Session 1: Developing Your Vision and Values

Participants will engage in small group discussions around their personal journey to this point in their career with an emphasis on the journey more than the resume. By reflecting on where you have been and the influences you received, participants will begin to mold their optimal leadership approach.

Session 2 - Your Prism Assessment

In order to paint a complete picture of who we are and where our opportunities lie, we will be incorporating a quantitative assessment and personalized review. The Prism assessment provided by SureAthlete and subsequent discussion will provide personalized insight, opportunities for implementation, and positively impact our personal development as well as how we manage and lead others.

Session 3 - Character Strengths & Developing Your Impact

Participants will discuss how they've begun to refine their values, vision, and impact to this point. Reflecting on tough conversations and feedback you have provided others and how it has been delivered to you. Being a leader requires having honest, sometimes difficult conversations in a direct and empathetic manner.

Session 4 - Genuine Leadership & Developing Others

Now that participants have a sense of personal management and leadership, they begin to think about how they intend to live out these values and visions on a daily basis. How will you put checkpoints in place for daily consistency? Being able to conduct daily reflections.

Session 5 - Enhancing Team Dynamics and Setting a Daily Mentality

As with the premium athletes we see as part of our organizations, consistency is key. This session will focus on tools, traits, and training utilized by the best athletes in the world to strengthen their mental game. By understanding how to optimize our mindset and mentality, we are able to perform at our highest levels

Capstone Activity:

As we work through the course we will be developing clarity and refining our skills. The capstone will bring all of these elements together, articulating your values, vision, and how you intend to set a course to bring them about each day.

COURSE FACILITATORS

Ben Baroody

Ben Baroody has spent the past 13 years in senior leadership positions at Major League Baseball's Office of the Commissioner and with the Texas Rangers. Ben is in his ninth season with the Rangers, his third as the Director of Leadership Development.

In his current role he oversees the organization's programs for players and staff on career development, leadership and personal development, mental health and mental performance, education initiatives, as well as culture and organizational development for the Baseball Operations Department. Ben spent four seasons (2018-21) handling the club's Major and Minor League contract negotiations and processing, Major League payroll and transactions, department staff development initiatives, budgets and finances, pro and amateur scouting assignments, and the department's transition to Globe Life Field. He originally joined the organization in January 2016 and served three seasons as Manager of Amateur Scouting from 2016-18.

From 2009-15, Baroody spent seven years at the Commissioner's Office at Major League Baseball, where he held a number of different roles, the last of which was Senior Director of Baseball Development.

Throughout his career he has focused on developing programs and people, a guiding passion that shapes much of his role and the focus of this course program.
