

ARIARA ISLAND, PHILIPPINES

THE LOCATION:

Just four hours from Hong Kong, Ariara is part of the Calamian Islands just north of the island province of Palawan.

THE LOOK:

One main lodge, two stilted jungle villas and a further four beachside cottages that seamlessly blend with the natural surroundings on the outside are a contemporary haven on the inside.

WE LOVE IT BECAUSE:

Whilst it would be easy to recline on your sun lounger and stay there for the duration of your stay, attune with the islands pure, untouched waters with your own PADI diving instructor on hand to help you explore the virgin reefs.

Prices from £215 per night
