Created in 1982 as a state agency, the “CAT Fund” is a ‘re-insurance’ fund which uses state funds to support the county indigent program when healthcare costs exceed county guidelines, pursuant to Idaho statute. It is administered by the Idaho Association of Counties through a contract overseen by the board of directors consisting of 6 county commissioners, 4 legislators, a gov appointee and the director of the Department of Health and Welfare. Counties elect their district representatives for the board every two years on a staggered schedule, even numbered districts in even numbered years, and odd numbers in odd years.
