

CQU STUDENTS REPORTING SEXUAL ASSAULT OR SEXUAL HARASSMENT AT CQU

If you are a CQU student and have experienced sexual harassment or sexual assault at CQU* (when it has been committed by a student or employee at the University, on an Australian CQU campus (including study hubs), at a Uni event, Uni online platform, placement or student residence) help and support is available.

CONFIDENTIAL HELP IS AVAILABLE

The CQU Student Counselling and Wellbeing service is free and confidential. Student counsellors are professionally trained to help you and can refer you to specialised support services within your local community and provide information about your reporting options.

Contact student counselling on 07 4930 9456 (8:30am and 4:30pm (AEST)), or contact the CQU Out of Hours Student Support Line on 1300 226 987 or text 0480 097 747 (outside business hours).

External Crisis Care services are available 24/7, contact 1800 Respect on 1800 737 732 or Lifeline on 13 11 14.

*CQU University is committed to providing all students with a safe, supportive and respectful place to study. Violence, assault, harassment or bullying, against any individual or group is not tolerated. The University will protect your privacy and confidentiality wherever possible and will talk to you first in case there are any privacy limitations.
