Subject: Modernizing Today – Issue Two

As many of you are already aware, OPM has undertaken a major task to modernize the retirement system that currently exists. In order to insure that we achieve the success for which we are striving, we feel it necessary to communicate and receive feedback from payroll offices. In order to continue consistent communication, we have enclosed issue two of the bulletin Modernizing Today.

Your answers on the feedback portion of Modernizing Today are greatly appreciated.
