Dispute resolution: Complaints

Chapter INTRO Introduction

INTRO 1 Introduction

INTRO

This part of the FCA Handbook sets out how complaints are to be dealt with by respondents (firms, payment service providers, electronic money issuers, CBTL firms, designated credit reference agencies, designated finance platforms and VJ participants) and the Financial Ombudsman Service.

It refers to relevant provisions in the Act and in transitional provisions made by the Treasury under the Act. It includes rules and directions made by the FCA and rules made (and standard terms set) by FOS Ltd with the consent or approval of the FCA.

INTRO

The powers to make rules and directions (or set standard terms) relating to firms, payment service providers, electronic money issuers, CBTL firms, designated credit reference agencies, designated finance platforms and VJ participants derive from various legislative provisions; but the rules (and standard terms) have been co-ordinated to ensure that they are identical, wherever possible.

Chapters 2 - 4: The Financial Ombudsman Service

Chapters 2, 3 and 4 set out how the Financial Ombudsman Service (operated by FOS Ltd) considers unresolved complaints.

Chapter 2 sets out the scope of the Financial Ombudsman Service's two iurisdictions:

- the Compulsory Jurisdiction; and
- the Voluntary Jurisdiction.

The scope of the two jurisdictions is defined by: the type of activity to which the complaint relates; the place where the activity took place; the eligibility of the complainant; and the time limits for referring a complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

Chapter 3 sets out the procedures of the Financial Ombudsman Service, including consideration and determination of complaints and how the Financial Ombudsman Service deals with information received.

Voluntary Jurisdiction.

Chapter 4 sets out the terms under which VJ participants participate in the
