

THE MUSIC TRADE

REVIEW

VOL. XXXIX, No. 26. Published Every Saturday by Edward Lyman Bill at 1 Madison Ave., New York, Dec. 24, 1904. SINGLE COPIES, 15 CENTS. $3.00 PER YEAR.

ABOUT PIANO VALUES

A LASTING piano reputation can only be created by selling instruments of admitted reliability. Customers are better educated to-day than ever before as to piano values, and thousands of delighted purchasers of A. B. Chase pianos in every section of the country form living testimonials as to the worth and excellence of these pianos which have steadily advanced year by year to the foremost position in pianodom.

Millions of readers of magazines have been informed as to some of the special merits of the A. B. Chase instruments. In this way the manufacturers of the A. B. Chase piano have strongly aided the dealers in every section of the union, and in many a home throughout this great land the A. B. Chase piano will be the center of Christmas joy.

Perhaps there can be no more refined present and one which will give greater cheer to the holidays and through life than an A. B. Chase piano.

The A. B. CHASE CO.
NORWALK, O.