

Obtaining a Birth Certificate in Texas

To request a birth certificate, you must be the person named on the certificate, his/her legal representative, or immediate family member.

Immediate family members include the person's child, parent/guardian, brother/sister, grandparent, or spouse.

Acceptable Identification

You must present acceptable identification (ID)*.

Most Common IDs*

- Driver's License from a U.S. state
- Federal or state ID card
- Military ID card
- U.S. passport

Most Common Foreign IDs*

- El Salvadoran consular certification
- El Salvadoran Unique Identity Card (DUI)
- Honduran consular certification
- Mexican voter registration card

 Foreign IDs require additional ID. Details and full list of acceptable IDs on back.*

Application and Payment

You must complete the application, with no cross outs, no white out, no correction tape, and sign the application in front of a notary.

Be sure to provide an accepted form of payment, typically a check or money order.
