Itinerary Overview

VIP Heitz Cellars Napa Valley Experience, curated exclusively for ASOH by Master Sommelier, Carlton McCoy
Package for 4 guests

Guests will be greeted at San Francisco International Airport and whisked away to Napa County Airport via Voom Helicopter.

Once in Napa, a private car service will greet guests and deliver them to Meadowood resort & spa, where they will enjoy two nights stay, in two rooms (for up to 4 guests). On the day of arrival, guests will enjoy exclusive winery and dinner reservations.

The following day, guests will enjoy a fully immersive Napa experience and tour of all Heitz single vineyards. Winery tour and tastings will be lead by Master Sommelier and Heitz CEO, Carlton McCoy, and Heitz Head Winemaker, Brittany Sherwood.

That evening, guests will dine at The French Laundry, Thomas Keller's world-renowned and highly coveted three-Michelin-star restaurant in Yountville. Dinner to be accompanied by exclusive Heitz library wines and exquisite rare Heitz vintages from the 1970's.

Package winner will also be inducted into the exclusive Heitz Legacy Collection; a members-only club of just 300 collectors globally who are allocated library wines directly from Heitz every year.

Carlton McCoy

MASTER SOMMELIER

One of America's best known Master Sommeliers, and one of only two African American Master Sommeliers, Carlton McCoy is a magnetic force with deep roots in the culinary world. Graduate of the Culinary Institute of America and former director of Food & Beverage at the Little Nell in Aspen, CO, Carlton has not only pedigree, but personality to match. Newly appointed CEO of Heitz Cellars, Carlton has hand curated this VIP Napa experience exclusively for A Sense of Home and one lucky winning bidder.
