The Snowman

by Raymond Briggs

A boy built a snowman!

It was a great one.

It was a great one.

He could not sleep
that night so he went outside to see the snowman again.

The snowman again.

The snowman man deal him!
The boy and the snowman
quietly came inside the house.
The Snowman was amazed
by everything he saw.

After that they took journey on a flight.

The next morning the boy woke up to sunlight pouring into his room.

He rushed outside to see his snowman
only to discover that he had melted.

We're wokking in the Air

We're wokking in the orin,
we're woking in the mornit sky.

We're footing in the orin,
we're depting in the single one we fly.

I'm riding in the midnight blue.
I'm riding in the wind, or cares the world.

The hot some and the halls,
The forests and the steems.

Children goze open mouthed.

The forest so pob like trees the rivers and the hills,
The wingse go by like trees the rivers and the hills,
The wingse go by like trees the rivers and the hills,
The world and greeted him!
The forests are with you.

On cross the world.

The wingse go by like trees the rivers and the hills,
The wingse go by like trees the rivers and the hills,
The world and greeted him!
The forests are with you.

On cross the world.

The wingse go by like trees the rivers and the hills,
The world and greeted him!
The forests are middle to see this.

The snowman again.

The though a very tiph.

The people for below are stepping as we fly.

I'm riding in the midnight blue.

I'm riding in the wild,

I'm riding in the midnight blue.

I'm riding in the midnight blue.

I'm riding in the wild,

I'm riding in the wild,

I'm riding in the wild can the world.

The snowman and the world.

The snowman and the world.

The snowman and the world.

The snowman are ridi
