

BEVERAGE LIST

Salem's residents buoy and inspire us at Ledger.

Our bustling coastal village has been shaped by visitors and all that they've brought with them over many centuries.

Beginning with a major settlement of the indigenous Naumkeag, followed by a globally-prolific maritime trade --most notably in Sumatran black pepper-- as well as both prideful and ignominious moments, distant people and goods are woven into Salem's tapestry.

Our long and complex history has inspired our kitchen, as well as our beverage offerings. We aim to showcase a broad range of the familiar and exotic, modern benchmarks, and some wines that time forgot...

SUMMER FEATURE - COASTAL CRUSHES

Humans have long been drawn to the coasts & seashores of this blue planet.

The waterside has provided living essentials to our ancestors, trade & plunder in the age of exploration, as well as pleasure, livelihood, & even therapy for North Shore denizens today. Over half of Americans live within 50 miles of the water & 40% of the world's population within 62 miles for good reason. The water brings pleasure, sometimes pain, but also delights with magic & mystery.

Seaside locales can also be a boon for viticulture. The thermal mass of large bodies of water helps to mitigate both extreme cold & heat, as well as promotes a longer & more even growing season; prevalent wind can also assist with disease pressure on vines. But perhaps it's the intangible & magic fingerprint the ocean can leave on a wine, like the aroma of a fresh seabreeze, sun-kissed fruit, or even a salty tang...not to mention some curious maritime winemaking traditions.

Please explore this compilation of wine marked by their coastal locale, for not only a great companion to your Summertime meal & company, but perhaps a high seas adventure too!
