San Diego City Clerk Expands Social Media Presence to Promote Civic Engagement

OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK TO POST CITY COUNCIL MEETING RESULTS IN REAL-TIME

SAN DIEGO – San Diego City Clerk Diana Fuentes today issued the following statement regarding her office's expanded presence on social media platforms.

“Social media has shown demonstrable impact in leveling access to local government. Starting today, my office will begin posting real-time vote results from City Council meetings on the following social media platforms: Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn and X. Expanding my office's presence to these platforms closely aligns with my mission to maximize engagement with residents, enhance transparency, improve information sharing and facilitate service delivery. I look forward to further promoting civic engagement and resident participation in the local democratic process.”

Members of the public can connect with the Office of the City Clerk using the social media handle: @sdcityclerk. The Office also has a YouTube channel featuring San Diego historical images and content.
