PREFACE TO THIS VOLUME.

THIS THIRD VOLUME of THE STATUTES OF THE REALM contains the Acts from the Beginning to the End of the Reign of King Henry VIII. A. D. 1509-10. to A. D. 1545. (¹) printed from the Inrollment on the Rolls of Parliament in Chancery, when the Acts are found entered thereon: In default of such Inrollment, all Acts, which are contained in any former printed Collection of the Statutes, are here printed from the Original Bills or Acts preserved in the Parliament Office. (²) In two Instances only, where the Inrollment and the Originals are both deficient, Recourse has been had to another authentic Source, and to the earliest Printed Collections. (³) In every Instance where an Act is not printed from the Inrollment on the Roll of Parliament, as specified at the Commencement of each Year, a Note is annexed referring to the Source from which it is printed.

FROM the First Year to the End of the Twenty-eighth Year, ALL THE ACTS, whether heretofore printed or not, which appear on the Inrollments of those Years, are now printed, such Acts as were not heretofore printed being distinguished by a smaller Type, in conformity with the Plan pursued through the Seventh and subsequent Years of King Henry VII. in the Second Volume of this Work.

IN the THIRTY-FIRST Year, when the Distinction between PUBLIC and PRIVATE ACTS is first specifically stated on the Inrollment, and in all the following Years, such Acts only are printed in this Volume as are so specified to be PUBLIC ACTS, or as have been uniformly inserted in, or referred to, as such, in Sessional and other Printed Collections of Statutes. The Act now inserted as Chapter LI. of 32 Henry VIII. (⁴), enabling Kings of England to make Jointures on their Queens, is the only Exception to this Rule: that Act is printed, from the Inrollment in Chancery, as being decidedly distinct in its Character from all the other Acts of those Years not heretofore printed.

ALL ACTS here printed from the Inrollment in Chancery, have been compared with the Original Acts in the Parliament Office, whenever any such still exist: Of the Acts passed in the Two Sessions, one holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years, (⁵) and the other in the Twenty-first Year, (⁶) no Originals are preserved, nor are any Acts of those Sessions noticed, in the Calendars or Journals now existing, at the Parliament Office: Several of the Original Acts of other Sessions are also wanting there. It will be seen that Instances continually occur in which Amendments of the Inrollment are suggested from the Original Acts; and sometimes, though rarely, Errors in the Original Acts have been amended in the Inrollment. (⁷) Where any manifest Error or Deficiency appears to exist both in the Inrollment and the Original, Recourse has been had to the Printed Copies, which, not unfrequently, substitute a corrected Reading in the place of an erroneous one: when that is not the Case, an Amendment is suggested by a Note. (⁸)

¹ For the Title of the only Act passed in the 38th Year, A. D. 1546-7, see the last Article in the Chronological Table immediately following this Preface, and the Note there.

² The first Act printed wholly from the Original, not being inrolled, is 32 Hen. VIII. c. 49. pa. 809.—In 5 Hen. VIII. c. 19. pa. 120. certain Letters Patent referred to in the Act are not inrolled: and in 7 Hen. VIII. c. 11. pa. 203. the Roll is mutilated, and ends abruptly. These two latter Deficiencies are supplied from the Original Acts.

³ See 37 Hen. VIII. c. 12. pa. 999. and c. 25. pa. 1019.

⁴ See pa. 824. of this Volume.

⁵ See pa. 206 & seq.

⁶ See pa. 282 & seq.

⁷ See 25 H. VIII. pa. 465. n. 6.—26 H. VIII. c. 3. pa. 496. n. 4.—c. 19. p. 518. n. 1.

⁸ For material Amendments afforded by the Printed Copies, see 21 Hen. VIII. c. 3. pa. 284.

ALL such Acts as are printed, either from the Inrollment where no Original Act exists, or from an Original Act which is not inrolled, have been compared with the Printed Copies, and the Variations noted; except in Cases where the Printed Copies are manifestly erroneous, or the Variations are wholly unimportant.

THE TITLES of the ACTS as inrolled in Chancery, during the Period contained in this Volume, differ from those on the Original Acts; and in the Calendars in Chancery and in Parliament there are still further Differences: In the CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE following, it has been thought sufficient to notice those Titles only which appear on the Inrollment and on the Original Acts. The Title prefixed to each Chapter, in the Body of the Work, is that which is inserted in the Margin of the Roll at the Beginning of the Act, in all Cases where any such appears: Sometimes a List of the Acts is given at the Commencement of the Roll, with Titles differing from those in the Margin of the Entry of each Act; and sometimes, where a List is so given, no Titles are inserted in the Margin; In this latter case, the Titles in the List are also prefixed to each Chapter as printed. The Titles of the Acts which are printed from the Originals are those which are generally indorsed on, but sometimes written at the Head of, such Original Acts.

TABLES of the TITLES of the ACTS of each Session have been printed in the Modern Editions of the Statutes, distinguishing them into PUBLIC and PRIVATE ACTS; including in the first Description all such as have been printed in Sessional and other Collections of Statutes, and considering as Private Acts all such as have not been so printed. These Tables have, on Examination, been found inaccurate in many Instances; as well in inserting the Titles of Acts under improper Years, as in inserting Titles not justified by any existing Acts, and omitting the Titles of some Acts actually passed. The ensuing CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE refers to all the Acts of each Session, whether printed or not, which are either inrolled in Chancery or preserved among the Original Acts, or which, though not now so inrolled or preserved, yet are specifically stated in the Journal of the House of Lords to have received the Royal Assent. In this Table are inserted not only the number of the Chapters, but also the Numbers entered on the Inrollment of the several Acts in Chancery and upon the Original Acts in Parliament: In many instances the Original Acts are preserved in the Bundles, and referred to by the Calendars, of improper Years; and are referred to by this Table accordingly. The Chapters of the Acts, heretofore printed, are numbered according to the uniform Series in former printed Collections of the Statutes; the Acts, now first printed, are numbered, in the Volume and the Table, in a Succession of Chapters, after the other Acts heretofore printed; and of all such Acts, in and after 31 Henry VIII. as are not so printed, the Titles are inserted in the Table in a like Succession.

TWO ENGRAVINGS, one of the Commencement of the Roll in Chancery of 31 Henry VIII., and the other of the first Act entered on that Roll, are inserted at Pages 717 and 718 of this Volume.

³ Printed Copies here insert the word "notwithstanding", but this word is omitted on the Roll and in the Original Act. This circumstance appears to have arisen in consequence of a Bill having been prepared in each House of Parliament. Both the Bills are preserved in the Parliament Office; on that sent by the Commons to the Lords, which received the Royal Assent, after the word "notwithstanding" it seems that a Blank was left for the Continuance of the Act; and that when this was filled up, the Word "notwithstanding" was by mistake erased, and "this Acte to endure to the next Parliament" written partly on such Erasure. In the other Bill, the Word "notwithstanding" remains; and then follows, "this Acte to endure to the next Parlyament." which latter Words are run through with a Pen, and the Words "for evy" added. On that Bill is endorsed, "Le Roi se advysera" in all other respects both Copies are exactly alike.
