

by U.S. Department of Homeland Security, CBP, and the Federal Ministry of the Interior of the Federal Republic of Germany on April 14, 2010, CBP is expanding Global Entry eligibility to include all German citizens in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth below. As a result, CBP is concluding the limited pilot program. All pilot participants will continue their Global Entry membership for the initial five-year membership period. If pilot participants want to renew their membership when their initial Global Entry membership expires, the renewal will be subject to the terms and conditions set forth below.

Terms and Conditions

Any German citizen may apply for Global Entry. Unlike the pilot, a German citizen does not have to participate in ABG Plus to be eligible to apply for Global Entry. As noted in the previous section, Germany's ABG Plus trusted traveler program has been discontinued.

Before a German citizen can apply for Global Entry, he or she must visit an EasyPASS³ enrollment center in Germany and complete a thorough risk assessment by the German Federal Police. The list of EasyPASS enrollment center locations is available at http://www.easypass.de/EasyPass/EN/EasyPASS-RTP/rtp_node.html. After a German citizen is vetted for Global Entry by the German Federal Police, the German Federal Police will notify both CBP and the applicant that the applicant is eligible to apply for Global Entry. Then the applicant will be required to complete the online application for Global Entry located on the GOES Web site, pay the non-refundable Global Entry fee, and satisfy all the requirements of Global Entry. The applicant will be permitted to participate in Global Entry only upon successful completion of a risk assessment by CBP and completion of an interview with a CBP officer. If an applicant is not vetted by the German Federal Police prior to applying to Global Entry through GOES, the Global Entry application will not be processed. The vetting criteria were mutually agreed upon by both agencies and are consistent with each agency's applicable domestic laws and policies. CBP will notify the applicants whether or not they have been accepted in the Global Entry program.

Applicants may be denied enrollment in the Global Entry program for various reasons. An individual who is inadmissible to the United States under U.S. immigration law or has, at any time, been granted a waiver of inadmissibility or parole is ineligible to participate in Global Entry. Applications from such individuals will automatically be rejected. Applications for Global Entry may also be rejected if the applicant has ever been arrested for, or convicted of, a criminal offense, or if the individual has ever been found in violation of customs or immigration laws, or of any criminal law. Additionally, an applicant will not be accepted for participation in Global Entry if CBP determines that the applicant presents a potential risk of terrorism, or criminality (including smuggling), or if CBP cannot sufficiently determine that the applicant meets all the program eligibility criteria. The eligibility criteria are set forth in more detail in the Global Entry final rule and 8 CFR 235.12. See also <http://www.globalentry.gov>.

Validity Period

Global Entry has a five-year membership period. After the second year of membership, German citizens will be notified by CBP, via email, that they must again visit an EasyPASS enrollment center and be vetted by the German Federal Police. If a German citizen Global Entry member fails to be vetted by the German Federal Police within the allotted time, Global Entry membership will be terminated. These additional vetting requirements are not applicable to pilot participants during their initial five-year Global Entry membership.

U.S. Citizens' Participation in EasyPASS

Any U.S. citizen, 18 years of age or older, has the option to enroll in EasyPASS. EasyPASS is a registered traveler program in Germany that provides expedited entry into the country via the use of eGates, an automated border control system that uses facial recognition for biometric verification of the individual's identity. Consequently, an ePassport is required for EasyPASS. A U.S. citizen does not have to be a member of a CBP trusted traveler program to apply for EasyPASS.

U.S. applicants may apply for EasyPASS at an EasyPASS enrollment center in Germany. U.S. applicants must register for EasyPASS directly with the Government of Germany. There is currently no fee associated with EasyPASS. The applicant will be notified immediately at the enrollment center about whether he or she is approved for EasyPASS. The limited number of U.S. citizens who enrolled in ABG Plus, under the eligibility conditions described in the August 9, 2013 Federal Register notice, have been automatically enrolled in EasyPASS. More information about how to apply for EasyPASS and about the program is available at http://www.easypass.de/EasyPass/EN/EasyPASS-RTP/rtp_node.html.
