Nicole is a member of the Trust, Estates and Succession Planning Practice Group. She assists clients in all matters relating to estate planning, succession planning, probate administration, trust administration, and inheritance litigation. Nicole is a graduate of Marquette University Law School where she focused her studies in estate planning. Nicole is licensed to practice law in both Wisconsin and Illinois.

PRACTICE GROUP

- Tax Advice, Planning & Controversy
- Trust, Estates & Succession Planning
- Inheritance Litigation & Will Contest

Nicole understands firsthand the importance of having an estate plan. For much of Nicole's childhood, her parents served as in-home caretakers for two of her grandparents who suffered from Alzheimer's disease and dementia. This experience inspired Nicole to pursue a career where she could help other families much like her own prepare for both the incapacity and death of a loved one.

Nicole Assists Clients With
