

UNITED NATIONS STUDENT MAP OF THE WORLD

- On 12 June 1968, the United Nations General Assembly proclaimed that the former mandated territory of South West Africa shall henceforth be known as Namibia. South Africa's mandate over the territory was declared terminated by General Assembly resolution of 27 October 1966. On 19 May 1967, the General Assembly established a United Nations Council to administer the territory until independence.
- The final status of Jammu and Kashmir has not yet been determined. Dotted line represents approximately the Cease-Fire Line.
- West Iran's administration was transferred to Indonesia on 1 May 1963, pursuant to an Agreement of 15 August 1962 between the Netherlands and Indonesia, which also provides that West Iran is to exercise self-determination before the end of 1969.
- The Antarctic Treaty signed in Washington on 1 December 1959 provides for freedom of scientific investigation in Antarctica and its use for peaceful purposes exclusively.

The boundaries shown on this map are not, in some instances, finally determined and their reproduction does not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.
