

Kate CORKERY

Date of birth: 7 March 1985

IJF Vice President (President of OJU)

Place of birth: Australia

In position since: 2023

Entry into the IJF: 2016

Education

Graduate Australian Institute of Company Directors
Accredited Mediator
Masters of International Sport Management
Admitted as a Solicitor and Barrister to the Supreme Court
Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice
Bachelor of Laws (Honours)
Bachelor of Applied Economics

IJF Career

2018-present member, Gender Equality Commission – Speaker at the inaugural Gender Equity Conference: Together we are stronger
2023-present IJF Vice President – President, Oceania Judo Union

Judo & Sports Career

2016-2021 President, Judo Australia

Administrative Career

Criminal Public Prosecutor
Senior Lawyer for the Australian Sports Anti-Doping Agency (NADO)
General Manager Industry Capability – Sport Australia
Mediator
Chief Executive Officer – Strategy, Governance and Culture
Director, Fitness Australia
Director, Combat Institute of Australia

Awards & Decorations

National Australia Day Medallion – for significant contribution to leadership of Australian Sport Governance
Towards ‘Good’ Good Governance Policies in Sport: Lessons from Australia co authored by Kate Corkery and Geoff Schoenberg published in Good Governance in Sport Critical Reflections open access available at: Click here to access the link
McKinzie Young Leaders Program
Distinguished Alumni Winner – Contribution to Sport – University of Canberra
Chancellors Scholarship for Academic Excellence - University of Canberra