

BERKLEE SELF- GUIDED TOUR: BOSTON CAMPUS

Home to two renowned schools, Berklee College of Music and Boston Conservatory at Berklee, our urban campus in Boston, Massachusetts sits at the corner of culture and innovation. Use this guide to explore our campus at your own pace and experience the place where countless legends in music, theater, and dance got their start.

Berklee College of Music Spaces

Since 1945, the college evolved from a single building into a flourishing urban campus covering numerous city blocks. To introduce you to Berklee College of Music's Boston campus, we have selected a few locations students visit on a typical day.

1140 BOYLSTON STREET

Added as the heart of Berklee's campus in the 1960s, 1140 is currently home to the Office of the President, two performance venues, a student lounge, classrooms, and more.

136 MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE

A state-of-the-art 1,215-seat venue, the Berklee Performance Center hosts professional concerts by talented students, faculty, touring artists, and more.

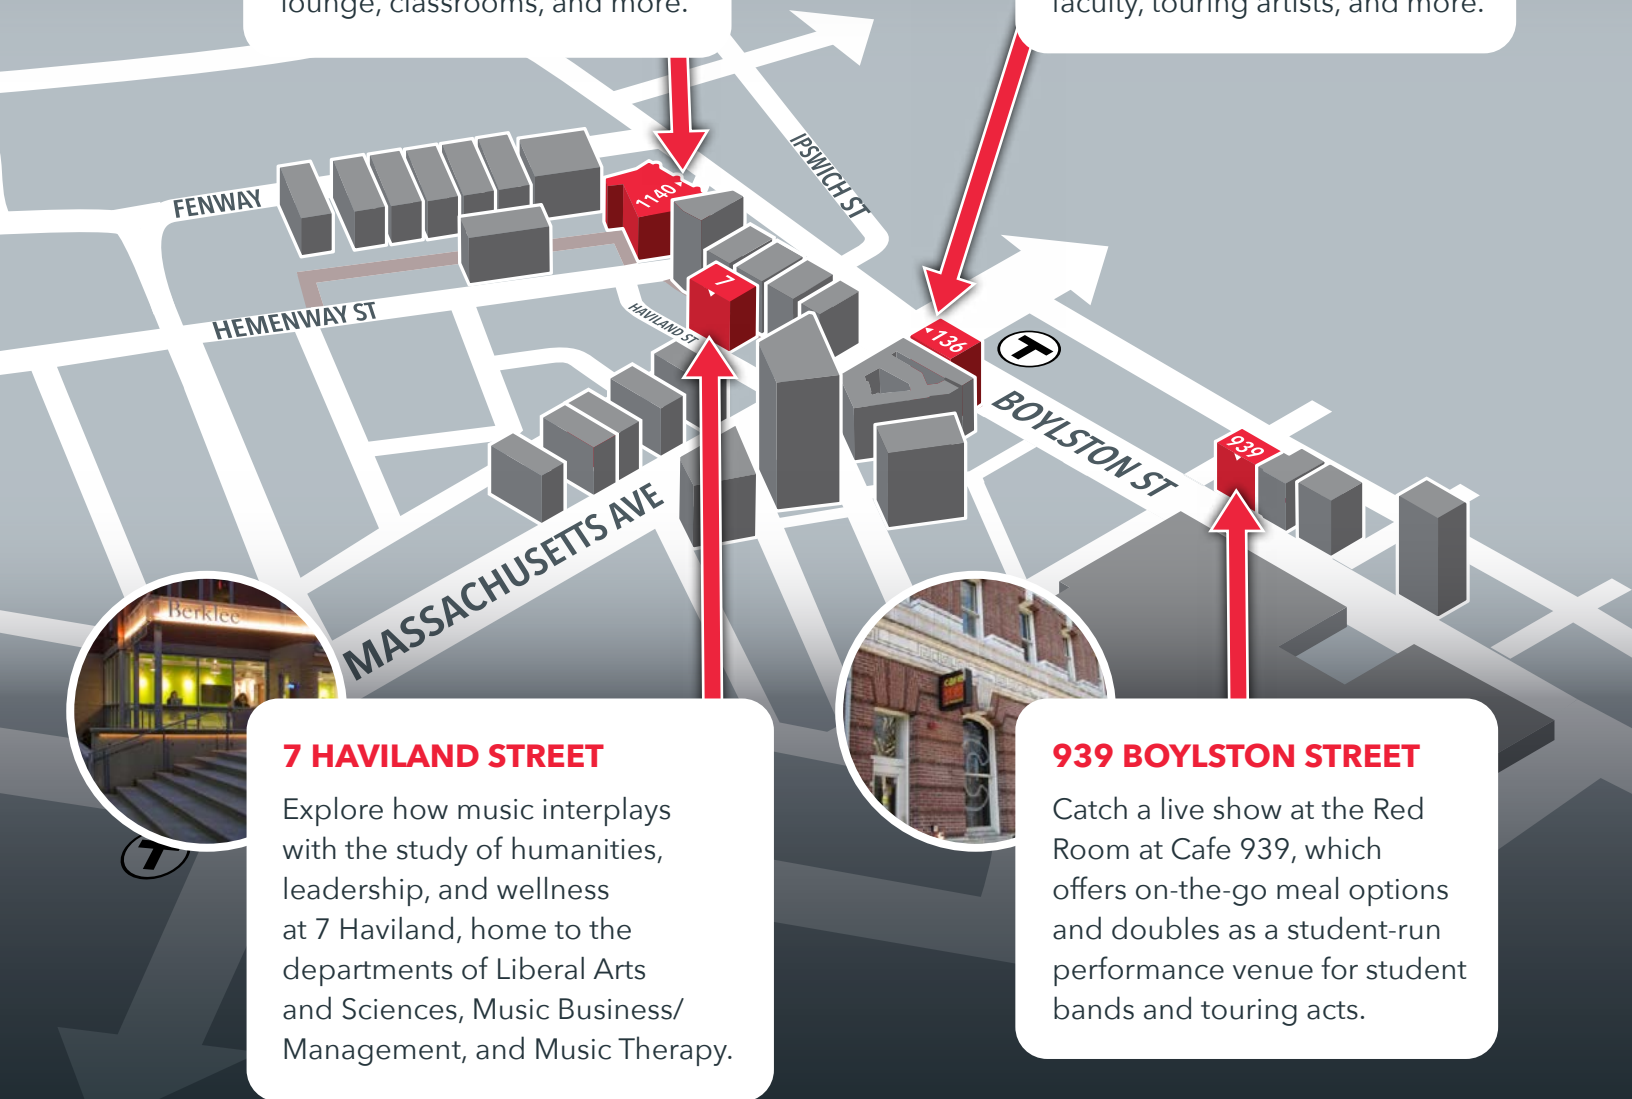

7 HAVILAND STREET

Explore how music interplays with the study of humanities, leadership, and wellness at 7 Haviland, home to the departments of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Music Business/Management, and Music Therapy.

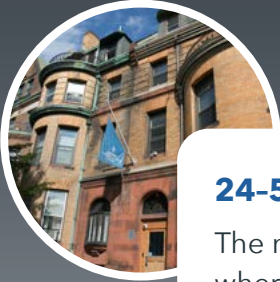

939 BOYLSTON STREET

Catch a live show at the Red Room at Cafe 939, which offers on-the-go meal options and doubles as a student-run performance venue for student bands and touring acts.

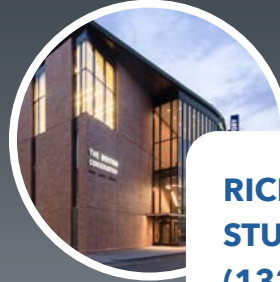

Boston Conservatory at Berklee Spaces

The Conservatory's vibrant multiarts environment gives dance, music, and theater students a unique opportunity to connect and collaborate in shared performance, learning, and living spaces.

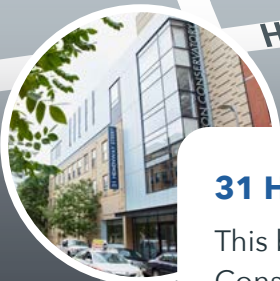

24-54 FENWAY

The main residence halls where Conservatory students live are 24, 26, 32, 40, and 54 Fenway. These historic brownstones overlook the serene parks and waterways of the Emerald Necklace.

RICHARD ORTNER STUDIO BUILDING (132 IPSWICH STREET)

Built in 2014 and named in honor of the late Boston Conservatory President Richard Ortner, this state-of-the-art facility includes large ensemble spaces, dance rooms, classrooms, and practice rooms.

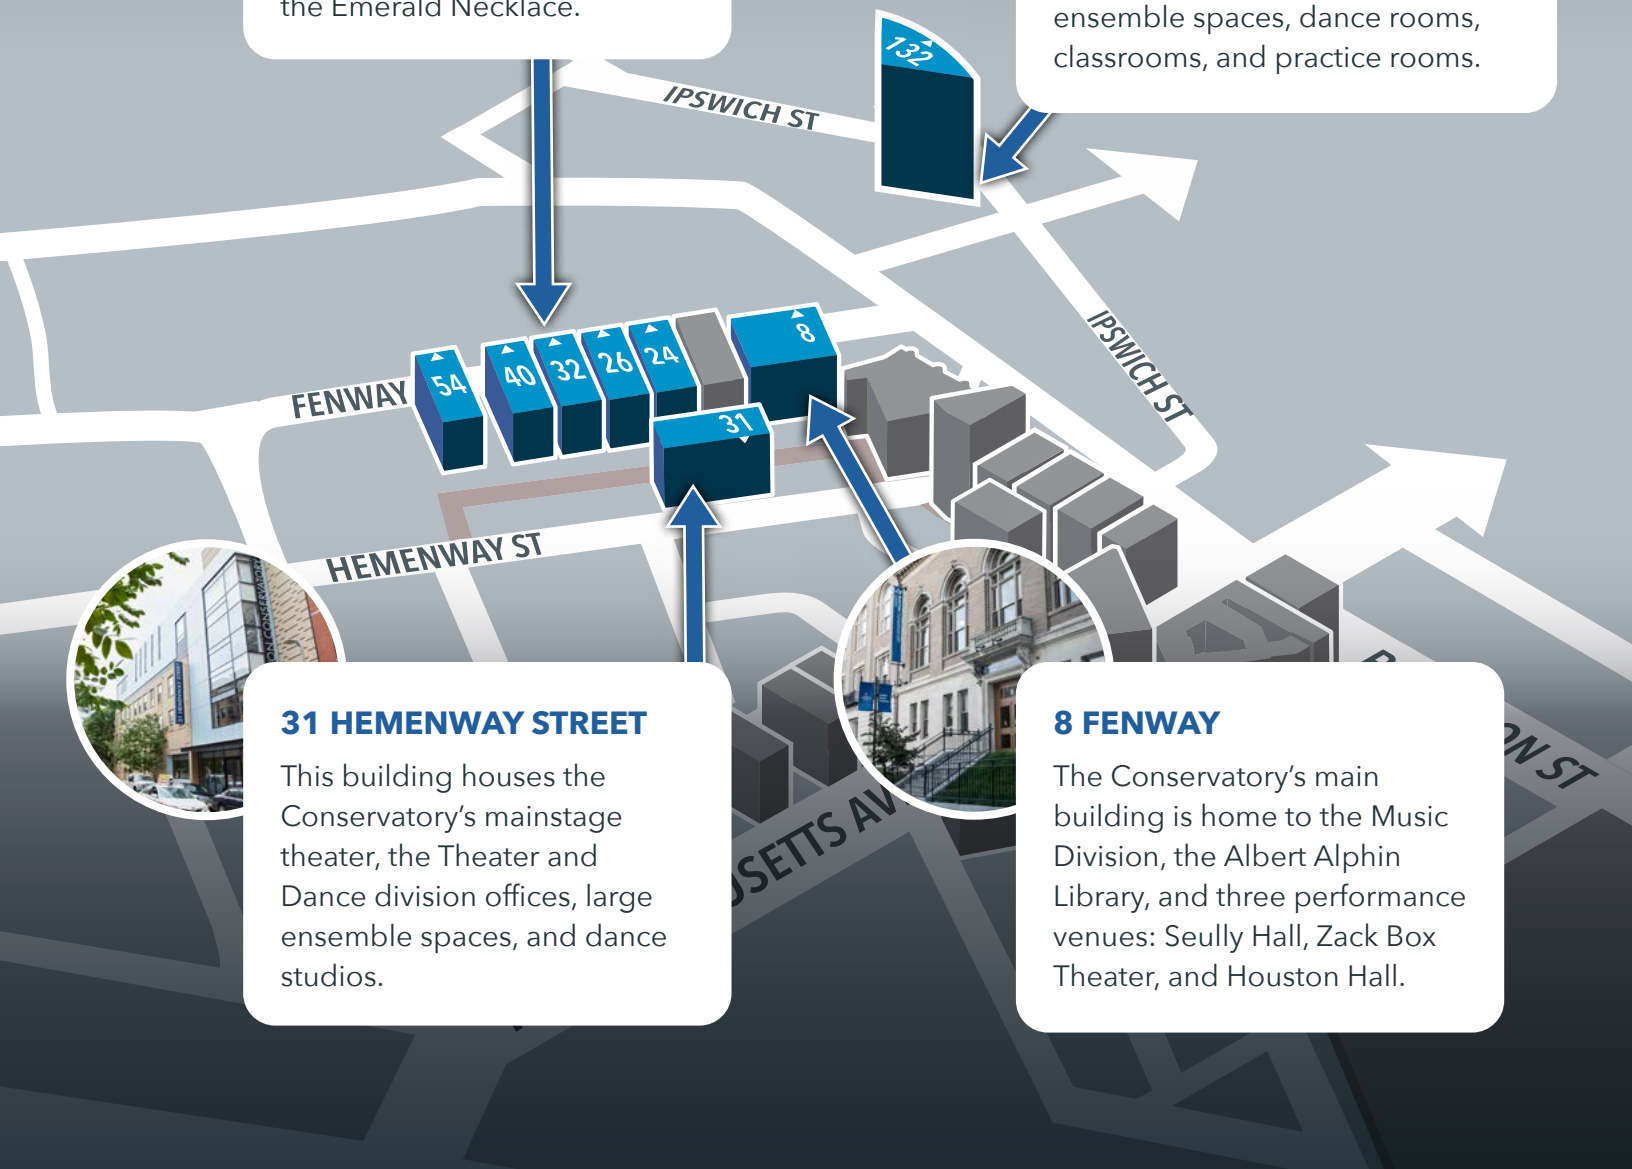

31 HEMENWAY STREET

This building houses the Conservatory's mainstage theater, the Theater and Dance division offices, large ensemble spaces, and dance studios.

8 FENWAY

The Conservatory's main building is home to the Music Division, the Albert Alphin Library, and three performance venues: Seully Hall, Zack Box Theater, and Houston Hall.

1090 BOYLSTON ST. BERKLEE BOOKSTORE

The Berklee Bookstore carries a large selection of textbooks, music-related books, and supplies. The store also sells Berklee-branded merchandise, including clothing and other gift items.

921 BOYLSTON STREET

Also known as the Genko Uchida Academic Complex, 921 comprises a 160-capacity performance space (David Friend Recital Hall), classrooms, practice spaces, and much more.

160 MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE

Central to campus, 160 is a residence hall, 10-studio music production complex, and dining hall all in one. At night, the 'Caf' stage transforms into live concerts.

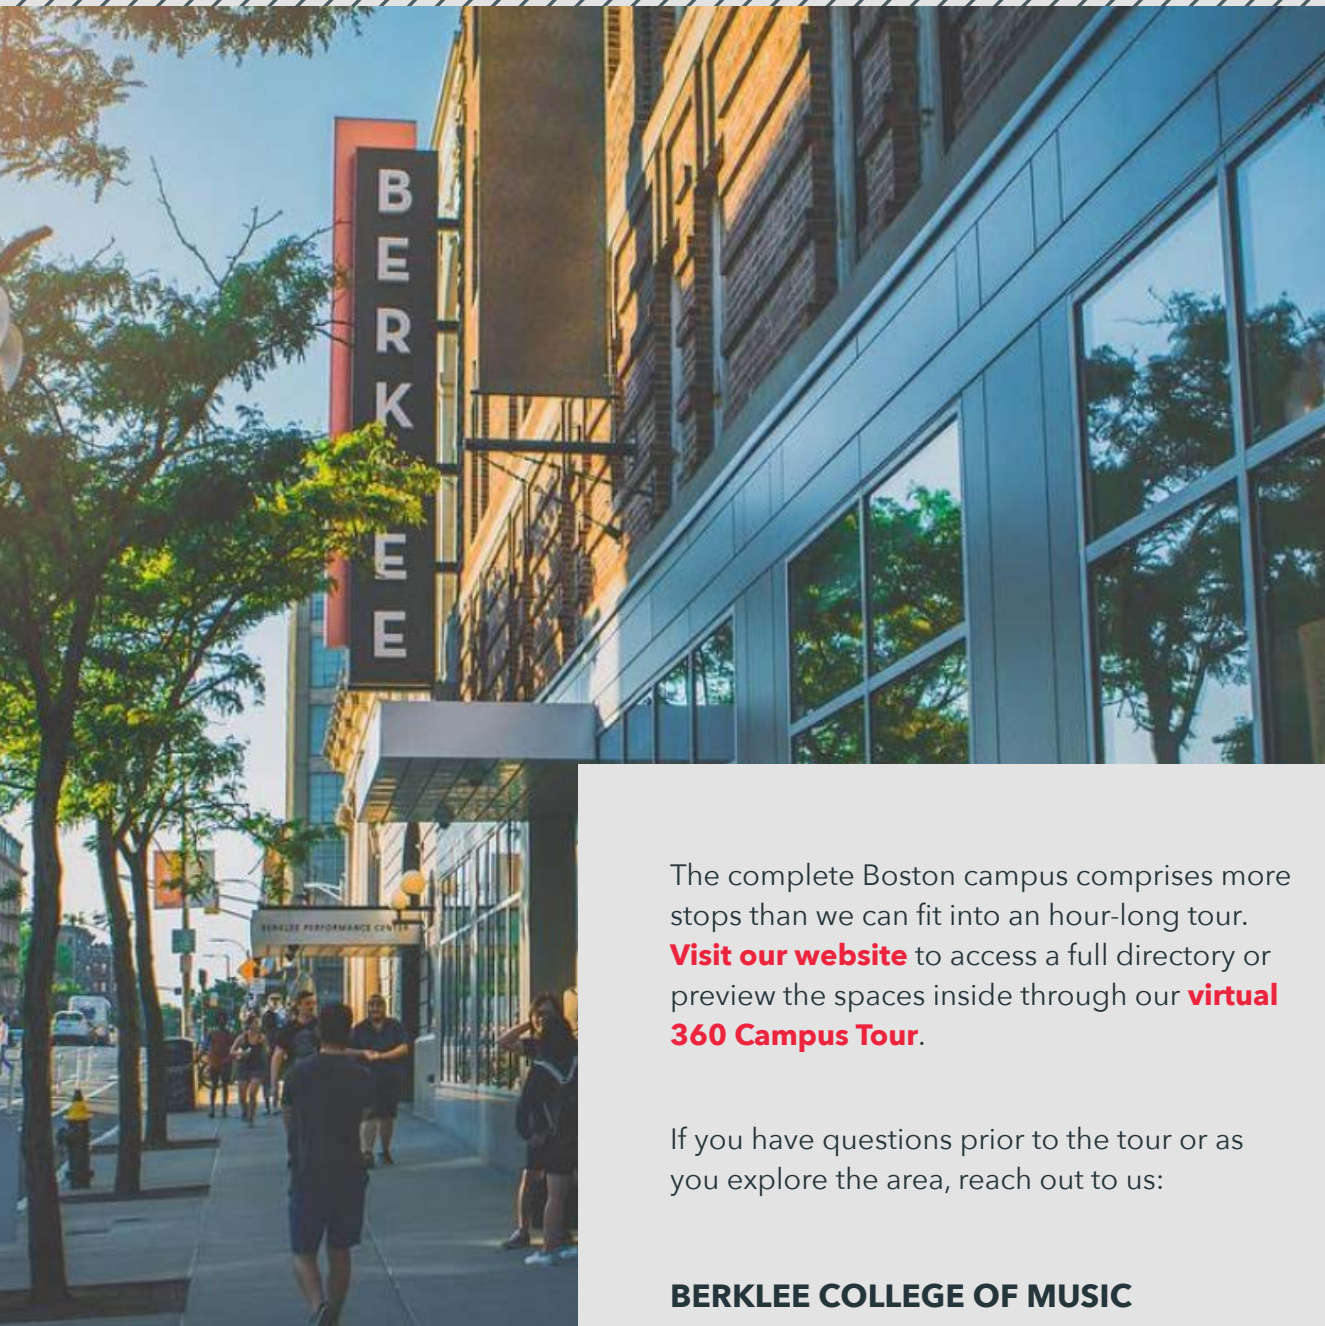

150 MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE

In addition to being the largest residence hall on campus, 150 also houses the Stan Getz Library, Creative Technology Center, teaching studios, and other academic spaces.
