

Data to Nanopublication

Define entities in the dataset and find / make appropriate ontologies to represent them.

Semantically model relations between entities using triples and named graphs, use VOID statements to attach provenance metadata

What is your assertion?
Where does this come from?
What is the evidence?

Individual datum as nanopublications. Building and linking triples and named graphs