At the event there will be many things to do.

There will be fun and games for kids.

Hot dogs, chips, beverages, and more will be available to eat and drink.

Mascots will be on-site for photos.

I can bring headphones, fidgets, or other comfort items to have during the event.

I can also check the weather and dress in layers in case it is hot or cold outside.

There will be other families at the event.

Some families will be like mine.

Other families will be different, and that is ok!

All families are welcome at the Pride Family Fun Day.

At the event Twin Cities Pride merchandise and yard signs will be available to purchase.
