Vacancies on the Sullivan County Soil & Water Conservation District Board

The Sullivan County Soil & Water Conservation District is a not-for-profit local governmental agency that is partially funded by the County and by New York State. The District's policy is the preservation of soil and water resources, and utilizing resources to enhance the quality of life, thereby helping county landowners, and municipalities with environmental issues.

The Board of Directors meeting is held the second Monday of every month, starting at 6:00 p.m. at the Cornell Cooperative Extension Center on Ferndale-Loomis Road in Liberty, NY. The term of the Directors is for a three-year term beginning in January.

Responsibilities of the Sullivan County Soil & Water Conservation District Board of Directors:

- Establish and terminate positions of employment and establish salaries
- Authorize the establishment of District's financial accounts
- To carry out preventive and control measures within the district and to review and approve all projects District employees work on
- Review bills, payments, and District's bank statement
- To approve contracts and agreements to enter into with cooperators
- Provide oversight of Districts implementation of programs for the preservation of county natural resources

At this time there are two positions open on the Sullivan County Soil & Water Conservation District Board. All applicants will need to submit their letter of interest by December 6th, 2024.

1. Member at Large- Representative of the urban, suburban and rural non-farm landownership interest
