Each NBA team nominated one of its players for the NBA Sportsmanship Award. From the list of 30 team nominees, a panel of league executives selected one finalist from each of the NBA's six divisions. Current NBA players selected the winner from the list of six finalists, with nearly 400 players submitting their votes through confidential balloting conducted by the league office.

The balloting was tabulated by the independent accounting firm Ernst & Young LLP. Voting Results for all end of season awards are posted at PR.NBA.com.

THE JOE DUMARS TROPHY
Awarded to the NBA Sportsmanship Winner

The NBA Sportsmanship Award trophy is named in honor of Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer Joe Dumars, a six-time NBA All-Star and two-time NBA champion. Dumars played 14 NBA seasons and won the inaugural Sportsmanship Award in the 1995-96 season.
