Popular journeys

Horseriders can start a 22km return steep-gully ride at Black Soil Road, between Camp Mountain (3) and Jollys Lookout (4). Turn right onto South Boundary Road and travel through dappled eucalypt woodland along Creek and Augies roads to Mount Nebo Road, at Bullockys Knob.

Cyclists can enjoy a long, flowing ride along South Boundary Road starting at Walkabout Creek Discovery Centre in The Gap. Climb up to the cool rainforest township of Mount Nebo to enjoy a refreshing drink at one of the local cafes (44km return).

Dogs and other domestic animals (other than horses that are permitted on the SEQ horse trails) are not permitted anywhere in D'Aguilar National Park or on Seqwater estate.

This map is indicative and should not replace the topographic map for navigation. A topographic map of the South D'Aguilar section is available to purchase at Walkabout Creek Discovery Centre.

Many trails lead to private property. It is the responsibility of riders and walkers to determine appropriate access requirements.
