Question 1:

Regarding the national consultation workshop, can you please clarify if the transportation for participation of some of the participants need to be included in the budget. Same question for the regional workshop and also how many people are you expecting?

Response

The fees are all inclusive and shall cover nationals' participation, as necessary. Same for regional, for the participants who would not have their own funding source. Note, SPREP attendees would be covered under a distinct budget.

There are no specifics given in the number of attendees expected; it shall be part of the bidder's concept.
