Money Order, Debit and Credit Card Contributions

A candidate, political committee, or political party may accept contributions via a credit card, debit card, money order, or wire transfer. These contributions are categorized as a "check" for reporting purposes.

(Section 106.11, Fla. Stat.; Division of Elections Advisory Opinions 94-02, 00-03 and 02-09)

Contributions via Online Payment Service Organizations

A candidate, political committee, or political party may use an online payment service organization, such as PayPal, to receive campaign contributions. The contribution would be reported as a check in the entire amount and the transactional fee would then be reported as an expenditure.

Contribution Limits

Political committees sponsoring or opposing constitutional amendments proposed by initiative are subject to a $3000 limit until the amendment reaches ballot position, at which time the limit no longer exists. No other monetary limit exists on contributions to a political committee.

(Section 106.08, Fla.Stat.; Chapter 2021-16, Laws of Florida)

Monetary limits exist on contributions from a political committee to a candidate, but not to a political party, an electioneering communications organization, or another political committee. (See Appendix C.)

Deadlines for Accepting Contributions

Any contribution received by the chair, campaign treasurer, or deputy campaign treasurer of a political committee supporting or opposing a candidate with opposition in an election or supporting or opposing an issue on the ballot in an election on the day of that election or less than five days before the day of that election may not be obligated or expended by the committee until after the date of the election, unless such contribution is first fully disclosed.

(Section 106.08\(4\), Fla. Stat.; Worley v. Detzner, 2012 WL 12897964 (N.D. Fla. 2012))

Contributions in the Name of Another

A person may not make any contribution through or in the name of another, directly or indirectly, in any election. Furthermore, Florida law does not permit a contribution to be “earmarked” through a conduit.

(Section 106.08\(5\)\(a\), Fla. Stat.; Division of Elections Advisory Opinions 82-6 and 10-11)

Violations

Any candidate; committee chair, campaign treasurer, deputy treasurer, or other officer of any political committee; agent or person acting on behalf of any candidate or political committee; or other person who knowingly and willfully engages in any of the following acts, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in Section 775.082 or 775.083, Florida Statutes.

- Accepts a contribution in excess of the limits prescribed by Section 106.08, Florida Statutes;
- Fails to report any contribution required to be reported by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes;
- Falsely reports or deliberately fails to include any information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes; or
- Makes or authorizes any expenditure in violation of Section 106.11\(4\), Florida Statutes, or any other expenditure prohibited by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

(Section 106.19, Fla. Stat.)

Chapter 8: Expenditures

An expenditure is a purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, transfer of funds by a campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer between a primary depository and a separate interest-bearing account or certificate of deposit, or gift of money or anything of value made for the purpose of influencing the results of an election or making an electioneering communication.

An expenditure for an electioneering communication is made when the earliest of the following occurs:

- A person executes a contract for applicable goods or services;
- A person makes payment, in whole or in part, for the production or public dissemination of applicable goods or services; or
- The electioneering communication is publicly disseminated.

(Section 106.011\(10\), Fla. Stat.)

General Requirements

A political committee shall:

- Pay all campaign expenditures by a check drawn on the campaign account (except petty cash);
- Pay for all expenses authorized or incurred for the purchase of goods or services upon final delivery and acceptance of the goods or services; and
- Pay for public utilities such as telephone, electric, gas, water and like services when the bill is received. Utility companies providing services to political committees must charge a deposit sufficient to meet all anticipated charges during a billing period.

Note: No campaign manager, treasurer, deputy treasurer, or political committee or any officer or agent thereof, or any person acting on behalf of any of the foregoing, shall authorize any expenses, unless there are sufficient funds on deposit in the primary depository account of the political committee to pay the full amount of the authorized expense, to honor all other checks drawn on such account, which checks are outstanding, and to meet all expenses previously authorized but not yet paid.

“Sufficient funds” means that the funds at issue have been delivered for deposit to the financial institution at which such account is maintained and not that such funds are available for withdrawal in accordance with the deposit rules or the funds availability policies of such financial institution.

(Sections 106.021\(3\) and 106.11\(4\), Fla. Stat.)

Checks

Note: Only a campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer is allowed to sign checks drawn on the campaign account. The campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer who signs a check shall be responsible for the completeness and accuracy of the information on the check and for ensuring it is an authorized expenditure.

(Section 106.011, Fla. Stat.)

Petty Cash Funds

A campaign treasurer may provide a petty cash fund for the political committee. To establish a petty cash fund, the campaign treasurer must write a check drawn on the primary campaign account.

A political committee must:

- Spend petty cash in amounts of less than $100 and petty cash may only be used for office supplies, transportation expenses, and other necessities;
- Report the total amount withdrawn and the total amount spent for petty cash in each reporting period; and
- Keep complete records of petty cash, although each expenditure does not have to be reported individually.

A political committee cannot:

- Mix cash contributions with petty cash.
- Use petty cash for the purchase of time, space or services from any communications media.

From the day a political committee appoints its campaign treasurer until the close of qualifying for office, the campaign treasurer may withdraw from the campaign account for the purpose of providing a petty cash fund for the political committee $500 per calendar quarter.

After qualifying is over and until the last election in a given election period in which the political committee participates, the treasurer may withdraw $100 per week.

(Sections 106.07 and 106.12, Fla. Stat.;
Division of Elections Advisory Opinion 06-10)

Independent Expenditures

An independent expenditure means an expenditure made by a person for the purpose of expressly advocating the election or defeat of a candidate or issue, which expenditure is not controlled by, coordinated with, or made upon consultation with, any candidate, political committee, or agent of such candidate or committee. An expenditure for such purpose by a person having a contract with the candidate, political committee, or agent of such candidate or committee in a given election period is not deemed an independent expenditure.

Expressly advocates means any communication which uses phrases including, but not limited to: “vote for,” “elect,” “support,” “cast your ballot for,” “Smith for Congress,” “vote against,” “defeat,” “oppose,” and “reject.”

(See Division of Elections Advisory Opinion 16-12)

However, an expenditure for the purpose of expressly advocating the election or defeat of a candidate which is made by the national, state, or county executive committee of a political party, including any subordinate committee of a national, state, or county committee of a political party, an affiliated party committee, or by any political committee, or any other person, is not considered an independent expenditure if the party committee or person:

1. Communicates with the candidate, the candidate's campaign, or an agent of the candidate acting on behalf of the candidate, including any pollster, media consultant, advertising agency, vendor, advisor, or staff member concerning the preparation of, use of, or payment for, the specific expenditure or advertising campaign at issue;
2. Makes a payment in cooperation, consultation, or concert with, at the request or suggestion of, or pursuant to any general or particular understanding with the candidate, the candidate's campaign, a political committee supporting the candidate, or an agent of the candidate relating to the specific expenditure or advertising campaign at issue;
3. Makes a payment for the dissemination, distribution, or republication, in whole or in part, of a broadcast or a written, graphic, or other form of campaign material prepared by the candidate, the candidate's campaign, or an agent of the candidate, including any pollster, media consultant, advertising agency, vendor, advisor, or staff member;
4. Makes a payment based on information about the candidate's plans, projects, or needs communicated to a member of the committee or person by the candidate or any agent of the candidate, provided the committee or person uses the information in any way, in whole or in part, either directly or indirectly, to design, prepare, or pay for the specific expenditure or advertising campaign at issue;
5. After the last day of the qualifying period prescribed for the candidate, there is a consultation about the candidate's plans, projects, or needs in connection with the candidate's pursuit of election to office and the information is used in any way to plan, create, design, or prepare an independent expenditure or advertising campaign, with:

- a. An officer, director, employee or agent of a national, state or county executive committee of a political party, or affiliated party committee, that has made or intends to make expenditures in connection with or contributions to the candidate; or
  - b. A person whose professional services have been retained by a national, state or county executive committee of a political party that has made or intends to make expenditures in connection with or contributions to the candidate;
6. After the last day of the qualifying period prescribed for the candidate, retains the professional services of any person also providing those services to the candidate in connection with the candidate's pursuit of election to office; or
  7. Arranges, coordinates, or directs the expenditure, in any way, with the candidate or an agent of the candidate.

(Section 106.011\(12\), Fla. Stat.)

Note: In the circumstances described in the prior paragraph, the resulting expenditure would be considered an in-kind contribution to the candidate at issue, subject to the limitations of Section 106.08, Florida Statutes.

See Chapter 13: Political Advertising for information about applicable political disclaimers paid by independent expenditures and exceptions.

Credit Cards

Political committees organized to support or oppose any candidate for statewide office (Governor, Cabinet, and Supreme Court Justice) or issue may obtain a credit card under the following conditions:

- The credit card is used in making travel-related campaign expenditures to include transportation, lodging, meals and other travel expenses incurred.
- The credit card is obtained from the same bank designated as the primary campaign depository.
- The credit card is in the name of the political committee and the name reflects that it is a campaign account.
- A copy of the agreement or contract between the political committee and bank, along with a list of all persons authorized to use the credit card, must be filed with the Division of Elections prior to being used.
- The credit card must expire no later than midnight of the last day of the month of the general election.

- Each statement received from the issuer of the credit card must be paid upon receipt.

Note: Political committees other than those stated above may not use credit cards.

(Section 106.125, Fla. Stat.)

Debit Cards

Debit cards may be used in lieu of campaign checks and are considered bank checks if the following conditions are met:

- The debit card is obtained from the same bank as the primary campaign depository.
- The debit card is issued in the name of the treasurer, deputy treasurer or authorized user.
- The debit card contains the name of the campaign account of the political committee.
- No more than three debit cards are issued.
- The person using the debit card does not receive cash as any part of, or independent of, any transaction for goods or services.

All debit card receipts must contain:

- Last four digits of the debit card number.
- Exact amount of expenditure.
- Name of payee.
- Signature of campaign treasurer, deputy treasurer or authorized user.
- Exact purpose of expenditure.

Any of the above listed information, if not included on the receipt, may be handwritten on, or attached to, the receipt by the authorized user before submitting to the campaign treasurer. The debit card user shall be responsible for the completeness and accuracy of the information and for ensuring that such expenditure is authorized.

(Section 106.11\(2\), Fla. Stat.: Division of Elections Advisory Opinion 00-03)

Deadlines for Making Contributions to Candidates (See Appendix D)

Any contribution received by a candidate with opposition in an election, or the campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer, on the day of that election or less than five days prior to the day of that election must be returned to the contributor. It may not be used or expended by or on behalf of the candidate.

The primary and general elections are considered separate elections for contribution purposes.

(Section 106.08\(3\)\(a\), Fla. Stat.)

Chapter 9: Recordkeeping

Bookkeeping

The Division offers the following best practices to help campaign treasurers in setting up a system to record and maintain campaign information.

- Keep a schedule of due dates for campaign treasurer's reports. For a calendar of election and reporting dates, see Calendar of Reporting Dates on the Division's website.
- Know what period of time each report covers and only report activity occurring during that reporting period.
- If filing with the Division, keep a copy of the electronic receipt for each report filed for your own records. If filing with the local officers who do not have electronic filing, keep the certificate of mailing for each report.
- Record all contributions when received. Make sure to include the name, address, specific occupation, or principal type of business if over $100, of the contributor, and the amount and date of each contribution. Keep contributions itemized by monetary, in-kind, and loans.
- Record all expenditures when they occur. List the name and address of each person to whom the expenditure was made along with the amount, date, and clear purpose.
- Keep a petty cash ledger of all expenditures. The individual petty cash expenditures do not have to be listed on campaign treasurer's reports. However, you must list the total amount of petty cash withdrawn and total amount spent during the reporting period.
- Monitor the cash flow to know how much money is available at all times in the account to avoid any possibility of authorizing an expenditure when money is not available to pay for such expenditure.
- Maintain a list of all funds currently in the separate interest-bearing account, certificate of deposit, or money market account.
- Make sure authorization for advertising has been obtained from the candidate.

Preservation of Account Records

Accounts kept by the campaign treasurer of a political committee shall be preserved by such treasurer for at least two years after the date of the election to which the accounts refer.

(Section 106.06, Fla. Stat.)

Contributions

- The campaign treasurer of each political committee shall keep detailed accounts of all contributions received, current within not more than two days after the date of receiving the contribution.

(Section 106.06, Fla. Stat.)

- All funds received by the campaign treasurer of any political committee shall be deposited in the campaign depository prior to the end of the fifth business day following receipt (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded).

(Section 106.05, Fla. Stat.)

- All deposits shall be accompanied by a bank deposit slip containing the name of each contributor and the amount contributed by each.

(Section 106.05, Fla. Stat.)

- The campaign treasurer shall keep detailed accounts of all deposits made in any separate interest-bearing account or certificate of deposit and of all interest earned.

(Section 106.06, Fla. Stat.)

- Contributions deposited in a secondary campaign depository shall be forwarded to the primary campaign depository prior to the end of the first business day following the deposit. A copy of the deposit slip shall accompany the deposit.

(Section 106.05, Fla. Stat.)

Expenditures

- The campaign treasurer of each political committee shall keep detailed accounts of all expenditures made, current within not more than two days after the making of the expenditure.

(Section 106.06, Fla. Stat.)

- Receipts for each credit card purchase shall be retained by the treasurer with the records for the campaign account. The treasurer shall require an accounting of actual expenses and reconcile any overpayment or underpayment to the original payee.

(Sections 106.07 and 106.125, Fla. Stat.)

- Receipts for debit card transactions must contain:

1. the last four digits of the debit card number;
2. the exact amount of the expenditure;
3. the name of the payee;

4. the signature of the campaign treasurer, deputy treasurer, or authorized user; and
5. the exact purpose for which the expenditure is authorized.

Any information required but not included on the debit card transaction receipt may be handwritten on, or attached to, the receipt by the authorized user before submission to the treasurer.

(Section 106.11\(2\), Fla. Stat.)

- The campaign treasurer shall keep detailed accounts of all withdrawals made from any separate interest-bearing account or certificate of deposit to the primary depository and of all interest earned.

(Section 106.06, Fla. Stat.)

Receipts for reimbursement for authorized expenditures shall be retained by the treasurer along with the records for the campaign.

Inspections

- Accounts kept by the campaign treasurer of a political committee, including separate interest-bearing accounts and certificates of deposit, may be inspected under reasonable circumstances before, during, or after the election to which the accounts refer by any authorized representative of the Division or the Florida Elections Commission. The right of inspection may be enforced by appropriate writ issued by any court of competent jurisdiction.

(Section 106.06\(2\), Fla. Stat.)

- Records maintained by the campaign depository shall be subject to inspection by an agent of the Division or the Florida Elections Commission at any time during normal banking hours, and such depository shall furnish certified copies of any such records to the Division or Florida Elections Commission upon request.

(Section 106.07\(6\), Fla. Stat.)

- It is the duty of the Division to make, from time to time, audits and field investigations with respect to reports and statements filed under the provisions of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, and with respect to alleged failures to file any report or statement required under the provisions of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

(Section 106.22\(6\), Fla. Stat.)

- It is the duty of the Division to conduct random audits with respect to reports and statements filed under Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, and with respect to alleged failure to file any reports and statements required under Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

(Section 106.22\(10\), Fla. Stat.)

Chapter 10: Filing Campaign Reports

Each campaign treasurer designated by a political committee shall file regular reports of all contributions received and all expenditures made by or on behalf of such political committee.

The chairperson and campaign treasurer shall certify as to the correctness of each report. Each person so certifying shall bear the responsibility for the accuracy and veracity of each report. Any campaign treasurer or chairperson who willfully certifies the correctness of any report while knowing that such report is incorrect, false or incomplete commits a misdemeanor of the first degree.

(Sections 106.011 and 106.07, Fla. Stat.)

Where to File

A campaign treasurer is required to file campaign treasurer's reports with the filing officer with whom the political committee registers.

Committees filing reports with the Division are required to file using the Electronic Filing System (see Chapter 11: Electronic Filing of Campaign Reports). If the committee's filing officer is other than the Division, contact the appropriate filing officer to find out the requirements.

When to File

Reports must be filed on the 10th day following the end of each calendar month from the time the committee registers, except that, if the 10th day occurs on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the report shall be filed on the next business day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

A political committee required to file reports with the Division must file:

1. On the 60th day immediately preceding the primary election, and each week thereafter, with the last weekly report being filed on the 4th day immediately preceding the general election.
2. On the 10th day immediately preceding the general election, and each day thereafter, with the last daily report being filed the 5th day immediately preceding the general election.

For political committees that file with the Division, see the Division's website for a calendar of Campaign Finance Reporting Dates.

Any political committee required to file reports with a filing officer other than the Division must file reports on the 60th day immediately preceding the primary election and bi-weekly on each Friday thereafter through and including the 4th day immediately preceding the general election, with additional reports due on the 25th and 11th days before the primary election and the general election.

Unless the electronic filing requirements of Section 106.0705, Florida Statutes, apply, reports shall be filed no later than 5 p.m. of the day designated. A report postmarked by the U.S. Postal Service no later than midnight of the day designated is deemed timely filed. A report received by the filing officer within five days after the designated due date that was delivered by the U.S. Postal Service is deemed timely filed unless it has a postmark indicating the report was mailed after the designated due date. A certificate of mailing obtained from and dated by the U.S. Postal Service at the time of mailing or a receipt from an established courier company, which bears a date on or before the date on which the report is due, is proof of mailing in a timely manner.

Reports filed with the Division through the Electronic Filing System \(EFS\) are due no later than midnight, Eastern Time, of the due date.

*(Sections 106.07, 106.0705, and 106.141, Fla. Stat.;
Chapter 11: Electronic Filing of Campaign Reports)*

Penalty for Late Filing

Any political committee failing to file a report on the designated due date shall be subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first three days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for the reports due immediately prior to the primary and general elections, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

Notice of No Activity

When there has been no reportable activity in the campaign account during a reporting period (no funds expended or received) the filing of the report is waived. However, the political committee must still notify the filing officer in writing on or before the prescribed reporting date that no report is being filed on that date. (A notice of no activity filed with the Division must be filed electronically using the EFS.) The next report filed must specify that the report covers the entire period between the last submitted report and the report being filed. Note: Any activity added to the waived report after the due date is subject to a late filing fine.

Special Election Reports

When a special election is called to fill a vacancy in office, all political committees making contributions or expenditures to influence the results of the special election shall file campaign treasurer's reports with the filing officer on the dates set by the Department of State pursuant to Section 100.111, Florida Statutes.

When an election is called for an issue to appear on the ballot at a time when no candidates are scheduled to appear on the ballot, all political committees making contributions or expenditures in support of or in opposition to such issue shall file reports on the 18th and 4th days prior to such election.

Committees are to include on the special election campaign treasurer's reports only expenditures related to the special election made by the committee during the special election reporting periods. All contributions received and all expenditures made not related to the special election during the current month should be filed on the next monthly report. Once a committee has participated in the special election and has filed a special election campaign report, all other special election reports remaining must also be filed by the committee, even if there is no further special election activity.

(Section 106.07\(1\)\(d\), Fla. Stat.)

Incomplete Reports

Note: Although the Division's Electronic Filing System will allow a committee to file an incomplete report, an incomplete report does not comply with the law.

If a campaign treasurer files a report that is deemed incomplete, they will be notified by the filing officer by certified mail, or by another method using a common carrier that provides a proof of delivery as to why the report is incomplete. The campaign treasurer must file an addendum to the incomplete report within seven days of notification. The addendum must include all necessary information to complete the report. Failure to file a complete report after notice constitutes a violation of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

(Section 106.07\(2\)\(b\), Fla. Stat.)

Reporting Total Sums

Each campaign treasurer's report required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, shall contain the total sums of all loans, in-kind contributions, and other receipts, and total sums of all expenditures made during the reporting period. The reporting forms shall be designed to elicit separate totals for in-kind contributions, loans, and other receipts.

Form DS-DE 12, Campaign Treasurer's Report Summary, is used to report totals for all contributions, in-kind contributions, loans, and other receipts.

(Section 106.07\(4\)\(a\)\(5\), Fla. Stat.)

Reporting Contributions

Each report must contain:

1. Full name, address, specific occupation, amount, and date for each person making a contribution. Reports must provide as clear a description as practicable of the principal type of business conducted for corporations contributing. The occupation or principal type of business is not required if the contribution is $100 or less.
2. Name, address, amount, and date for each political committee or organization making any transfer of funds.
3. Full name, address, specific occupation, principal place of business of the lender and endorser, amount, and date for each loan.
4. Statement of each contribution, rebate, refund, or other receipts not listed in items 1 through 3 above.

Multiple uniform contributions from the same person, aggregating no more than $250 per calendar year, collected by an organization that is the affiliated sponsor of a political committee, may be reported by the political committee in an aggregate amount listing the number of contributors together with the amount contributed by each and the total amount contributed during the reporting period. The identity of each person making such uniform contribution must be reported to the filing officer as provided in Section 106.07\(4\)\(a\)1., Florida Statutes, by July 1 of each calendar year; or, in a general election year, no later than the 60th day immediately preceding the primary election.

(Section 106.07\(4\)\(a\)\(1\)-\(4\), Fla. Stat.)

Contributions to a political committee may be received by an affiliated organization and transferred to the bank account of the political committee via check written from the affiliated organization if such contributions are specifically identified as intended to be contributed to the political committee. All contributions received in this manner shall be reported pursuant to Section 106.07, Florida Statutes, by the political committee as having been made by the original contributor.

Returning Contributions

If the contribution to be returned has not been deposited into the campaign account, report the contribution on Form DS-DE 2, Contributions Returned. This form can be downloaded from the Division's website at dos.myflorida.com/elections/forms-publications/forms.

If the contribution has been deposited into the campaign account:

1. Report the contribution on the itemized contribution report form;
2. Write a check from the campaign account to the contributor for the amount of the contribution and report this as a negative amount on the itemized contribution report using the contribution type “Refund.” The committee may also wish to explain the error in a signed, written statement to the filing officer and request that the filing officer place the explanation in the committee’s file.

Any contribution received by the chairperson, campaign treasurer, or deputy campaign treasurer of a political committee supporting or opposing a candidate with opposition in an election or supporting or opposing an issue on the ballot in an election on the day of that election or less than five days prior to the day of that election may not be obligated or expended by the committee until after the date of the election.

(Section 106.08, Fla. Stat.)

Reporting Expenditures

Each report must contain:

1. Full name and address of each person to whom expenditures have been made, along with the amount, date, and clear purpose of the expenditure. Name, address, and office sought by each candidate on whose behalf such expenditure was made.
2. Full name and address of each person to whom an expenditure for personal services, salary, or reimbursed expenses was made, along with the amount, date, and clear purpose of the expenditure. (See also Reporting Other Distributions.)
3. Total amount withdrawn and the total amount spent for petty cash purposes. Each expenditure from the petty cash fund need not be individually reported but complete records of petty cash expenditures must be kept.
4. Amount and nature of debts and obligations owed by or to the committee, which relate to the conduct of any political campaign.
5. The amount and nature of any separate interest-bearing accounts or certificates of deposit. Identification of the financial institution in which such accounts or certificates of deposit are located must be identified.
6. The primary purposes of an expenditure made indirectly through a campaign treasurer for goods and services such as communications media placement or procurement services, campaign signs, insurance, and other expenditures that include multiple components as part of the expenditure. The primary purpose of an expenditure shall be that purpose, including integral and directly related components, that comprises 80 percent of such expenditure. (See also Reporting Other Distributions.)

Reporting Other Distributions

Every distribution should be reported during the coverage period when the distribution actually occurred, as is the case with the expenditures and contributions. The related distribution(s) and expenditure can and often do occur in different reporting periods.

Types of distributions:

- Prepaid
- Credit card purchases/payments
- Reimbursements
- In-kind

Reports must contain:

1. Full name and address of each person to whom payment for reimbursement was made by check drawn upon the campaign account, together with the purpose of such payment.
2. Expenditures made indirectly through a treasurer for goods or services, such as communications media placement or procurement services, campaign signs, insurance, or other expenditures that include multiple integral components as part of the expenditure.
3. Distribution of goods and services to a candidate, committee, or party.

(Section 106.07, Fla. Stat.)

Chapter 11: Electronic Filing of Campaign Reports

The Electronic Filing System \(EFS\) is an Internet system for recording and reporting campaign finance activity by reporting period. Each political committee required to file reports with the Division pursuant to Section 106.07, Florida Statutes, must file such reports with the Division by means of the EFS.

Reports filed:

- Must be completed and filed through the EFS not later than midnight of the due date. Reports not filed by midnight of the day designated are late filed and are subject to the penalties under Section 106.07\(8\), Florida Statutes, as applicable.
- Are considered to be under oath by the chairperson and treasurer, and such persons are subject to provisions of Section 106.07\(5\), Florida Statutes. Persons given a secure sign-on to the EFS are responsible for protecting such from disclosure and are responsible for all filings using such credentials, unless they have notified the Division that their credentials have been compromised.

Accessing the EFS

The EFS can be accessed at efs.dos.state.fl.us. The Division provides each person filing a report an identification number and initial password to gain entry. After logging in using the initial password, the system will prompt the user to change it to a confidential one.

A person given a secure sign-on to the EFS is responsible for protecting the password from disclosure. Contact the Division immediately if your password has been compromised.

Creating Reports

Campaign reports must be entered, saved, reviewed, and filed via the EFS either by directly entering data into the web application or by uploading data using an approved vendor's software. The Division maintains a list of approved software vendors whose programs meet the file specifications for filing campaign reports.

For instructions on uploading reports, see the Political Committees EFS User Guide - PDF \(DS-DE 110B\) located on the Division's website.

Chapter 12: Electioneering Communications

Definition

Electioneering communication means a text message or a communication publicly distributed by a television station, radio station, cable television system, satellite system, newspaper, magazine, direct mail, or telephone that:

1. Refers to or depicts a clearly identified candidate for office without expressly advocating the election or defeat of a candidate but that is susceptible of no reasonable interpretation other than an appeal to vote for or against a specific candidate;
2. Is made within 30 days before a primary or special primary election or 60 days before any other election for the office sought by the candidate; and
3. Is targeted to the relevant electorate in the geographical area the candidate would represent if elected.

The exceptions are:

1. A communication disseminated through a means of communication other than a television station, radio station, cable television system, satellite system, newspaper, magazine, direct mail, telephone, or statement or depiction by an organization, in existence before the time during which a candidate named or depicted qualifies for that election, made in that organization's newsletter distributed only to members of that organization;
2. A communication in a news story, commentary, or editorial distributed through the facilities of a radio station, television station, cable television system, or satellite system unless the facilities are owned or controlled by a political party, political committee, or candidate. A news story distributed through the facilities owned or controlled by any political party, political committee, or candidate may nevertheless be exempt if it represents a bona fide news account communicated through a licensed broadcasting facility and the communication is part of a general pattern of campaign-related news accounts that give reasonably equal coverage to all opposing candidates in the area;

3. A communication that constitutes a public debate or forum that includes at least two opposing candidates for an office or one advocate and one opponent of an issue, or that solely promotes such a debate or forum and is made by or on behalf of the person sponsoring the debate or forum, provided that the staging organization:
  - a. Is either a charitable organization that does not make other electioneering communications and does not otherwise support or oppose any political candidate or political party; or a newspaper, radio station, television station, or other recognized news medium; and
  - b. Does not structure the debate to promote or advance one candidate or issue position over another.

An expenditure made for, or in furtherance of, an electioneering communication is not considered a contribution to or on behalf of any candidate and shall not constitute an independent expenditure, nor be subject to the limitations applicable to independent expenditures. For this reason, an electioneering communication may be coordinated with a candidate, and the expenses related to such electioneering communication will not be considered an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

Electioneering Communication Disclaimers

Any electioneering communication, other than a text message or a telephone call, shall prominently state: “Paid electioneering communication paid for by (Name and address of person paying for the communication).”

(Section 106.1439, Fla. Stat.)

Electioneering Communication Text Message or Telephone Call Disclaimer

(See Chapter 14: Text Message or Telephone Solicitation for more information about applicable disclaimers and exceptions regarding text messages and telephone solicitations.)

Penalty for Electioneering Communication Disclaimer Violation

Any person who fails to include the disclaimer in any electioneering communication that is required to contain such disclaimer commits a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in Section 775.082 or 775.083, Florida Statutes.

(Sections 106.1439, 106.147, Fla. Stat.)

Chapter 13: Political Advertising

A political advertisement is a paid expression in any communications media prescribed in Section 106.011\(4\), Florida Statutes, whether radio, television, newspaper, magazine, periodical, campaign literature, direct mail, or display or by means other than the spoken word in direct conversation, which expressly advocates the election or defeat of a candidate or the approval or rejection of an issue.

Disclaimers

Any political advertisement, other than an advertisement that is paid for by a candidate, that is published, displayed, or circulated before, or on the day of, any election must prominently:

1. Be marked “paid political advertisement” or “pd. pol. adv.”
2. State the name and address of the persons paying for the advertisement.
3. State whether the advertisement and cost of production is paid for or provided in-kind by or at the expense of the entity publishing, displaying, broadcasting, or circulating the political advertisement.

(Section 106.143\(1\)\(c\), Fla. Stat.)

Any political advertisement not paid for by a candidate, including those paid for by a political party or affiliated party committee, other than an independent expenditure, offered by or on behalf of a candidate must be approved in advance by the candidate. Such political advertisement must expressly state that the content of the advertisement was approved by the candidate and must state who paid for the advertisement. The candidate shall provide a written statement of authorization to the newspaper, radio station, television station or other medium for each such advertisement submitted for publication, display, broadcast or other distribution. This paragraph does not apply to messages used by a candidate and their supporters if those messages are designed to be worn by a person.

(Section 106.143\(5\)\(a\), Fla. Stat.)

Note: The Division does not approve the contents of an advertisement.

Exceptions to Disclaimer Requirements

The disclaimer requirements in Section 106.143, Florida Statutes, do not apply to any campaign message or political advertisement used by a political committee if the message or advertisement is:

- Designed to be worn by a person.
- Placed as a paid link on an Internet website provided the message or advertisement is no more than 200 characters in length and the link directs the user to another Internet website that complies with the disclaimer requirements in Section 106.143\(1\), Florida Statutes.
- Placed as a graphic or picture link where compliance with the requirements of Section 106.143, Florida Statutes, is not reasonably practical due to the size of the graphic or picture link and the link directs the user to another Internet website that complies with Section 106.143\(1\), Florida Statutes.
- Placed at no cost on an Internet website for which there is no cost to post content for public users.
- Placed or distributed on an unpaid profile or account which is available to the public without charge or on a social networking Internet website, as long as the source of the message or advertisement is patently clear from the content or format of the message or advertisement. A candidate or political committee may prominently display a statement indicating that the website or account is an official website or account of the candidate or political committee and is approved by the candidate or political committee. A website or account may not be marked as official without prior approval by the candidate or political committee.
- Connected with or included in any software application or accompanying function, provided that the user signs up, opts in, downloads, or otherwise accesses the application from or through a website that complies with Section 106.143\(1\), Florida Statutes.
- Sent by a third-party user from or through a campaign or committee's website, provided the website complies with Section 106.143\(1\), Florida Statutes.

- Contained in or distributed through any other technology-related item, service, or device for which compliance with Section 106.143\(1\), Florida Statutes, is not reasonably practical due to the size or nature of such item, service, or device as available, or the means of displaying the message or advertisement makes compliance with Section 106.143\(1\), Florida Statutes, impracticable.
- In regard to novelty items having a retail value of $10 or less which support, but do not oppose, a candidate or issue.

Independent Expenditures

Any person who makes an independent expenditure for a political advertisement shall provide a written statement that no candidate has approved the advertisement to the newspaper, radio station, television station or other medium for each such advertisement submitted for publication, display, broadcast or other distribution. The advertisement must also contain a statement that no candidate has approved the advertisement.

(Section 106.143\(5\) and \(10\), Fla. Stat.)

Political advertisements paid for by an independent expenditure must prominently state: “Paid political advertisement paid for by (Name and address of person or committee paying for the advertisement) independently of any (candidate or committee).”

(Section 106.071\(2\), Fla. Stat.)

Language Other Than English

Any political advertisement which is published, displayed, or produced in a language other than English may provide the information required by Section 106.143, Florida Statutes, in the language used in the advertisement.

Miscellaneous Provisions

It is unlawful for any candidate or person on behalf of a candidate to represent that any person or organization supports such candidate, unless the person or organization so represented has given specific approval in writing to the candidate to make such representation. However, this paragraph does not apply to editorial endorsement by any newspaper, radio or television station, or other recognized news medium, and publication by a party committee advocating the candidacy of its nominees.

Use of Closed Captioning and Descriptive Narrative in All Television Broadcasts

Each candidate, political party, and political committee must use closed captioning and descriptive narrative in all television broadcasts regulated by the Federal Communications Commission that are on behalf of, or sponsored by, a candidate, political party, affiliated party committee, or political committee or must file a written statement with the qualifying officer setting forth the reasons for not doing so. Failure to file this statement with the appropriate qualifying officer constitutes a violation of the Florida Election Code and is under the jurisdiction of the Florida Elections Commission.

Once the report is submitted to the Division, the EFS will not permit you to go back and make changes. In order to correct mistakes or add and delete information, you must submit an "amendment." If you add activity to a waiver after the report due date, a fine will be imposed based upon the new filing date in accordance with Section 106.07\(8\)\(b\), Florida Statutes.

11. If I am late submitting my report, how is my fine calculated?

The fine is $50 per day for the first three days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater for the period covered by the late report.

However, for reports immediately preceding the primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, which is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

(Section 106.07\(8\)\(b\), Fla. Stat.)

12. Will a fine be imposed for the late filing of a notice of no activity?

No, because you had no receipts or expenditures during the reporting period. However, to avoid potential issues in the future, please note that state law (s. 106.07\(7\), Fla. Stat.) requires the political committee to file by the dates set out by law, either a campaign finance report or if applicable, a notification that no reportable activity occurred for the reporting period. Failure to do so may constitute a violation of Sections 106.07\(1\) and 106.19\(1\)\(c\), Florida Statutes. The Division is required to notify the Florida Elections Commission of any apparent violation of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, or any failure to file a report or information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. If a matter is referred to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may assess a civil penalty of up to $1,000 per violation.

13. How long are campaign records kept at the Division of Elections or the supervisor of elections?

Ten years from the date of receipt.

(Sections 98.015\(5\) and 106.22\(4\), Fla. Stat.)

14. Is there a fee to register as a political committee?

No, there is no fee to register as a political committee.

15. Do you have to be incorporated to start a committee?

The Florida Election Code does not require a person as defined in Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, to incorporate in order to register as a political committee. However, requirements for conducting business in the state may be applicable but are outside the jurisdiction of the Division of Elections. Please contact the Division of Corporations at 850.245.6000 or visit dos.myflorida.com/sunbiz for any questions.

16. Do I need an Employer Identification Number (EIN) to become a political committee?

The Division of Elections does not require you to obtain an EIN. However, some banks require that you obtain an EIN from the Internal Revenue Service. Contact the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 for additional information.

17. May a Florida political committee make contributions to an out-of-state political entity, a federal political action committee (PAC), a candidate for federal office, or a person seeking selection as the chair of a political party?

A Florida political committee may make contributions to an out-of-state political entity that engages solely in non-coordinated expenditures.

Though Florida Election Code does not directly address the above question, the Division has historically interpreted the law to prohibit the funds of a Florida political committee from being used to influence elections outside of Florida, including making contributions to out-of-state political entities. However, this interpretation is no longer tenable regarding contributions to groups whose expenditures are not coordinated with candidates. The U.S. Supreme Court held in Citizen’s United v. FEC that independent expenditures do not give rise to corruption (or the appearance of corruption) and, thus, that restrictions on engaging in such expenditures violate the First Amendment. Subsequently, a federal appeals court held that contribution limits are unconstitutional when applied to contributions made to PACs that engage solely in independent expenditures. These and related precedents establish that restrictions on persons or groups that either participate in or finance political speech conducted independently of candidates cannot stand. In light of this, the Division is updating its guidance to clarify that Florida political committees may make contributions to out-of-state political entities (such as federal Super PACs, federal hybrid PACs, or equivalent PACs organized under laws of other states) whose expenditures are not coordinated with candidates.

A Florida political committee that makes contributions to an out of state political entity should consult the relevant jurisdiction’s law to determine whether such contribution triggers registration or reporting obligations.

The Division’s previous guidance prohibiting Florida political committees from making contributions to federal candidates, candidates in other states, or persons seeking selection as the chair of a political party remain intact.

18. What are the consequences of an out-of-state political entity or a federal political action committee (PAC) contributing to a Florida political committee?

Depending upon the circumstances of how the out-of-state entity, federal PAC, or another state's PAC collects its donations and makes expenditures in Florida, one of two different scenarios could result.

First, if the out-of-state political entity or federal PAC is not itself receiving “contributions, they, like any other contributor, can give unlimited contributions to one or more Florida political committees unless the committee is sponsoring or opposing a constitutional amendment proposed by initiative. (A $3,000 limit exists until the initiative achieves ballot position.) “Contributions” are defined as only those made for the purpose of influencing the results of a Florida election. An out-of-state political entity or federal PAC that has only received donations that were not made for the purpose of influencing the results of Florida elections has not received contributions under Florida law; therefore, it can make contributions to a Florida political committee without having to register as a Florida political committee.

On the other hand, if an out-of-state political entity or federal PAC receives “contributions” as defined above (donations made for the purpose of influencing the results of a Florida election), the out-of-state political entity or federal PAC must register as a Florida political committee. A Florida political committee must maintain a separate bank account solely for Florida political activities (i.e., depositing contributions and making expenditures, which again, by definition, are for the purpose of influencing only Florida elections). All contributions to a Florida political committee must be deposited into that separate bank account.

If the activities of an out-of-state political entity or federal PAC cause it to become a Florida political committee under the Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, definition of “political committee,” the Florida political committee’s funds may not be commingled with funds from the out-of-state political entity or federal PAC. This means that funds in the Florida political committee’s bank account may not be used for the purpose of influencing elections outside of Florida, such as giving funds to candidates in other states or donating funds to an out-of-state political entity or federal PAC.
