HOMES

welcome home

Passionate and talented craftsmen are who we are. Exceptional service and results are what we provide. Working with our clients and their design teams to build extraordinary homes is what we do. Overcoming challenges by working collaboratively and innovatively is what we love. We complete each home with the quality of workmanship and the attention to detail that our clients have come to expect for more than 35 years.

At Scott Christopher Homes, we not only work for you, but with you.

custom homes

Any size. Any shape. Any style. Any material. With a unique residence designed and built especially for you, every square foot can be exactly what you had in mind—or even better. From our first brainstorming session to the final detail, we give our all to exceed your expectations. Let us turn your vision into a reality, surrounding you with unique and beautiful spaces to call your own.

renovations

From small improvements to complete additions, opportunities to improve your home are all around you. Start dreaming, and let us transform the way you feel about your home. Updating technology, upgrading furnishings, and improving and expanding living spaces, all with exemplary attention to detail, make our renovations stand out. Being equally efficient at completing projects large or small, on your terms and within your budget, make us a great choice for all of your renovation needs.

One decision to build or renovate a home can lead to many other choices and responsibilities—and we can help you with all of them. It's never too early to bring us into your conversations. Tap into the expertise of our on-staff civil engineer to address zoning issues and environmental concerns. Take advantage of our in-house custom cabinet shop to complete your vision. With our knowledge, relationships, experience and resources, you can rely on us to handle everything from choosing a site to permits and scheduling.
