TROY, Mich. (April 28, 2005) – Kelly Services, Inc., a global staffing solutions provider, has awarded Sunrise Systems, Inc. and three other companies with the first annual Kelly Supplier Diversity Development BRIDGE Award, Building Relationships through an Ivestment in Diversity with the Goal of Excellence.

Certified by the National Minority Development Council, Sunrise Systems was selected from more than 500 of Kelly's diverse teaming partners.

Kelly's Supplier Diversity Development team established the BRIDGE Award to acknowledge Kelly's diverse suppliers for their outstanding and unparalleled excellence in service delivery and to recognize the important contributions of minority, women, and disabled veteran business enterprises.

"This award continues Kelly's long-standing commitment to provide business development opportunities to companies we partner with. Supplier diversity makes good business sense and leads to positive results for all involved," said Carl Camden, president and chief operating officer, Kelly Services. "We congratulate Sunrise Systems on their exemplary performance."

"The BRIDGE Award signifies Sunrise Systems' commitment to deliver excellent service to our customers and partners through Team Work, Integrity, and Diligence," said Noorali Sonawalla, president, Sunrise Systems. "We deeply value our relationship and partnership with Kelly Services and look forward to continued success in the future."

To qualify for the award, Kelly suppliers must be a certified minority, women's, or disabled veteran business enterprise, provide staffing support services to multiple Kelly customers, and meet established criteria in three objective categories, which include service, responsiveness, and professionalism.
