CHAPS Reference Manual Change Control Register – V. 30 Sept 2024

Changes post 04 January 2022

Version being changed	Effective date of change/new version	Section(s)	Details or purpose of new/deleted/change to rule/requirement
01/06/22	06/01/23	Various	A rewrite of one provision on Emergency Access Account (CRM_346 – section 29.5) following review of how this rule operated which identified that this rule did not reflect the current processes and procedures undertaken by Direct Participants today. We've updated to be more outcome focused mitigating on the risk – i.e. misuse of privileged access Changes in advance of RTGS Renewal Programme - Transition State 2.1 (TS2.1) - In preparation for TS2.1 we are future proofing key terms. Minor amendments to address deficiencies to existing provisions, to address clarity, readability, duplication and non-material spelling and cross-referencing errors.
04/01/23	04/01/23	25, 26, 33, 34	Changes to section 25 reflect RCEP going live. Changes to section 26 reshaped rules which previously sat in the CHAPS Operating Reference Manual, surrounding the need to have a communication method acceptable to the Bank for contingency payments, and non-payment messages. Changes to sections 33 and 34 to correct minor errors.
02/01/24	02/01/24	20	Changes to SWIFT connectivity options.
30/09/24	30/09/24	Various	Changes to put into effect new categorisation model. Minor amendments to change names of other documents referenced in the CRM.

31/03/21	04/01/22	04/01/22	All	All	All	All	A refreshed version of the CHAPS Reference Manual takes effect. This is the final step in a programme of work to enhance the CHAPS Reference Manual. The new version is simpler, reduces duplication, and seeks to reduce the burden on CHAPS Direct Participants while maintaining an appropriate level of risk management.

Bank of England

							The CHAPS Reference Manual is now structured around general rules, which set out how participation in the CHAPS system operates, and operational rules, which seek to mitigate risk to the smooth of payments in CHAPS in between Direct Participants. More detail can be provided on request.
