

The Barnett Shale: A Frack-tured Land

There have been over 190 earthquakes, 1.5 magnitude and higher, in Northeast Texas since the Fall of 2008. Previously, there was one event that may be able to be classified as an earthquake since 1850.

