

Photo: Herbert Ypma

JET SET GREEN STAYS

Love the environment as much as you want to pamper your beloved? For your next trip, log onto the recently launched Eco Lux Hotels (ecoluxhotels.com), which provides unbiased reviews of green accommodations around the world. You can search by destination or interest – some standouts in the Honeymoon category include Six Senses Soneva Kiri in Thailand (above), The Scarlet in the UK and Sarili Lodge in South Africa.

GLASS ISLAND

The Louis Vuitton Island Maison at Marina Bay Sands Singapore has welcomed visitors since opening last September. But did you know it's not simply a boutique (though it is one of the most unique LV branches in the world) – the glass structure also houses a bookstore and rotating art exhibits. Perfect for a romantic stroll.

PRIVATE PARADISE

For the ultimate escape, why not book a private island? Ariara Island is 160 miles southwest of Manila – accommodation designed by renowned Filipino architect Jorge Yulo is surrounded by white sand and beautiful coral reefs, with a staff to cater to your every whim. Prices start from US$295 per person per night based on a group of 15-17 people sharing. What's best about Ariara is that the owners are committed to supporting the environment and local community – so you can indulge in the stunning surroundings with peace of mind. ariara.island.com