

Preliminary Report

California Department of Justice
Division of Criminal Justice Information Services
Daniel E. Lungren, Attorney General

CRIME 1997

In Selected California Jurisdictions

JANUARY THROUGH DECEMBER

This report compares preliminary crime counts for 1997 with final counts of 1996 for jurisdictions with a population of 100,000 or more. It is estimated that the 71 jurisdictions which met this criterion in 1997 accounted for approximately 65 percent of the crimes reported in California.

These jurisdictions are grouped into the following three categories:

- Police departments, which provide law enforcement services for incorporated cities;
- Sheriff's departments, which provide law enforcement services to unincorporated areas within the county; and
- Contract cities, which are incorporated cities that contract for law enforcement services (usually with a sheriff's department) rather than maintain their own police force.

Data used in this report are not adjusted by population. Statewide adjusted data (rates) appear in the annual Crime and Delinquency in California publication.

Notes: Dash indicated that data are not available or that percent changes are not calculated when base numbers are less than 50.

This report includes data submitted to the Criminal Justice Statistics Center by the cutoff date of February 19, 1998.

The California Highway Patrol reports motor vehicle theft for some county sheriff's departments. Therefore, sheriff department figures for the motor vehicle theft category may not reflect all reported crimes.

¹The FBI Crime Index total includes the California Crime Index plus larceny-theft and arson.

²In 1997, nine San Diego County Sheriff's Department contract agencies began reporting separately. Complete 12 month data for those nine agencies were not available by the February 19, 1998 cutoff date. Therefore, to maintain comparability of the 1997 data with 1996 data, San Diego County Sheriff's Department is shown but not included in the subtotals or total jurisdiction counts.
