Connect with Centerstone Careers

Centerstone knows that a diverse team brings strong perspective and creativity to the workplace. Our goal is to create a working environment where everyone feels safe, empowered, and welcome. Centerstone has six Employee Resource Groups (ERGs) where employees can foster greater connection with people who share similar experiences, as well as hear more directly from those with lived experience. ERGs are open and inclusive to all staff who want to be more supportive of their colleagues.

The benefits contributed by these ERGs has been positive and far-reaching. Since their inception, Juneteenth became a paid Centerstone holiday, military gap pay leave is now available, and paid bonding benefits are now available to new parents.

More information about these groups and Centerstone job opportunities can be found at centerstone.org/careers. Find out how you can be part of our diverse, collaborative teams that deliver care that changes people's lives.
