

and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (PRWORA), requires DHS to establish a system for the verification of immigration status of alien applicants for, or recipients of, certain types of benefits and to make this system available to state agencies that administer such benefits. Section 121(c) of IRCA amends Section 1137 of the Social Security Act and certain other sections of law that pertain to Federal entitlement benefit programs to require state agencies administering these programs to use the DHS-USCIS verification system to make eligibility determinations in order to prevent the issuance of benefits to alien applicants who are not entitled to program benefits because of their immigration status. The VIS database is the DHS-USCIS system established and made available to CA-DHCS and other covered agencies for use in making these eligibility determinations.

CA-DHCS seeks access to the information contained in the DHS-USCIS VIS database for the purpose of confirming the immigration status of alien and naturalized/derived United States citizen applicants for, or recipients of, the benefits it administers, in order to discharge its obligation to conduct such verifications pursuant to Section 1137 of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1320b-7, and California Welfare and Institutions Code §§ 1104.1, 14007.5, and 14011.2.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The BLM completed the Pinedale RMP in 2008. The purpose of the RMP amendment is to analyze the closure of approximately 5,120 acres to oil and gas leasing in Sublette County, Wyoming. In accordance with 43 CFR 1610.5-5, an RMP may be changed through an amendment. An amendment may be initiated by the need to consider monitoring and evaluation findings, new data, new or revised policy, a change in circumstances or a proposed action that may result in a change in the scope of resource uses or a change in the terms, conditions and decisions of the approved plan.
