

Experian Verify™ for Government

Instant income and employment verification powered by unique, best-in-industry data

Today's digital-first citizens are challenging agencies like never before. Expectations for simplicity, speed and convenience continue to rise even as agencies work to meet citizens in their preferred digital channel. Citizens demand friction-free interactions, especially when verifying personal information, such as income and employment. Many agencies struggle to meet citizen expectations and often rely on complex and time-consuming manual verification which can increase costs or lead to complaints and abandonment. Thankfully, there's now a better way — Experian Verify™.

Challenging the status quo

Experian Verify has raised the bar by eliminating friction and offering agencies instant access to income and employment information that's unique, accurate and up-to-date. This empowers agencies to make trusted, real-time decisions that drive efficiency and reduce costs.

Better data. Better decisions.

Leading organizations trust Experian Verify

Organizations across the board are seizing the opportunity to differentiate their verification experience and improve business outcomes using Experian Verify.

How it works

- 1 Citizen applies online for a government service (e.g., Medicare, Social Security, SNAP, etc.)
- 2 Agency requests income and employment information through their preferred delivery channel.
- 3 Experian Verify returns income and employment information in real time.
- 4 If needed, Experian provides agency an intuitive and easy-to-read income and employment report.

Unparalleled flexibility

Verification should not be treated as one size fits all. Each agency has unique requirements. With Experian Verify, you can easily tailor your verification experience to work best for you and your citizens.
