[~~(ii)~~] (B) the need to preserve the availability of the property or prevent [~~its~~] the property's sale, transfer, destruction, or removal through the entry of the requested order outweighs the hardship against [~~any party~~] a claimant against [~~whom~~] which the order is to be entered.

(b) A [~~temporary restraining order may be entered~~] court may enter a temporary restraining order ex parte upon application of the prosecuting attorney or a federal prosecutor before or after an information or indictment has been filed, with respect to the property, if the prosecuting attorney or federal prosecutor demonstrates that:

(i) there is probable cause to believe that the property with respect to which the order is sought would, in the event of a conviction, be [~~subject to forfeiture~~] forfeited under this section; and

(ii) [~~provision of notice~~] providing notice to a claimant would jeopardize the availability of the property for forfeiture or would jeopardize an ongoing criminal investigation.

(c) The temporary order expires [~~not~~] no more than 10 days after [~~entry~~] the day on which the order is entered unless extended for good cause shown or unless the [~~party~~] claimant against whom [~~it~~] the temporary order is entered consents to an extension.

Service shall be complete upon return to the court of the signed receipt.

(b) (i) If, upon expiration or termination of the probation period under Subsection (10)(a), there remains an unpaid balance upon the accounts receivable as defined in Section 77-32a-101, the court may retain jurisdiction of the case and continue the defendant on bench probation for the limited purpose of enforcing the payment of the account receivable. If the court retains jurisdiction for this limited purpose, the court may order the defendant to pay to the court the costs associated with continued probation under this Subsection (10).

(ii) In accordance with Section 77-18-6, the court shall record in the registry of civil judgments any unpaid balance not already recorded and immediately transfer responsibility to collect the account to the Office of State Debt Collection.

(11) (a) (i) Any time served by a probationer outside of confinement after having been charged with a probation violation and prior to a hearing to revoke probation does not constitute service of time toward the total probation term unless the probationer is exonerated at a hearing to revoke the probation.

(ii) Any time served in confinement awaiting a hearing or decision concerning revocation of probation does not constitute service of time toward the total probation term unless the probationer is exonerated at the hearing.

(iii) Any time served in confinement awaiting a hearing or decision concerning revocation of probation constitutes service of time toward a term of incarceration imposed as a result of the revocation of probation or a graduated sanction imposed under Section 63M-7-404.

(b) The running of the probation period is tolled upon the filing of a violation report with the court alleging a violation of the terms and conditions of probation or upon the issuance of an order to show cause or warrant by the court.

(12) (a) (i) Probation may be modified as is consistent with the supervision length guidelines and the graduated sanctions and incentives developed by the Utah Sentencing Commission under Section 63M-7-404.

(ii) The length of probation may not be extended, except upon waiver of a hearing by the probationer or upon a hearing and a finding in court that the probationer has violated the conditions of probation.

(iii) Probation may not be revoked except upon a hearing in court and a finding that the conditions of probation have been violated.

(b) (i) Upon the filing of an affidavit, or an unsworn written declaration executed in substantial compliance with Title 78B, Chapter 18a, Uniform Unsworn Declarations Act, alleging with particularity facts asserted to constitute violation of the conditions of probation, the court shall determine if the affidavit or unsworn written declaration establishes probable cause to believe that revocation, modification, or extension of probation is justified.

(ii) If the court determines there is probable cause, it shall cause to be served on the defendant a warrant for the defendant's arrest or a copy of the affidavit or unsworn written declaration and an order to show cause why the defendant's probation should not be revoked, modified, or extended.

(c) (i) The order to show cause shall specify a time and place for the hearing and shall be served upon the defendant at least five days prior to the hearing.

(ii) The defendant shall show good cause for a continuance.

(iii) The order to show cause shall inform the defendant of a right to be represented by counsel at the hearing and to have counsel appointed if the defendant is indigent.

(iv) The order shall also inform the defendant of a right to present evidence.

(d) (i) At the hearing, the defendant shall admit or deny the allegations of the affidavit or unsworn written declaration.

(ii) If the defendant denies the allegations of the affidavit or unsworn written declaration, the prosecuting attorney shall present evidence on the allegations.

(iii) The persons who have given adverse information on which the allegations are based shall be presented as witnesses subject to questioning by the defendant unless the court for good cause otherwise orders.

(iv) The defendant may call witnesses, appear and speak in the defendant's own behalf, and present evidence.

(e) (i) After the hearing the court shall make findings of fact.

(ii) Upon a finding that the defendant violated the conditions of probation, the court may order the probation revoked, modified, continued, or reinstated for all or a portion of the original term of probation.

(iii) (A) Except as provided in Subsection (10)(a)(ii), the court may not require a defendant to remain on probation for a period of time that exceeds the length of the defendant's maximum sentence.

(B) Except as provided in Subsection (10)(a)(ii), if a defendant's probation is revoked and later reinstated, the total time of all periods of probation the defendant serves, relating to the same sentence, may not exceed the defendant's maximum sentence.

(iv) If a period of incarceration is imposed for a violation, the defendant shall be sentenced within the guidelines established by the Utah Sentencing Commission pursuant to Subsection 63M-7-404(4), unless the judge determines that:

(A) the defendant needs substance abuse or mental health treatment, as determined by a validated risk and needs screening and assessment, that warrants treatment services that are immediately available in the community; or

(B) the sentence previously imposed shall be executed.

(v) If the defendant had, prior to the imposition of a term of incarceration or the execution of the previously imposed sentence under this Subsection (12), served time in jail as a condition of probation or due to a violation of probation under Subsection (12)(e)(iv), the time the probationer served in jail constitutes service of time toward the sentence previously imposed.

(13) The court may order the defendant to commit the defendant to the custody of the Division of Substance Abuse and Mental Health for treatment at the Utah State Hospital as a condition of probation or stay of sentence, only after the superintendent of the Utah State Hospital or the superintendent's designee has certified to the court that:

(a) the defendant is appropriate for and can benefit from treatment at the state hospital;

(b) treatment space at the hospital is available for the defendant; and

(c) individuals described in Subsection 62A-15-610(2)(g) are receiving priority for treatment over the defendants described in this Subsection (13).

(b) The department shall establish procedures and standards for home confinement, including electronic monitoring, for all individuals referred to the department in accordance with Subsection (16).

(16) (a) If the court places the defendant on probation under this section, it may order the defendant to participate in home confinement through the use of electronic monitoring as described in this section until further order of the court.

(b) The electronic monitoring shall alert the department and the appropriate law enforcement unit of the defendant's whereabouts.

(c) The electronic monitoring device shall be used under conditions which require:

(i) the defendant to wear an electronic monitoring device at all times; and

(ii) that a device be placed in the home of the defendant, so that the defendant's compliance with the court's order may be monitored.

(d) If a court orders a defendant to participate in home confinement through electronic monitoring as a condition of probation under this section, it shall:

(i) place the defendant on probation under the supervision of the Department of Corrections;

(ii) order the department to place an electronic monitoring device on the defendant and install electronic monitoring equipment in the residence of the defendant; and

(e) The department shall pay the costs of home confinement through electronic monitoring only for an individual who is determined to be indigent by the court.

(f) The department may provide the electronic monitoring described in this section either directly or by contract with a private provider.

(17) When making any decision regarding probation, the court shall consider information provided by the Department of Corrections regarding a defendant's individual case action plan, including any progress the defendant has made in satisfying the case action plan's completion requirements.

Section 7. Section 77-27-5 is amended to read:

77-27-5. Board of Pardons and Parole authority.

(1) (a) The Board of Pardons and Parole shall determine by majority decision when and under what conditions any convictions, except for treason or impeachment, may be pardoned or commuted, subject to this chapter and other laws of the state.

(b) The Board of Pardons and Parole shall determine by majority decision when and under what conditions, subject to this chapter and other laws of the state, individuals committed to serve sentences at penal or correctional facilities that are under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections, except treason or impeachment convictions or as otherwise limited by law, may be released upon parole, ordered to pay restitution, or have their fines, forfeitures, or restitution remitted, or their sentences terminated.

(c) The board may sit together or in panels to conduct hearings. The chair shall appoint members to the panels in any combination and in accordance with rules made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, by the board. The chair may participate on any panel and when doing so is chair of the panel. The chair of the board may designate the chair for any other panel.

(d) No restitution may be ordered, no fine, forfeiture, or restitution remitted, no parole, pardon, or commutation granted or sentence terminated, except after a full hearing before the board or the board's appointed examiner in open session. Any action taken under this subsection other than by a majority of the board shall be affirmed by a majority of the board.

(e) A commutation or pardon may be granted only after a full hearing before the board.

(f) The board may determine restitution as provided in Section 77-27-6 and Subsection 77-38a-302(5)(d)(iii)(A).

(2) (a) In the case of any hearings, timely prior notice of the time and location of the hearing shall be given to the offender.

(b) The county or district attorney's office responsible for prosecution of the case, the sentencing court, and law enforcement officials responsible for the defendant's arrest and conviction shall be notified of any board hearings through the board's website.

(c) Whenever possible, the victim or the victim's representative, if designated, shall be notified of original hearings and any hearing after that if notification is requested and current contact information has been provided to the board.

(d) Notice to the victim or the victim's representative shall include information provided in Section 77-27-9.5, and any related rules made by the board under that section. This information shall be provided in terms that are reasonable for the lay person to understand.

(3) Decisions of the board in cases involving paroles, pardons, commutations or terminations of sentence, restitution, or remission of fines or forfeitures are final and are not subject to judicial review. Nothing in this section prevents the obtaining or enforcement of a civil judgment, including restitution as provided in Section 77-27-6.

(4) This chapter may not be construed as a denial of or limitation of the governor's power to grant respite or reprieves in all cases of convictions for offenses against the state, except treason or conviction on impeachment. However, respites or reprieves may not extend beyond the next session of the Board of Pardons and Parole and the board, at that session, shall continue or terminate the respite or reprieve, or it may commute the punishment, or pardon the offense as provided. In the case of conviction for treason, the governor may suspend execution of the sentence until the case is reported to the Legislature at its next session. The Legislature shall then either pardon or commute the sentence, or direct its execution.

(5) In determining when, where, and under what conditions an offender serving a sentence may be paroled, pardoned, have restitution ordered, or have the offender's fines or forfeitures remitted, or the offender's sentence commuted or terminated, the board shall:

(a) consider whether the offender has made or is prepared to make restitution as ascertained in accordance with the standards and procedures of Section 77-38a-302, as a condition of any parole, pardon, remission of fines or forfeitures, or commutation or termination of sentence; [~~and~~]

(b) develop and use a list of criteria for making determinations under this Subsection (5)[~~.~~];

(c) consider information provided by the Department of Corrections regarding an offender's individual case action plan; and

(d) review an offender's status within 60 days after the day on which the board receives notice from the Department of Corrections that the offender has completed all of the offender's case action plan components that relate to activities that can be accomplished while the offender is imprisoned.

(6) In determining whether parole may be terminated, the board shall consider:

(a) the offense committed by the parolee; and

(b) the parole period as provided in Section 76-3-202, and in accordance with Section 77-27-13.

(7) For offenders placed on parole after December 31, 2018, the board shall terminate parole in accordance with the supervision length guidelines established by the Utah Sentencing Commission under Section 63M-7-404, to the extent the guidelines are consistent with the requirements of the law.

Section 8. Coordinating S.B. 139 with H.B. 260 -- Technical and substantive amendments.

If this S.B. 139 and H.B. 260, Criminal Justice Modifications, both pass and become law, it is the intent of the Legislature that the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel shall prepare the Utah Code database for publication by:

(1) not making the changes to Section 77-18-1 in this S.B.139; and

(2) adding a new subsection (9) to Section 77-18-105 in H.B. 260:

"(9) When making any decision regarding probation, the court shall consider information provided by the Department of Corrections regarding a defendant's individual case action plan, including any progress the defendant has made in satisfying the case action plan's completion requirements.".

(C) the assuming insurer must consent in writing to pay all final judgments, wherever enforcement is sought, obtained by a ceding insurer or [~~its~~] the ceding insurer's legal successor, that have been declared enforceable in the jurisdiction where the judgment was obtained;

(D) each reinsurance agreement must include a provision requiring the assuming insurer to provide security in an amount equal to 100% of the assuming insurer's liabilities attributable to reinsurance ceded pursuant to that agreement if the assuming insurer resists enforcement of a final judgment that is enforceable under the law of the jurisdiction in which [~~it~~] the final judgement was obtained or a properly enforceable arbitration award, whether obtained by the ceding insurer or by [~~its~~] the ceding insurer's legal successor on behalf of [~~its~~] the ceding insurer's resolution estate; and

(E) the assuming insurer must confirm that [~~it~~] the assuming insurer is not presently participating in any solvent scheme of arrangement which involved this state's ceding insurers, and agree to notify the ceding insurer and the commissioner and to provide security:

(I) in an amount equal to 100% of the assuming insurer's liabilities to the ceding insurer, should the assuming insurer enter into such a solvent scheme of arrangement; and

(II) in a form consistent with the provisions of Subsections (7) and (10) and as specified by the commissioner in regulation.

(vi) The assuming insurer or [~~its~~] the assuming insurer's legal successor must provide, if requested by the commissioner, on behalf of [~~itself~~] the assuming insurer and any legal predecessors, certain documentation to the commissioner, as specified by the commissioner by rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(vii) The assuming insurer must maintain a practice of prompt payment of claims under reinsurance agreements, pursuant to criteria set forth in rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(viii) The assuming insurer's supervisory authority must confirm to the commissioner on an annual basis, as of the preceding December 31 or at the annual date otherwise statutorily reported to the reciprocal jurisdiction, that the assuming insurer complies with the requirements set forth in Subsections (8)(c) and (d).

(ix) Nothing in this provision precludes an assuming insurer from providing the commissioner with information on a voluntary basis.

(c) (i) The commissioner shall timely create and publish a list of reciprocal jurisdictions.

(ii) (A) A list of reciprocal jurisdictions is published through the National Association of Insurance Commissioners' Committee Process.

(B) The commissioner's list of reciprocal jurisdictions shall include any reciprocal jurisdiction as defined in this Subsection (8), and shall consider any other reciprocal jurisdictions in accordance with the criteria developed under rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(iii) (A) The commissioner may remove a jurisdiction from the list of reciprocal jurisdictions upon a determination that the jurisdiction no longer meets the requirements of a reciprocal jurisdiction, in accordance with a process set forth in rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, except that the commissioner [~~shall~~] may not remove from the list a reciprocal jurisdiction.

(B) Upon removal of a reciprocal jurisdiction from this list, credit for reinsurance ceded to an assuming insurer [~~which has its~~] whose home office or [~~is domiciled~~] domicile is in that jurisdiction [~~shall be~~] is allowed, if otherwise allowed under this chapter.

(d) (i) The commissioner shall timely create and publish a list of assuming insurers that have satisfied the conditions set forth in this subsection and to which cessions shall be granted credit in accordance with this Subsection (8).

(ii) The commissioner may add an assuming insurer to such list if a National Association of Insurance Commissioners accredited jurisdiction has added such assuming insurer to a list of such assuming insurers or if, upon initial eligibility, the assuming insurer submits the information to the commissioner as required under this Subsection (8) and complies with any additional requirements that the commissioner may impose by rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, except to the extent that they conflict with an applicable covered agreement.

(e) (i) If the commissioner determines that an assuming insurer no longer meets one or more of the requirements under this Subsection (8), the commissioner may revoke or suspend the eligibility of the assuming insurer for recognition under this Subsection (8) in accordance with procedures established in rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(ii) (A) While an assuming insurer's eligibility is suspended, no reinsurance agreement issued, amended, or renewed after the [~~effective date of the suspension~~] day on which the suspension is effective qualifies for credit except to the extent that the assuming insurer's obligations under the contract are secured in accordance with Subsection (10).

(B) If an assuming insurer's eligibility is revoked, no credit for reinsurance may be granted after the [~~effective date of the revocation~~] day on which the revocation is effective with respect to any reinsurance agreements entered into by the assuming insurer, including reinsurance agreements entered into [~~prior to the date of~~] before the day on which the revocation is effective, except to the extent that the assuming insurer's obligations under the contract are secured in a form acceptable to the commissioner and consistent with the provisions of Subsection (10).

(B) the day on which the new reinsurance agreement, amendment, or renewal is effective.

(ii) This Subsection (8) does not alter or impair a ceding insurer's right to take credit for reinsurance, to the extent that credit is not available under this Subsection (8), as long as the reinsurance qualifies for credit under any other applicable provision of this chapter.

(iii) Nothing in this Subsection (8) authorizes an assuming insurer to withdraw or reduce the security provided under any reinsurance agreement except as permitted by the terms of the agreement.

(iv) Nothing in this Subsection (8) limits, or in any way alters, the capacity of parties to any reinsurance agreement to renegotiate the agreement.

(9) If reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer not meeting the requirements of Subsection (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), or (8), a domestic ceding insurer is allowed credit only as to the insurance of a risk located in a jurisdiction where the reinsurance is required by applicable law or regulation of that jurisdiction.

(10) (a) An asset or a reduction from liability for the reinsurance ceded by a domestic insurer to an assuming insurer not meeting the requirements of Subsection (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), or (8) shall be allowed in an amount not exceeding the liabilities carried by the ceding insurer.

(c) (i) The reduction shall be in the amount of funds held by or on behalf of the ceding insurer, including funds held in trust for the ceding insurer, under a reinsurance contract with the assuming insurer as security for the payment of obligations thereunder, if the security is:

(A) held in the United States subject to withdrawal solely by, and under the exclusive control of, the ceding insurer; or

(B) in the case of a trust, held in a qualified United States financial institution.

(ii) The security described in this Subsection (10)(c) may be in the form of:

(12) Submitting to the jurisdiction of Utah courts under Subsection (11) does not override a duty or right of a party under the reinsurance contract, including a requirement that the parties arbitrate their disputes.

(13) (a) If an assuming insurer does not meet the requirements of Subsection (3), (4), (5), or (8), the credit permitted by Subsection (6) or (7) may not be allowed unless the assuming insurer agrees in the trust instrument to the [~~following conditions:~~] conditions described in Subsections (13)(b) through (e).

[~~(d)~~] (e) A grantor shall waive any right otherwise available to [~~it~~] the grantor under United States law that is inconsistent with this Subsection (13).

(14) (a) If an accredited or certified reinsurer ceases to meet the requirements for accreditation or certification, the commissioner may suspend or revoke the reinsurer's accreditation or certification.

[~~(a)~~] (b) The commissioner shall give the reinsurer notice and opportunity for hearing.

[~~(b)~~] (c) The suspension or revocation may not take effect until after the [~~commissioner's~~] day on which the commissioner issues an order after a hearing, unless:

[~~(d)~~] (e) If a reinsurer's accreditation or certification is revoked, no credit for reinsurance may be granted after the effective date of the revocation except to the extent that the reinsurer's

(3) (a) If a policy is issued after this section takes effect as set forth in Subsection (15), a contract of annuity, except as stated in Subsection (2), may not be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless the contract of annuity contains in substance:

(i) the provisions described in Subsection (3)(b); or

(ii) provisions corresponding to the provisions described in Subsection (3)(b) that in the opinion of the commissioner are at least as favorable to the contractholder, governing cessation of payment of consideration under the contract.

(b) Subsection (3)(a)(i) requires the following provisions:

(i) the company shall grant a paid-up annuity benefit on a plan stipulated in the contract of such a value as specified in Subsections (7), (8), (9), (10), and (12):

(A) upon cessation of payment of consideration under a contract; or

(c) Notwithstanding the requirements of this Subsection (3), a deferred annuity contract may provide that if no consideration is received under a contract for a period of two full years and the portion of the paid-up annuity benefit at maturity on the plan stipulated in the contract arising from consideration paid before the period would be less than $20 monthly:

(i) the company may at the company's option terminate the contract by payment in cash of the then present value of such portion of the paid-up annuity benefit, calculated on the basis of the mortality table specified in the contract, if any, and the interest rate specified in the contract for determining the paid-up annuity benefit; and

(ii) the payment described in Subsection (3)(c)(i), relieves the company of any further obligation under the contract.

(d) A company may reserve the right to defer the payment of cash surrender benefit for a period not to exceed six months after demand for the payment of the cash surrender benefit with surrender of the contract.

(4) For a policy issued before June 1, 2006, the minimum values as specified in Subsections (7), (8), (9), (10), and (12) of any paid-up annuity, cash surrender, or death benefits available under an annuity contract shall be based upon minimum nonforfeiture amounts as established in this Subsection (4).

(a) (i) With respect to a contract providing for flexible considerations, the minimum nonforfeiture amount at any time at or before the commencement of any annuity payments shall be equal to an accumulation up to such time, at a rate of interest of 3% per annum of percentages of the net considerations paid [~~prior to~~] before such time:

(A) decreased by the sum of:

(I) any prior withdrawals from or partial surrenders of the contract accumulated at a rate of interest of 3% per annum; and

(II) the amount of any indebtedness to the company on the contract, including interest due and accrued; and

(B) increased by any existing additional amounts credited by the company to the contract.

(ii) For purposes of this Subsection (4)(a), the net consideration for a given contract year used to define the minimum nonforfeiture amount shall be:

(A) an amount not less than zero; and

(B) equal to the corresponding gross considerations credited to the contract during that contract year less:

(I) an annual contract charge of $30; and

(II) a collection charge of $1.25 per consideration credited to the contract during that contract year.

(iii) The percentages of net considerations shall be:

(A) 65% of the net consideration for the first contract year; and

(B) 87-1/2% of the net considerations for the second and later contract years.

(iv) Notwithstanding Subsection (4)(a)(iii), the percentage shall be 65% of the portion of the total net consideration for any renewal contract year that exceeds by not more than two times the sum of those portions of the net considerations in all prior contract years for which the percentage was 65%.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsections (4)(b)(ii) and (iii), with respect to a contract providing for fixed scheduled consideration, minimum nonforfeiture amounts shall be:

(A) calculated on the assumption that considerations are paid annually in advance; and

(B) defined as for contracts with flexible considerations that are paid annually.

(ii) The portion of the net consideration for the first contract year to be accumulated shall be equal to an amount that is the sum of:

(A) 65% of the net consideration for the first contract year; and

(B) 22-1/2% of the excess of the net consideration for the first contract year over the lesser of the net considerations for:

(I) the second contract year; and

(II) the third contract year.

(iii) The annual contract charge shall be the lesser of $30 or 10% of the gross annual consideration.

(c) With respect to a contract providing for a single consideration payment, minimum nonforfeiture amounts shall be defined as for contracts with flexible considerations except that:

(i) the percentage of net consideration used to determine the minimum nonforfeiture amount shall be equal to 90%; and

(ii) the net consideration shall be the gross consideration less a contract charge of $75.

(5) (a) For a policy issued on or after June 1, 2006, the minimum values as specified in Subsections (7), (8), (9), (10), and (12) of any paid-up annuity, cash surrender, or death benefits available under an annuity contract shall be based upon minimum nonforfeiture amounts as established in this Subsection (5).

[~~(a)~~] (b) The minimum nonforfeiture amount at any time at or before the commencement of any annuity payments shall be equal to an accumulation up to such time, at rates of interest as indicated in Subsection (5)~~(b)~~, of 87-1/2% of the gross considerations paid before such time decreased by the sum of:

(i) any prior withdrawals from or partial surrenders of the contract accumulated at rates of interest as indicated in Subsection (5)~~(b)~~;

(ii) an annual contract charge of $50, accumulated at rates of interest as indicated in Subsection (5)~~(b)~~;

(iii) any premium tax paid by the company for the contract, accumulated at rates of interest as indicated in Subsection (5)~~(b)~~; and

(iv) the amount of any indebtedness to the company on the contract, including interest due and accrued.

[~~(b)~~] (c) (i) The interest rate used in determining minimum nonforfeiture amounts shall be an annual rate of interest determined as the lesser of:

(A) 3% per annum; [~~and~~] or

(B) the five-year Constant Maturity Treasury Rate reported by the Federal Reserve, rounded to the nearest 1/20th of 1%, as of a date or average over a period no longer than 15 months [~~prior to~~] before the contract issue date or redetermination date under Subsection (5)~~(b)~~(iii):

(I) reduced by 125 basis points; and

(II) where the resulting interest rate is not less than 100 basis points, 1% for a policy issued on or after June 1, 2006, and before June 1, 2021, or where the resulting interest rate is not less than 15 basis points, 0.15% for a policy issued on or after June 1, 2021.

(ii) The interest rate shall apply for an initial period and may be redetermined for additional periods.

(iii) (A) If the interest rate will be reset, the contract shall state:

(I) the initial period;

(II) the redetermination date;

(III) the redetermination basis; and

(IV) the redetermination period.

(B) The basis is the date or average over a specified period that produces the value of the five-year Constant Maturity Treasury Rate to be used at each redetermination date.

[~~(c)~~] (d) (i) During the period or term that a contract provides substantive participation in an equity indexed benefit, the reduction described in Subsection (5)~~(b)~~(i)(B)(I) may be increased by up to an additional 100 basis points to reflect the value of the equity index benefit.

(ii) The present value of the additional reduction at the contract issue date and at each redetermination date may not exceed the market value of the benefit.

(iii) (A) The commissioner may require a demonstration that the present value of the additional reduction does not exceed the market value of the benefit.

(B) If the demonstration required under Subsection (5)~~(c)~~(iii)(A) is not made to the satisfaction of the commissioner, the commissioner may disallow or limit the additional reduction.

(6) Notwithstanding Subsection (4), for a policy issued on or after June 1, 2004 and before June 1, 2006, at the election of a company, on a contract form-by-contract form basis, the minimum values as specified in Subsections (7), (8), (9), (10), and (12) of any paid-up annuity, cash surrender, or death benefits available under an annuity contract may be based upon minimum nonforfeiture amounts as established in Subsection (5).

(7) (a) A paid-up annuity benefit available under a contract shall be such that the contract's present value on the date annuity payments are to commence is at least equal to the minimum nonforfeiture amount on that date.

(b) The present value described in Subsection (7)(a) shall be computed using the mortality table, if any, and the interest rate specified in the contract for determining the minimum paid-up annuity benefits guaranteed in the contract.

(8) (a) For a contract that provides cash surrender benefits, the cash surrender benefits available before maturity may not be less than the present value as of the date of surrender of that portion of the cash surrender value that would be provided under the contract at maturity arising from considerations paid before the time of cash surrender:

(i) decreased by the amount appropriate to reflect any prior withdrawals from or partial surrender of the contract;

(ii) decreased by the amount of any indebtedness to the company on the contract, including interest due and accrued; and

(iii) increased by any existing additional amounts credited by the company to the contract.

(b) For purposes of this Subsection (8), the present value is to be calculated on the basis of an interest rate not more than 1% higher than the interest rate specified in the contract for accumulating the net considerations to determine the maturity value.

(c) In no event shall a cash surrender benefit be less than the minimum nonforfeiture amount at that time.

(d) The death benefit under a contract described in Subsection (8)(a) shall be at least equal to the cash surrender benefit.

(9) (a) For a contract that does not provide cash surrender benefits, the present value of any paid-up annuity benefit available as a nonforfeiture option at any time [~~prior to~~] before maturity may not be less than the present value of that portion of the maturity value of the paid-up annuity benefit provided under the contract arising from considerations paid before the time the contract is surrendered in exchange for, or changed to, a deferred paid-up annuity increased by any existing additional amounts credited by the company to the contract.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (9)(a), the present value for the period [~~prior to~~] before the maturity date is to be calculated on the basis of the interest rate specified in the contract for accumulating the net considerations to determine maturity value.

(c) For a contract that does not provide a death benefit before commencement of any annuity payments, the present values shall be calculated on the basis of the interest rate and the mortality table specified in the contract for determining the maturity value of the paid-up annuity benefit.

(d) In no event shall the present value of a paid-up annuity benefit be less than the minimum nonforfeiture amount at that time.

(10) (a) For the purpose of determining the benefits calculated under Subsections (8) and (9), the maturity date shall be considered to be:

(i) in the case of an annuity contract issued on or before May 5, 2002, under which an election may be made to have an annuity payment commence at an optional maturity date, the latest date for which an election is permitted by the contract, except that it may not be considered to be later than the later of:

(A) the anniversary of the contract next following the day on which the annuitant becomes 70 years [~~of age~~] old; or

(B) the tenth anniversary of the contract; or

(ii) in the case of an annuity contract issued on or after May 6, 2002, the latest date permitted by the contract, except that [~~it~~] the maturity date may not be considered to be later than the later of:

(A) the anniversary of the contract next following the day on which the annuitant becomes 70 years [~~of age~~] old; or

(B) the tenth anniversary of the contract.

(b) In the case of an annuity contract issued on or after May 6, 2002:

(i) for a contract that provides cash surrender benefits, the cash surrender value on or past the maturity date shall be equal to the amount used to determine the annuity benefit payments; and

(ii) a surrender charge may not be imposed on or past maturity.

(11) A contract that does not provide cash surrender benefits or does not provide death benefits at least equal to the minimum nonforfeiture amount before the commencement of any annuity payments shall include a statement in a prominent place in the contract that these benefits are not provided.

(12) A paid-up annuity, cash surrender, or death benefit available at any time, other than on the contract anniversary under a contract with fixed scheduled considerations, shall be calculated with allowance for the lapse of time and the payment of any scheduled considerations beyond the beginning of the contract year in which cessation of payment of considerations under the contract occurs.

(13) (a) For a contract that provides, within the same contract by rider or supplemental contract provisions, both annuity benefits and life insurance benefits that are in excess of the greater of cash surrender benefits or a return of the gross considerations with interest, the minimum nonforfeiture benefits shall:

(i) be equal to the sum of:

(A) the minimum nonforfeiture benefits for the annuity portion; and

(B) the minimum nonforfeiture benefits, if any, for the life insurance portion; and

(ii) computed as if each portion were a separate contract.

(b) (i) Notwithstanding Subsections (7), (8), (9), (10), and (12), additional benefits payable, as described in Subsection (13)(b)(ii), and consideration for the additional benefits payable, shall be disregarded in ascertaining, if required by this section:

(A) the minimum nonforfeiture amounts;

(B) paid-up annuity;

(C) cash surrender; and

(D) death benefits.

(ii) For purposes of this Subsection (13), an additional benefit is a benefit payable:

(C) as other policy benefits additional to life insurance, endowment, and annuity benefits.

(iii) The inclusion of the additional benefits described in this Subsection (13) may not be required in any paid-up benefits, unless the additional benefits separately would require:

(A) minimum nonforfeiture amounts;

(B) paid-up annuity;

(C) cash surrender; and

(D) death benefits.

(14) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commissioner may adopt rules necessary to implement this section, including:

(b) providing for adjustments in addition to the adjustments allowed under Subsection (5)~~(c)~~ to the calculation of minimum nonforfeiture amounts for:

(i) a contract that provides substantive participation in an equity index benefit; and

(ii) a contract for which the commissioner determines adjustments are justified.

(15) (a) After this section takes effect, a company may file with the commissioner a written notice of [~~its~~] the company's election to comply with this section after a specified date before July 1, 1988.

(b) This section applies to annuity contracts of a company issued on or after the date the company specifies in the notice.

anticipated restitution order under this chapter; and

(ii) provision of notice would jeopardize the availability of the property to satisfy any [~~restitution order or judgment~~] judgment or order for restitution.

(b) The temporary order in this Subsection (3) expires [~~not more than 10 days after it~~] no later than 10 days after the day on which the temporary order is entered unless extended for good cause shown or the party against whom [~~it~~] the temporary order is entered consents to an extension.

Section 111. Section 78B-7-804 is amended to read:

78B-7-804. Sentencing and continuous protective orders for a domestic violence offense -- Modification.

(1) Before a perpetrator who has been convicted of a domestic violence offense may be placed on probation, the court shall consider the safety and protection of the victim and any member of the victim's family or household.

(2) The court may condition probation or a plea in abeyance on the perpetrator's compliance with a sentencing protective order that includes:

(a) an order enjoining the perpetrator from threatening to commit or committing acts of domestic violence against the victim or other family or household member;

(b) an order prohibiting the perpetrator from harassing, telephoning, contacting, or otherwise communicating with the victim, directly or indirectly;

(c) an order requiring the perpetrator to stay away from the victim's residence, school, place of employment, and the premises of any of these, or a specified place frequented regularly by the victim or any designated family or household member;

(e) an order directing the perpetrator to surrender any weapons the perpetrator owns or possesses; and

(f) an order imposing any other condition necessary to protect the victim and any other designated family or household member or to rehabilitate the perpetrator.

(3) (a) Because of the serious, unique, and highly traumatic nature of domestic violence crimes, the high recidivism rate of violent offenders, and the demonstrated increased risk of continued acts of violence subsequent to the release of a perpetrator who is convicted of domestic violence, it is the finding of the Legislature that domestic violence crimes warrant the issuance of continuous protective orders under this Subsection (3) because of the need to provide ongoing protection for the victim and to be consistent with the purposes of protecting victims' rights under Title 77, Chapter 37, Victims' Rights, and Title 77, Chapter 38, Rights of Crime Victims Act, and Article I, Section 28 of the Utah Constitution.

(b) If a perpetrator is convicted of a domestic violence offense resulting in a sentence of imprisonment, including jail, that is to be served after conviction, the court shall issue a continuous protective order at the time of the conviction or sentencing limiting the contact between the perpetrator and the victim unless the court determines by clear and convincing evidence that the victim does not a have a reasonable fear of future harm or abuse.

(c) (i) The court shall notify the perpetrator of the right to request a hearing.

(ii) If the perpetrator requests a hearing under this Subsection (3)(c), the court shall hold the hearing at the time determined by the court. The continuous protective order shall be in effect while the hearing is being scheduled and while the hearing is pending.

(d) A continuous protective order is permanent in accordance with this Subsection (3) and may include:

(i) an order enjoining the perpetrator from threatening to commit or committing acts of domestic violence against the victim or other family or household member;

(ii) an order prohibiting the perpetrator from harassing, telephoning, contacting, or otherwise communicating with the victim, directly or indirectly;

(iii) an order prohibiting the perpetrator from going to the victim's residence, school, place of employment, and the premises of any of these, or a specified place frequented regularly by the victim or any designated family or other household member;

(iv) an order directing the perpetrator to pay restitution to the victim as may apply, and shall be enforced in accordance with Title 77, Chapter [~~38a~~] 38b, Crime Victims Restitution Act; and

(v) any other order the court considers necessary to fully protect the victim and members of the victim's family or other household member.

(4) A continuous protective order may be modified or dismissed only if the court determines by clear and convincing evidence that all requirements of Subsection (3) have been met and the victim does not have a reasonable fear of future harm or abuse.

(5) In addition to the process of issuing a continuous protective order described in Subsection (3), a district court may issue a continuous protective order at any time if the victim files a petition with the court, and after notice and hearing the court finds that a continuous protective order is necessary to protect the victim.

(A) a court previously adjudicated that the child suffered abuse, neglect, or dependency involving the parent; and

(B) a subsequent incident of abuse, neglect, or dependency involving the parent occurs.

(ii) For purposes of Subsection (9)(a)(iv), if the juvenile court finds that the parent knowingly allowed the child to be in the physical care of [~~a person~~] an individual after the parent received actual notice that the [~~person~~] individual physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited the child, that fact [~~constitutes~~] is prima facie evidence that there is a substantial risk that the child will be physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited.

(10) (a) (i) The juvenile court shall [~~also~~] make a determination on the record as to whether reasonable efforts were made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and whether there are available services that would prevent the need for continued removal.

(ii) If the juvenile court finds that the child can be safely returned to the custody of the child's parent or guardian through the provision of [~~those~~] the services described in Subsection (10)(a)(i), the juvenile court shall place the child with the child's parent or guardian and order that [~~those~~] the services be provided by the division.

(B) a relative of the child;

(C) subject to Subsection (8)(d), a friend if the friend is a licensed foster parent; and

[~~(b) To be considered a "willing relative or friend" under this section, the relative or friend shall be willing to cooperate with the child's permanency goal.~~]

[~~(6) For purposes of Subsection (3), parent-time is in the best interests of a minor unless the court makes a finding that it is necessary to deny parent-time in order to:~~]

[~~(a) protect the physical safety of the minor;~~]

[~~(b) protect the life of the minor; or~~]

[~~(c) prevent the minor from being traumatized by contact with the parent due to the minor's fear of the parent in light of the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.~~]

[~~(7) Notwithstanding Subsection (3), a court may not deny parent-time based solely on a parent's failure to:~~]

[~~(a) prove that the parent has not used legal or illegal substances; or~~]

[~~(b) comply with an aspect of the child and family plan that is ordered by the court.~~]

[~~(8) (a) In addition to the primary permanency plan, the court shall establish a~~]

(2) (a) The concurrent permanency plan [~~that~~] shall include:

(i) a representative list of the conditions under which the primary permanency plan will be abandoned in favor of the concurrent permanency plan; and

(ii) an explanation of the effect of abandoning or modifying the primary permanency plan.

(b) In determining the primary permanency plan and concurrent permanency plan, the juvenile court shall consider:

(i) the preference for kinship placement over nonkinship placement;

(ii) the potential for a guardianship placement if [~~the parent-child relationship is legally terminated~~] parental rights are terminated and no appropriate adoption placement is available; and

(iii) the use of an individualized permanency plan, only as a last resort.

[~~(9) A permanency hearing shall be conducted in accordance with Subsection 78A-6-314(1)(b) within 30 days after the day on which the dispositional hearing ends if something other than reunification is initially established as a minor's primary permanency plan.~~]

[~~(10)~~] (3) (a) The juvenile court may amend a minor's primary permanency plan before the establishment of a final permanency plan under Section [~~78A-6-314~~] 80-3-409.

(b) The juvenile court is not limited to the terms of the concurrent permanency plan in the event that the primary permanency plan is abandoned.

(c) If, at any time, the juvenile court determines that reunification is no longer a minor's primary permanency plan, the juvenile court shall conduct a permanency hearing in accordance with Section [~~78A-6-314~~] 80-3-409 on or before the earlier of:

(i) 30 days after the day on which the juvenile court makes the determination described in this Subsection [~~(10)~~] (3)(c); or

(ii) the day on which the provision of reunification services, described in Section [~~78A-6-314~~] 80-3-409, ends.

(4) (a) Because of the state's interest in and responsibility to protect and provide permanency for minors who are abused, neglected, or dependent, the Legislature finds that a parent's interest in receiving reunification services is limited.

(b) The juvenile court may determine that:

(i) efforts to reunify a minor with the minor's family are not reasonable or appropriate, based on the individual circumstances; and

(ii) reunification services should not be provided.

(c) In determining reasonable efforts to be made with respect to a minor, and in making reasonable efforts, the juvenile court and the division shall consider the minor's health, safety, and welfare as the paramount concern.

(5) There is a presumption that reunification services should not be provided to a parent if the juvenile court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that any of the following circumstances exist:

(a) the whereabouts of the parents are unknown, based upon a verified affidavit indicating that a reasonably diligent search has failed to locate the parent;

(b) subject to Subsection (6)(a), the parent is suffering from a mental illness of such magnitude that the mental illness renders the parent incapable of utilizing reunification services;

(c) the minor was previously adjudicated as an abused child due to physical abuse, sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation, and following the adjudication the child:

(i) was removed from the custody of the minor's parent;

(ii) was subsequently returned to the custody of the parent; and

(iii) is being removed due to additional physical abuse, sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation;

(d) the parent:

(i) caused the death of another minor through abuse or neglect;

(ii) committed, aided, abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit:

(A) murder or manslaughter of a minor; or

(B) child abuse homicide;

(iii) committed sexual abuse against the minor;

(iv) is a registered sex offender or required to register as a sex offender; or

(v) (A) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the minor;

(B) is identified by a law enforcement agency as the primary suspect in an investigation for intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the minor; or

(C) is being prosecuted for or has been convicted of intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the minor;

(e) the minor suffered severe abuse by the parent or by any individual known by the parent if the parent knew or reasonably should have known that the individual was abusing the minor;

(f) the minor is adjudicated as an abused minor as a result of severe abuse by the parent, and the juvenile court finds that it would not benefit the minor to pursue reunification services with the offending parent;

(g) the parent's rights are terminated with regard to any other minor;

(h) the minor was removed from the minor's home on at least two previous occasions and reunification services were offered or provided to the family at those times;

(i) the parent has abandoned the minor for a period of six months or longer;

(j) the parent permitted the minor to reside, on a permanent or temporary basis, at a location where the parent knew or should have known that a clandestine laboratory operation was located;

(k) except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), with respect to a parent who is the minor's birth mother, the minor has fetal alcohol syndrome, fetal alcohol spectrum disorder, or was exposed to an illegal or prescription drug that was abused by the minor's mother while the minor was in utero, if the minor was taken into division custody for that reason, unless the mother agrees to enroll in, is currently enrolled in, or has recently and successfully completed a substance use disorder treatment program approved by the department; or

(l) any other circumstance that the juvenile court determines should preclude reunification efforts or services.

(6) (a) The juvenile court shall base the finding under Subsection (5)(b) on competent evidence from at least two medical or mental health professionals, who are not associates, establishing that, even with the provision of services, the parent is not likely to be capable of adequately caring for the minor within 12 months after the day on which the juvenile court finding is made.

(b) The juvenile court may disregard the provisions of Subsection (5)(k) if the juvenile court finds, under the circumstances of the case, that the substance use disorder treatment described in Subsection (5)(k) is not warranted.

(7) In determining whether reunification services are appropriate, the juvenile court shall take into consideration:

(a) failure of the parent to respond to previous services or comply with a previous child and family plan;

(b) the fact that the minor was abused while the parent was under the influence of drugs or alcohol;

(c) any history of violent behavior directed at the minor or an immediate family member;

(d) whether a parent continues to live with an individual who abused the minor;

(e) any patterns of the parent's behavior that have exposed the minor to repeated abuse;

(f) testimony by a competent professional that the parent's behavior is unlikely to be successful; and

(g) whether the parent has expressed an interest in reunification with the minor.

(8) If, under Subsections (5)(b) through (l), the juvenile court does not order reunification services, a permanency hearing shall be conducted within 30 days in accordance with Section 80-3-409.

(9) (a) Subject to Subsections (9)(b) and (c), if the juvenile court determines that reunification services are appropriate for the minor and the minor's family, the juvenile court shall provide for reasonable parent-time with the parent or parents from whose custody the minor was removed, unless parent-time is not in the best interest of the minor.

(b) Parent-time is in the best interests of a minor unless the juvenile court makes a finding that it is necessary to deny parent-time in order to:

(i) protect the physical safety of the minor;

(ii) protect the life of the minor; or

(iii) prevent the minor from being traumatized by contact with the parent due to the minor's fear of the parent in light of the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (9)(a), a juvenile court may not deny parent-time based solely on a parent's failure to:

(i) prove that the parent has not used legal or illegal substances; or

(ii) comply with an aspect of the child and family plan that is ordered by the juvenile court.

[~~(11)~~] (10) (a) If the juvenile court determines that reunification services are appropriate, the juvenile court shall order that the division make reasonable efforts to provide services to the minor and the minor's parent for the purpose of facilitating reunification of the family, for a specified period of time.

(b) In providing the services described in Subsection [~~(11)~~] (10)(a), the [~~minor's~~] juvenile court and the division shall consider the minor's health, safety, and welfare [~~shall be the division's~~] as the paramount concern[~~, and the court shall so order~~].

(11) In cases where sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, abandonment, severe abuse, or severe neglect are involved:

(a) the juvenile court does not have any duty to order reunification services; and

(b) the division does not have a duty to make reasonable efforts to or in any other way attempt to provide reunification services or attempt to rehabilitate the offending parent or parents.

(12) (a) The juvenile court shall:

(i) determine whether the services offered or provided by the division under the child and family plan constitute[~~ "reasonable efforts"~~] reasonable efforts on the part of the division;

(ii) determine and define the responsibilities of the parent under the child and family plan in accordance with Subsection 62A-4a-205(6)(e); and

(iii) identify verbally on the record, or in a written document provided to the parties, the responsibilities described in Subsection (12)(a)(ii), for the purpose of assisting in any future determination regarding the provision of reasonable efforts, in accordance with state and federal law.

(b) If the parent is in a substance use disorder treatment program, other than a certified drug court program, the juvenile court may order the parent:

(i) [~~the court may order the parent~~] to submit to supplementary drug or alcohol testing in addition to the testing recommended by the parent's substance use disorder program based on a finding of reasonable suspicion that the parent is abusing drugs or alcohol; and

(ii) [~~the court may order the parent~~] to provide the results of drug or alcohol testing recommended by the substance use disorder program to the juvenile court or division.

(13) (a) The time period for reunification services may not exceed 12 months from the [~~date that~~] day on which the minor was initially removed from the minor's home, unless the time period is extended under Subsection [~~78A-6-314(7)~~] 80-3-409(7).

(b) Nothing in this section may be construed to entitle any parent to an entire 12 months of reunification services.

(14) (a) If reunification services are ordered, the juvenile court may terminate those services at any time.

(b) If, at any time, continuation of reasonable efforts to reunify a minor is determined to be inconsistent with the final permanency plan for the minor established [~~pursuant to~~] under Section [~~78A-6-314~~] 80-3-409, then measures shall be taken, in a timely manner, to:

(i) place the minor in accordance with the final permanency plan; and

(ii) complete whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the minor.

(15) Any physical custody of the minor by the parent or a relative during the period described in Subsections [~~(11)~~] (10) through (14) does not interrupt the running of the period.

(16) (a) If reunification services are ordered, [~~a permanency hearing shall be conducted by the court~~] the juvenile court shall conduct a permanency hearing in accordance with Section [~~78A-6-314 at the expiration of the time period for reunification services~~] 80-3-409 before the day on which the time period for reunification services expires.

(b) The permanency hearing shall be held no later than 12 months after the original removal of the minor.

(c) If reunification services are not ordered, a permanency hearing shall be conducted within 30 days[~~,~~] in accordance with Section [~~78A-6-314~~] 80-3-409.

(17) With regard to a minor in the custody of the division whose parent or parents are ordered to receive reunification services but who have abandoned that minor for a period of six months from the [~~date that~~] day on which reunification services [~~were~~] are ordered:

(a) the juvenile court shall terminate reunification services; and

(b) the division shall petition the juvenile court for termination of parental rights.

[~~(18) When a court conducts a permanency hearing for a minor under Section 78A-6-314, the court shall attempt to keep the minor's sibling group together if keeping the sibling group together is:~~]

[~~(a) practicable; and~~]

[~~(b) in accordance with the best interest of the minor.~~]

[~~(19)~~] (18) When a [~~child~~] minor is under the custody of the division and has been separated from a sibling due to foster care or adoptive placement, a juvenile court may order sibling visitation, subject to the division obtaining consent from the sibling's legal guardian, according to the juvenile court's determination of the best interests of the [~~child~~] minor for whom the hearing is held.

[~~(20) (a) Because of the state's interest in and responsibility to protect and provide permanency for minors who are abused, neglected, or dependent, the Legislature finds that a parent's interest in receiving reunification services is limited.~~]

[~~(b) The court may determine that:~~]

[~~(i) efforts to reunify a minor with the minor's family are not reasonable or appropriate, based on the individual circumstances; and~~]

[~~(ii) reunification services should not be provided.~~]

[~~(c) In determining "reasonable efforts" to be made with respect to a minor, and in making "reasonable efforts," the minor's health, safety, and welfare shall be the paramount concern.~~]

[~~(21) There is a presumption that reunification services should not be provided to a parent if the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that any of the following circumstances exist:~~]

[~~(a) the whereabouts of the parents are unknown, based upon a verified affidavit indicating that a reasonably diligent search has failed to locate the parent;~~]

[~~(b) subject to Subsection (22)(a), the parent is suffering from a mental illness of such magnitude that it renders the parent incapable of utilizing reunification services;~~]

[~~(c) the minor was previously adjudicated as an abused child due to physical abuse, sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation, and following the adjudication the minor:~~]

[~~(i) was removed from the custody of the minor's parent;~~]

[~~(ii) was subsequently returned to the custody of the parent; and~~]

[~~(iii) is being removed due to additional physical abuse, sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation;~~]

[~~(d) the parent:~~]

[~~(i) caused the death of another minor through abuse or neglect;~~]

[~~(ii) committed, aided, abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit:~~]

[~~(A) murder or manslaughter of a child; or~~]

[~~(B) child abuse homicide;~~]

[~~(iii) committed sexual abuse against the child;~~]

[~~(iv) is a registered sex offender or required to register as a sex offender; or~~]

[~~(v) (A) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the child;~~]

[~~(B) is identified by a law enforcement agency as the primary suspect in an investigation for intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the child; or~~]

[~~(C) is being prosecuted for or has been convicted of intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the child;~~]

[~~(e) the minor suffered severe abuse by the parent or by any person known by the parent, if the parent knew or reasonably should have known that the person was abusing the minor;~~]

[~~(f) the minor is adjudicated an abused child as a result of severe abuse by the parent, and the court finds that it would not benefit the minor to pursue reunification services with the offending parent;~~]

[~~(h) the minor was removed from the minor's home on at least two previous occasions and reunification services were offered or provided to the family at those times;~~]

[~~(i) the parent has abandoned the minor for a period of six months or longer;~~]

[~~(j) the parent permitted the child to reside, on a permanent or temporary basis, at a location where the parent knew or should have known that a clandestine laboratory operation was located;~~]

[~~(k) except as provided in Subsection (22)(b), with respect to a parent who is the child's birth mother, the child has fetal alcohol syndrome, fetal alcohol spectrum disorder, or was exposed to an illegal or prescription drug that was abused by the child's mother while the child was in utero, if the child was taken into division custody for that reason, unless the mother agrees to enroll in, is currently enrolled in, or has recently and successfully completed a substance use disorder treatment program approved by the department; or~~]

[~~(l) any other circumstance that the court determines should preclude reunification efforts or services.~~]

[~~(22) (a) The finding under Subsection (21)(b) shall be based on competent evidence from at least two medical or mental health professionals, who are not associates, establishing that, even with the provision of services, the parent is not likely to be capable of adequately caring for the minor within 12 months after the day on which the court finding is made.~~]

[~~(b) A judge may disregard the provisions of Subsection (21)(k) if the court finds, under the circumstances of the case, that the substance use disorder treatment described in Subsection (21)(k) is not warranted.~~]

[~~(23) In determining whether reunification services are appropriate, the court shall take into consideration:~~]

[~~(a) failure of the parent to respond to previous services or comply with a previous child and family plan;~~]

[~~(g) whether the parent has expressed an interest in reunification with the minor.~~]

[~~(24)~~] (19) (a) If reunification services are not ordered [~~pursuant to Subsections (20) through (22)~~] under this section, and the whereabouts of a parent [~~become~~] becomes known within six months after the day on which the out-of-home placement of the minor is made, the juvenile court may order the division to provide reunification services.

(b) The time limits described in [~~Subsections (2) through (18)~~] this section are not tolled by the parent's absence.

[~~(25)~~] (20) (a) If a parent is incarcerated or institutionalized, the juvenile court shall order reasonable services unless the juvenile court determines that those services would be detrimental to the minor.

(b) In making the determination described in Subsection [~~(25)~~] (20)(a), the juvenile court shall consider:

(i) the age of the minor;

(ii) the degree of parent-child bonding;

(iii) the length of the sentence;

(iv) the nature of the treatment;

(v) the nature of the crime or illness;

(vi) the degree of detriment to the minor if services are not offered;

(viii) any other appropriate factors.

(c) Reunification services for an incarcerated parent are subject to the time limitations imposed in [~~Subsections (2) through (18)~~] this section.

(d) Reunification services for an institutionalized parent are subject to the time limitations imposed in [~~Subsections (2) through (18)~~] this section, unless the juvenile court determines that continued reunification services would be in the minor's best interest.

[~~(26) If, pursuant to Subsections (21)(b) through (l), the court does not order reunification services, a permanency hearing shall be conducted within 30 days, in accordance with Section 78A-6-314.~~]

Section 83. Section 80-3-407, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-313 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~78A-6-313~~]. 80-3-407. Six-month review hearing -- Court determination regarding reasonable efforts by the division and parental compliance with child and family plan requirements.

If reunification efforts have been ordered by the juvenile court under Section 80-3-406, [~~a hearing shall be held~~] the juvenile court shall hold a hearing no more than six months after [~~initial removal of a minor~~] the day on which the minor is initially removed from the minor's home, in order for the juvenile court to determine whether:

(1) the division has provided and is providing[~~"reasonable efforts"~~] reasonable efforts to reunify [~~a~~] the family[~~,~~] in accordance with the child and family plan established under Section 62A-4a-205; and

(2) the parent has fulfilled or is fulfilling identified duties and responsibilities in order to comply with the requirements of the child and family plan.

Section 84. Section 80-3-408, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-315 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~78A-6-315~~]. 80-3-408. Periodic review hearings -- Dispositional reports.

(1) At least every six months, the division or the juvenile court shall conduct a periodic review of the status of each [~~child~~] minor in the custody of the division, until the juvenile court terminates the division's custody of the [~~child~~] minor.

(2) (a) The juvenile court or the division shall conduct the review described in Subsection (1) [~~shall be conducted~~] in accordance with the requirements of the case review system described in 42 U.S.C. Section 675.

(b) If a review described in Subsection (1) is conducted by the division, the division shall:

(i) conduct the review in accordance with the administrative review requirements of 42 U.S.C. Section 675; and

(ii) to the extent practicable, involve volunteer citizens in the administrative review process.

(3) (a) Within 30 days after [~~completion of~~] the day on which a review described in Subsection (1) that is conducted by the division is completed, the division shall:

(i) submit a copy of [~~its~~] the division's dispositional report to the juvenile court to be made a part of the juvenile court's legal file; and

(ii) provide a copy of the dispositional report to each party in the case to which the review relates.

(b) The juvenile court shall receive and review each dispositional report submitted under Subsection (3)(a)(i) in the same manner as the juvenile court receives and reviews a report described in Section [~~78A-6-605~~] 80-6-307.

(c) If a report submitted under Subsection (3)(a)(i) is determined to be an ex parte communication with a judge, the report [~~shall be~~] is considered a communication authorized by law.

[~~(d) A report described in Subsection (3)(a)(i) may be received as evidence, and may be considered by the court along with other evidence. The court may require any person who participated in the dispositional report to appear as a witness if the person is reasonably available.~~]

[~~78A-6-314~~]. 80-3-409. Permanency hearing -- Final plan -- Petition for termination of parental rights filed -- Hearing on termination of parental rights.

(1) (a) [~~When~~] If reunification services [~~have been ordered in accordance with Section 78A-6-312~~] are ordered under Section 80-3-406, with regard to a minor who is in the custody of the [~~Division of Child and Family Services, a permanency hearing shall be held by the court~~] division, the juvenile court shall hold a permanency hearing no later than 12 months after the day on which the minor [~~was~~] is initially removed from the minor's home.

(b) If reunification services [~~were~~] are not ordered at the dispositional hearing, the juvenile court shall hold a permanency hearing [~~shall be held~~] within 30 days after the day on which the dispositional hearing ends.

(2) (a) If reunification services [~~were~~] are ordered [~~by the court~~] in accordance with Section [~~78A-6-312~~] 80-3-406, the juvenile court shall, at the permanency hearing, determine, consistent with Subsection (3), whether the minor may safely be returned to the custody of the minor's parent.

(b) If the juvenile court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that return of the minor to the minor's parent would create a substantial risk of detriment to the minor's physical or emotional well-being, the minor may not be returned to the custody of the minor's parent.

(c) Prima facie evidence that return of the minor to a parent or guardian would create a substantial risk of detriment to the minor is established if:

(i) the parent or guardian fails to:

(A) participate in a court approved child and family plan;

(B) comply with a court approved child and family plan in whole or in part; or

(C) meet the goals of a court approved child and family plan; or

(ii) the minor's natural parent:

(A) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the minor;

(B) is identified by a law enforcement agency as the primary suspect in an investigation for intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the minor; or

(C) is being prosecuted for or has been convicted of intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the minor.

(3) In making a determination under Subsection (2)(a), the juvenile court shall:

(a) review and consider:

[~~(a)~~] (i) the report prepared by the [~~Division of Child and Family Services~~] division;

[~~(b)~~] (ii) in accordance with the Utah Rules of Evidence, any admissible evidence offered by the minor's attorney guardian ad litem;

[~~(c)~~] (iii) any report submitted by the division under Subsection [~~78A-6-315(3)(a)(i)~~] 80-3-408(3)(a)(i);

[~~(d)~~] (iv) any evidence regarding the efforts or progress demonstrated by the parent; and

[~~(e)~~] (v) the extent to which the parent cooperated and used the services provided[~~.~~]; and

(b) attempt to keep the minor's sibling group together if keeping the sibling group together is:

(i) practicable; and

(ii) in accordance with the best interest of the minor.

(4) With regard to a case where reunification services [~~were~~] are ordered by the juvenile court, if a minor is not returned to the minor's parent or guardian at the permanency hearing, the juvenile court shall, unless the time for the provision of reunification services is extended under Subsection (7):

(a) order termination of reunification services to the parent;

(b) make a final determination regarding whether termination of parental rights, adoption, or permanent custody and guardianship is the most appropriate final plan for the minor, taking into account the minor's primary permanency plan established by the juvenile court [~~pursuant to Section 78A-6-312~~] under Section 80-3-406; and

(c) in accordance with Subsection 80-3-406(2), establish a concurrent permanency plan that identifies the second most appropriate final plan for the minor, if appropriate.

(5) The juvenile court may order another planned permanent living arrangement other than reunification for a minor who is 16 years old or older upon entering the following findings:

(a) the [~~Division of Child and Family Services~~] division has documented intensive, ongoing, and unsuccessful efforts to reunify the minor with the minor's parent or parents, or to secure a placement for the minor with a guardian, an adoptive parent, or an individual described in Subsection [~~78A-6-306(6)(e)~~] 80-3-301(6)(e);

(b) the [~~Division of Child and Family Services~~] division has demonstrated that the division has made efforts to normalize the life of the minor while in the division's custody, in accordance with Sections 62A-4a-210 through 62A-4a-212;

(c) the minor prefers another planned permanent living arrangement; and

(d) there is a compelling reason why reunification or a placement described in Subsection (5)(a) is not in the minor's best interest.

(6) Except as provided in Subsection (7), the juvenile court may not extend reunification services beyond 12 months after the day on which the minor [~~was~~] is initially removed from the minor's home, in accordance with the provisions of Section [~~78A-6-312~~] 80-3-406.

(7) (a) Subject to Subsection (7)(b), the juvenile court may extend reunification services for no more than 90 days if the juvenile court finds, beyond a preponderance of the evidence, that:

(i) there has been substantial compliance with the child and family plan;

(ii) reunification is probable within that 90-day period; and

(iii) the extension is in the best interest of the minor.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(c), the juvenile court may not extend any reunification services beyond 15 months after the day on which the minor [~~was~~] is initially removed from the minor's home.

(ii) Delay or failure of a parent to establish paternity or seek custody does not provide a basis for the juvenile court to extend services for [~~that~~] the parent beyond the 12-month period described in Subsection (6).

(c) In accordance with Subsection (7)(d), the juvenile court may extend reunification services for one additional 90-day period, beyond the 90-day period described in Subsection (7)(a), if:

(i) the juvenile court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that:

(A) the parent has substantially complied with the child and family plan;

(B) it is likely that reunification will occur within the additional 90-day period; and

(C) the extension is in the best interest of the minor;

(ii) the juvenile court specifies the facts upon which the findings described in Subsection (7)(c)(i) are based; and

(iii) the juvenile court specifies the time period in which it is likely that reunification will occur.

(d) A juvenile court may not extend the time period for reunification services without complying with the requirements of this Subsection (7) before the extension.

(e) In determining whether to extend reunification services for a minor, a juvenile court shall take into consideration the status of the minor siblings of the minor.

(8) The juvenile court may, in [~~its~~] the juvenile court's discretion:

(a) enter any additional order that [~~it~~] the juvenile court determines to be in the best interest of the minor, so long as that order does not conflict with the requirements and provisions of Subsections (4) through (7); or

(b) order the division to provide protective supervision or other services to a minor and the minor's family after the division's custody of a minor [~~has been~~] is terminated.

(9) (a) If the final plan for the minor is to proceed toward termination of parental rights, the petition for termination of parental rights shall be filed, and a pretrial held, within 45 calendar days after the day on which the permanency hearing is held.

(b) If the division opposes the plan to terminate parental rights, the juvenile court may not require the division to file a petition for the termination of parental rights, except as required under Subsection [~~78A-6-316(2)~~] 80-4-203(2).

(10) (a) Any party to an action may, at any time, petition the juvenile court for an expedited permanency hearing on the basis that continuation of reunification efforts are inconsistent with the permanency needs of the minor.

(b) If the juvenile court so determines, [~~it~~] the juvenile court shall order, in accordance with federal law, that:

(i) the minor be placed in accordance with the permanency plan; and

(ii) whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the minor be completed as quickly as possible.

(11) Nothing in this section may be construed to:

(a) entitle any parent to reunification services for any specified period of time;

(b) limit a juvenile court's ability to terminate reunification services at any time before a permanency hearing; or

(c) limit or prohibit the filing of a petition for termination of parental rights by any party, or a hearing on termination of parental rights, at any time [~~prior to~~] before a permanency hearing provided that relative placement and custody options have been fairly considered in accordance with Sections 62A-4a-201 and [~~78A-6-503~~] 80-4-104.

(12) (a) Subject to Subsection (12)(b), if a petition for termination of parental rights is filed [~~prior to~~] before the date scheduled for a permanency hearing, the juvenile court may consolidate the hearing on termination of parental rights with the permanency hearing.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (12)(a), if the juvenile court consolidates the hearing on termination of parental rights with the permanency hearing:

(i) the juvenile court shall first make a finding regarding whether reasonable efforts have been made by the [~~Division of Child and Family Services~~] division to finalize the permanency plan for the minor; and

(ii) any reunification services shall be terminated in accordance with the time lines described in Section [~~78A-6-312~~] 80-3-406.

(c) [~~A~~] The juvenile court shall make a decision on a petition for termination of parental rights [~~shall be made~~] within 18 months [~~from~~] after the day on which the minor is initially removed from the minor's home.

(13) If a juvenile court determines that a minor will not be returned to a parent of the minor, the juvenile court shall consider appropriate placement options inside and outside of the state.

(14) (a) [~~If~~] In accordance with Section 80-3-108, if a minor 14 years [~~of age~~] old or older desires an opportunity to address the juvenile court or testify regarding permanency or placement, the juvenile court shall give the minor's wishes added weight, but may not treat the minor's wishes as the single controlling factor under this section.

(b) If the juvenile court's decision under this section differs from a minor's express wishes if the minor is of sufficient maturity to articulate the wishes in relation to permanency or the minor's placement, the juvenile court shall make findings explaining why the juvenile court's decision differs from the minor's wishes.

Section 86. Section 80-3-501, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-311.5 is renumbered and amended to read:

Part 5. Miscellaneous Hearings

[~~78A-6-311.5~~]. 80-3-501. Placement in a qualified residential treatment program -- Review hearings.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Qualified individual" means the same as that term is defined in 42 U.S.C. Sec. 675a.

(b) "Qualified residential treatment program" means the same as that term is defined in 42 U.S.C. Sec. 672.

(2) Within 60 days [~~of the date when a child~~] of the day on which a minor is placed in a qualified residential treatment program under this chapter or Chapter 6, Juvenile Justice, the juvenile court shall:

(a) review the assessment, determination, and documentation made by a qualified individual regarding the [~~child~~] minor;

(b) determine whether the needs of the [~~child~~] minor can be met through placement in a foster home;

(c) if the [~~child's~~] minor's needs cannot be met through placement in a foster home, determine whether:

(i) placement of the [~~child~~] minor in a qualified residential treatment program provides the most effective and appropriate level of care for the [~~child~~] minor in the least restrictive environment; and

(ii) placement in a qualified residential treatment program is consistent with the short-term and long-term goals for the [~~child~~] minor, as specified in the permanency plan for the [~~child~~] minor; and

(d) approve or disapprove of the [~~child's~~] minor's placement in a qualified residential treatment program.

(3) As long as a [~~child~~] minor remains placed in a qualified residential treatment program, the juvenile court shall review the placement decision at each subsequent review and permanency hearing held with respect to the [~~child.~~] minor.

(4) When the juvenile court conducts a review described in Subsection (3), the juvenile court shall review evidence submitted by the custodial division to:

(a) demonstrate an ongoing assessment of the strengths and needs of the [~~child~~] minor such that the [~~child's~~] minor's needs cannot be met through placement in a foster home;

(b) demonstrate that placement in a qualified residential treatment program provides the most effective and appropriate level of care for the [~~child~~] minor in the least restrictive environment;

(c) demonstrate that placement in the qualified residential treatment program is consistent with the short-term and long-term goals for the [~~child~~] minor, as specified by the permanency plan for the [~~child~~] minor;

(d) document the specific treatment or service needs that will be met for the [~~child~~] minor in the placement;

(e) document the length of time the [~~child~~] minor is expected to need the treatment or services; and

(f) document the efforts made by the custodial division to prepare the [~~child~~] minor to return home or transition to another setting, such as with a relative, with a friend of the [~~child~~] minor, with a [~~legal~~] guardian, with an adoptive parent, a foster home, or independent living.

Section 87. Section 80-3-502, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-318 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~78A-6-318~~]. 80-3-502. Review of foster care removal -- Foster parent's standing.

(1) With regard to a [~~child~~] minor in the custody of the [~~Division of Child and Family Services~~] division who is the subject of a petition alleging abuse, neglect, or dependency, and who has been placed in foster care with a foster family, the Legislature finds that:

(a) except with regard to the [~~child's~~] minor's natural parents, a foster family has a very limited but recognized interest in its familial relationship with the [~~child~~] minor; and

(b) [~~children~~] minors in the custody of the division are experiencing multiple changes in foster care placements with little or no documentation, and that numerous studies of child growth and development emphasize the importance of stability in foster care living arrangements.

(2) For the reasons described in Subsection (1), the Legislature finds that, except with regard to the [~~child's~~] minor's natural parents, procedural due process protections must be provided to a foster family prior to removal of a foster [~~child~~] minor from the foster home.

(3) (a) A foster parent who has had a foster [~~child~~] minor in the foster parent's home for 12 months or longer may petition the juvenile court for a review and determination of the appropriateness of a decision by the [~~Division of Child and Family Services~~] division to remove the [~~child~~] minor from the foster home, unless the removal was for the purpose of:

(i) returning the [~~child to the child's~~] minor to the minor's natural parent or legal guardian;

(ii) immediately placing the [~~child~~] minor in an approved adoptive home;

(iii) placing the [~~child~~] minor with a relative[~~, as defined in Subsection 78A-6-307(1),~~] who obtained custody or asserted an interest in the [~~child~~] minor within the preference period described in Subsection [~~78A-6-307(18)(a)~~] 80-3-302(8); or

(iv) placing an Indian child in accordance with [~~preplacement~~] placement preferences and other requirements described in the Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1915.

(b) The foster parent may petition the juvenile court under this section without exhausting administrative remedies within the division.

(c) The juvenile court may order the division to place the [~~child~~] minor in a specified home, and shall base [~~its~~] the juvenile court's determination on the best interest of the [~~child~~] minor.

(4) The requirements of this section do not apply to the removal of a [~~child~~] minor based on a foster parent's request for that removal.

Section 88. Section 80-3-503 is enacted to read:

80-3-503. Minor's petition for removal from division custody -- Reentering division custody.

(1) (a) A minor who is 18 years old or older, but younger than 21 years old, may petition the juvenile court to express the minor's desire to have the minor be removed from the custody of the division if the minor is in the division's custody on grounds of abuse, neglect, or dependency.

(b) If the minor's parent's rights have not been terminated in accordance with Chapter 4, Termination and Restoration of Parental Rights, the minor's petition described in Subsection (1)(a) shall contain a statement from the minor's parent or guardian agreeing that the minor should be removed from the custody of the division.

(b) remove the minor from the custody of the division if:

(i) the requirements under Subsections (1)(b) and (c) are met; and

(ii) the court finds, based on input from the division, the minor's attorney guardian ad litem, and the Office of the Attorney General, that the minor does not pose an imminent threat to self or others.

(3) (a) A minor removed from custody of the division under this section may, within 90 days after the day on which the minor is removed from custody of the division, petition the court to re-enter custody of the division.

(b) Upon receiving a petition described in Subsection (3)(a), the juvenile court shall order the division to take custody of the minor based on the findings the juvenile court entered when the juvenile court originally vested custody of the minor in the division.

Section 89. Section 80-4-101, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-501 is renumbered and amended to read:

CHAPTER 4. TERMINATION AND RESTORATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS

Part 1. General Provisions

[~~78A-6-501~~]. 80-4-101. Title.

This [~~part~~] chapter is known as [~~the "Termination of Parental Rights Act."~~] "Termination and Restoration of Parental Rights."

Section 90. Section 80-4-102, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-502 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~78A-6-502~~]. 80-4-102. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Division" means the Division of Child and Family Services [~~within the Department of Human Services~~] created in Section 62A-4a-103.

(2) "Failure of parental adjustment" means that a parent or parents are unable or unwilling within a reasonable time to substantially correct the circumstances, conduct, or conditions that led to placement of their child outside of their home, notwithstanding reasonable and appropriate efforts made by the [~~Division of Child and Family Services~~] division to return the child to [~~that~~] the home.

[~~(3) "Plan" means a written agreement between the parents of a child, who has been removed from the child's home by the juvenile court, and the Division of Child and Family Services or written conditions and obligations imposed upon the parents directly by the juvenile court, that have a primary objective of reuniting the family or, if the parents fail or refuse to comply with the terms and conditions of the case plan, freeing the child for adoption.~~]

(3) "Former parent" means an individual whose legal parental rights were terminated under this chapter.

(4) "Petition to restore parental rights" means a petition filed in accordance with this chapter to restore the rights of a parent with regard to a child.

(5) "Petition for termination of parental rights" means a petition filed in accordance with this chapter to terminate the parental rights of a parent.

(6) "Temporary custody" means the same as that term is defined in Section 62A-4a-101.

Section 91. Section 80-4-103 is enacted to read:

80-4-103. Nature of the proceedings -- Rules of procedure -- Burden of proof.

(1) The proceedings under this chapter are civil in nature and are governed by the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure and the Utah Rules of Juvenile Procedure.

(2) The juvenile court shall:

(a) in all cases filed under this chapter require the petitioner to establish the facts by clear and convincing evidence;

(b) give full and careful consideration to all of the evidence presented with regard to the constitutional rights and claims of the parent; and

(c) if a parent is found, by reason of the parent's conduct or condition, to be unfit or incompetent based upon any of the grounds for termination described in this chapter, consider the welfare and best interest of the child of paramount importance in determining whether to terminate parental rights.

Section 92. Section 80-4-104, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-503 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~78A-6-503~~]. 80-4-104. Judicial process for termination -- Parent unfit or incompetent -- Best interest of child.

(1) Under both the United States Constitution and the constitution of this state, a parent possesses a fundamental liberty interest in the care, custody, and management of the parent's child. For this reason, the termination of family ties by the state may only be done for compelling reasons.

(2) The juvenile court shall provide a fundamentally fair process to a parent if a party moves to terminate the parent's parental rights.

(3) If the party moving to terminate parental rights is a governmental entity, the juvenile court shall find that any actions or allegations made in opposition to the rights and desires of a parent regarding the parent's child are supported by sufficient evidence to satisfy a parent's constitutional entitlement to heightened protection against government interference with the parent's fundamental rights and liberty interests.

(4) (a) The fundamental liberty interest of a parent concerning the care, custody, and management of the parent's child is recognized, protected, and does not cease to exist simply because:

(i) a parent may fail to be a model parent; or

(ii) the parent's child is placed in the temporary custody of the state.

(b) The juvenile court should give serious consideration to the fundamental right of a parent to rear the parent's child, and concomitantly, of the right of the child to be reared by the child's natural parent.

(5) At all times, a parent retains a vital interest in preventing the irretrievable destruction of family life.

(6) [~~Prior to~~] Before an adjudication of unfitness, government action in relation to a parent and a parent's child may not exceed the least restrictive means or alternatives available to accomplish a compelling state interest.

(7) Until parental unfitness is established and the children suffer, or are substantially likely to suffer, serious detriment as a result, the child and the child's parent share a vital interest in preventing erroneous termination of their relationship and the juvenile court may not presume that a child and the child's parents are adversaries.

(8) It is in the best interest and welfare of a child to be raised under the care and supervision of the child's natural parents. A child's need for a normal family life in a permanent home, and for positive, nurturing family relationships is usually best met by the child's natural parents. Additionally, the integrity of the family unit and the right of parents to conceive and raise their children are constitutionally protected. For these reasons, the juvenile court should only transfer custody of a child from the child's natural parent for compelling reasons and when there is a jurisdictional basis to do so.

(9) The right of a fit, competent parent to raise the parent's child without undue government interference is a fundamental liberty interest that has long been protected by the laws and Constitution of this state and of the United States, and is a fundamental public policy of this state.

(10) (a) The state recognizes that:

(i) a parent has the right, obligation, responsibility, and authority to raise, manage, train, educate, provide for, and reasonably discipline the parent's child; and

(ii) the state's role is secondary and supportive to the primary role of a parent.

(b) It is the public policy of this state that a parent retain the fundamental right and duty to exercise primary control over the care, supervision, upbringing, and education of the parent's child.

(c) The interests of the state favor preservation and not severance of natural familial bonds in situations where a positive, nurturing parent-child relationship can exist, including extended family association and support.

(11) This [~~part~~] chapter provides a judicial process for voluntary and involuntary severance of the parent-child relationship, designed to safeguard the rights and interests of all parties concerned and promote their welfare and that of the state.

(12) (a) Wherever possible, family life should be strengthened and preserved, but if a parent is found, by reason of the parent's conduct or condition, to be unfit or incompetent based upon any of the grounds for termination described in this part, the juvenile court shall then consider the welfare and best interest of the child of paramount importance in determining whether termination of parental rights shall be ordered.

(b) In determining whether termination is in the best interest of the child, and in finding that termination of parental rights, from the child's point of view, is strictly necessary, the juvenile court shall consider, among other relevant factors, whether:

(i) sufficient efforts were dedicated to reunification in accordance with [~~Subsection 78A-6-507(3)(a)~~] Section 80-4-301; and

(ii) the efforts to place the child with kin who have, or are willing to come forward to care for the child, were given due weight.

Section 93. Section 80-4-105, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-513 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~78A-6-513~~]. 80-4-105. Effect of decree.

(1) An order for the termination of [~~the parent-child legal relationship~~] parental rights divests the child and the parents of all legal rights, powers, immunities, duties, and obligations with respect to each other, except the right of the child to inherit from the parent.

(2) An order or decree entered [~~pursuant to this part~~] under this chapter may not disentitle a child to any benefit due [~~him~~] to the child from any third person, including[~~, but not limited to,~~] any Indian tribe, agency, state, or the United States.

(3) Except as provided in Sections [~~78A-6-1401 through 78A-6-1404~~] 80-4-401 and 80-4-402, after the termination of [~~a parent-child legal relationship~~] a parent's parental rights, the former parent:

(a) is [~~neither~~] not entitled to any notice of proceedings for the adoption of the child [~~nor has~~]; and

(b) does not have any right to object to the adoption or to participate in any other placement proceedings.

(4) An order permanently terminating the rights of a parent, guardian, or custodian does not expire with termination of the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

Section 94. Section 80-4-106 is enacted to read:

80-4-106. Individuals entitled to be present at proceedings -- Legal representation -- Attorney general responsibilities.

(1) (a) The juvenile court shall admit any individual to a hearing unless the juvenile court makes a finding upon the record that the individual's presence at the hearing would:

(i) be detrimental to the best interest of a child who is a party to the proceeding;

(ii) impair the fact-finding process; or

(iii) be otherwise contrary to the interests of justice.

(b) The juvenile court may exclude an individual from a hearing under Subsection (1)(a) on the juvenile court's own motion or by motion of a party to the proceeding.

(2) (a) The parties shall be advised of the parties' right to counsel, including the appointment of counsel for a parent or legal guardian facing any action initiated by a private party under this chapter or under Section 78B-6-112 for termination of parental rights.

(b) If a parent or guardian is the subject of a petition for the termination of parental rights, the juvenile court shall:

(i) appoint an indigent defense service provider for a parent or guardian determined to be an indigent individual in accordance with Title 78B, Chapter 22, Part 2, Appointment of Counsel; and

(ii) order indigent defense services for the parent or legal guardian who is determined to be an indigent individual in accordance with Title 78B, Chapter 22, Part 2, Appointment of Counsel.

(c) In any action under this chapter, a guardian ad litem, as defined in Section 78A-2-801, shall represent the child in accordance with Sections 78A-2-803 and 80-3-104.

(d) A guardian ad litem, as defined in Section 78A-2-801, shall represent the child in other actions initiated under this chapter when appointed by the juvenile court under Section 78A-2-803 or as otherwise provided by law.

(3) Subject to the attorney general's prosecutorial discretion in civil enforcement actions, the attorney general shall, in accordance with Section 62A-4a-113, enforce all provisions of this chapter and Title 62A, Chapter 4a, Child and Family Services, relating to the termination of parental rights.

Section 95. Section 80-4-107 is enacted to read:

80-4-107. Record of proceedings -- Written reports and other materials -- Statements of a child.

(1) As used in this section, "record of a proceeding" means the same as that term is defined in Section 80-3-106.

(2) A record of a proceeding under this chapter:

(a) shall be taken in accordance with Section 80-3-106; and

(b) may be requested for release as described in Section 80-3-106.

(3) (a) For purposes of determining proper disposition of a child in hearings upon a petition for termination of parental rights, written reports and other material relating to the minor's mental, physical, and social history and condition may be:

(i) received in evidence; and

(ii) considered by the court along with other evidence.

(b) The court may require that an individual who wrote a report or prepared the material under Subsection (3)(a) to appear as a witness if the individual is reasonably available.

(4) For the purpose of establishing abuse, neglect, or dependency under this chapter, the juvenile court may, in the juvenile court's discretion, consider evidence of statements made by a child under eight years old to an individual in a trust relationship.

Section 96. Section 80-4-108, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-515 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~78A-6-515~~]. 80-4-108. Physical or mental health examination during proceedings.

[~~(1) When a mental health practitioner is to be appointed in a parental rights action to evaluate the mental health of a parent or a child, or to provide mental health services to a parent or a child, the court:~~]

[~~(a)~~] (1) In a proceeding under this chapter, the juvenile court may appoint any mental health therapist, as defined in Section 58-60-102, [~~which~~] who the juvenile court finds to be qualified[~~;~~] to:

(a) evaluate the mental health of, or provide mental health services to, the child; or

(b) after notice and a hearing set for the specific purpose, evaluate the mental health of a parent, or provide mental health services to a parent, if the juvenile court finds from the evidence presented at the hearing that the parent's mental or emotional condition may be a factor in the parent's unfitness.

(2) The juvenile court:

[~~(b)~~] (a) may not refuse to appoint a mental health therapist under Subsection (1) for the reason that the therapist's recommendations in another case [~~have not followed~~] did not follow the recommendations of the [~~Division of Child and Family Services~~] division or the Office of Guardian Ad Litem; and

[~~(c)~~] (b) shall give strong consideration to the parent's or guardian's wishes regarding the selection of a mental health therapist.

(3) In a proceeding under this chapter, the juvenile court may appoint a physician, or a physician assistant, who the court finds to be qualified to:

(b) after notice and a hearing set for a specific purpose, physically examine the parent if the juvenile court finds from the evidence presented at the hearing that the parent's physical condition may be a factor in causing the parent's unfitness.

(4) The division shall, with regard to a child in the division's custody:

(a) take reasonable measures to notify a parent of any non-emergency health treatment or care scheduled for a child;

(b) include the parent as fully as possible in making health care decisions for the child;

(c) defer to the parent's reasonable and informed decisions regarding the child's health care to the extent that the child's health and well-being are not unreasonably compromised by the parent's decision; and

(d) notify the parent of the child within five business days after the day on which the child receives emergency health care or treatment.

(5) An examination conducted in accordance with Subsection (1) or (2) is not a privileged communication under Utah Rules of Evidence, Rule 506(d)(3), and is exempt from the general rule of privilege.

[~~(2)~~] (6) This section applies to all juvenile court proceedings under this chapter involving:

Section 102. Section 80-4-205 is enacted to read:

80-4-205. Expedited hearing for temporary custody.

(i) the child is at risk of being removed from the child's home due to abuse and neglect; and

(ii) the provision of protective services may make the removal described in Subsection (1)(b)(i) unnecessary.

(2) (a) The juvenile court shall hold an expedited hearing to determine whether a child should be placed in temporary custody if:

(i) a person files a petition for termination of parental rights;

(ii) a party to the proceeding files a motion for expedited placement in temporary custody; and

(2) The juvenile court, by a motion of any interested party or on the juvenile court's own motion, shall direct that the petition for termination of parental rights be amended to conform to the evidence described in Subsection (1).

(3) If the amendment described in Subsection (2) results in a substantial departure from the facts originally alleged in the petition for the termination of parental rights, the juvenile court shall grant a continuance as justice may require in accordance with Utah Rules of Juvenile Procedure, Rule 54.

Section 105. Section 80-4-301, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-507 is renumbered and amended to read:

Part 3. Termination and Post-termination of Parental Rights

[~~78A-6-507~~]. 80-4-301. Grounds for termination of parental rights -- Findings regarding reasonable efforts.

(1) Subject to the protections and requirements of Section [~~78A-6-503~~] 80-4-104, and if the juvenile court finds termination of [~~a parent's~~] parental rights, from the child's point of view, is strictly necessary, the juvenile court may terminate all parental rights with respect to the parent if the juvenile court finds any one of the following:

(a) that the parent has abandoned the child;

(b) that the parent has neglected or abused the child;

(c) that the parent is unfit or incompetent;

(d) (i) that the child is being cared for in an out-of-home placement under the supervision of the juvenile court or the division;

(ii) that the parent has substantially neglected, [~~wilfully~~] willfully refused, or has been unable or unwilling to remedy the circumstances that cause the child to be in an out-of-home placement; and

(iii) that there is a substantial likelihood that the parent will not be capable of exercising proper and effective parental care in the near future;

(e) failure of parental adjustment, as defined in this chapter;

(f) that only token efforts have been made by the parent:

(i) to support or communicate with the child;

(ii) to prevent neglect of the child;

(iii) to eliminate the risk of serious harm to the child; or

(iv) to avoid being an unfit parent;

(g) (i) that the parent has voluntarily relinquished the parent's parental rights to the child; and

(ii) that termination is in the child's best interest;

(h) that, after a period of trial during which the child was returned to live in the child's own home, the parent substantially and continuously or repeatedly refused or failed to give the child proper parental care and protection; or

(i) the terms and conditions of safe relinquishment of a newborn child have been complied with, [~~pursuant to~~] in accordance with Title 62A, Chapter 4a, Part 8, Safe Relinquishment of a Newborn Child.

(2) The juvenile court may not terminate the parental rights of a parent because the parent has failed to complete the requirements of a child and family plan.

(3) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), in any case in which the juvenile court has directed the division to provide reunification services to a parent, the juvenile court must find that the division made reasonable efforts to provide those services before the juvenile court may terminate the parent's rights under Subsection (1)(b), (c), (d), (e), (f), or (h).

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), the juvenile court is not required to make the finding under Subsection (3)(a) before terminating a parent's rights:

(i) under Subsection (1)(b), if the juvenile court finds that the abuse or neglect occurred subsequent to adjudication; or

(ii) if reasonable efforts to provide the services described in Subsection (3)(a) are not required under federal law, and federal law is not inconsistent with Utah law.

Section 106. Section 80-4-302, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-508 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~78A-6-508~~]. 80-4-302. Evidence of grounds for termination.

(1) In determining whether a parent or parents have abandoned a child, it is prima facie evidence of abandonment that the parent or parents:

(a) although having legal custody of the child, have surrendered physical custody of the child, and for a period of six months following the surrender have not manifested to the child or to the person having the physical custody of the child a firm intention to resume physical custody or to make arrangements for the care of the child;

(b) have failed to communicate with the child by mail, telephone, or otherwise for six months;

(c) failed to have shown the normal interest of a natural parent, without just cause; or

(d) have abandoned an infant, as described in [~~Subsection 78A-6-316(1)~~] Section 80-4-203.

(2) In determining whether a parent or parents are unfit or have neglected a child the juvenile court shall consider[~~, but is not limited to, the following circumstances, conduct, or conditions~~]:

(a) emotional illness, mental illness, or mental deficiency of the parent that renders the parent unable to care for the immediate and continuing physical or emotional needs of the child for extended periods of time;

(b) conduct toward a child of a physically, emotionally, or sexually cruel or abusive nature;

(c) habitual or excessive use of intoxicating liquors, controlled substances, or dangerous drugs that render the parent unable to care for the child;

(d) repeated or continuous failure to provide the child with adequate food, clothing, shelter, education, or other care necessary for the child's physical, mental, and emotional health and development by a parent or parents who are capable of providing that care;

(e) whether the parent is incarcerated as a result of conviction of a felony, and the sentence is of such length that the child will be deprived of a normal home for more than one year;

(f) a history of violent behavior; [~~or~~]

(g) whether the parent has intentionally exposed the child to pornography or material harmful to a minor, as defined in Section 76-10-1201[~~.~~]; or

(h) any other circumstance, conduct, or condition that the court considers relevant in the determination of whether a parent or parents are unfit or have neglected the child.

(3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(c), the juvenile court may not discriminate against a parent because of or otherwise consider the parent's lawful possession or consumption of cannabis in a medicinal dosage form, a cannabis product, as those terms are defined in Section 26-61a-102 or a medical cannabis device, in accordance with Title 26, Chapter 61a, Utah Medical Cannabis Act.

(4) A parent who, legitimately practicing the parent's religious beliefs, does not provide specified medical treatment for a child is not, for that reason alone, a negligent or unfit parent.

(5) (a) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), a parent may not be considered neglectful or unfit because of a health care decision made for a child by the child's parent unless the state or other party to the proceeding shows, by clear and convincing evidence, that the health care decision is not reasonable and informed.

(b) Nothing in Subsection (5)(a) may prohibit a parent from exercising the right to obtain a second health care opinion.

(6) If a child has been placed in the custody of the division and the parent or parents fail to comply substantially with the terms and conditions of a plan within six months after the date on which the child was placed or the plan was commenced, whichever occurs later, that failure to comply is evidence of failure of parental adjustment.

(7) The following circumstances [~~constitute~~] are prima facie evidence of unfitness:

(a) sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, injury, or death of a sibling of the child, or of any child, due to known or substantiated abuse or neglect by the parent or parents;

(b) conviction of a crime, if the facts surrounding the crime are of such a nature as to indicate the unfitness of the parent to provide adequate care to the extent necessary for the child's physical, mental, or emotional health and development;

(c) a single incident of life-threatening or gravely disabling injury to or disfigurement of the child;

(d) the parent has committed, aided, abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit murder or manslaughter of a child or child abuse homicide; or

(e) the parent intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the child, without legal justification.

(a) the physical, mental, or emotional condition and needs of the child and [~~his~~] the child's desires regarding the termination, if the juvenile court determines [~~he~~] the child is of sufficient capacity to express [~~his~~] the child's desires; [~~and~~]

(b) the effort the child's parent or parents have made to adjust [~~their~~] the parent's or parents' circumstances, conduct, or conditions to make it in the child's best interest to return [~~him to his~~] the child to the child's home after a reasonable length of time, including [~~but not limited to~~]:

(i) payment of a reasonable portion of substitute physical care and maintenance, if financially able;

(ii) maintenance of regular parent-time or other contact with the child that was designed and carried out in a plan to reunite the child with the parent or parents; and

(iii) maintenance of regular contact and communication with the custodian of the child[~~.~~]; and

(c) any other factor that the juvenile court considers relevant in the determination of whether to terminate parental rights.

(2) For purposes of this section, the juvenile court shall disregard incidental conduct, contributions, contacts, and communications.

Section 108. Section 80-4-304, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-510 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~78A-6-510~~]. 80-4-304. Specific considerations when child is placed in foster home.

If a child is in the custody of the division and has been placed and resides in a foster home and the division institutes proceedings under this [~~part~~] chapter regarding the child, with an ultimate goal of having the child's foster parent or parents adopt [~~him~~] the child, the juvenile court shall consider:

(1) whether the child has become integrated into the foster family to the extent that [~~his~~] the child's familial identity is with [~~that family, and~~] the foster family;

(2) whether the foster family is able and willing permanently to treat the child as a member of the family[~~. The court shall also consider, but is not limited to, the following:~~];

[~~(1)~~] (3) the love, affection, and other emotional ties existing between the child and the parents, and the child's ties with the foster family;

[~~(2)~~] (4) the capacity and disposition of the child's parents from whom the child was removed as compared with that of the foster family to give the child love, affection, and guidance and to continue the education of the child;

[~~(3)~~] (5) the length of time the child has lived in a stable, satisfactory foster home and the desirability of [~~his~~] the child continuing to live in that environment;

[~~(4)~~] (6) the permanence as a family unit of the foster family; and

[~~(5)~~] (7) any other factor [~~considered by the court to be~~] that the juvenile court considers relevant to a particular placement of a child.

(c) shall, if a relative desires to adopt the child:

(ii) place the child for adoption with that relative unless [~~it~~] the juvenile court finds that adoption by the relative is not in the best interest of the child.

(5) This section does not guarantee that a relative will be permitted to adopt the child.

(6) A parent whose rights were terminated under this [~~part~~] chapter, or a relative of the child, as defined by Section [~~78A-6-307~~] 80-3-102, may petition for guardianship of the child if:

(a) (i) following an adoptive placement, the child's adoptive parent returns the child to the custody of the division; or

(ii) the child is in the custody of the division for one year following the day on which the parent's rights were terminated, and no permanent placement has been found or is likely to be found; and

(b) reunification with the child's parent, or guardianship by the child's relative, is in the best interest of the child.

Section 110. Section 80-4-306, which is renumbered from Section 78A-6-512 is renumbered and amended to read:

(b) [~~The~~] When determining voluntary relinquishment or consent for termination of parental rights, the juvenile court need only find that the relinquishment or termination is in the child's best interest.

(6) (a) There is a presumption that voluntary relinquishment or consent for termination of parental rights is not in the child's best interest where it appears to the juvenile court that the primary purpose for relinquishment or consent for termination is to avoid a financial support obligation.

(b) The presumption described in Subsection (6)(a) may be rebutted[~~, however,~~] if the juvenile court finds the relinquishment or consent to termination of parental rights will facilitate the establishment of stability and permanency for the child.

(7) Upon granting a voluntary relinquishment the juvenile court may make orders relating to the child's care and welfare that the juvenile court considers to be in the child's best interest.

(c) The juvenile court shall determine by a preponderance of the evidence whether the minor is competent to proceed.

(10) If the minor has not attained competency after the initial three month attainment period but is showing reasonable progress towards attainment of competency, the juvenile court may extend the attainment period up to an additional three months.

(11) The department shall provide an updated juvenile competency evaluation at the conclusion of the six month attainment period to advise the juvenile court on the minor's current competency status.

(12) If the minor does not attain competency within six months after the juvenile court initially finds the minor not competent to proceed, the court shall terminate the competency proceedings and dismiss the [~~delinquency charges~~] petition or information filed without prejudice, unless good cause is shown that there is a substantial likelihood the minor will attain competency within one year from the initial finding of not competent to proceed.
