STEINWAY

New Steinway Hall, New York

PIANISTS and composers of international fame have found in the Steinway piano the inspiration for their work and the perfect medium for the expression of their art. Nowhere, however, has the Steinway piano found a more fitting environment than in the home. To its owner comes the pride of ownership which in itself provides inspiration for musical accomplishment.

Steinway reputation has been preserved and enhanced by the earnest efforts of four generations of the Steinway family. Steinway quality as a heritage has been zealously guarded.
