Attune with the islands pure, untouched waters you get your own PADI diving instructor on hand to help you explore the virgin reefs.

Ariara Island, Philippines

The location: Just four hours from Hong Kong, Ariara is part of the Calamian Islands just north of the island province of Palawan.

The look: Its main lodge, two stilted jungle villas and a further four beachside cottages seamlessly blend with the natural surroundings on the outside and are a contemporary-luxe haven on the inside – choose between a marble or wooden bathtub depending on your mood.

We love it because: It is ours, ALL ours... Or yours, ALL yours. The island is only available to rent on an exclusive basis, so you and your partner will be the only ones getting in beach time on the main 600m stretch. Whilst it would be easy to recline on your sun lounger and stay there for the duration of your stay, attune with the islands pure, untouched waters with your own PADI diving
