreation, promenades, &c., as well as the superior system of study adopted by the French Professors, render the acquisition of this language easy and agreeable.

Instrumental and vocal music, Gymnastics, &c., taught by experienced Professors. Pupils are conducted to and from London by a member of the Community.

Pension, 25*l.* ; includes all extras.

For prospectuses, apply to the Superior at the above address; or to one of the branch houses in London : 9 Polygon, Clarendon Square, Somers Town ; 8 Albert Place, Mile-end New Town.

BOARDING SCHOOL OF THE RELIGIEUSES DE LA MÈRE DE DIEU.

Chaussée de Lambersart, près Lille, France.

The Nuns of the Society of the Mother of God devote themselves exclusively to the work of education.

To inspire their pupils with respect and love for religion ; to develop their minds, strengthen their wills, and make them loving and grateful to their parents ; to cause them to appreciate the happiness of family life ; to warn them of their faults, so as not to have to punish them ; to correct them kindly, yet firmly ; in a word, to make them such that they may be loved and respected ;—this is the end which the Nuns propose to themselves, and by which they hope to send back their pupils to their homes with a love of duty and of serious occupation, and a dislike for that capricious and slothful life which is injurious to soul and body.

Subjects that are taught :— Religious instructions, reading, writing, grammar, arithmetic, book-keeping, geography, mythology, general history, logic, rhetoric, literature, physical and natural history ; also every kind of needlework, the pupils finding their own materials.

The means of emulation are daily notes of progress, and a roll of honour, monthly medals, quarterly examinations, and, at the end of the year, the distribution of prizes, to reward good conduct and success in study.

Terms: 772 francs ; general extras, 100 francs ; also 80 francs for pupils who remain during the vacations.

When two sisters enter at the same time, a reduction is made.

If the parents require it, the clothing, uniform, &c. will be provided in the convent.

Officium Hebdomadæ Sanctæ: id est Pars II. Antiphonarii Romani, continens Officia secundum Missale, Breviarium et Pontificale Romanum, a Dominica Palmarum usque ad Dominicam in Albis. Cum Cantu emendato editum sub auspiciis SS. D. N. Pii IX. Curante S. Rituum Congreg. Cum privilegio, 1875. 8vo, red and black. In the press, to appear early in 1876.

This edition will be much more complete than those ordinarily in use; it contains the complete notation of the Passion, the proper inflection of the final verses of the Tenebræ Psalms, &c.

Ordinarium Missæ, sive Cantiones Missæ Communes pro diversitate Temporis et Festorum per annum, excerptæ ex Graduali Romano : quod curavit S. Rituum Congreg. sub auspiciis SS. D. N. Pii IX. P.M. Editio secunda, 1873. 8vo, 86 pp., 9d., red and black.

This contains the fourteen Masses of the Gradual, with the Asperges, Vidi aquam, the Responsory Libera me Domine, and the whole of the Requiem Mass, the Responses at High Mass, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The same in large folio, 1872, 120 pp. Red and black, machine-made paper, 11s.; hand-made paper, 15s.

Organum ad Graduale Romanum : quod curavit S. Rit. Congreg. Sectio I. continens Proprium et Commune Sanctorum nec non Festa pro aliquibus locis harmonice ornata a Fr. Xav. Haberl, Capellæ Magistro, et Jos. Hanisch, Organædo Cathedralis Ratisbonensis. 1875. 4to, 264 pp. 7s. 6d. Sectio II. continens Proprium Missarum de Tempore. 4to, 7s. 6d.

Organum comitans ad Ordinarium Missæ : composuit Fr. Witt. 1872. 4to, 108 pp. 4s.

Ordo Exsequiarum pro defunctis adultis et parvulis; una cum Officio, Missa, et Absolutione Defunctorum. Editio Ratisbonensis prima ex Rituali, Missali, Graduali et Breviario Romano, prævia adprobatione Congreg. S. Rituum, accurate deprompta et pro majori canentium præsertim commoditate apte disposita. 1872. 8vo, 88 pp. Red and black, 1s. 6d.

This contains all the Gregorian notation necessary for funerals, the complete Office and Mass of the Dead, &c.

Processionale Romanum, sive Ordo sacr. Processionum e Rituali Romano depromptus, additis quæ similia in Missali et Pontificali Romano habentur. Editio Ratisbonensis prima pro majori canentium præsertim commoditate apte disposita. 1873. 8vo, 88 pp. Red and black, 1s. 6d.

This edition contains the ecclesiastical chant for Processions on the feast of the Purification, Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, St. Mark, the Rogations, Vigil of Pentecost, Corpus Domini, and other Processions; the Litanies of the Holy Name and of Loreto, the Order for receiving the Bishop of the Diocese, &c.

Rituale Romanum, &c. cum Appendicesive Collectione Benedictionum et Instructionum S. Sedis auctoritate approbatarum seu permissarum in usum et commoditatem Missionariorum Apostolicorum aliorumque Sacerdotum digesta. Cum approbatione S. Rituum Congreg. 1872. 8vo, 464 pp. Red and black, 6s.

Vesperale Romanum : id est Pars prima Antiphonarii Romani continens Vesperas cum Completorio juxta ordinem Breviarii Romani, cum Cantu emendato, additis novissimis Sanctorum Officiis, editum sub auspiciis SS. D. N. Pii IX. P.M. Curante S. Rit. Congreg. 1875. 8vo, red and black, 10s.

This edition is uniform with the Directorium Chori, and contains the best traditional version of the Antiphonal, so far as Vespers and Compline are concerned, with a completeness of detail not to be found in any existing Vesperal.

Bound in fancy cloth, in Two Volumes, cap 8vo, price 7s. 6d.

“CATECHISM OF CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE,

Approved for the use of the Faithful in all the Dioceses of England and Wales,”

Familiarly explained by the Rev. PATRICK POWER, Translator of Orsini’s “Life of the Blessed Virgin,” and of Orsini’s “History of the Devotion to the Blessed Virgin,”

With the Imprimatur of the ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER.

Third and improved edition, in Three Volumes, bound in fancy cloth, price 10s. 6d.

CATECHISM:

Doctrinal, Moral, Historical, and Liturgical.

By the Rev. PATRICK POWER.

Letters from his Eminence Cardinal Cullen, and from nearly all the Prelates in Ireland, strongly recommending the works, are inserted in the commencement of vol. i.

“I consider your Catechism a beautiful and useful work—I think the best in the English language.”—Rev. THOMAS LONGMAN.

“Most highly praised by the Rev. F. Potter in his work Pastor and People, where it is declared to be one of the best Catechisms ever published.”—Directorium Sacerdotale.

“A work of the greatest practical utility, and one of which we cannot speak in too high a manner. For order of arrangement, for judicious brevity, combined with sufficient fulness of matter, and for general usefulness to the missionary priest, we know of no work on the Catechism more worthy of commendation than that of the Rev. Patrick Power.”—Rev. THOMAS J. POTTER.

BURNS & OATES, London; JAMES DUFFY, SONS, & Co., Dublin.

CHURCH HISTORY OF IRELAND.

By the Rev. S. MALONE, M.R.I.A.

Second Edition, price 7s. 6d.

From the Westminster Gazette.

This able work, from a gifted pen, will be read with pleasure by every scholar desirous of becoming acquainted with the ancient ecclesiastical history of Ireland. The reverend and learned author displays great research in the course of this interesting and instructive work. He is a careful compiler of historical facts, and comments very impartially on them. He frequently corrects errors fallen into by other eminent writers on them.

The Oratory, Brompton, May 2d, 1867.

MY DEAR REV. SIR,—... Your volume has just come to hand. I see at once, on cutting the leaves, that it embraces a wide range of interesting matter, and is replete with learning of the best kind. It will, I hope, have the success which it so well merits, and I doubt not I shall gain much instruction by its perusal.

I am, my dear Rev. Sir,

Very faithfully yours,

Rev. S. MALONE.

The above is by far the fullest and most complete edition published. Besides combining all the more recent formulas of devotion, and the RITES FOR ADMINISTERING THE VARIOUS SACRAMENTS (with rubrical instructions and preliminary explanations on each more complete than are given in any other reprint of this Manual), it still retains, to a great extent, those distinctive and valuable features in the shape of Summaries of Christian Doctrine, Rules for Daily Life, Hints and Methods for Meditation, &c., which gave the older editions their peculiarly comprehensive spiritual character, but which have been omitted altogether from more recent adaptations of the work. These latter may be said, in fact, to have so far obliterated all the original and long-prized characteristics, as to have simply pirated the title, and to remain "Gardens of the Soul" merely in name.

We may also quote, as distinguishing characteristics, the OFFICE OF VESPERS, NOT RESTRICTED TO THAT OF SUNDAY, but arranged for Feasts of the various classes; as also an ample assortment of special Psalms, Hymns, and Canticles, given mostly in the two languages. The utility of this arrangement must be apparent to all who use this Manual in connection with the various public Offices of the Church.

Other editions of the same (somewhat abridged), 18mo, large type.

R. WASHBOURNE'S

POPULAR EDITION OF

THE GARDEN OF THE SOUL,

EDITED BY THE

REV. R. G. DAVIS,

Of which, in four years, Ten Thousand Copies have been sold.

This is the only edition that at the same time retains all the old familiar prayers that have made the GARDEN OF THE SOUL a household book, and yet contains all those devotions that are now of such constant use. The translations of the Psalms, &c., are taken from the Douay version, rendered most venerable by its use by our Catholic Ancestors. This edition of the GARDEN OF THE SOUL is especially distinguished by bearing the IMPRIMATUR OF THE CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER.

This is the only full and complete edition published. Great care has been taken to clear away many errors and imperfections that are to be found in other editions. Amongst the many valuable additions, not before inserted in the GARDEN OF THE SOUL, will be found the rites of administering the Sacraments in Latin and English, Devotions to the Sacred Heart, Devotion of the Quarant' Ore, the Prayers for a Journey, or Itinerarium, Devotions to the Angel Guardians, the Way of the Cross, the Devotion of the Bona Mors, and many other devotions. Especial attention is directed to the excellent paper and bold type used in the edition.

"This is one of the best editions we have seen of one of the best of all our Prayer Books. It is well printed in clear large type, on good paper."—Catholic Opinion.

"A very complete arrangement of this which is emphatically the Prayer Book of every Catholic household. It is as cheap as it is good, and we heartily recommend it."—Universe.

"Two striking features are the admirable order displayed throughout the book, and the insertion of the Indulgences in small type above the Indulged Prayers. In the Devotions for Mass the editor has, with great discrimination, drawn largely on the Church's prayers as given us in the Missal."—Weekly Register.

“It is not to be expected that in such a vast collection all should be of equal merit and matter. Not one, perhaps, could be found which does not contain more suggestive remarks than we are accustomed to hear from the modern pulpit in a month. Faber is brief, but what he says he has thought well over, and it is always worth hearing. Faber could vary his matter to suit his hearers. Preaching before the University, he discussed learned questions in divinity with great lucidity; but preaching to the good citizens of Ingoldstadt, he confined himself to practical instructions.”

“Few ancient preachers would be more serviceable to a clergyman of the present day, or more acceptable to an English congregation.”—Baring-Gould's Post Med. Preachers.

EASTERN COUNTIES' SCHOOL DESK (CONVERTIBLE).

Advantages.—Strength, simplicity, rapid and safe transformation. It cannot be tampered with. The top falls either way, as required; a great convenience, preventing the need of turning the seat round.

The best Desk made for the purpose of a DESK; a TABLE and SEAT, or COMFORTABLE BACKED SEAT, to face either way.

THE COLLEGIATE SCHOOL DESK (REGISTERED).

FOR SEATING CHILDREN IN PAIRS, upon the Continental system; has low back, inclined foot-rail, wide shelf for books, &c., slots for slates, &c.

In this system a transverse passage is left between each desk, but no space is lost in passages behind the desks, so that the scholars in class may be five deep, in lieu of three deep, as on the usual plan.

The educational advantages of this system may be briefly stated:

- 1st. A nearer approach to the isolation of the scholar is effected than possible by the use of long desks.
- 2d. Increased convenience to the children, and a better ventilation between them.
- 3d. A more efficient supervision by the teacher, who can proceed direct to any scholar without disturbance to the rest.
- 4th. Greater facility for drawing out the classes.

SCHOOL FURNITURE.

WE respectfully call the attention of the Clergy and others interested in the erection of Schools to the various arrangements of DESKS and other FURNITURE, Designed by Mr. SIDEBOTHAM, and Manufactured solely by us. The several varieties, the results of many years' experience, are adapted to almost all requirements; and we would especially note an arrangement of

CONVERTIBLE DESK,

TO FORM BOTH

DESK, TABLE, AND BACKED SEAT,

AND FITTED WITH A

FOLDING KNEELER AND FOOT-RAIL.

For School-Churches this is almost indispensable. When used as Seats, each Bench is fitted with a most comfortable Kneeling-board, which, for School use, is turned completely over, and utilised as a Foot-rail for the Children, so forming a most important addition to the Desk.

OUR SHOW-ROOMS contain an extensive assortment of School Furniture and Apparatus, inspection of which is invited. All Furniture of guaranteed quality, at reasonable prices. Inferior qualities are not supplied.

TO THE CATHOLIC CLERGY OF ENGLAND.

REV. SIRS,

We have the pleasure to inform you that the Spanish Altar Wine, VINO SANTO, our special importation, has met with such general approval that it has placed us in a position, by largely increasing our shipping orders, to quote the price at 21s. per dozen, carriage paid to any Station in the Midland Counties, instead of 24s. as heretofore; maintaining at the same time in their perfect integrity the high qualities which have made this Wine so favourably known.

Vino Santo is a most delicious Wine for the table, and on account of its perfect purity is much used, and strongly recommended by medical men for invalids.

This Wine is prepared for us by a Catholic Firm of high standing at Jerez, in whose charge the Wine remains from the pressing of the grapes till its shipment to us.

We are, Rev. Sirs,

Yours very respectfully,

W. R. MAGRATH & CO.

ALTAR WINE.

A FINE SHERRY,

THE PRODUCT OF THE ZEREZ DISTRICT,

Especially made for and imported by me only, for the exclusive use of the Altar, and

Guaranteed Pure 22s. per Dozen.

Sold to the Clergy only.

Much trouble and expense has been incurred by me to secure the thorough purity of this Wine. I hold the most complete guarantees and assurances that in its preparation the object for which it is intended is not for a single moment lost sight of. Being therefore in a position where I can so conscientiously allow this Wine to be used for the Altar, I have no doubt that in a few years it will be the leading Wine in use in England for that purpose; for, in consequence of the mutual sacrifice in profits made by both the consumer and ourselves, its quality is far superior even to that of Wines of much higher value.

date of Invoice.

Received from the Right Rev. Monsignor Croskell, Vicar-General of the Diocese of Salford.

"From my knowledge of Mr. James Thornton jun. as an upright Catholic Wine Merchant, and from the certificates which he holds, I am persuaded that the Wine which he sells for the use of the Altar is pure and genuine.—Signed and certified by me,

ANALYSIS.

“I have examined the Wines sent to me. The Dry Wine yielded the following results:

Specific gravity, 995.0.

Absolute alcohol by volume	0.21 per cent.
Total free acid (calculated as tartaric acid)	0.42 ”
Sugar and extract	2.12 ”
Ash	0.22 ”

The Sweet Wine differs from the above in containing a larger amount of sugar. They are clearly good wholesome Wines, made according to the usual Spanish method, as is shown by the presence of sulphate of potassium in the ash. They are not fortified too much; and the spirit used for this purpose appears to be good.

“They are far superior to the ordinary Sherries imported to this country.

No. 11 is J. A.'s improved Three-Wheel Albert Chair, with a hood. It is elegant and easy.

The following gratifying Letter has been received by Mr. ALDERMAN from GENERAL GARIBALDI.

(COPY.)

"CAPRERA, Aug. 1863.

"Mr. ALDERMAN,—Some time ago I addressed to you a few words of thanks for your magnificent bed, which has been so great a comfort to me during my illness. Now I hear with regret that my letter has miscarried, and I willingly come forward again to express my gratitude to you. You have alleviated half my sufferings. My affectionate thankfulness will accompany you eternally. Accept a grasp of the hand from yours ever,

"G. GARIBALDI."

No. 8 is J. A.'s Patent Portable Equilibrium Carrying Chair, which enables an invalid, however weighty, to be carried up and down stairs with perfect ease and safety; the Chair always adjusting itself, enables the two persons who carry to walk up and down stairs in the usual way, quite erect, with their arms straight down, which avoids any strain upon their muscles. It is also a perfect Easy-chair for the patient to sit in during the day, the carrying handles being made to hook on and off in an instant.

The apparatus may be seen at work in the offices of the Department of Science and Art, in St. Paul's, York Minster, St. George's Chapel. Windsor, and seventeen other Cathedrals in England alone, besides MORE THAN TWO THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED CHURCHES, also in Government and other Public and Private Buildings, too numerous to name in an advertisement.

For Convents' Schoolrooms, an efficient, cheap, and economical Stove, with hot plate, has been specially provided, possessing many advantages over any other known means of warming, combined with ample ventilation.

Particulars and testimonials forwarded on application.

The Company's operations in France, Russia, and on the Continent generally, are very extensive, and rapidly increasing.

Southby's Gas Stove, calculated to give off 98 per cent of the heat produced by the combustion of the gas, the products of combustion not escaping into the room.

Laplough's Effervescing PYRETIC SALINE.

Important to all, more especially those who have charge of others, to Travellers, English Ministers, British Consuls, and Europeans seeking to reside in safety in Tropical and Foreign Climates.

Her Majesty's Representative, the Governor of Sierra Leone, in a letter of request for an additional supply of PYRETIC SALINE, states: "It is of great value, and I shall rejoice to hear it is in the hands of all Europeans visiting the tropics."

Half a teaspoonful, taken in a tumbler of water, contributes more to the refreshment of the body than any known beverage. Invigorating and vitalising the blood, it alleviates thirst in a most agreeable manner, and furnishes the system with those saline principles that are essential to health.

SICKNESS, HEADACHE, and NAUSEA are in most cases immediately relieved by taking a teaspoonful in a tumbler of cold water. This can be repeated once or twice in two hours, if needful.

SEA VOYAGES.—It is a very valuable accompaniment, and should on no account be omitted. It instantly allays the sickness.

For BILIOUS CONSTITUTIONS, giving rise to vitiated secretions, Indigestion, and Eruptions on the Skin, a teaspoonful should be taken daily with the dinner in a tumbler of water, and the same quantity on going to bed.

The Public, and Invalids especially, are informed that the late distinguished and learned Dr. Prout characterised its discovery as unfolding germs of immense benefit to mankind. FORTY years' experience confirms his opinion. Numbers who have previously suffered from climates unsuited to the constitution, or the injurious use of mercury, inducing disease in its Protean form, who had visited our native Bethsedian waters and pools in vain, have, by the daily taking the PYRETIC SALINE, recovered their wonted health and vigour.

Do observe the Trade Mark and Name. Worthless imitations are now being offered to the public, the only merit of which is a label and wrapper with a transposition of the sentences and words of mine—a colourable imitation—in fact, a fraud on myself and the public.

Sold by all Chemists throughout England and the Colonies, and the Maker, 113 Holborn-hill, London.

Among the numerous Preparations offered to the Public for their health and comfort,

OLDRIDGES'

BALM OF COLUMBIA

Is preëminent, having withstood all opposition and imitation for sixty years; and by the increasing demand for this BALM may be estimated its value and efficacy. It replenishes, invigorates, and preserves the Hair, either from falling off or turning gray. It imparts to the Hair a bright and glossy appearance, frees it entirely from scurf, and will not soil the most delicate fabric worn as head-dress "at home" or in promenade. In the "Nursery" its use is invaluable, as it forms in infancy the basis of a healthy and luxuriant head of hair, and prevents baldness in mature age.

Sold by all Perfumers and Chemists, at 3s. 6d., 6s., and 11s. only.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

ADVICE TO INVALIDS.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary aching of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media, and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE, Member of the College of Physicians, London, to which he gave the name of

CHLORODYNE,

And which is admitted by the Profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for COUGHS, CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, NEURALGIA.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in DIARRHOEA, and is the only specific in CHOLERA and DYSENTERY.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of EPILEPSY, HYSTERIA, PALPITATION, and SPASMS.

J. C. BAKER, Esq., M.D., Bideford.—
"It is without doubt the most valuable and certain Anodyne we have." | Dr. M'MILLMAN, of New Galloway, Scotland.—"I consider it the most valuable medicine known."

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. PAGE WOOD stated that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE; that the story of the defendant FREEMAN was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See Times, 13th July 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE" on the Government Stamp.

Overwhelming Medical Testimony accompanies each bottle.

CAUTION.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

C. WARD AND SON,

WINE MERCHANTS AND SOLE IMPORTERS,

1 CHAPEL STREET WEST, MAYFAIR, W., LONDON.

24s. "RED NOVARINTA." 24s.

NOVARINTA.—We have had this wine (imported by Messrs. Ward and Son) under occasional observation since it was first introduced, and have taken some pains to ascertain how far samples purchased and examined at various times justified the favourable statements which have been made to us, and which we have seen publicly put forward concerning it.

In flavour and condition, the most recent samples are the best, and will hold their own against the finest port wine shipped. It differs, however, from port wine in this important particular: this is a growth; port wine is a more complex artificial product. Looked at as a dietetic wine, the most remarkable and valuable characteristic of Novarinta is its freedom from acidity. This is of course easily tested chemically and quantitatively; but as a familiar test of the quality and condition of the wine, it will be found that, if a bottle be left only half full for several weeks, it will flatten a little of necessity, but will show neither a mothery head of fungoid growth, nor yet additional acidity, as claret, Burgundy, and Hungarian wines will do. There can be no more effective and homely test of its being a well-made, sound, and wholesome wine. As a wine for the table, it is likely to be highly appreciated by all who have any taste for a wine of the port character, but of delicate, peculiar, and excellent flavour. The richer kind of Novarinta is most likely to hit the popular taste, from its striking resemblance to a high-class port; but the dry Novarinta is more racy, shows more character and finer growth, and is better calculated for use as a medicinal stimulant. To show this wine to perfection, it should lie twelve months in the cellar to allow it to crust. The dry Novarinta may be compared to a winter claret, fuller of body and less cold than ordinary clarets are. We consider it fully the equal of port wine of three times its price; and that, we believe, will be the verdict of connoisseurs.—London Medical Record, 19th November 1873.

BREAKFAST.

“By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast-tables with a delicately-flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us, ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame.”—The Civil Service Gazette.

“MANUFACTURE OF COCOA.—We will now give an account of the process adopted by Messrs. James Epps and Co., manufacturers of dietetic articles, at their works in the Euston-road, London.”—See Article in Cassell's Household Guide.
