7. How does CINEA protect and safeguard your data?

Relevant organisational and technical measures are taken by the Agency to ensure the security of your personal data. Access to your data is restricted on an individual need to know basis and through User-ID and password: data can be accessed via authentication system. Your data resides on the servers of the European Commission, which abide by strict security measures implemented by DG DIGIT to protect the security and integrity of the relevant electronic assets. CINEA is also bound by Commission Decision 2017/46 of 10/1/17 on the security of communications & information systems in the EC.

An Outlook functional mailbox is created and used solely for the purpose of handling EPPO cases and is under SECEM encryption: access to this mailbox is restricted on a need-to-know basis to the staff members such as the Head of the Legal Affairs Sector and EPPO correspondents/staff of the Legal Affairs Sector designated to handle these cases.

Documents related to the EPPO cases may be stored in ARES with the relevant safeguards (access via ECAS password and authentication).

Paper files related to EPPO cases are processed under strict confidentiality via a sealed envelope transmitted hand to hand between the relevant staff authorised to process this information. Paper files are then kept in a locked cupboard accessible only to a limited number of authorised staff in line with the retention rules (see above).

Reporting to EPPO follows the format of the EPPO crime report, via the available secured tools. The processing of your data will not include automated decision-making.

8. The legal basis of the processing are:

The legal basis for the processing based on Article 5(1) of the Regulation:

- a) the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Agency;
- b) the processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject,
