

Marianne C. Brown

Co-Chief Operating Officer

Global Financial Solutions, Fidelity National Information Services, Inc.

Marianne C. Brown was elected to the Northrop Grumman Board of Directors in 2015.

Brown has served as co-chief operating officer of Global Financial Solutions at Fidelity National Information Services, Inc., since January 2018. Prior to that, Brown served as chief operating officer of Institutional and Wholesale Business at Fidelity National Information Services since December 2015, when it acquired SunGard Financial Systems. Brown was chief operating officer of SunGard Financial Systems, a software and IT services provider, from February 2014 to November 2015.

Prior to that, Brown was the CEO and president of Omgeo, a global financial services technology company from March 2006 to February 2014. Before joining Omgeo, she was the CEO of the Securities Industry Automation Corporation. Brown began her career at Automatic Data Processing (ADP) and progressed through a series of positions of increasing responsibility culminating in her role as general manager of ADP's Brokerage Processing Services business, which was subsequently spun off to become Broadridge Financial Solutions. Brown is a senior advisor to Pro Mujer.

Brown earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Concordia College. She currently serves on the boards of Akami Technologies, Inc., IBM and The Charles Schwab Corporation. She holds a variety of community and philanthropic leadership roles and has received numerous awards for her business and volunteer work.

Northrop Grumman is a leading global aerospace and defense technology company. Our pioneering solutions equip our customers with the capabilities they need to connect and protect the world, and push the boundaries of human exploration across the universe. Driven by a shared purpose to solve our customers' toughest problems, our 95,000 employees define possible every day.