

SYRIAN ARAB REPUBLIC

1 YEAR OF

EARTHQUAKE

One year have elapsed since the catastrophic earthquake struck the north of Syria on the 6th of february 2023, leaving in their wake a landscape marred by destruction and despair.

The aftermath of this catastrophe has imposed several challenges on an already weak economy and fragile healthcare system and disrupted the lives of countless individuals trapped in 13 years of war, internal displacement and poverty.

Just a few hours after the earthquake that struck Turkey and Syria on February 6, 2023, AVSI staff was already providing immediate assistance to families affected by the earthquake through psycho-social and economic support

1 YEAR IN NUMBERS

AVSI, has been on the forefront of effort to provide essential and life saving services to alleviate the hardship endured by the displaced people in the most affected areas by the earthquake in Aleppo and Lattakia thanks to many private and institutional donors

