GYMBACK NOTABLES

Razorbacks Open Season With Dual Victory Over Huskers

The Arkansas gymnastics team kicked its season off on a high note as the Hogs defeated the Huskers 196.225-195.000 in Lincoln on Jan. 7. The Gymbacks outscored the Huskers on vault, bars, and floor, and are now 4-5 all-time against Nebraska. The meet also marked the second straight season-opening win for the Hogs. The team's newcomers and underclassmen were especially impactful in the win. Graduate transfer Norah Flatley took home the bars title with a score of 9.900 and a share of vault, on which she scored a 9.850. Flatley split the vault title with redshirt freshman Cami Weaver. It was Weaver's first appearance on vault since she sustained a season-ending injury in her collegiate debut on the event, making the victory extra special. Redshirt freshman Frankie Price and freshman Lauren Williams both score 9.875 in their Arkansas floor debuts, which earned them a piece of a three-way tie for first place. Each of Arkansas' freshmen appeared on at least one event in the meet in addition to Williams, with Reese Drotar, Jaime Pratt and Cally Swaney all also in the bars lineup.

TV Schedule, Times Released For 2023 Gymnastics Season

The Gymbacks return to SEC Network on Feb. 17 for their away contest at Kentucky, with coverage and action beginning at 7:30 p.m. The team's SEC Network finale in the regular season is set for the last meet in Barnhill Arena in 2023, Feb. 24 against Missouri at 7:45 p.m. Record television coverage is in store for the 2023 season, with six "Friday Night Heights" tripleheaders on SEC Network, ESPN2 and ESPNU featuring SEC squads during the 2023 regular season, including a quadruple-header on Friday, Feb. 13. Gymbacks Ranked 15th In WCGA Preseason Poll

Arkansas gymnastics has been tabbed one of the the top 15 programs in the country again this season, as the team received a No. 15 ranking in the Women's College Gymnastics Association coaches poll on Friday. The ranking continues a 17-year streak in which the Gymbacks have been placed in the preseason top 20, and the third season in head coach Jordyn Wieber's tenure in the top 15. Arkansas finished its 2022 slate in the Sweet 16, the team's 18th straight regional appearance and second consecutive regional final. The Hogs finished the regular season ranked in the top 25 on all events and checked in as high as No. 8 on beam and No. 9 on floor and No. 10 on vault. The team carries several new program records into the 2023 campaign, one on each event. The Razorbacks set new program highs on vault (49.500) and beam (49.475) and regional records on bars (49.450) and floor (49.400). Arkansas brings back key returners in five-time All-American Kennedy Hambrick, Bailey Lovett and Leah Smith, as well as the addition of UCLA graduate transfer Norah Flatley, a three-time All-American and the 2022 College Gym News Comeback Gymnast of the Year. Both Hambrick and Flatley competed at the NCAA Gymnastics Championships in April as individual all-around qualifiers. The Razorbacks also add four freshman contributors in Reese Drotar, Jaime Pratt, Cally Swaney and Lauren Williams. Regular season action then begins on Sat, Jan. 7 as the Hogs take on the Nebraska Cornhuskers in Lincoln at 3 p.m.

Gymbacks Add Four On Signing Day

The Razorback gymnastics family and head coach Jordyn Wieber have announced four new additions for the 2024 slate on National Signing Day in Hailey Klein, Priscilla Park, Dakota Essenpries and Chandler Buntin. "We are so thrilled about this recruiting class and for their future with Arkansas Gymnastics. I could not be more excited to welcome them to the Razorback Gymnastics family, not only for their abilities, --> but because of what I know they will collectively bring to the program as confident and fierce competitors," Wieber said. "Hailey Klein has competed at the elite level and brings an exceptional quality to all events, especially on balance beam. Priscilla Park comes from a club that consistently produces high-level college gymnasts. I have no doubt that she will be the complete package in college, but she will be a fantastic leader as well. We are equally excited about the additions of Dakota Essenpries and Chandler Buntin. Dakota will bring a high level of difficulty on floor and vault and Chandler has an unmatched level of performance and artistry, as well as enthusiasm for our sport!"

Kyla Ross Promoted To Gymnastics Assistant Coach

After helping lead the Arkansas program to new heights in one season as a volunteer, Olympic gold medalist and five-time NCAA champion Kyla Ross has been promoted to assistant coach of the Gymbacks. "I am so excited to have the opportunity to stay a part of the Arkansas Razorback family! Big thank you to Jordyn Wieber and Razorback Athletics for this amazing opportunity to continue coaching with this program --> and athletic department," Ross said. "I am so excited to continue working with our student-athletes to help empower them to accomplish their goals in athletics, academics, and personal development. I can't wait to call the Hogs with Razorback fans many more times this season! Wooo Pig." Upon arrival for Arkansas' 2022 campaign, Ross was primarily responsible for coaching the Gymbacks on balance beam. She immediately made a lasting impact on the program as she led the team to a new program high of 49.475 against Florida on Jan. 28. Beam was Arkansas' best event for much of the season, with a final ranking of 16th and placement as high as 8th throughout the regular season. The Hogs posted 16 beam routines with a score of 9.9 or above and earned at least a share of the beam title six times over 13 meets. Ross' early success as a coach comes off one of the most best careers in collegiate gymnastics history. During her four seasons at UCLA, Ross won four individual NCAA titles, one on each event, and the 2018 team title with the Bruins. She is one of just 12 gymnasts to record a Gym Slam - a perfect 10 on each event - and is one of only two to record two Gym Slams in their careers. She was also the first-ever women's gymnast to own Olympic, world, and NCAA titles. The promotion continues a Ross-Wieber dynamic that has seen the two as teammates, coach and athlete, and coworkers over the course of 10+ years from London 2012, to UCLA, and now at Arkansas. "I am incredibly thrilled and confident about hiring Kyla as our new assistant coach. She has a wealth of knowledge, work ethic, and passion for our sport. Her impact on our program so far is evident and I know she continue to mentor our student-athletes to be the best students, athletes, and people they can be," Wieber said. "What an incredible opportunity to be able to coach with my Olympic teammate and continue to build Arkansas Gymnastics towards competitive greatness together." With Wieber at the helm and Ross and Chris Brooks as assistants, Arkansas is the first and only NCAA women's gymnastics program to have an all-Olympian staff. Brooks is a two-time Olympian and served as captain for the men's squad at the Rio 2016 games, where he also placed 14th in the all-around competition. Wieber and Ross competed together as part of the Fierce Five, who won the United States' first-ever women's gymnastics gold medal on foreign soil nearly 10 years ago on July 31, 2012 in London.

Norah Flatley Joins Gymbacks for 2023 Season

The Arkansas gymnastics program will boost its roster for the 2023 slate with the addition of one of the NCAA's most talented gymnasts, Norah Flatley, as a graduate transfer. Flatley, a West Des Moines, Iowa, native, has spent the last four seasons at UCLA. She was a three-time All-American in her time with the Bruins, a four-time All-Pac-12 honoree and a 2019 regular season All-American on bars. "I could not be more thrilled that Norah has chosen Arkansas for the upcoming season, to continue her academic and athletic career. Norah brings so much to the table, including her performance quality, difficulty, and experience," head coach Jordyn Wieber said. "She has already had incredible success and I have no doubt she will bring her competitive spirit and leadership to this program." In her senior season at UCLA, Flatley battled back from an ankle injury as a junior to become a consistent all-arounder for the Bruins and was named the 2022 College Gym News Comeback Gymnast of the Year. She reached new personal highs on vault (9.900), beam (9.950), floor (9.975) and all-around (39.750) in 2022 and finished the regular season ranked 33rd all-around. She was ranked as high as 15th on bars throughout the year and was named All-Pac-12 on the event. Flatley was crowned the all-around champion at the Raleigh Regional with a score of 39.575, which earned her a spot at the NCAA Championships as an individual all-around competitor, along with new Gymback teammate Kennedy Hambrick. She placed seventh overall at the NCAA Championships with a score of 39.600 and earned a 9.9375 on beam for her second and third career All-American honors. In her freshman and sophomore years, Flatley was named All-Pac-12 three times, twice on beam and once on bars. She also received regular season All-American status on bars as a rookie in 2019. Flatley competed with Arkansas coaches Felicia Hano and Kyla Ross at UCLA in her first two years, as Ross and Hano wrapped their collegiate competition careers in 2020. Flatley was also guided by Wieber in her freshman season, which was Wieber's final year as a volunteer assistant coach for the Bruins before being hired at Arkansas. Prior to her time at UCLA, Norah trained at Chow's Gymnastics in West Des Moines, Iowa, and was a two-time junior national team member, in which time she won three beam and team titles with Team USA in international assignments.

MEET TWO VS ALABAMA JANUARY 13, 2023

JORDYN WIEBER

FOURTH-YEAR HEAD COACH

Olympic gold medalist Jordyn Wieber was introduced as the head coach of the Arkansas Women's Gymnastics program on Wednesday, April 24, 2019, by Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Hunter Yurachek.

During her third season in 2022, Wieber guided the Gymsbacks to their 18th consecutive regional appearance and second straight regional final. The team set a new regional bars record (49.450) and a new regional floor record (49.400). The Hogs finished the year ranked 16th in the country, maintaining the program's 17-year streak in the top 20. All-arounder Kennedy Hambrick and bars specialist Sarah Shaffer both earned individual NCAA Championships berths, extending Wieber's unblemished national appearance streak in each eligible year. Hambrick earned her fifth All-American honor at the event and became the first-ever Gymsback to compete at NAAs as an individual all-arounder in consecutive years. Arkansas' 196.450 at SEC Championships in 2022 is the third-best in program history and the best finish since Wieber took the program helm.

At SEC Championships, Arkansas finished with their best score in Wieber's tenure, 196.450, and coached Kennedy Hambrick and Sarah Shaffer to All-SEC honors and Kalyxta Gamiao and Leah Smith to SEC All-Freshman Team honors, the most Gymsbacks on the SEC postseason lists since 2018.

Wieber brought her London 2012 and UCLA teammate Kyla Ross on to the staff for the 2022 season, whose beam coaching helped Arkansas reach a new program high of 49.250 on the event. The Gymsbacks also set a new program record on vault of 49.500 and posted three of its best 10 bars scores ever.

Wieber helped bring a long-awaited dream for the Arkansas program to light in 2022 as the team hosted its first-ever meet in Bud Walton Arena. It was attended by 10,345 fans, a new program single meet record, and the second time in the Wieber era that a new record has been set. The team also set new program highs in total attendance (24,830), which ranked seventh-best in the country, and in season tickets with 1,711. Each year since Wieber's arrival, the Gymsbacks have ranked in the top 10 in average attendance.

Wieber has coached three regular-season All-Americans in Sophia Carter (2020), Maggie O'Hara (2021) and Kennedy Hambrick (2020, 2021). The Razorbacks set an all-time team score in 2021 (197.425) and Hambrick became the new all-around score record holder (39.750). Under her guidance in and out of the gym, Arkansas saw its first SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 10 years in 2022 with Bailey Lovett, and the team has set a new streak of three consecutive years with a team GPA of 3.5 or above.

The Gymsbacks earned their first-ever spot in the SEC night session in 2021 and advanced to the NCAA regional final after scoring a post-season program best 197.250 on day one. In total, Arkansas registered fives scores of 197.000 or better in 2021 for the first time in program history. In 2020, the Gymsbacks ranked as high as fourth in the nation on floor and finished the season ninth in the nation. It was against No. 13 Kentucky on Jan. 24 that Arkansas scored a 49.525 on the floor, the second-highest event total in program history.

Headed into 2022, Arkansas held onto the third-longest active streak for meets with a score of 49.000 or higher, coming in with 32 straight meets, behind Alabama (33) and Florida (35). During the 2022 slate, the Gymsbacks extended that streak to 39 meets. In Wieber's first year, Arkansas scored a 49.00 or higher in 14 of 16 events over the course of four home meets, nearly 90 percent of all events. The Razorbacks' success on the floor helped them lock in back-to-back SEC wins against No. 20 Missouri and No. 10 Georgia mid-way through the season. The consecutive wins marked the first time since 2017 that Arkansas won two-straight conference meets and consecutive meets against a ranked opponent.

Arkansas saw six Gymsbacks wrap up the 2020 season ranked in the top 100 by Road to Nationals in at least one event, with four Hogs finishing with multiple top 100 rankings. With Wieber's lead, Arkansas won 27 event titles through 10 meets. Hambrick finished the season with the most individual titles among the Gymsbacks, securing 11 event titles including a team-high four all-around titles.

The first home meet of the Wieber era was held on Jan. 17 against No. 3 Denver, bringing a then-record crowd of 6,714 fans to Barnhill Arena. On Feb. 21, Coach Wieber and her Arkansas squad hosted Auburn for a Women's Empowerment Meet, the first of its kind in NCAA gymnastics and now an annual tradition for the Gymsbacks.

Wieber wrapped up her third season as a volunteer assistant coach at UCLA and her sixth with the program in 2019, assisting the team in a variety of roles during her first three years in Westwood following her Olympic career. Wieber coached the Bruins on floor exercise, an event in which UCLA finished the 2018 and 2019 regular seasons ranked No. 1 in the nation. In 2019, the Bruins recorded scores of 49.5 or better in 11 of 14 meets, averaging a national-best 49.604 on floor. UCLA hit a season-high 49.825 on March 16, which ranks No. 3 all-time in school history, behind five scores of 9.925 or better in that meet, including two perfect 10s. The floor squad also posted marks of 49.775 (March 23) and 49.750 (Feb. 16) over the course of the year, as four Bruins earned regular season All-America honors in the event - Katelyn Ohashi, Kyla Ross, Gracie Kramer and Felicia Hano. At the NCAA Championships on April 19-20, Wieber coached Ross to the individual floor title with a score of 9.950, the program's second in as many years after Ohashi took home the crown in 2018. After winning their semifinal session with a 197.650 (49.6125 in the floor), UCLA finished third overall in the finals.

The 2018 Bruins scored 49.4 or higher in 11 meets and 49.6 or higher in three meets, including a national season-high of 49.775 set Feb. 25. She and her fellow UCLA coaches were named the 2018 West Region Assistant Coaches of the Year, as they helped lead the Bruins to Pac-12, NCAA regional and NCAA national titles.

Wieber, who has been a vocal advocate for safe sport, has won many awards in the past several years, including the Arthur Ashe Courage Award at the ESPYs, the Rising Star Award by the Los Angeles Business Journal, and the Giant Steps A Hero Among Us Award.

A member of the "Fierce Five" United States squad that won team gold at the 2012 Olympics, Wieber was a two-time U.S. all-around champion (2011 and 2012) and the 2011 World all-around champion. Her illustrious elite career included three medals (all-around and team gold, beam bronze) at the 2011 World Championships, four U.S. senior national titles (all-around, bars and floor in 2011 and all-around in 2012). She was also the 2008 U.S. junior all-around, vault and floor exercise champion and the American Cup all-around champion in 2009, 2011 and 2012. She dominated the competition at the 2010 Pacific Rim Championships, winning four gold medals (all-around, uneven bars, floor exercise, team) and one silver (vault). In her first international competition at the 2007 Junior Pan American Championships, she won gold medals on uneven bars and balance beam, silver in the all-around and bronze on floor exercise. Wieber officially retired from competitive gymnastics in 2015.

Wieber, from DeWitt, Mich., graduated from UCLA in 2017 with a degree in Psychology. She was a 2016 inductee into the Greater Lansing Sports Hall of Fame, a 2021 Michigan Sports Hall of Fame Inductee and is also a member of the USA Gymnastics Hall of Fame.
