Ephesians

The EPISTLE of PAUL the APOSTLE to the

Ephesians

TITLE AND AUTHOR

The title of the book comes from the salutation (1:1). The author is Paul, as evidenced by the letter itself (1:1; 3:1). Themes and language common in Paul's earlier letters appear frequently in Ephesians, and the verbal similarities with Colossians are especially striking. The similarities are most easily explained by assuming that Paul wrote Ephesians shortly after completing Colossians. Paul's devotional and prayerful tone reaches its height as he contemplates the eternal and universal significance of Christ's church. In this way, he continues his reflections on the subject that dominated his correspondence with the Colossians—the eternal and universal significance of Christ.

DATE AND OCCASION

This letter may have had a broader audience than the church at Ephesus alone. Some of the oldest Gk. manuscripts do not include "in Ephesus" in the address of the letter (1:1). Many scholars believe Ephesians was written as a general letter to a number of churches in the region, which would be in keeping with the sweeping contents of the letter as a whole. It is possible that Paul originally sent the letter to Ephesus, but as the letter was sent from church to church the address was omitted. Questions about to whom Paul wrote this letter also lead to questions about when he wrote the letter.

The imprisonment mentioned in 3:1 and 6:20 is the same as that in Colossians 4:3, 10, 18, and is probably Paul's two-year house arrest in Rome (A.D. 60–62), recounted in Acts 28.

Ephesus was the capital of the Roman province of Asia on the west coast of Asia Minor (modern-day Turkey). It lay between the eastern and western halves of the Roman Empire and was among the five most prominent cities in the empire during the first century. During Paul's unusually long stay in Ephesus, it became the center for evangelizing the western part of Asia Minor (Acts 19:10). Paul's affectionate ties with this church are evident in his farewell speech to its elders (Acts 20:16–38).

Ephesus's most prominent civic monument, the temple of the goddess Diana, was one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. The city is described in one inscription as the "nurturer" of the goddess, and the goddess in turn makes Ephesus the "most glorious" of the Asian cities. People from the area would have appreciated the irony of Paul's words about Christ's nourishing His own body, the church (5:29). They would have appreciated the point of contrast when Paul describes Christ's church as a glorious or radiant bride (5:27). It was also in Ephesus that Paul's preaching of Christ came into dramatic conflict with an important trade dependent on pagan worship (Acts 19:23–41) and that the gospel inspired a great turning away from the occult (Acts 19:17–20). Paul's call to expose the deeds of darkness (5:8–14) and prepare for war against “the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places” (6:12; cf. 1:20, 21; 3:10) would have struck the original readers with force.

CHARACTERISTICS AND THEMES

Ephesians generally follows the standard epistolary conventions of the first century. It contains a standard letter opening (1:1, 2), body (1:3–6:20), and conclusion (6:21–24). As he does in his other epistles, Paul adapts the standard conventions to his own purposes.

The most striking feature of this book is how it reflects a deeply and thoroughly Pauline approach to thinking about the Christian life. Chapters 1–3 build up the “indicatives,” the glorious statements of fact that undergird Christianity. Here Paul lays out the riches that are ours in Christ Jesus through His work of redemption. Chapters 4–6 then offer the “imperatives,” the commands regarding how we are to live in light of our calling and the riches that are already ours in Christ.

One of the key words in this letter is “mystery,” which appears seven times (1:9; 3:3, 4, 6, 9; 5:32; 6:19). The first statement is the most important: Paul tells us that God is now revealing the “mystery of his will,” which is the uniting of all things in heaven and on earth in Christ. The great evidence that this cosmic redemption is happening is the church, the body of Christ, His new humanity (1:23; 2:15). In the church, God is uniting Jew and Gentile, reconciling them and tearing down the “wall of hostility” between them through the cross (2:14). This “mystery of Christ” was hidden in past times (i.e., before the coming of Christ), but is now seen clearly: “the Gentiles are fellow heirs, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ through the gospel” (3:6).

That means, then, that the church is central to God’s purpose in the world because it is a sign of the final reconciliation of all things in Christ. The church is God’s precious possession, a colony in which the Lord of history has begun to fashion the renewed humanity after His own image (1:10–14; 2:11–22; 3:6, 9–11; 4:1–6:9). The church is a community where God’s power to reconcile people to Himself is experienced and shared in transformed relationships (2:1–10; 4:1–16; 4:32–5:2; 5:22–6:9). It is a new temple, a building of people, grounded in the sure revelation of what God has done in history (2:19–22; 3:17–19). The church is an organism in which power and authority are exercised after the pattern of Christ (1:22; 5:25–27), and its stewardship is a means of serving Him (4:11–16; 5:22–6:9). The church is an outpost in a dark world (5:3–17), looking for the day of final redemption. Above all, the church is the bride preparing for the approach of her lover and husband (5:22–32).

CHRIST IN EPHESIANS

Ephesians helps us to understand the critical biblical doctrine of union with Christ. The importance of this doctrine is evident from the opening verses of the book. It is “in Christ” that the Father “has blessed us . . . with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places” (1:3) and that in whom He “chose us before the foundation of the world” and “predestined us for adoption” (1:4, 5). It is “in the Beloved” that we have been “blessed” by the Father’s “glorious grace,” and in Christ that we have “redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses” (1:6, 7). In Christ “we have obtained an inheritance” (1:11), and “in him . . . you were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit” (1:13).

Furthermore, it was by being united to Jesus Christ in His death and resurrection that we were saved by the grace of God (2:1–10). In Christ, the whole church is “being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit” (2:22) and is the bride of Christ (5:25–33). We are joined to Christ, as the body is to the head, and thus grow into maturity (4:15, 16).

In this letter, Paul particularly emphasizes Christ as raised from the dead as well as our union with Christ in His resurrection. The very same Spirit who raised Jesus from the dead made us alive together with Christ (2:5), presently indwells us (3:16, 17), and is at work in us presently “according to the working of his great might that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead” (1:19, 20a). Paul’s point is plain—in Christ and by the Spirit of the risen Christ, believers have all the resources they need to walk with God in this age.
