

There are more types of some living things than there are of others. This coloring page gives you an idea of how many more of one kind of life form there are than others. As you can see there are more insects than just about any other organism. To learn more about species, visit <http://askabiologist.asu.edu/explore/linnaeus-and-world-taxonomy>
Original illustration by Frances L. Fawcett.