Risk Management – Property
Property Coverage Premium Methodology
Premium for Existing Insured Building and Contents ..... See formula
The building/structure values are professionally evaluated every three to five years by an outside contractor through an agency contract. Values during interim years are updated by applying annual trending data supplied by the contractor for buildings that have been previously appraised. Content values are provided annually by the insured entities. Exposure data (asset values) and loss history are provided to an outside actuary, who provides a proposal for rates.
Premium for Newly Insured Buildings
Buildings valued in excess of $25 million reported to broker, who obtains rate from excess insurance carrier. Initial premium cost is passed through to covered entity.

11-36a-202. Prohibitions on impact fees.

(1) A local political subdivision or private entity may not:

(a) impose an impact fee to:

(i) cure deficiencies in a public facility serving existing development;

(ii) raise the established level of service of a public facility serving existing development; or

(iii) recoup more than the local political subdivision's or private entity's costs actually incurred for excess capacity in an existing system improvement;

(b) delay the construction of a school or charter school because of a dispute with the school or charter school over impact fees; or

(c) impose or charge any other fees as a condition of development approval unless those fees are a reasonable charge for the service provided.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a political subdivision or private entity may not impose an impact fee:

(i) on residential components of development to pay for a public safety facility that is a fire suppression vehicle;

(ii) on a school district or charter school for a park, recreation facility, open space, or trail;

(iii) on a school district or charter school unless:

(A) the development resulting from the school district's or charter school's development activity directly results in a need for additional system improvements for which the impact fee is imposed; and

(B) the impact fee is calculated to cover only the school district's or charter school's proportionate share of the cost of those additional system improvements;

(iv) to the extent that the impact fee includes a component for a law enforcement facility, on development activity for:

(A) the Utah National Guard;

(B) the Utah Highway Patrol; or

(C) a state institution of higher education that has its own police force;

(v) on development activity on [~~the state~~] fair park land, as defined in Section [~~63H-6-102~~] 11-68-101; or

(b) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a political subdivision or private entity may not impose an impact fee on development activity that consists of the construction of a school, whether by a school district or a charter school, if:

(A) the school is intended to replace another school, whether on the same or a different parcel;

(B) the new school creates no greater demand or need for public facilities than the school or school facilities, including any portable or modular classrooms that are on the site of the replaced school at the time that the new school is proposed; and

(C) the new school and the school being replaced are both within the boundary of the local political subdivision or the jurisdiction of the private entity.

(ii) If the imposition of an impact fee on a new school is not prohibited under Subsection (2)(b)(i) because the new school creates a greater demand or need for public facilities than the school being replaced, the impact fee shall be based only on the demand or need that the new school creates for public facilities that exceeds the demand or need that the school being replaced creates for those public facilities.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a political subdivision or private entity may impose an impact fee for a road facility on the state only if and to the extent that:

(i) the state's development causes an impact on the road facility; and

Section 1. Section 59-7-110 is amended to read:

(b) may not carry back a Utah net loss from a taxable year.

(3) A taxpayer that carries forward a Utah net loss shall carry forward the Utah net loss to the earliest eligible year for which the Utah taxable income before net loss deduction, minus Utah net losses from previous years that a taxpayer applied or was required to apply to offset income, is not less than zero.

(4) (a) Subject to Subsection (4)(b), the amount of Utah net loss that a taxpayer may carry to the year identified in Subsection (3) is the lesser of:

(i) the remaining Utah net loss after deduction of any amounts of the Utah net loss that a taxpayer carried to previous years; or

(ii) the remaining Utah taxable income before net loss deduction of the year identified in Subsection (3) after deduction of Utah net losses from previous years that a taxpayer carried or was required to carry to the year identified in Subsection (3).

(b) (i) For a Utah net loss carried forward to a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, [~~2021~~] 2023, the amount of Utah net loss that a taxpayer may carry forward to a taxable year may not exceed 80% of Utah taxable income [~~computed without regard to the deduction of any Utah net loss~~] calculated before deducting any Utah net loss from Utah taxable income.

(ii) A taxpayer may carry a remaining Utah net loss to one or more taxable years in accordance with this section.

[~~(c) If the only Utah net loss that a taxpayer carries forward is from a taxable year that began before January 1, 2018, the commission:~~]

[~~(i) shall instruct the taxpayer to calculate the 80% limitation described in Subsection (4)(b) by following federal guidance for calculating the 80% taxable income limitation for federal income tax purposes; or~~]

[~~(ii) if the commission determines that adequate federal corporate guidance on how to calculate the 80% limitation is unavailable, may not apply the 80% limitation to the Utah net loss.~~]

[~~(d) If a taxpayer carries forward a Utah net loss from a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2018, and a Utah net loss from a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2018, the commission shall instruct the taxpayer to calculate the 80% limitation described in Subsection (4)(b) by:~~]

(b) An acquired corporation may deduct the acquired corporation's net losses incurred before the date of acquisition against the acquired corporation's separate income as calculated under Subsections (6) and (7) if the acquired corporation has continued to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted before the acquisition.

(6) For purposes of Subsection (5)(b), the amount of net loss an acquired corporation that is acquired by a unitary group may deduct is calculated by:

WHEREAS, the school-based mental health professionals create a strong support for students by directly working with parents and families and connecting parents, families, and students with community resources outside the school system;

WHEREAS, the State of Utah has a shortage of all of the professionals listed in this resolution, and as of the 2021-2022 school year:

- the ratio of school psychologists to students in Utah was 1:2,114 students, while the national recommendation is 1:500-700;

WHEREAS, school psychologists are specially trained to deliver mental health services and academic support that lower barriers to learning and allow teachers to teach more effectively; school psychologists use sound psychological principles which are critical to proper instruction and learning, social and emotional development, prevention and early intervention, and support for a culturally diverse student population; school psychologists facilitate collaboration that helps parents and educators to identify and reduce risk factors, promote protective factors, create safe schools, and access community resources; and school psychologists are trained to assess barriers to learning, utilize data-based decision making, implement research-driven prevention and intervention strategies, evaluate outcomes, and improve accountability;

WHEREAS, school social workers are trained mental health professionals especially skilled in providing services to students who face serious challenges to school success, including disability, poverty, discrimination, abuse, neglect, mental illness, homelessness, bullying, familial stressors, and other barriers to learning; school social workers, being licensed mental health professionals in schools in the United States, are a vital link between the home, school, and community by providing necessary assessments, interventions, counseling, family outreach, and community referrals; and school social workers maintain knowledge of school culture and school climate, which are necessary for responsible school safety planning;

WHEREAS, school nurses are registered professional school nurses that advance the well-being, academic success, and life-long achievements of all students by serving the school community and providing a critical safety net for our state's children; school nurses provide support and direct care to students with acute injuries and chronic health conditions through care management, advocacy, and coordination; school nurses are often the first to identify behavioral health concerns and families in crisis; school nurses act as a liaison to the school community, parents, and health care providers on behalf of children's health by promoting wellness and improving health outcomes for our community's children; and school nurses, as members of school-based mental health teams, understand the link between health and learning and are in a position to make a positive difference for children every day;

WHEREAS, the Legislature recognizes that school nurses, school social workers, school psychologists, and school counselors are uniquely qualified to provide essential supports that address the physical, social, and emotional needs of students;

WHEREAS, the need for comprehensive student support has grown beyond what is currently funded in the prototypical school model, and the need for these professionals in schools has grown beyond what is currently available for staffing and hiring availability;

WHEREAS, the Legislature recognizes that solving a shortage problem in these multiple fields will require a multifaceted response; action and problem solving will need to address training program funding, training program increased capacity, payment structures that incentivize and honor professionals to work and stay working in school systems, models of school-based mental health services to best utilize all professionals, ensuring professionals are able to work within their appropriate domains, creative funding solutions, and taking advantage of all funding opportunities to support intentional efforts to solve this issue; more than one solution will be necessary, and solutions will need to be collaboratively created with all stakeholders; and we cannot wait for one solution before working towards another, otherwise we continue to be stuck in a loop of inaction;

WHEREAS, current funding streams do not support appropriate hiring of school-based mental health professionals, and the opening of other funding streams, such as general education funds, would more accurately represent student needs and support hiring of school-based mental health professionals; and

WHEREAS, while certain school-based mental health professionals have codified ratios in place, others do not; having a codified ratio is a step in the right direction, and each school-based mental health profession should have a codified ratio; however, ratios are of little practical use if local education agencies (LEAs) are not able to or choose not to use multiple streams of funding to pay for professionals; ongoing funding is needed to meet the ratio rules that already exist or should be created; and codified ratios help to guide LEAs in appropriate staffing decisions:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein, supports the creation and adoption of school formulas for staffing physical, social, and emotional support in schools to meet staffing ratio recommendations for school nurses, school counselors, school social workers, and school psychologists.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor honor and recognize the contributions of school nurses, school counselors, school social workers, and school psychologists in providing social and emotional support and health services to K-12 students across the state of Utah.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor commit to exploring legislation to provide increased allocations to LEAs that demonstrate they have hired staff for these roles or have a need for hiring to meet appropriate ratios in anticipation that enhanced state funding will allow school districts to hire additional school nurses, school social workers, school psychologists, and school counselors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor commit to exploring increased funding to increase the number of school nurses, school counselors, school social workers, and school psychologists providing social and emotional support and health services to K-12 students across the state by adopting a formula for the distribution of a basic education instructional allocation for each LEA.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor support exploring the codification of appropriate ratios for all professions if they are not already in statute.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor commit to furthering retention and attraction of professionals to the school system and finding related retention and attraction solutions.

JOINT RESOLUTION AMENDING RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE ON INJUNCTIONS

Chief Sponsor: Brady Brammer
Senate Sponsor: Daniel McCay

LONG TITLE

General Description:

This joint resolution amends the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 65A, regarding injunctions.

Highlighted Provisions:

This resolution:

- amends the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 65A, regarding injunctions.

Special Clauses:

This resolution provides a special effective date.

Utah Rules of Civil Procedure Affected:

AMENDS:

Rule 65A, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, two-thirds of all members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof:

As provided in Utah Constitution Article VIII, Section 4, the Legislature may amend rules of procedure and evidence adopted by the Utah Supreme Court upon a two-thirds vote of all members of both houses of the Legislature:

Section 1. Rule 65A, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Rule 65A. Injunctions.

(a) Preliminary injunctions.

(a) (1) Notice. No preliminary injunction shall be issued without notice to the adverse party.

(a) (2) Consolidation of hearing. Before or after the commencement of the hearing of an application for a preliminary injunction, the court may order the trial of the action on the merits to be advanced and consolidated with the hearing of the application. Even when this consolidation is not ordered, any evidence received upon an application for a preliminary injunction which would be admissible at the trial on the merits becomes part of the trial record and need not be repeated at the trial. This subdivision (a)(2) shall be so construed and applied as to save to the parties any rights they may have to trial by jury.

(b) Temporary restraining orders.

(b) (1) Notice. No temporary restraining order shall be granted without notice to the adverse party or that party's attorney unless (A) it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the applicant before the adverse party or that party's attorney can be heard in opposition, and (B) the applicant or the applicant's attorney certifies to the court in writing as to the efforts, if any, that have been made to give notice and the reasons supporting the claim that notice should not be required.

(b) (2) Form of order. Every temporary restraining order shall be endorsed with the date and hour of issuance and shall be filed forthwith in the clerk's office and entered of record. The order shall define the injury and state why it is irreparable. The order shall expire by its terms within such time after entry, not to exceed 14 days, as the court fixes, unless within the time so fixed the order, for good cause shown, is extended for a like period or unless the party against whom the order is directed consents that it may be extended for a longer period. The reasons for the extension shall be entered of record.

(b) (3) Priority of hearing. If a temporary restraining order is granted, the motion for a preliminary injunction shall be scheduled for hearing at the earliest possible time and takes precedence over all other civil matters except older matters of the same character. When the motion comes on for hearing, the party who obtained the temporary restraining order shall have the burden to show entitlement to a preliminary injunction; if the party does not do so, the court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order.

(b) (4) Dissolution or modification. On 48 hours' notice to the party who obtained the temporary restraining order without notice, or on such shorter notice to that party as the court may prescribe, the adverse party may appear and move its dissolution or modification. In that event the court shall proceed to hear and determine the motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice require.

(c) Security.

(c) (1) Requirement. The court shall condition issuance of the order or injunction on the giving of security by the applicant, in such sum and form as the court deems proper, unless it appears that none of the parties will incur or suffer costs, attorney fees or damage as the result of any wrongful order or injunction, or unless there exists some other substantial reason for dispensing with the requirement of security. No such security shall be required of the United States, the State of Utah, or of an officer, agency, or subdivision of either; nor shall it be required when it is prohibited by law.

(c) (2) Amount not a limitation. The amount of security shall not establish or limit the amount of costs, including reasonable attorney fees incurred in connection with the restraining order or preliminary injunction, or damages that may be awarded to a party who is found to have been wrongfully restrained or enjoined.

(c) (3) Jurisdiction over surety. A surety upon a bond or undertaking under this rule submits to the jurisdiction of the court and irrevocably appoints the clerk of the court as agent upon whom any papers affecting the surety's liability on the bond or undertaking may be served. The surety's liability may be enforced on motion without the necessity of an independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the court prescribes may be served on the clerk of the court who shall forthwith mail copies to the persons giving the security if their addresses are known.

(d) Form and scope. Every restraining order and order granting an injunction shall set forth the reasons for its issuance. It shall be specific in terms and shall describe in reasonable detail, and not by reference to the complaint or other document, the act or acts sought to be restrained. It shall be binding only upon the parties to the action, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and upon those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive notice, in person or through counsel, or otherwise, of the order. If a restraining order is granted without notice to the party restrained, it shall state the reasons justifying the court's decision to proceed without notice.

(e) Grounds. A restraining order or preliminary injunction may issue only upon a showing by the applicant that:

(e) (1) there is a substantial likelihood that the applicant will prevail on the merits of the underlying claim;

(e) [~~(1) The~~] (2) the applicant will suffer irreparable harm unless the order or injunction issues;

(e) [~~(2) The~~] (3) the threatened injury to the applicant outweighs whatever damage the proposed order or injunction may cause the party restrained or enjoined; and

(e) [~~(3) The~~] (4) the order or injunction, if issued, would not be adverse to the public interest[~~; and~~].

[~~(e) (4) There is a substantial likelihood that the applicant will prevail on the merits of the underlying claim, or the case presents serious issues on the merits which should be the subject of further litigation.~~]

(f) Motion for reconsideration.

(f) (1) A party enjoined or restrained by a restraining order or a preliminary injunction on

February 14, 2023, may move the court to reconsider whether the order or injunction should remain in effect if the order or injunction:

(A) is in writing;

(B) is restraining or enjoining the enforcement of a law; and

(C) explicitly states that the court granted the order or injunction on the ground that the case presented serious issues on the merits which should be the subject of further litigation.

(f) (2) A motion for reconsideration under this paragraph (f) may be filed at any time before the final determination of the case.

(f) (3) Upon a motion for reconsideration, the court must determine whether the issuance of the restraining order or preliminary injunction meets the requirements in paragraph (e) regardless of the requirements for the issuance of the order or injunction on the day on which the order or injunction was issued.

(f) (4) If the court determines that the issuance of the restraining order or preliminary injunction does not meet the requirements of paragraph (e), the court must terminate the order or injunction.

[~~(f)~~] (g) Domestic relations cases. Nothing in this rule shall be construed to limit the equitable powers of the courts in domestic relations cases.

Section 2. Effective date.

As provided in Utah Constitution Article VIII, Section 4, this resolution takes effect upon a two-thirds vote of all members elected to each house.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION SUPPORTING THE TAX CUTS AND JOBS ACT

Chief Sponsor: Lincoln Fillmore
House Sponsor: Tyler Clancy

LONG TITLE

General Description:

This resolution recognizes the benefits from the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (the Act) and encourages the United States Congress to permanently extend the Act.

Highlighted Provisions:

This resolution:

- recognizes the various positive economic benefits to individual and corporate taxpayers due to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017;
- examines the consequences of the expiration of the Act in 2025; and
- encourages Congress to permanently extend the Act to retain the economic benefits to taxpayers.

Special Clauses:

None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

WHEREAS, before the government-mandated economic shutdowns during the COVID-19 pandemic, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 spurred steady economic expansion and allowed the spirit of entrepreneurship to flourish while creating new jobs and opportunities for millions of Americans;

WHEREAS, the tax cuts of 2017 resulted in a $1.5 trillion net tax cut and were followed by historically low unemployment rates, an increase in business investment, and a $6,000 increase in real median household income over two years, which included raises and bonuses for workers immediately after the 2017 tax cuts were adopted;

WHEREAS, more than 100 million American taxpayers from all income groups, particularly middle and working class Americans, have enjoyed real tax relief due to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act;

WHEREAS, twenty-three provisions of the 2017 tax cuts directly relating to individual income taxes, such as the reductions in personal income tax rates, the near doubling of the standard deduction, and the substantial reduction of the Alternative Minimum Tax (AMT) will expire after December 31, 2025;

WHEREAS, the 2017 tax cuts reduced federal tax rates for households across every income level, and this relief resulted in a tax cut of more than $1,500 for the average middle-income earner;

WHEREAS, before the 2017 tax cuts, the top corporate income tax rate in the United States was 35%, the highest among all nations in the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD);

WHEREAS, the 2017 tax cuts reduced the business tax rate from 35% to 21%, bringing the United States back to average among OECD member nations and enhancing American competitiveness;

WHEREAS, the 2017 tax cuts set an annual cap of $10,000 on the state and local tax (SALT) deduction, thereby broadening the tax base at the federal level and in many states, which caused state level budget surpluses and resulted in many states offering substantial tax relief;

WHEREAS, if the current $10,000 cap on the SALT deduction is allowed to expire after December 31, 2025, the federal tax base will be narrowed;

WHEREAS, returning to an unlimited SALT deduction would be an incentive for many states to once again implement higher taxes and spend at higher levels;

WHEREAS, a majority of Americans support making the 2017 tax cuts permanent; and

WHEREAS, allowing the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 to expire would result in a tax increase on hardworking American taxpayers, a significant decline in American competitiveness, fewer jobs, reduced wage income for workers, and higher prices:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein, urges the United States Congress to permanently extend the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 with commensurate spending cuts to avoid increasing the federal debt burden.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the members of Utah's congressional delegation.

Utah Rules of Evidence Affected:

AMENDS:

Rule 1102, Utah Rules of Evidence

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, two-thirds of all members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof:

As provided in Utah Constitution Article VIII, Section 4, the Legislature may amend rules of procedure and evidence adopted by the Utah Supreme Court upon a two-thirds vote of all members of both houses of the Legislature:

Section 1. Rule 7B, Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure is amended to read:

Rule 7B. Preliminary examinations.

(a) Burden of proof. At the preliminary examination, the state has the burden of proof and proceeds first with its case. At the conclusion of the state's case, the defendant may testify under oath, call witnesses, and present evidence. The defendant may also cross-examine adverse witnesses.

(b) Probable cause determination. If from the evidence the magistrate finds probable cause to believe that the crime charged has been committed and that the defendant has committed it, the magistrate must order that the defendant be bound over for trial. The findings of probable cause may be based on hearsay, [~~in whole or in part~~] but may not be based solely on hearsay evidence admitted under Rule 1102(b)(8) of the Utah Rules of Evidence. Objections to evidence on the ground that it was acquired by unlawful means are not properly raised at the preliminary examination.

(c) If no probable cause. If the magistrate does not find probable cause to believe the crime charged has been committed or the defendant committed it, the magistrate must dismiss the information and discharge the defendant. The magistrate may enter findings of fact, conclusions of law, and an order of dismissal. The dismissal and discharge do not preclude the state from instituting a subsequent prosecution for the same offense.

(d) Witnesses. At a preliminary examination, the magistrate, upon request of either party, may exclude witnesses from the courtroom and may require witnesses not to converse with each other until the preliminary examination is concluded.

(e) Written findings. If the magistrate orders the defendant bound over for trial, the magistrate must execute a bind-over order and include any written findings in the case record.

(f) Assignment on motion to quash. If a defendant files a motion to quash a bind-over order, the motion shall be decided by the judge assigned to the case after bind-over, regardless of whether the judge conducted the preliminary examination in the judge's role as a magistrate.

Section 2. Rule 16, Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure is amended to read:

Rule 16. Discovery.

(a) Disclosures by prosecutor.

(1) Mandatory disclosures. The prosecutor must disclose to the defendant the following material or information directly related to the case of which the prosecution team has knowledge and control:

(A) written or recorded statements of the defendant and any codefendants, and the substance of any unrecorded oral statements made by the defendant and any codefendants to law enforcement officials;

(B) reports and results of any physical or mental examination, of any identification procedure, and of any scientific test or experiment;

(C) physical and electronic evidence, including any warrants, warrant affidavits, books, papers, documents, photographs, and digital media recordings;

(D) written or recorded statements of witnesses;

(E) reports prepared by law enforcement officials and any notes that are not incorporated into such a report; and

(F) evidence that must be disclosed under the United States and Utah constitutions, including all evidence favorable to the defendant that is material to guilt or punishment.

(2) Timing of mandatory disclosures. The prosecutor's duty to disclose under paragraph (a)(1) is a continuing duty as the material or information becomes known to the prosecutor. The prosecutor's disclosures must be made as soon as practicable following the filing of [~~charges an Information~~] an information, except that a prosecutor must disclose all evidence that the prosecutor relied upon to file the information within five days after the day on which the prosecutor receives a request for discovery from the defendant. In every case, all material or information listed under paragraph (a)(1) that is presently and reasonably available to the prosecutor must be disclosed before the preliminary [~~hearing~~] examination, if applicable, or before the defendant enters a plea of guilty or no contest or goes to trial, unless otherwise waived by the defendant.

(3) Disclosures upon request.

(A) Upon request, the prosecutor must obtain and disclose to the defendant any of the material or information listed in paragraph (a)(1) which is in a record possessed by another governmental agency and may be shared with the prosecutor under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act. The request must identify with particularity the record sought and the agency that possesses it, and must demonstrate that the information in the record is directly related to the case.

(B) If the government agency refuses to share with the prosecutor the record containing the requested material or information under paragraph (a)(3)(A), or if the prosecution determines that it is prohibited by law from disclosing to the defense the record shared by the governmental agency, the prosecutor must promptly file notice stating the reasons for noncompliance. The defense may thereafter file an appropriate motion seeking a subpoena or other order requiring the disclosure of the requested record.

(4) Good cause disclosures. The prosecutor must disclose any other item of evidence which the court determines on good cause shown should be made available to the defendant in order for the defendant to adequately prepare a defense.

(5) Trial disclosures. The prosecutor must also disclose to the defendant the following information and material no later than 14 days, or as soon as practicable, before trial:

(A) Unless otherwise prohibited by law, a written list of the names and current contact information of all persons whom the prosecution intends to call as witnesses at trial; and

Attorney work product protection is not subject to the exception in Rule 26(b)(5) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

(b) Disclosures by defense.

(1) Good cause disclosures. The defense must disclose to the prosecutor any item of evidence which the court determines on good cause shown should be made available to the prosecutor in order for the prosecutor to adequately prepare the prosecutor's case for trial.

(2) Other disclosures required by statute. The defense must disclose to the prosecutor such information as required by statute relating to alibi or insanity.

(3) Trial disclosures. The defense must also disclose to the prosecutor the following information and material no later than 14 days, or as soon as practicable, before trial:

(A) A written list of the names and current contact information of all persons, except for the defendant, whom the defense intends to call as witnesses at trial; and

(B) Any exhibits that the defense intends to introduce at trial.

(4) Information not subject to disclosure. The defendant's disclosure obligations do not include information or material that is privileged or attorney work product. Attorney work product protection is not subject to the exception in Rule 26(b)(5) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

(c) Methods of disclosure.

(1) The prosecutor or defendant may make disclosure by notifying the opposing party that material and information may be inspected, tested, or copied at specified reasonable times and places.

(2) If the prosecutor concludes any disclosure required under this rule is prohibited by law, or believes disclosure would endanger any person or interfere with an ongoing investigation, the prosecutor must file notice identifying the nature of the material or information withheld and the basis for non-disclosure. If disclosure is then requested by the defendant, the court must hold an in camera review to decide whether disclosure is required and whether any limitations or restrictions will apply to disclosure as provided in paragraph (d).

(d) Disclosure limitations and restrictions.

(1) The prosecutor or defendant may impose reasonable limitations on the further dissemination of sensitive information otherwise subject to discovery to prevent improper use of the information or to protect victims and witnesses from harassment, abuse, or undue invasion of privacy, including limitations on the further dissemination of recorded interviews, photographs, or psychological or medical reports.

(2) Upon a sufficient showing the court may at any time order that discovery or inspection be denied, restricted, or deferred, that limitations on the further dissemination of discovery be modified or make such other order as is appropriate. Upon motion by a party, the court may permit the party to make such showing, in whole or in part, in the form of a written statement to be inspected by the judge alone. If the court enters an order granting relief following such an ex parte showing, the entire text of the party's statement shall be sealed and preserved in the records of the court to be made available to the appellate court in the event of an appeal.

(e) Relief and sanctions for failing to disclose.

(1) When a party fails to comply with the disclosure requirements of this rule, the court may, subject to constitutional limitations and the rules of evidence, take the measures or impose the sanctions provided in this paragraph that it deems appropriate under the circumstances. If a party has failed to comply with this rule, the court may take one or more of the following actions:

(A) order such party to permit the discovery or inspection, of the undisclosed material or information;

(B) grant a continuance of the proceedings;

(C) prohibit the party from introducing evidence not disclosed; or

(D) order such other relief as the court deems just under the circumstances.

(2) If after a hearing the court finds that a party has knowingly and willfully failed to comply with an order of the court compelling disclosure under this rule, the nondisclosing party or attorney may be held in contempt of court and subject to the penalties thereof.

(f) Identification evidence.

(1) Subject to constitutional limitations and upon good cause shown, the trial court may order the defendant to: appear in a lineup; speak for identification; submit to fingerprinting or the making of other bodily impressions; pose for photographs not involving reenactment of the crime; try on articles of clothing or other items of disguise; permit the taking of samples of blood, hair, fingernail scrapings, and other bodily materials which can be obtained without unreasonable intrusion; provide specimens of handwriting; submit to reasonable physical or medical inspection of the accused's body; and cut hair or allow hair to grow to approximate appearance at the time of the alleged offense.

(2) Whenever the personal appearance of the accused is required for the foregoing purposes, reasonable notice of the time and place of such appearance shall be given to the accused and the accused's counsel.

(3) Unless relieved by court order, failure of the accused to appear or to comply with the requirements of this paragraph without reasonable excuse shall be grounds for revocation of pre-trial release and will subject the defendant to such further consequences or sanctions as the court may deem appropriate, including allowing the prosecutor to offer as evidence at trial the defendant's failure to comply with this paragraph.

Section 3. Rule 22, Utah Rules of Juvenile Procedure is amended to read:

Rule 22. Initial appearance and preliminary examinations in cases under Utah Code section 80-6-503.

(a) When a summons is issued in lieu of a warrant of arrest, the minor shall appear before the court as directed in the summons.

(b) When any peace officer or other person makes an arrest of a minor without a warrant, the minor shall be taken to a juvenile detention facility pending a detention hearing, which shall be held as provided by these rules. When any peace officer makes an arrest of a minor with a warrant, the minor shall be taken to the place designated on the warrant. If an information has not been filed, one shall be filed without delay in the court with jurisdiction over the offense.

(c) If a minor is arrested in a county other than where the offense was committed the minor shall without unnecessary delay be returned to the county where the crime was committed and shall be taken before a judge of the juvenile court.

(d) The court shall, upon the minor's first appearance, inform the minor:

(1) of the charge in the information or indictment and furnish the minor with a copy;

(2) of any affidavit or recorded testimony given in support of the information and how to obtain them;

(3) of the right to retain counsel or have counsel appointed by the court;

(4) of rights concerning detention, pretrial release, and bail in the event the minor is bound over to stand trial in district court; and

(5) that the minor is not required to make any statement, and that any statements made may be used against the minor in a court of law.

(e) The court shall, after providing the information under paragraph (d) and before proceeding further, allow the minor reasonable time and opportunity to consult counsel and shall allow the minor to contact any attorney by any reasonable means, without delay and without fee.

(f) The minor may not be called on to enter a plea. During the initial appearance, the minor shall be advised of the right to a preliminary examination. If the minor waives the right to a preliminary examination the court shall proceed in accordance with Rule 23A to hear evidence regarding the factors contained in Utah Code section 80-6-504.

(g) If the minor does not waive a preliminary examination, the court shall schedule the preliminary examination. The time periods of this rule may be extended by the court for good cause shown. The preliminary examination shall be held within a reasonable time, but not later than ten days after the initial appearance if the minor is in custody for the offense charged and the information is filed under Utah Code section 80-6-503. The preliminary examination shall be held within a reasonable time, but not later than 30 days after the initial appearance if:

(1) the minor is in custody for the offense charged and the information is filed under Utah Code section 80-6-503; or

(2) the minor is not in custody.

(h) A preliminary examination may not be held if the minor is indicted. If the indictment is filed under Utah Code section 80-6-503, the court shall proceed in accordance with Rule 23A to hear evidence regarding the factors contained in Utah Code section 80-6-503.

(i) A preliminary examination shall be held under the rules and laws applicable to criminal cases tried before a court. The state has the burden of proof and shall proceed first with its case. At the conclusion of the state's case, the minor may testify under oath, call witnesses, and present evidence. The minor may cross-examine adverse witnesses.

(j) If from the evidence the court finds probable cause to believe that the crime charged has been committed, that the minor has committed it, and the information is filed under Utah Code section 80-6-503, the court shall proceed in accordance with Rule 23A to hear evidence regarding the factors contained in Utah Code section 80-6-504.

(k) The finding of probable cause may be based on hearsay [~~in whole or in part~~], but not be based solely on reliable hearsay evidence admitted under Rule 1102(b)(8) of the Utah Rules of Evidence. Objections to evidence on the ground that it was acquired by unlawful means are not properly raised at the preliminary examination.

(l) If the court does not find probable cause to believe that the crime charged has been committed or that the minor committed it, the court shall dismiss the information and discharge the minor. The court may enter findings of fact, conclusions of law, and an order of dismissal. The dismissal and discharge do not preclude the state from instituting a subsequent prosecution for the same offense.

(m) At a preliminary examination, upon request of either party, and subject to Title 77, Chapter 38, [~~Victim Rights~~] Rights of Crime Victims Act, the court may:

(1) exclude witnesses from the courtroom;

(b)(9) other hearsay evidence with similar indicia of reliability, regardless of admissibility at trial under Rules 803 and 804 of the Utah Rules of Evidence.

(c) Continuance for Production of Additional Evidence. If hearsay evidence is proffered or admitted in the preliminary examination, a continuance of the hearing may be granted for the purpose of furnishing additional evidence if:

(c)(1) The magistrate finds that the hearsay evidence proffered or admitted is not sufficient and additional evidence is necessary for a bindover; or

(c)(2) The defense establishes that it would be so substantially and unfairly disadvantaged by the use of the hearsay evidence as to outweigh the interests of the declarant and the efficient administration of justice.

(d)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (d)(2), a prosecutor, or any staff for the office of the prosecutor, may transcribe a declarant's statement verbatim or assist a declarant in drafting a statement.

Dear President Adams and Speaker Wilson,

This letter serves to inform you that on Mar. 23, 2023, I signed Senate Bill 3, Appropriations Adjustments with the following line item vetoes:

- Item 174, lines 1903-1908. Senate Bill 105, Traffic Enforcement Amendments, did not pass.

Under the terms and conditions of Title 63J, Chapter 1, Budgetary Procedures Act, the Legislature appropriates the following sums of money from the funds or accounts indicated for the use and support of the government of the state of Utah.

ITEM 1

To Governor's Office -- Governor's Office

From General Fund, One-time	2,500,000
Schedule of Programs:
Lt. Governor's Office	2,500,000

The Legislature intends that:

(1) the lieutenant governor use up to $2,050,000 of this appropriation to reimburse counties for only:

(a) the incremental cost of adding a special congressional election for the Second Congressional District of Utah; and

(b) if the total amount reimbursed to all counties involved in the special congressional election under Subsection (1)(a) is less than the maximum amount calculated under Subsection (3) for all counties involved in the special congressional election, and less than $2,050,000, the lieutenant governor may use the difference in the total amount reimbursed under Subsection (1)(a) and the total maximum amount calculated under Subsection (3), toward reimbursing any counties in Utah for amounts expended to run a municipal election that exceed the amount that would have been incurred by the municipality if the county had not been required, under this bill, to run the municipal election;

(2) except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), the lieutenant governor may not use any portion of the appropriation in this bill to reimburse a county or municipality for any cost associated with an election that otherwise would have taken place in a county or a municipality;

(5) the lieutenant governor use up to $400,000 for voter outreach regarding the elections described in this bill;

(6) the lieutenant governor document the reimbursement described in Subsections (1) through (3), the payment described in Subsection (4), and the expenditures made under Subsection (5) in a manner that is verifiable via audit; and

(7) any amount of this appropriation not expended in accordance with Subsections (1) through (5) lapse at the end of fiscal year 2024.

Section 5. Effective date.

If approved by two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, this bill takes effect upon approval by the governor, or the day following the constitutional time limit of Utah Constitution, Article VII, Section 8, without the governor's signature, or in the case of a veto, the date of veto override.

Section 6. Revisor instructions.

The Legislature intends that the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel, in preparing the Utah Code database for publication:

(1) in Subsection 20A-1-208(6)(b)(i), replace "within seven days after the day of" with "on or before" and replace "the effective day of this bill" with the date that is seven days after the actual effective date of this bill; and
