ORDINANCE NO. 2006-000__

DATE: JUNE 15, 2006

WHEREAS, The Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina, a recognized American Indian Tribe of the State of North Carolina, subject to the Constitution of the Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina and its inherent powers of self-government;

WHEREAS, Article VII, Section 1 of the Constitution of the Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina delegates all legislative authority to the Tribal Council; and

THEREFORE, Be it enacted by the Tribal Council of the Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina the following ordinance that shall be cited as "OFFICIAL TRIBAL SEAL."

SECTION 1: OFFICIAL SEAL

The seal of the Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina (Lumbee Tribe), which shall be the official seal of the tribal government, shall be used to represent the Lumbee Tribe and the tribal government.

SECTION 2: DESCRIPTION AND MEANING OF THE SEAL

1. Description of the Seal

- a. At the center of the seal shall be a medicine wheel. The medicine wheel shall be divided into quadrants by a horizontal and vertical line. The northeast quadrant shall be red in color, the southeast yellow, the southwest black and the northwest white.
- b. The outer edge of the medicine wheel shall consist of the Lumbee Pinecone Patchwork. The Pinecone Patchwork consists of three layers of black, red and yellow triangles that represent the pinecones of the Pine, which is the most prevalent and tallest growing tree in the land of the Lumbee. The top layer shall be black triangles, while the second is red triangles and the bottom yellow triangles. The red and yellow layers shall each be slightly rotated in a clockwise direction so as to not be directly beneath the previous layer.
- c. The medicine wheel shall be encircled by the words "Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina." The words "Lumbee Tribe" shall be centered above the northwest and northeast quadrants and shall flow in a clockwise direction. The words "Of North Carolina" shall be centered below the southwest and southeast quadrants and shall flow in a counter clockwise direction. The words "Lumbee Tribe" shall be slightly larger than "Of North Carolina." Two dots, one on each side of the medicine wheel, shall separate the words "Lumbee Tribe" and "Of North Carolina."

d. No other words, figures or embellishments shall appear on the seal.

2. Meaning of the Seal

- a. The circular shape of the tribal seal is symbolic of the circle of life. Along with the circle, the four equal parts and colors of the medicine wheel represent the lifespan of man: birth (red), growth (yellow), maturity (black) and death (white). But, as the circle has no end, so there can be no end to life but only another beginning. In addition, the colors represent the four qualities of a balanced life: the spiritual, the emotional, the physical, and the intellect.

- b. The colors and their location on the wheel also represent: the four directions: east, south, west and north, the four colors of man: red, yellow, black and white, and the four seasons: spring, summer, fall and winter.
- c. The Lumbee Pinecone Patchwork surrounding the circle of life represents the pride, power and will of the Lumbee Tribe.
- d. The circle, the four equal parts with corresponding colors and the Lumbee Pinecone Patchwork come together to form a symbol representative of the Lumbee Tribe.
