

Statement of LEAH Charity Foundation to 62nd Session of the Commission on Social Development

I am deeply honored to be before you today to make contribution to the priority theme of the 62nd Session of Commission on Social Development "Fostering social development and social justice through social policies to accelerate progress on the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and to achieve the overarching goal of poverty eradication".

LEAH Charity Foundation address the pressing issue of preventing violence against women and men through unity and investment in education and training resources in their commitment to foster social development and social justice. It is our organization privilege to be part of this 62nd Session to affirm our commitment to creating a society where every individual, regardless of gender, can live in harmony with social policies and acceleration on the implementation of the 2030 agenda for Sustainable Development Goals in place.

Fostering social development and social justice through social policies to accelerate progress on the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and to achieve the overarching goal of poverty eradication" is a critical one, and it demands our unwavering attention and concerted action. In a world where incidents of social issues continue to plague our communities, it is imperative that we come together as a unified force to address this pervasive issue. We must recognize that social development and social justices does not based on human discrimination but concerted efforts to combat social menace must be inclusive and comprehensive.

LEAH Charity Foundation calls on Bureau of 62nd Commission on Social Development to prioritize;

- Investing in education and provision of training resources to the low Socio-Economic group
- Equip individuals with the knowledge, skills, and awareness to recognize and address social issues to further can create culture of accountability and empowerment.
- Education is the cornerstone of change, and it is through education that we can challenge harmful attitudes and behaviors, dismantle stereotypes, and foster a culture of respect and equality.

Training resources play an equally crucial role in our collective efforts. They provide the tools and strategies necessary to intervene in potentially dangerous situations, engage in constructive dialogue, to become active agents of change within their communities to assimilate meaningful progress towards a future free from social issues and injustices.

Thank you.
