SYNOPSIS ↘ An adaption of the Taiwanese comic series, the Brave Series. The comic artist of this series uses black humor to elaborate on social issues, and its storytelling is very aligned with the taste of the younger generation. This program is integrated with multiple resources like TV and music production. In a world full of discrimination and hatred, a stereotype is no longer what it really is. The Braves believe that only when evil is defeated will the world come with peace. Yet the Braves come to realize that they might not be standing on the side of justice.

SYNOPSIS ↘ A Hakka period drama that reproduces the glorious 1950s era of the tea trade in Taiwan. The story depicts the journey of the Sunlight Corp., a tea company owned by tycoon CHEN Fu-ji, from the thriving era of Taiwanese tea to the challenges of a tumultuous transition period. In 1949, ZHANG Yi-xin, the only daughter of the largest tea exporter in Taiwan, is supposed to find a husband to help take over her father's business. However, in order to prove her worth, Yi-xin instead devotes herself to a family business mired in debt. In an era with no room for "career women", can she lead the crumbling company through relentless "tea wars" to rise onto the world stage?

四樓的天堂

SYNOPSIS \ This is an anthology series centered around “tui na” (Chinese medical massage), which integrates Eastern, Western, body, mind, social, and artistic elements. Through a comforting and somewhat fantastical approach, the audience is led into a dialogue between the body and soul. This anthology series is built upon the love and relationship of its characters. Each episode reflects on body meridians and symptoms, and eventually puts together a whole picture of a body. With a pleasant tempo, heartwarming stories and a touch of fantasy, these diverse stories hidden in local communities of Taiwan offer the audience a comforting drama choice filled with local elements and high-quality catharsis.

She decides to work in a small hospital in the countryside, running away from her dark past. There, she experiences all kinds of unbelievable incidents, from a patient crushed by a pig to one bitten by a penguin. Killer whales and crocodiles are also on the list. However, in this small hospital, where medical staffs are as helpless as those in the big urban hospitals, this female surgeon restores her passion for being a medical practitioner. Using her special skills and perseverance, she changes the medical conditions of the village, and regains the strength and passion she once had.

SYNOPSIS ↘ Chia-ling is ready for life after 40! With a stable relationship, a career change, the love and support of her family, and finally getting her own house, what's not to like about 40? Just when she ventures into this new stage of womanhood, she shows signs of early menopause. Her father's health deteriorates and he reconnects with his first love, leaving Chia-ling's mother upset and furious. As Chia-ling juggles between work and her relationship, she must also deal with her peculiar family as her unfaithful father, self-pitying mother, confused brother, and hapless cousin all fight for her attention. Yet, none of these come close to an abrupt surprise: an innocent, unblemished life that will change Chia-ling's life on a catastrophic level.

SYNOPSIS ↘ This series tells the real-life stories of four new residents living in Sanchong, New Taipei City. Through a comedic format, we show how these immigrants started their new, married lives with misunderstandings with their husbands' families, but also how they eventually learned to cherish and love each other. The founding of a growing class for new migrants in Sanchong allows them to make friends with people from their own countries. Once settled down in Taiwan, they encounter all types of problems, but are able to find support and safe harbor in other migrants.

SYNOPSIS ↘ This is a program for children and youths to learn about cooking and science. In each episode, the theme is related to culinary skills, like simmering and grilling. The program opens with a cuisine tryout to distinguish culinary skills, and uses amusing animations to tell a little story for each cuisine. In the final part of each episode, the science chef shows how to cook through science experiments. Children in the show acquire hands-on experience and learn the knowledge and story behind each cuisine. Other than the host and scientists, a master chef robot is also there to answer everyone's questions.

消失的油金歲月

SYNOPSIS ∨ They dedicated their lives to the oil industry. Their life experiences create the best witness to the history of Taiwan's oil development. Because of oil extraction, a mountain city became the happiest place during hard years and grew into a crowded "small Hong Kong" among many people. Through history investigation and animation restoration, A Black Golden Past brings the audience to discover the golden years of the oil industry in Taiwan.

SYNOPSIS ↘ Second only to base jumping, free diving is one of the most dangerous sports in the world. Every dive comes with personal risk and is a mental and physical challenge. Underwater photographers combine their diving expertise with the additional challenge of photography in an unforgiving environment. Light is limited, the water conditions can change on a dime and the subject matter may not always be cooperative. AquaChallenge is the first ever reality show which puts these two groups together, pitting them against one another for the final prize. Filmed in the tropical waters around Taiwan, every episode uses different themes, and competitors will be matched with different partners. With elimination based on judges and online votes, only one photographer and one free diver prove that they are the best.

SYNOPSIS ↘ Your Island My Home is the first music documentary stripe programming filmed internationally during the epidemic. It explores life, culture, island wisdom and self-growth from the music exchanges between the indigenous musicians of Taiwan and New Zealand. The director/producer of this program is Ado' Kaliting PACIDAL, who deeply researches cross-Austronesian culture and has been awarded the Golden Bell Award for the program Songs Blowing Over the Island. This program invited Golden Horse Award winner Suming and the popular diva A-Lin to collaborate with internationally renowned Maori musicians Tory Kingi, Maicey RIKA, and Ria HALL. Through new filming techniques, connecting the cultures of the two islands, and co-creating songs transnationally, this documentary shares the wisdom of life displayed by the indigenous people of the Austronesians in the epidemic.

SYNOPSIS ↘ A ship that has been forgotten by history lies in the tranquil depths of the sea. After sleeping deeply in a freezer since 1944, CHOU Yi-bai miraculously awakens from his 78-year sleep. Having returned to Ninghai, CHOU Yi-bai saves his only grandson—CHOU Mo—through blind chance. One is an old-school wandering martial arts master; and the other, a tech geek. The pair, whose similarities contradict their different eras, are forced to live together. They also find themselves swept into a murky love triangle with the Goddess LIU Fei. But the secrets and plots that reversed the CHOU family's fortunes 78 years earlier have now morphed into an eternal life project attempting to control life and death, which may soon threaten the fate of humanity...

During a temple fair, he accidentally disrupts the parade, causing huge trouble. But his clumsiness allows him to meet Jing, a member of the temple's Ba- Jia-Jiang troupe who finds Wei amusing and decides that he is to be Wei's interviewee. After spending some time with Jing, Wei realizes that he has grown fond of him and his endless, unrestrained energy.

A Taiwanese summer consists of scorching sun and huge amounts of sweat. For the Jia-Jiang troupe members and the field research team, however, there is another indispensable component—each other's presence. Hot as the sun may be, these restless young hearts are even warmer.

公東的教堂：海岸山脈的一頁教育傳奇

SYNOPSIS ↘ Swiss priest Fr. Hilber devoted his life to Taitung, focusing on improving the life of aborigines. Diagnosed with cancer in his later years, he returned to Taitung and died in Taiwan. The Paiwan people buried him with the honors of a chief. Fr. Hilber was strict and meticulous yet genuine and passionate. Representing the priest of the Catholic Bethlehem Mission Society (SMB) from Switzerland, he truly believed only education improves children's future. He dug deep into the culture of the Paiwan people. He introduced a carpenter apprenticeship system to the children that is recognized internationally. They made exquisite furniture, famous around the world. These unique children were sheltered by Fr. Hilber throughout generations. The Brutalist Church of Kung-Tung is the witness of this hero's legend.

SYNOPSIS \ This is a shop that sells tangyuan (glutinous rice balls) and is a home, eternally open to four daughters, waiting for them to reunite with the family. Tian-si and Li-hua are the owners of "The Tangyuan Home." They have been making tangyuan ever since their daughters were still babies. Their greatest wish is to see their four daughters lead well-rounded and fulfilling lives just like the well-formed circles of the tangyuan in their hands. Family reunions aren't just about getting together, nor are they about sitting on vacant chairs to make the dining table less lonely, but about pulling the family together, embracing the pain, tolerating conflicts and misunderstandings, and cherishing one another.

SYNOPSIS ↘ As an openly gay musician, Neil is both gorgeous and talented. His problem is that he gets nervous on big stages, so he starts his career as a street performer. His best friend, Jessie, is a Taiwanese-American hip-hop girl. The two make a perfect team, and most people assume that they are a couple. One late night, Hai, a young fan of the two, happens to take the same bus as Neil. The lives of the two young men cross paths when the timid Hai musters the courage to pick up Neil's guitar pick and give it back to him. It isn't until later that Hai learns the significance of the guitar pick, given to Neil by his deceased brother...

SYNOPSIS \ Han was raised in a night market as the successor to a small, old milkfish stand. Li has been his best friend since childhood and an irreplicable help at the stand. Upon graduating from high school, Han took over the family business, despite having always dreamed of opening his own restaurant. One day, Han meets Chen-sen, a cookery teacher with a degree from a Swiss catering school. As they steadily learn more and more about each other and their cuisine, a romance develops, and the two eventually decide to transform Han's family food stand into a Western-meets-Taiwanese style restaurant. When the restaurant opens, Han's brother, Zhen, supports them, and Li seems to have a little something with the new, handsome waiter...

SYNOPSIS ↘ Hao is a preserved flower artist whose Instagram page of his floral studio is celebrating its milestone of hitting one hundred thousand followers. Jay, his friend who works on an online select shop company, asks him to join their Christmas event. At the pitch meeting, Hao meets Yuan-cheng, the manager of the company, who tells him nonchalantly that he is “allergic to flowers, romance, and serendipities.” Later, Hao takes him to Yilan, where they see an old couple. Hao tells him that he was raised by his grandparents, who were together for 60 years, and that he hopes to restore that kind of love to his generation. Yuan-cheng is intrigued and formally invites Hao, and his flowers, into his life and business.

Most curiously, the crime scene has many features in common with a scene from a Sherlock Holmes novel. Detective LIN quickly discovers that it is a murder case. Meanwhile, a group of young sleuths support their detective club president GAO dream to win a writing contest. The three club members, psychologist ZHONG, social worker WEN, and pharmacist ZHANG, each harbor a hidden secret. GAO could never have expected that he would become implicated as the killer in an actual murder case! As Detective LIN delves deeper into his case, a series of seemingly unrelated events all end up pointing towards the club members.

SYNOPSIS \ He is inherently timid. He lives with his gambler father since he was a child and learns to observe people's words and behaviors on the streets. He later realizes that if he could excel in acting out his misery, others would be prone to assist and sympathize. Due to the long-term lack of kindness and affection in his childhood, his character gradually distorts, leading him to transform into a person of inconsistency and introverted mentality. He does whatever he can to achieve his goal, even at the expense of others. For fame and profits, he even estranges himself from his family. Yet, in the end, despite his selfishness and hypocrisy, he still retains some conscience when faced with his own son.

SYNOPSIS \ "Your present life is the result of the past life. Your next life will be a consequence of this life." Causes and effect is an infinite loop, a contrast of yin and yang. All actions and behaviors leave traces. Even if you can avoid it in this life, you will pay the price in the next. This is an eternal, unchanging truth. What power controls the cycle of cause and effect? Life comes with original sin, love, pain, failure and fulfillment. Where do these causes and effects come from? Cause and effect is a secret code you carry from birth, in a life that comes with all kinds of shackles. Like those souls stuck in the six realms of reincarnation, repeating the same fate over and over again. Sins owed in the previous life must be repaid in this life. If not, then the road shall continue, again and again for all of eternity.

SYNOPSIS ↘ Red is a normal girl with a normal job, living a normal life in Taipei. She works hard. She saves up. She couldn't care less if her colleagues call her "Miss Devil of the Accounting Room" as long as she continues to have the life she wants. On her birthday, she invites her boyfriend, Chih-ming, and her hotpot buddies to a celebration at her new home. Chih-ming breaks up with her and throws himself at her new boss, the wild JC. Red can't keep her cool. She quits her job and signs up a new Instagram account to rant about her shameless ex. Her life takes a dramatic turn when her posts go viral...

SYNOPSIS ↘ In the 1990s, CHEN Wen-jie grew up an orphan boy in an opera troupe at the Sikunshen Longshan Temple in Anping, Tainan. He loved his hometown with its rich cultural landscape, historical monuments, ancient temples and streets, warm human kindness, and his beloved opera. With his passion, he uncovered the conspiracy behind his birth mother's death, solved the mystery of his own birth, broke the shackles of revenge, took over his biological family's deep sea fishing business, and fought hard against circumstances! In the end, he chose to let go of his grudges, reap the rewards of love and affection, and promote the declining art of opera internationally. His love for the land propelled Anping from a harbor town to a major leisure fishing town in Taiwan.

SYNOPSIS ↘ Senior entertainment journalist LIU Chih-chun learns that her colleague LIN Pei-ting, a junior journalist, has died at a sex and drug-fueled party. Consequently, the reputation of the weekly magazine she works for is seriously damaged. As LIN's supervisor, Chih-chun has to uncover the mystery that lies beneath LIN's death and use the scoop to save her career. With the notebook LIN left behind, Chih-chun retraces LIN's steps, realizing that LIN posed as a prostitute to secretly investigate the sex scandals in the entertainment business and the news is just the tip of the iceberg. Balanced between fact and lies, LIU Chih-chun is determined to reveal the truth where danger awaits.

走進我心底的那一滴滋味

SYNOPSIS \ Zheng-gang had a failed marriage at an early age. He left everything behind and moved to Japan. His unknown son, Jie, went to study in Japan. This secret was bound to be exposed when Zheng-gang confronted his remarried wife. Hai-ling grew up spoiled and married a Taiwanese guy out of defiance. However, bored with monotonous marital life, she became attracted to the flirtatious charms of her supervisor, YOKOYAMA. During that time, she discovered she was pregnant. Her mother, Yuko sat on the sidelines, knowing her daughter would face challenges. After Yuko's husband died at a young age and her children had grown up, she chose to stay with her old friend, Zhao-rong. The idea of remarrying triggered disputes in fighting over inheritance. Family issues and problems came to light.

SYNOPSIS ↘ The anthology series by the dream team behind The Assassin — In the vein of The Twilight Zone and Black Mirror (plus a little Tales of the Unusual), Twisted Strings has seven episodes about characters from all walks of life. Each character follows paths with unexpected twists and turns leading them to their own fates and destinies. With elements from familiar nursery rhymes, the audience will be introduced to a fantasy world with splendid cinematics and fascinating storytelling. Like the characters in the show, everyone in the audience will be happy to meet WU Yue-nu (played by Sylvia CHANG) who seems like a guardian angel, taking care of every one of us: for better or worse, for richer or poorer, in sickness and in health, until death do us part.

SYNOPSIS ↘ We live in a cold, uncaring city where we, more often than not, feel inexplicably uneasy. But such unease comes not from the supernatural, but from our day-to-day lives which are filled with danger, unknown, and indifference. This is a horror series, but without ghosts or monsters. It is not about the supernatural nor is it sci-fi. It is a story of the things that happen around you and me...
