

Vanuatu flight schedule update

Virgin Australia Trade Release

At the request of the Australian Government to lift capacity, Virgin Australia has increased the number of services between Brisbane and Vanuatu by two flights per week to five per week for the remainder of May and June. Additional flights are on sale now.

From today, Monday 13 May, Virgin Australia will operate 5 regular flights per week on Monday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Virgin Australia has simultaneously applied to the International Air Services Commission to increase our allocation of seat capacity between Australia and Vanuatu, with plans to quickly commence a further seven weekly services from east coast gateways into Vanuatu, supporting continued connectivity with our Pacific neighbours.
